"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.

PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of two women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors 23 sports – 11 for men and 12 for women. Initially started as a NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members in football. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Success Rate report. In addition, the Patriot League finished as one of the nation's leaders in the NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid. The APR is used to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes.

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening round victories coming in several NCAA Championships, including wins in men's basketball during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, a championship game appearance in both football and men's lacrosse, and a sixth-place individual finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society. During the 2006-07 year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following:

- Fourteen Patriot League student-athletes were named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans including American's Heidi Hersberger (field hockey), Army's Nick Hill (baseball), Lindsey Gerheim (softball) and Patrick Beverly (golf), Bucknell's Shannon Curd (women's soccer), David Frisbey (football) and Melanie Buczko (women's cross country/track and field), Lafayette's James Conrad (baseball) and Navy's Lizzie Barnes (women's soccer), Kari Weniger (women's soccer), Chris Renninger (golf), Kelly Zahalka (women's swimming and diving), Michael Niemi (men's cross country/track and field) and Kirsten Andrews (women's cross country/track and field).

- A total of 54 Patriot League student-athletes earned ESPN The Magazine All-District Academic All-American honors.
- American field hockey spent the entire season ranked in the top-20 in the NFHCA national poll.
- Three Patriot League field hockey student-athletes were named NFHCA All-Americans including American's Camila Infante and Denise Infante on the Second-Team and American's Irene Schickhardt on the Third-Team.
- Colgate's Mike Gallihugh led the Football Championship Subdivision in tackles and was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award.
- Lehigh was the first team in Patriot League history to receive a first-round bye in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament and the second to advance to the third round.
- The Patriot League had two teams win a game in the NCAA Men's Soccer Tournament for the first time in its history (Bucknell and Lehigh), with 2006 being the second year it sent multiple teams to the postseason.
- Lehigh women's soccer student-athlete Daniela Molina was selected to play for the Colombian National Team at the World Cup.
- Navy women's soccer owned the longest winning streak among

NCAA Division I schools, posting 19-straight victories, and captured its first NCAA Tournament victory.

- Navy goalkeeper Lizzie Barnes posted the seventh-longest shutout streak in NCAA women's soccer history.
- American volleyball twin freshmen Ann and Clair Recht were featured on national morning shows for setting the record of being the tallest female twins in the Guinness Book of World Records.
- The Patriot League had two post-season participants in the sport of women's basketball for the first time since 2002 with Holy Cross playing in the NCAA Tournament and Bucknell in the WNIT.
- Holy Cross' Keith Simmons was named All-America Honorable Mention by the Associated Press in the sport of men's basketball.
- Navy's Paul Harris earned All-America status after finishing sixth in the 800 meters at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championship.
- Four different men's lacrosse teams spent time in the national polls, including Army, Bucknell, Colgate and Navy. Navy ended the year ranked a Patriot League-best eighth in the nation.
- Three Patriot League student-athletes were chosen in the Major League Lacrosse Draft including Navy's Billy Looney (first round, fifth pick), Colgate's Colin Hulme (second round, 16th pick) and Navy's Ian Dingman (third round, 30th pick). Looney became the highest drafted Patriot League student-athlete into MLL.
- Four Patriot League student-athletes were named USILA All-Americans including Navy's Billy Looney on the First-Team and Navy's Jordan DiNola and Colgate's Colin Hulme and Brandon Corp as Honorable Mentions.
- Bucknell's Nick Sciubba ended the year ranked first in the nation in goals against average and save percentage in the sport of men's lacrosse.
- Seventeen Patriot League rowers were named CRCA National Scholar-Athletes.
- Bucknell's Katherine Brewster-Duffy and Navy's Lindsey Spiese were named CRCA All-Americans.
- Five Patriot League student-athletes were selected in the MLB draft including Army's Nick Hill and Milan Dinga, Bucknell's Jason Buursma and Navy's Mitch Harris and Jonathan Johnston.
- Lehigh's Kate Marvel ranked first in the nation in triples per game in the sport of softball, while Lehigh as a team ranked first in the same category.
- Navy's Kevin Teague became the first male diver in Patriot League history to win four consecutive 1-meter and 3-meter Patriot League Championship titles and to be named Patriot League Diver of the Meet four times.

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE WOMEN'S LACROSSE NOTEBOOK

TWO NEW COACHES, ONE NEW TEAM

The Patriot League welcomes two new head coaches and one new team this year. Caline McHenry will take over at Bucknell, while Cindy Timchal will be starting her inaugural year as head coach at Navy. Timchal has previously coached at Northwestern and Maryland, winning multiple national championships with the Terps. The League is also proud to welcome Navy into the women's lacrosse community this season, as the Mids make the move to the Division I level following a provisional year last season.

2008 PATRIOT LEAGUE PRESEASON POLL

	Points (First-Place Votes)
1. American	64 (6)
2. Holy Cross	62 (6)
3. Colgate	45 (2)
4. Lehigh	40
5. Bucknell	30
Navy	30
7. Lafayette	23

Preseason Offensive Player of the Year: Inneke Carmola, Lehigh
Preseason Defensive Player of the Year: Caitlin Bell, American

American was chosen to win the Patriot League Championship in a vote by the seven Patriot League head coaches and sports information directors in the 2008 Women's Lacrosse Preseason Poll.

The Eagles received six first-place votes and 64 points overall. The Eagles, under second-year Head Coach Katie Woods, will look to improve upon their record of 9-9 overall, and 3-2 in the League a season ago. Woods has the luxury of welcoming back the 2007 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year, Jackie Lane, as well as the 2007 Patriot League Defensive Player of the Year, Caitlin Bell. The Eagles also return Second-Team All-Patriot League goalkeeper Kristine Vida.

Coming in second in the poll was two-time defending Patriot League champion Holy Cross, who received six first-place votes and 62 points overall. The Crusaders finished the 2007 season with an unblemished record in League play, and a 13-6 mark overall. Head Coach Stephanie Ridolfi has several key components returning from a season ago, including Kristine Corkum, who finished fifth in the League in points per game in '07. Freshman Megan Fenton, a First-Team All-Patriot League selection a year ago, will also look to improve upon her first season of collegiate competition.

With two first-place votes and 45 points overall, Colgate comes in at the third position in the poll. The Raiders, who won back-to-back titles in 2004 and 2005, will be looking to improve on a fourth-place finish from a season ago. Second-year Head Coach Heather Bliss will look to a quartet of 2007 Second-Team All-Patriot League selections, led by seniors Lindsay Pittard and Jess Van der Meulen, to lead this year's squad.

Lehigh is the fourth team in the 2008 preseason poll, garnering a total of 45 points. The Mountain Hawks will once again be led by 2007 Patriot League Coach of the Year Liz Ota, who led the team to a second-place finish in 2007. Ota will rely heavily on 2007 Patriot League Rookie of the Year and 2008 Patriot League Preseason Offensive Player of the Year Inneke Carmola to lead the offensive attack. As a freshman, Carmola tallied 46 goals, which was second in the League.

Bucknell (30 points), Navy (30) and Lafayette (23) round out the poll.

PATRIOT LEAGUE BY-THE-NUMBERS

0 Number of seasons that Navy has participated in women's lacrosse. 2008 will mark their inaugural season.

6 Number of consecutive years the Patriot League has sent a team to the NCAA Tournament

7 Number of years that the Patriot League Tournament has been played

10 Number of Patriot League titles Lafayette has won

13 Number of Patriot League student-athletes named All-American

16 Patriot League record for consecutive wins, set by Lafayette in 1991

230 Patriot League record for goals in a season, set by Holy Cross in 2006

1974 The first year that Colgate sponsored women's lacrosse

1996 The year that Lehigh was crowned ECAC Champion after defeating Harvard, 11-10, in the title game.

TIEBREAKING PROCEDURES

In the case of ties in the Patriot League final regular-season standings, the following process will be used until all ties are broken and the seeding process is completed (ties will be broken in rank order beginning with the highest seed):

Head-to-Head Competition The higher seed will go to the team that has won the most Patriot League contests played against the other team(s) involved in the tie.

If a Tie Still Exists, a comparison of records will be made between the tied institutions starting at the highest possible seed and continuing through the lowest seed if necessary.

Sport-Specific Tiebreaking Procedure

A Comparison of Records against common out-of-League opponents will be made.

If a Tie Still Exists, a committee consisting of the athletic directors of each of the institutions not involved in the tie will make a final decision considering each of the following, in no particular order:

- Strength of Schedule
- Overall Record
- Computer Rankings

The committee will meet immediately following the conclusion of the final game of the season's final weekend. A three-fourths vote of the members of the committee will be needed to determine the champion.

Coin Flip (two teams) or draw (multiple teams).

MAKING HISTORY

Holy Cross won its second-consecutive Patriot League Women's Lacrosse Championship in 2007. The Crusaders were a perfect 5-0 in regular-season play and went on to defeat Colgate and American to clinch the 2007 title. The team traveled to Evanston, Ill. to take on the 2006 NCAA Champion Northwestern Wildcats, falling 19-7 to the eventual 2007 champions.

ACADEMIC ACCOLADES

Lehigh's Christy Smith was selected as the 2007 Patriot League Women's Lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year in a vote by the women's lacrosse Sports Information Directors. Smith, an industrial engineering major from Downingtown, Pa., became the fourth Lehigh Mountain Hawk to win the prestigious award. A two-time Patriot League Academic Honor Roll member in the sport of women's lacrosse, Smith boasted a 3.88 grade point average.

TWO STEP...TIMES TWO

American juniors Jackie Lane and Caitlin Bell were named Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year, respectively. Joining the American tandem on the major awards list was the Lehigh tandem of Liz Ota and Inneke Carmola, who earned Coach of the Year and Rookie of the Year, respectively.

THE ONE AND ONLY

Holy Cross' Megan Orr was selected for the third-straight year as the Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year. Orr is still the only women's lacrosse student-athlete to be named Goalkeeper of the Year. The award was first handed out following the 2005 season.
