PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of two women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 23 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. In addition, the Patriot League finished first in the new NCAA Academic Progress Report (APR) among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid (combining with all eight of its full-time member institutions for an average of 984 out of 1,000). The APR is used to measure academic eligibility, retention and graduation of student-athletes.

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening round victories coming in several NCAA Championships, including consecutive wins in men's basketball, a final four appearance in men's lacrosse and a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

The Patriot League welcomes two new head coaches this year. Heather Bliss will take over at Colgate, while Katie Woods will be starting her inaugural year as a head coach at American. No Holy Cross did not hire a new coach, newly married Stephanie Ridolfi, formerly Pavlick, enters her fifth season with the Crusaders.

Coming in second, Colgate grabbed two first-place votes and a total of 38 points. The Raiders fell to Holy Cross in the title game last season, 9-6, dashing their hopes of a third-consecutive Patriot League Championship. First-year Head Coach Heather Bliss will have five starters and 15 letterwinners returning to the field. Among those coming back are tri-captains Tara Casey, a three-time Second-Team All-Patriot League selection, Kate Metevia, twice named Second-Team All-Patriot League and Nancy Hickling, who started in all 19 games last season.

With one first-place vote and 31 points, Bucknell came in third. This year, the Bison will be in search of their first-ever Patriot League women's lacrosse championship. MAKING HISTORY

Holy Cross won its first-ever Patriot League Women's Lacrosse Championship. The Crusaders were a perfect 6-0 in regular-season play and went on to defeat Bucknell and Colgate to clinch the 2006 title. The team defeated Le Moyne, 14-8, in the NCAA Play-In game and then traveled to Durham, N.C. to play Duke in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, where the Crusaders fell to the Blue Devils, 18-2.

TITLE GAME REWIND

Holy Cross snapped Colgate's 22-game Patriot League winning streak in regular-season play before its 2006 championship game rematch with the Raiders. In the title game, Holy Cross netted seven-straight goals in the second half to comeback from a 5-1 deficit and win 9-6.

ACADEMIC ACCOLADES

American's Moriah Linnell was selected as the 2006 Patriot League Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year in a vote by the Patriot League's Sports Information Directors. Linnell, a business administration major from Antrim, N.H., joined former American teammate Tara Michael as the only two Eagles to be named Patriot League Women's Lacrosse Scholar-Athlete of the Year. A four-time Patriot League Academic Honor Roll member, Linnell boasted a 3.76 grade point average.

NATIONAL LEADER

Lafayette sophomore Madalyn Booth, a First-Team All-Patriot League selection, finished the season as the NCAA Division I women's lacrosse leader in assists per game with 2.94 during the 2006 season. Her performance was the second-best single-season mark in NCAA history.

A FIRST

Holy Cross' Patricia Sutton was awarded the Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year. She was the first Crusader to be selected for the honor.

TWICE AS NICE

Holy Cross' Megan Orr was selected for the second-straight year as the Patriot League Goalkeeper of the Year. Orr is the only women's lacrosse student-athlete to be awarded this as "Goalkeeper of the Year" recognition began in 2005.

FAREWELL 'NOVA

The 2006 season was the last for Villanova in the Patriot League.
