

American Eagles

Outlook

- √ The Eagles emerged from the No. 3 seed in the 2002 PL Tournament to top Navy in overtime and Colgate, both by 2-1 scores, and capture the League title and automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament. It was AU's first crown in two PL seasons. It was also the second-straight season that the No. 3 team in the PL Tournament captured the League title.
- √ AU's 10-9-2 overall record was the team's best since posting a 13-6-1 mark in 1996. In two PL seasons, the Eagles have recorded identical 4-2-1 records.
- √ American returns just one of four players named to the 2002 All-Patriot League team for the 2003 season. Soph. midfielder Simone Konig earned second-team All-League recognition last year after leading the League with 13 assists and ranking third on the Eagles with 21 points.
- √ Konig scored the first goal in AU's semifinal upset of previously undefeated Navy, then contributed an assist on the game-tying goal and scored the championship-clinching tally, within a 10-minute span in the second half, of AU's triumph over Colgate.
- √ Sr. midfielder Annabel Jimenez, who was second on the team in goals (10) and points (25) last season, returns to the AU lineup. Jimenez, the 2002 PL Tournament MVP, was tied for sixth in the PL in goals and ninth in points.

Army Black Knights

Outlook

- ✓ Head coach Gene Ventriglia reached the 200-win plateau on Sept. 8, 2002, with a 2-0 victory over Air Force in the Military Academies Classic. Ventriglia enters his 18th season at West Point with a .641 career winning percentage.
- ✓ After recording a League-best nine shutouts during the 2001 campaign, Army's defense again led the League with 10 blankings in 2002. That included a mid-season stretch of six-straight goose-eggs for the opponents.
- ✓ In her first season with the Black Knights, Morgan Bennett emerged as one of the top keepers in the country with a 0.49 goals against average and an .873 save percentage.
- ✓ Newcomers Delaney Brown and Leigh Kosco exploded onto the PL scene by earning first-team All-League honors. The forwards shared team-high scoring honors with eight goals each. Brown, who was named the PL Rookie of the Year, added five assists to finish with a team-best 21 points.

Outlook

- √ Bucknell will look to return to the post-season tournament in 2003. Coach Chrissy Findlay's Bison advanced to the PL Tournament two of the last three seasons and won the League championship in 2001 after finishing third during the regular season.
- √ Sr. defender Abbey Seaboyer returns to serve her second term as team captain. Seaboyer anchors a defense that posted a school record for shutouts in a season (5) in 2002.
- √ BU returns seven of its top 10 scorers from a year ago, including 2001 PL Rookie of the Year Ashley Dincher, who contributed two goals and an assist last year, including the game-winning goal against Delaware State. She enters her junior season with 10 career points on four goals and two assists.
- √ Jr. midfielder Meghann Chipko shared the team lead in goals last year, finding the back of the net four times. Chipko scored twice against Delaware State and added a goal in BU's late-season League victory over Holy Cross

Colgate Raiders

Outlook

- √ Colgate returned to the Patriot League Tournament Championship match in 2002, falling to third-seeded American by a 2-1 count. Head coach Kathy Brawn has guided the Raiders to the title match 11 times in the 12-year history of the Tournament. In addition to winning the initial League crown in 1990 (prior to instituting a post-season tournament), CU has won six regular-season titles, finished second three other times and captured eight post-season championships in the last 12 years.
- √ Two-time Patriot League Coach of the Year Brawn boasts a 143-74-18 record in 12 years in Hamilton, which ranks second among PL coaches in victories and first in career winning percentage (.647). The Raiders have made nine post-season appearances under Brawn, compiling a 9-5 record in ECAC and NCAA Tournament play.
- √ CU returns Sr. All-league midfielder Kate Barrett and Soph. all-star forward Kelly Kuss to the lineup for 2003.
- √ Barrett was selected by the PL coaches as a first-team all-star for the second time in her career after leading the Raiders with 11 goals, eight assists and 30 points in 2002.
- √ Kuss gained second-team All-League recognition last year after finishing second on the team with eight goals and 19 points.

Holy Cross Crusaders

Outlook

- ✓ Veteran head coach Mary Curtis was the 1998 PL Coach of the Year and has guided the Crusaders to a League playoff berth three times in the past five seasons. Curtis' 2000 Crusaders upended host Colgate for the League title and an NCAA playoff berth, HC's only PL championship.
- ✓ Holy Cross has played 11 overtime matches in the past two seasons.
- ✓ The Crusaders finished the 2002 campaign with a 5-9-2 overall record, but recorded three wins in League play to finish fifth in the regular-season standings.
- ✓ Sr. forward Erica Backstrom led the Crusaders' attack with six goals and 14 points last year. Backstrom registered game-winning goals against Quinnipiac and Siena.
- ✓ Jr. midfielder Kaitlin Hansen delivered just one goal in 2002, but it was in overtime against PL rival Colgate.
- ✓ Sr. keeper Christine Arsenault recorded a .760 save percentage and two shutouts during the 2002 season.

Players In Boldface Return For 2003 Season

Lehigh Mountain Hawks

Outlook

- ✓ Lehigh's offense sputtered under first-year coach Manny Oudin, scoring just seven goals, but the defensive effort kept opponents to two goals or less in 14 out of 18 matches.
- ✓ The Mountain Hawks will be looking for their first PL post-season tournament bid since 1994. LU's best efforts were a pair of 8-8-1 marks in 1992 and 2000.
- ✓ Oudin is re-tooling the LU lineup, bringing in 12 freshmen for the 2003 campaign.
- ✓ Six different players contributed to the LU scoring in 2002, including Jr. midfielder Jocelyn Helwig, who's only goal of the season was the game-winner in a 2-1 decision over arch-rival Lafayette.
- ✓ Lehigh's lone representative on the 2002 All-League squad was Jr. keeper Erin Iwaskiewicz, who earned first-team recognition from the PL coaches after posting a .754 save percentage. Iwaskiewicz played all but 15 minutes in LU's 18 matches last year.
- ✓ Adrienne Grunwald and Hedy Kishel each contributed one goal last year.

Navy Midshipmen

Outlook

- ✓ Head coach Carin Gabarra averaged more than 11 wins per season in her first decade in Annapolis. She guided the Mids to their first-ever undefeated regular-season in 2002, which was the team's eighth-straight season with at least 10 victories. She enters her 12th collegiate coaching season with a .611 career winning percentage.
- ✓ Gabarra, who was honored at halftime of the 2001 WUSA Founders Cup championship match for her outstanding playing career, participated in FIFA's announcement of the draw for the 2003 Women's World Cup.
- ✓ The firepower on offense will start with Sr. Stacy Finley, the two-time Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year. She led the League with 19 goals, including seven game-winning goals, and 45 points in 2002. Finley enters her final season with 39 career goals, 13 assists and 91 points. She is tied for ninth on the League's career goals list.
- ✓ Jr. keeper Kim Bonafede, in her first season as the Navy starter, was among the NCAA leaders with 15 wins, 11 shutouts, a 0.36 goals against average and a .929 save percentage.
- ✓ Returning to the Navy lineup with Finley and Bonafede from the 2002 PL All-League squad are first-team Jr. defender Xochitl Piedra and second-team Sr. forward Amelia Sheveland.
