Patriot League Announces Softball Academic Honor Roll

Fifty-one student-athletes earn honor roll recognition.

Center Valley, Pa. – Fifty-one student-athletes were named to the 2008 Patriot League Softball Academic Honor Roll, announced Executive Director Carolyn Schlie Femovich Wednesday. Bucknell's Lauren Trosch and Lehigh's Kate Marvel distinguished themselves as student-athletes on this year's list to earn 4.0 spring grade-point averages.

Another honoree on this year's academic honor roll is Bucknell's Erin Curatola who was the 2008 Patriot League Softball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The graduated Curtola recorded a 3.55 GPA during the spring as a mathematics major.

To be eligible for the Academic Honor Roll, a student-athlete must earn a 3.20 grade-point average in the spring semester and be awarded a varsity letter in one of the Patriot League's 16 winter or spring championship sports. The criteria for awarding varsity letters are different at each institution.

"Today's Scholar-Athletes, Tomorrow's Leaders" – The Patriot League continually demonstrates that student-athletes can excel at both academics and athletics without sacrificing its high standards. The Patriot League's athletic success is achieved while its member institutions remain committed to its founding principle of admitting and graduating student-athletes that are academically representative of their class. Participation in athletics at Patriot League institutions is viewed as an important component of a well-rounded education.
