PATRIOT LEAGUE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

CAROLYN SCHLIE FEMOVICH

Appointed the fourth Executive Director of the Patriot League in July 1999, Carolyn Schlie Femovich's selection by the Patriot League Council of Presidents continued its adherence to equity and innovation in its approach to intercollegiate athletics.

One of two women to hold the top post of a combined men and women's conference at the NCAA Division I level, Femovich brought with her 17 years of experience in NCAA Division I athletics.

During her first year as Executive Director of the Patriot League, membership was enhanced with the announcement that American University would become a full League member in the fall of 2001, and that Georgetown University would join the Patriot League in football beginning with the 2001 season.

Femovich focused her energies on setting a strategic direction for the future of the Patriot League during the 2001-02 academic year. In recent years, primary efforts have aimed at increasing League visibility and competitiveness, as well as the quality of services to the membership.

Femovich recently finished a four-year term as the Patriot League's representative on the NCAA Management Council and is currently serving as chair of the NCAA Championship and Competition Cabinet and NCAA Women's Basketball Issues Committee. She was also the chairperson of the prestigious Collegiate Women's Sports Awards Program and continues to serve on the Board.

Prior to her appointment as Executive Director, Femovich served in a leadership role in the administration of a highly-successful Ivy League athletic program at the University of Pennsylvania.

During her tenure as Senior Associate Athletics Director (1986-99) and Associate Athletics Director (1982-85), her responsibilities included administration of intercollegiate sports and recreation programs, strategic planning and facilities development, human resource management and event planning.

In her first position at Penn, Femovich oversaw 15 intercollegiate programs, coaching staffs and athletics facilities. She also served as Penn's Interim Director of Athletics in 1985. Femovich represented the University in a variety of external capacities with the Ivy League and NCAA, and on a number of sports committees and boards.

Femovich's career in intercollegiate athletics began in 1974 at Indiana University as a graduate teaching assistant. In 1975, she moved to Gettysburg College as head coach of the women's basketball and tennis programs as well as assistant professor of health and physical education and the Coordinator of Women's Athletics.

Included in the impressive list of regional and national committees Femovich has served on are the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee, the NCAA Basketball Marketing Sub-Committee and the NCAA Division I Business/Finance Cabinet and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

She played a primary role in bringing the 2000 NCAA Women's Basketball Final Four to Philadelphia and is a member of the executive board of the Philadelphia Sports Congress. She also held the office of President of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) in 1996, which now includes more than 300 member institutions.

A graduate of Valparaiso University, Femovich received a masters of science degree from Indiana University. She and her husband, Robert, reside in Hellertown, Pa.

PATRIOT LEAGUE ACADEMIC AND ATHLETIC SUCCESSES

In its second decade of combining academic and athletic excellence, the Patriot League sponsors championships in 23 men and women's sports. Initially started as an NCAA Division I-AA football conference in 1986, the Patriot League became an all-sport conference in 1990 and includes American, Army, Bucknell, Colgate, Holy Cross, Lafayette, Lehigh and Navy as full members, and Fordham and Georgetown as associate members. These institutions are among the oldest and most prestigious in the nation and their alumni have, and continue to play leadership roles in shaping our country.

Since 1998, the Patriot League has ranked first each year among all Division I conferences awarding athletic aid in the NCAA Graduation Rate Report. The League finished at the top spot with 97 percent of its teams reporting a graduation rate of 90 percent or higher in the most recent data. In addition, 79 Patriot League teams earned NCAA Academic Performance Program Public Recognition Awards after posting academic progress rate scores in the top 10 percent of all squads in their respective sports.

Patriot League student-athletes and teams continue to enjoy success at the national level, with opening-round victories coming in several NCAA Championship including Bucknell's victory over national No. 4 seed Florida State in baseball and Navy's triumph against national No. 4 seed North Carolina in men's lacrosse during the 2007-08 campaign. Patriot League teams previously recorded consecutive first-round wins in men's basketball, a final four appearance in men's lacrosse and a sixth-place finish at the NCAA Cross Country Championship to highlight the League's NCAA success.

The Patriot League's mission is simple, to provide successful competitive athletic experiences while maintaining high academic standards, and to prepare its student-athletes to be leaders in society.

During the 2007-08 academic year, Patriot League student-athletes and teams have accomplished the following:

*14 Patriot League student-athletes were named ESPN The Magazine Academic All-Americans, including first-team honors for Bucknell's Jason Buursma (Baseball), Army's Daniel Newell (Men's Soccer) and Navy's Kari Weniger (Women's Soccer), Chris Renninger (Golf) and Kelly Zahalka (Women's Swimming)

SEVEN STRAIGHT

American won its seventh-straight Patriot League Tournament title in 2007 with wins over Navy in the semifinal and Colgate in the final. The Eagles have won the championship title each year since joining the League in 2001.

NCAA APPEARANCE

In 2007, American became the first Patriot League team to force a NCAA match to a fifth game. The Eagles eventually fell to Duke, 3-2, in their seventh-straight NCAA Tournament appearance.

DOUGHERTY'S ACADEMIC ACCLAIM

Navy's Rachel Dougherty was named an Academic All-American on the second team after being named the 2007 Patriot League Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

AN HONORABLE MENTION

American's Rubena Sukaj was tabbed an All-America Honorable Mention for the second-straight year. She is the Patriot League's first two-time All-American in the sport of volleyball.

CHART CLIMBERS

American's Rubena Sukaj moved up the Patriot League's career kills and aces chart during the 2007 season. She ended the year ranked second in career kills (1,603) and fourth in career aces (238).

Colgate's Jackie Adlam moved to second all-time in League history with 1,597 career digs. Army's Jamie Clark will head into her senior campaign ranked second in career hitting percentage (.356).

SENIOR SEND ON

Two Patriot League seniors closed out their careers by leaving their mark on the League's record book. Lafayette's Michaela Donohue moved into first on the League's all-time digs list with 1,610. American's Chelsa Brooks finished her four years ranked eighth in both career hitting percentage (.312) and career blocks (427).

SINGLE-SEASON TOP-10

Both American's Rubena Sukaj and Colgate's Jackie Adlam posted single-season marks that landed them in the Patriot League's all-time top-10.

Sukaj's 637 kills ranked first all-time, while her 77 aces were a tie for sixth.

Adlam's 495 digs were sixth on the single-season chart. Adlam holds both the second (571) and fourth (531) place spots on that list as well.
