WAVEPOINTS

- The Pepperdine men's basketball team concludes its weekend in Northern California with a Saturday night contest at San Francisco.
- Saturday's game will be shown on TheW.tv with a USF-produced broadcast. There will also be an audio-only WaveCasts with Al Epstein at PepperdineWaves.com.
- A WCC scheduling quirk has the Waves finishing their season series with USF before playing either LMU or Portland once.
- After two previous seasons of dealing with major injury hits, things aren't going well again in 2017-18. Nine of the 13 scholarship players have missed at least one game due to injury or illness. The Waves have been without two potential starters 11 times in 19 games. There has been a total of 48 player-games lost.
- On the positive side, Kameron Edwards (concussion) returned Thursday after not playing for more than a month. However, Nolan Taylor (shoulder) and Jadé Smith (concussion) have both missed multiple games.
- Colbey Ross is currently the top freshman in the WCC in both scoring (15.4, seventh overall) and assists (5.2, fourth overall). He leads the WCC in three-point shooting percentage. He's the only Wave to start all 19 games.
- Since recovering from injury in early December, Eric Cooper Jr. has scored in double-figures eight times in 10 games and is averaging 14.6 points.
- Cooper and Ross are both coming off 25-point performances at Pacific. In league games only, Ross is #4 in the WCC in scoring (18.3) and Cooper is #6 (15.9).
- Amadi Udenyi is now ranked #5 on the Waves' all-time assist list with 380. He needs 15 more to get to fourth place and match Doug Christie.
- Newcomers to the lineup this season have scored 69.0% of the points.
- KenPom rates the Waves in the bottom 25 teams in the country in terms of both experience and continuity.
- Pepperdine is home twice next weekend (LMU and Santa Clara) and the Waves play four of the next five and five of the next seven at home.

GAME #20 — Saturday (January 20) at War Memorial at the Sobrato Center in San Francisco, California: Pepperdine (3-16, 0-7) at San Francisco (10-10, 2-5) at 7 p.m.

WAVECASTS — Fans can listen to the game via WaveCasts at PepperdineWaves.com. Veteran play-by-play man Al Epstein, a 2015 Pepperdine Athletics Hall of Fame inductee, will be behind the microphone (now in his 33rd season, this will be his 991st consecutive broadcast for the Waves).

WATCH — The game can be seen on TheW.tv. It will be produced by USF with Pat Olson and Jim Brovelli as broadcasters.

TICKETS — Single-game tickets for most Pepperdine home games are $25 for reserved seating and $15 for general admission. Select premium games are $30 and $20, respectively. Tickets are available via PepperdineWaves.com or by calling (310) 506-4935.

Learn more about our exceptional student-athletes on the Competing With Purpose blog at www.PepperdineWaves.com/purpose.

LAST GAME — The Waves had a dream start (8-for-8 shooting and up 21-8 a little more than five minutes in) and got 25 points apiece from Eric Cooper Jr. and Colbey Ross but Pacific still managed a 92-78 win in Stockton on Thursday. Pacific went ahead at 31-30 and was up 47-37 at the break. It was a four-point game with 4 1/2 minutes to go before the Tigers pulled away for good. Pepperdine shot 46.6% to Pacific's 60.0%.

INJURIES — After two consecutive seasons of dire injury woes, the Waves had their fingers crossed for a better 2017-18 season. But, it's been bad news once again as several key players have been sidelined at one time or another, including six players that have started games this season. Seven of the Waves' 13 scholarship players have missed multiple games due to injury, and nine have missed at least one game because of injury or illness. The Waves have been without two likely starters 11 times. So far, the Waves have lost 48 player-games to injury.

Current injuries ... Nolan Taylor suffered a shoulder injury vs. Gonzaga (1/4) and has missed the last four games. Jadé Smith suffered a concussion vs. San Francisco (1/6) last Saturday and didn't play in the last three games.

Previous games missed ... Kameron Edwards suffered a concussion vs. UC Riverside (12/5) and missed nine games before returning at Pacific (1/18). Amadi Udenyi sat out two early-season games with a concussion and missed the first two WCC games with an ankle injury. Matthew Atewe (back) started at center the first seven games but then missed four games before returning vs. Weber State (12/19). Eric Cooper Jr. (shoulder) finally made his debut vs. Long Beach State (12/9) after missing the first nine games of the season. An injury redshirt last season, Kaijae Yee-Stephens (knee) missed the first 13 games before making his first appearance at San Diego (12/30). Knox Hellums and Elijah Lee were both ill for the USF game (1/6).

The Waves put together a winning season in 2015-16 despite losing three shooting guards to season-ending injuries. But last season, the Waves were down three starters and four players in all by the end of the year, by far the largest reason for last year's slide. There were a total of 99 player-games lost due to injury or illness in 2016-17.

SEASON OF CHANGE — Newcomers to the lineup have scored 69.0% of the points this season. According to KenPom, the Waves have one of the 25 least-experienced teams in the country and rank among the bottom 20 teams in continuity (minutes played last year vs. minutes played this year). Among the nine players who saw action at Pacific on Thursday were two true freshmen, four transfers in their first playing season, three injury redshirts from last season and zero regulars from last year's rotation. Injuries haven't allowed for any consistency, and the Waves have tried 10 different starting lineups.

EDWARDS — Kameron Edwards, who earned WCC All-Freshman honors two seasons ago (7.2 ppg, 4.2 rpg), saw no action in 2016-17 after suffering a fractured jaw during a preseason scrimmage.

There's been more bad luck this season, as Edwards was forced to sit out nine games due to a concussion suffered on December 5 vs. UC Riverside. At the time of the injury, he was averaging 15.9 points and 6.8 rebounds (ranking sixth and eighth in the WCC at the time). Edwards finally returned on January 18 at Pacific but is coming off a month with little physical activity. He's currently averaging 14.9 points and 6.4 rebounds on the season.

Edwards had the first four 20-point games of his career during non-conference play, all in a five-game span. That included a career-high 27 points vs. UC Santa Barbara (11/20), a 20-point, nine-rebound effort at Texas A&M (11/24) and 25 points and a career-high 16 rebounds vs. Southern Utah (11/29). He's only the second Wave in the last 13 seasons to post at least 25 points and 15 rebounds in a game.

UDENYI — If not for injuries, fifth-year senior point guard Amadi Udenyi would have given Jeremy Major a run at who would become the Waves' all-time leader in assists first. Unfortunately, Udenyi has been robbed of parts of four of his five seasons. Still, he's now ranked fifth all-time in assists at Pepperdine with 380. He knocked head coach Marty Wilson out of the top 10 earlier this season.

Udenyi missed 10 games as a freshman due to a knee injury. He then tore his left Achilles tendon in the 26th game of his sophomore season. He played his entire junior year and averaged 4.9 points and 4.5 assists while ranking second in the WCC and 20th nationally in assist/turnover ratio (3.0).

The Waves started last season 4-1 with a healthy Udenyi, but struggled the rest of the way after he went down with a torn right Achilles tendon in game seven. Rather than call it a career, Udenyi decided to make another comeback, apply for a medical redshirt and use his fifth year of eligibility.

He ranks 11th in the WCC in assists this season at 3.3 per game.

FRESHMEN — Pepperdine has welcomed one of its best freshman classes in years and the three first-year players are all performing key roles.

Colbey Ross, the only Wave to start all 19 games, leads all WCC freshmen in both scoring (15.4) and assists (5.2). Overall, he's seventh in the conference in scoring and fourth in assists. He's first in the WCC in three-point percentage (48.0%), fifth in free throw percentage (86.4%) and 12th in overall field goal percentage (50.3%).

If Ross keeps it up, his numbers will compare favorably to any freshman in school history. The top three scoring averages by freshmen are 15.1, 14.2 and 14.1 and the top three assist marks are 4.5, 4.2 and 3.7.

In WCC games only, Ross is averaging 18.3 points, fourth-best in the conference. He's shooting 53.9% in league play and 71.4% (10-for-14) from beyond the arc (best in the league).

Ross has had a team-high six 20-point games, including 25 vs. UC Santa Barbara (11/20) and at Pacific (1/18), 23 vs. San Francisco (1/6) and 20 at Santa Clara (12/28). He had a season-high nine assists vs. Southern Utah (11/29). He made the Legends Classic Malibu Subregional all-tournament team after averaging 23.0 points in the two games.

Trae Berhow is averaging 8.7 points overall and he's the team's second-leading rebounder (5.6), which ranks 12th in the WCC. He's made a team-high 27 three-pointers.

Jadé Smith, who has missed the last three games with a concussion, is contributing 4.6 points, 2.9 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 0.9 steals.

COOPER — The Waves finally got Eric Cooper Jr. available on December 9 after the junior guard missed the first nine games of the season with a shoulder injury. The Nevada transfer is averaging 14.6 points overall, including a career-high 25 at Pacific (1/18) and 19 against both Gonzaga (1/4) and Saint Mary's (1/13). Cooper is averaging 15.9 points in league play, #6 in the conference.

TAYLOR — The graduation of last year's leading players left sophomore forward Nolan Taylor as the team's top returner in scoring (7.1) and rebounding (3.7). He's a standout on and off the floor, as he serves as a co-vice president of Pepperdine Athletics' Waves Leadership Council (the Waves' version of SAAC). He's averaging 8.9 points and 4.0 rebounds, though he's missed the last four games with a shoulder injury.

ATEWE — This is the third time in five years that the Waves are featuring a graduate transfer from the Pac-12 in the post, with Matthew Atewe, a Toronto native who has played at both Auburn and Washington, following in the footsteps of Brendan Lane (UCLA) and Chris Reyes (Utah).

Atewe averaged 2.2 points and 2.3 rebounds with the Huskies last season. He's at 5.9 and 5.5, respectively, this season. He's averaging 6.6 rebounds in league play, good for #5 in the conference.

His previous career high was six points but his new best is 15 against both Northern Colorado (11/17) and BYU (1/11). He also notched his first career double-double with 10 boards against UNC. He also had 10 rebounds at Pacific (1/18).

HEMPY — Kevin Hempy had a remarkable 2016-17, going from making the team via a walk-on tryout to starting the final three games of the season. Though he graduated in the spring, he decided to return for his final year of eligibility despite facing the rigors of being a first-year law student at Pepperdine. There are only a couple of other known instances of a Division I men's basketball student-athlete who has attended law school at the same time.

NON-CONFERENCE NOTES — Pepperdine played in four games as part of the Progressive Legends Classic (visiting Oklahoma State and then-#16 Texas A&M) and hosting a subregional where the Waves played UC Santa Barbara and Oral Roberts ... The Waves overcame a 15-point second-half deficit to beat Oral Roberts ... Pepperdine's 107 points against Cal Lutheran was the first time breaking the century mark since January 2008.

ROSTER NUMBERS — The breakdown is two graduate students, one redshirt senior, three juniors, five sophomores, one redshirt freshman and five true freshmen. The scholarship breakdown is one graduate student, one redshirt senior, three juniors, four sophomores, one redshirt freshman and three true freshmen.

Returning players accounted for 23.3% of last year's points, 25.3% of the rebounds, 36.2% of the assists, 11.9% of the blocks, 40.8% of the steals and 32.6% of the minutes

RETURNERS — Eight returning players appeared in a game previously for the Waves, through three of them were injured last season and received redshirts. Three players began the season having made 20 or more career starts.

WCC — The Waves were picked seventh in the annual preseason coaches' poll. The order went Saint Mary's, Gonzaga, BYU, San Francisco, Santa Clara, San Diego, Pepperdine, Pacific, Portland and Loyola Marymount.

RECRUIT — The Waves will have a pair of Edwards on the roster the next two seasons. Kameron Edwards' younger brother, Kessler Edwards, committed during the November NLI signing period. The 6-foot-7 forward from Etiwanda High School was named to the Burlison on Basketball Southern California All-Junior second team (listing him as one of the top 10 juniors in the region) and to the Daily Bulletin's All-Area first team after averaging 17 points and nine rebounds last season. He also plays for Prodigy Elite.

2016-17 SEASON — The Waves expected to have another good season (they were picked fourth in the preseason coaches' poll) but one injury after another took its toll and the Waves slid to 9-22 overall and eighth place in the WCC. Lamond Murray Jr. led the conference in scoring (21.4), the eighth-highest mark in program history, and made the All-WCC first team. Jeremy Major graduated as the program's all-time leader in assists and games started.

ACADEMICS — Marty Wilson takes his team's academics very seriously, and the results have been very good. Since Wilson's return to the program in 2008-09, players have earned 12 spots on the NABC Honors Court, 12 WCC All-Academic nods and 32 WCC Commissioner's Honor Roll appearances. Malte Kramer was Pepperdine's co-Valedictorian and became the program's first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2014.

PEPPERDINE BASKETBALL — This is the 80th season of Pepperdine men's basketball, and the 45th season that the Waves have called Firestone Fieldhouse home. The Waves began the campaign with an all-time record of 1,212-1,058 (.534). Pepperdine has been to the NCAA Tournament 13 times (last in 2002) and has won 12 West Coast Conference regular-season titles (last in 2002) and three WCC Tournament crowns (last in 1994).

WAVES IN THE PROS — Pepperdine once had a streak of 34 consecutive seasons with at least one Pepperdine alum on an NBA roster, which began in 1976-77 after the ABA/NBA merger and ended in 2010-11. Seventeen former Pepperdine players have seen action in the NBA, a list that includes notables such as Dennis Johnson (a 2010 Naismith Hall of Fame inductee, the 1979 NBA Finals MVP and a three-time NBA champion) and Doug Christie (a 15-year NBA veteran who was a mainstay on the All-Defensive Team). Mychel Thompson is the most recent Wave to play in the NBA, appearing in five games for the Cleveland Cavaliers in 2011-12. Two Waves — Yakhouba Diawara (2012/France) and Marcos Leite (1972, 1980, 1984/Brazil) — have competed at the Olympics.

Several alums are currently playing overseas, including recent graduates Stacy Davis (France), Lamond Murray Jr. (Greece), Jeremy Major (Cyprus), Chris Reyes (Austria), Brendan Lane (Japan) and Nikolas Skouen (Norway).

NCAA WEST REGIONAL — Pepperdine University is once again the host institution for the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball West Regional Championship in 2018. The Waves partnered with AEG/Staples Center and the Los Angeles Sports & Entertainment Commission to bring NCAA postseason basketball to the City of Angels for the first time since 1994 with previous hosting stints in 2013 and 2015. And, with the 2020 West Regional also awarded to L.A., that'll be four regionals in eight seasons put on by Pepperdine.

MARTY WILSON

This is Marty Wilson's seventh year as head coach at Pepperdine and his 21st season in Malibu in any capacity. He has compiled an impressive record here beginning as a student-athlete (1985-89), continuing as an assistant coach (1991-96, which included a brief stint as the interim head coach) and then returning as the associate head coach for three seasons (2009-11) under Tom Asbury. He was elevated to the position of head coach following Asbury's retirement after the 2010-11 season. He signed a five-year contract extension that will take him through the 2020-21 season. Wilson was also an assistant at San Diego, UC Santa Barbara and Utah in between stints at Pepperdine and he is now in his 28th season as a Division I coach. He ended his playing career #5 all-time in assists at Pepperdine with 342 (he's now #11). The team went to the NCAA Tournament twice and the NIT twice in Wilson's four seasons on the court. As a Pepperdine assistant, the team took part in the NCAA Tournament three times and the NIT once. The Waves have played in the CBI twice while he's been head coach. Wilson's son Jalon, a junior at Pepperdine, is one of the team's student managers. Wilson entered the 2017-18 season with an 82-103 record as Pepperdine's full-time head coach (85-113 including his time as the interim coach).

WILSONISMS

Some of these may be borrowed from other programs, but Marty Wilson has several expressions and acronyms he often uses that help define his coaching philosophy. Both Feet In: Players are expected to fully buy in to the program. When Wilson is speaking to the team at center court, everyone must have both feet in the jump circle ... OKGs: Wilson looks to recruit "our kind of guys," student-athletes who will represent Pepperdine well and succeed academically and athletically ... Show Me, Don't Tell Me: Actions speak louder than words ... GID: There isn't always a perfect way to accomplish something, so players just have to "get it done" ... DAT: The Waves use the words "discipline, accountability and trust" as part of a triangle and expect their student-athletes to embrace these ideals.

ASSISTANTS

Associate head coach Mark Amaral, who is in his seventh season with the Waves, joined the staff when Marty Wilson was named head coach. Amaral and Wilson were assistants together at UC Santa Barbara for four seasons. John Impelman, who was initially a graduate manager before coming back as the director of operations, was promoted to assistant coach before the 2013-14 season. Impelman is the great-grandson of UCLA coaching legend John Wooden, and his father Craig is a former Pepperdine assistant coach. Brandon Veltri is in his first season as the director of operations.

PEPPERDINE

Pepperdine boasts a one-of-a-kind athletic department with unprecedented success for a school of its size. The Waves have won NCAA Division I championships in five different men's sports — one of just 18 schools to have accomplished this feat — and nine overall. Of this elite group, Pepperdine has the smallest undergraduate enrollment, is the only school without football and is the only university that has not been affiliated with a "major" conference. The Waves have won a total of 25 team or individual national championships in their history. Pepperdine has also earned the Division I-AAA All-Sports Trophy, an award based on postseason success that's given to the top non-football school, three times (most recently in 2011-12). Located in scenic Malibu, California, the university overlooks the Pacific Ocean and its campus and athletic facilities are regularly voted among the nation's most beautiful. Pepperdine, which is affiliated with the Church of Christ, ranks #46 overall on U.S. News and World Report's list of America's best colleges.
