THE NO. 3 WAVES - Pepperdine currently ranks 3rd in the AVCA Coaches Poll and has posted a record of 24-3 throughout the season. The Waves went 9-1 at home, 6-2 on the road and hold an untarnished 11-0 record on neutral soil. In dual matches as pairs, the team posted a .778 winning percentage with a 105-30 overall record. The team also tabbed a 219-83 record by sets to amass a .725 sets winning percentage. Delaney Knudsen and Madalyn Roh have posted an 18-9 record from the No. 1 position and Corinne Quiggle and Brittany Howard lead the team in the No. 2 position with a 24-3 overall record this season. The No. 3 and No. 4 pairs, Skylar Caputo and Heidi Dyer and Deahna Kraft and Anika Wilson, have each posted 22-5 from their respective positions. There have been many No. 5 pairs this season, with the most recent duo being Nikki Lyons and Sarah Seiber who have gone 4-0 since joining each other to play.

OPPONENT NOTES - Pepperdine has faced five of the other seven universities selected to the field throughout the regular season, collecting a 7-3 record against. Along with two wins against LBSU, the Waves downed UCLA 3-2 in the opening match of the season at Zuma Beach. The team also bested Florida State and Hawai'i twice, while also collecting one loss to each of the teams as well as USC. No. 1-ranked and seeded USC has posted a 34-1 record, No. 2-ranked and seeded UCLA has gone 29-4, No. 4-ranked and seeded Florida State has posted a 27-7 record, No. 5-ranked and seeded Hawai'i has put up a 26-5 record, No. 6-ranked and seeded Long Beach State has produced a 26-8 record, No. 7-ranked and seeded LSU has tabbed a 26-6 record and No. 10-ranked and No. 8-seeded South Carolina has amassed a 23-9 record this season.

WEST COAST CONFERENCE ACCOLADES - The Waves tabbed seven players to All-WCC squads and Head Coach Nina Matthies was named Coach of the Year for the second-consecutive season. Four Waves were named to All-WCC first team, including Brittany Howard, Delaney Knudsen, Corinne Quiggle and Madalyn Roh, while two earned second team honors including Skylar Caputo and Heidi Dyer. Anika Wilson earned a spot on the WCC All-Freshman team as well.

BACK-TO-BACK WCC CHAMPS - The Waves earned back-to-back West Coast Conference Championship titles with the team's second win on April 22 in Santa Monica, Calif. Pepperdine also won the 2016 WCC Championship crown in similar fashion with three-straight wins. In 2017, the Waves opened the tournament with a 5-0 sweep over Pacific. The team then defeated PCH Cup rivals Loyola Marymount with 4-1 decisions en route to the title. Last season, the Waves beat LMU once and Saint Mary's twice for the championship.

PRESEASON HONORS & POLLS - The Waves ranked 4th in the AVCA preseason poll and were picked as the favorite to finish as the West Coast Conference Champions again by the WCC coaches. Pepperdine was also charted in the No. 4 spot on DiG Magazine. Five Waves, senior Delaney Knudsen, junior Corinne Quiggle and sophomores Heidi Dyer, Skylar Caputo and Madalyn Roh earned Preseason All-WCC accolades.

BEACH VOLLEYBALL HISTORY - The Pepperdine women's sand volleyball program has been at the forefront of the sport since it was introduced in 2012. The Waves went a perfect 14-0 in dual match play and won the inaugural AVCA Collegiate Sand Volleyball National Team Championship in Gulf Shores, Ala. Pepperdine's Caitlin Racich -- the program's first-ever scholarship recipient -- and partner Summer Ross took home the pairs national crown as well. In 2013, the Waves marched back to the national title match but fell 3-2 while playing shorthanded. The Waves returned with a vengeance in 2014, going 18-1 in route to the national championship title. The Waves boast a nation-best 14 AVCA All-Americans: Lara Dykstra (2013, 14), Lilla Frederick (2012, 13), Kim Hill (2012, 13), Kelley Larsen (2014, 15), Racich (2012, 13), Ross (2012), Becca Strehlow (2014) and Kellie Woolever (2014, 15). Hill stands as the first, and to date only, student-athlete to earn AVCA All-American first team honors in both indoor and sand volleyball in a single season. Last season, the Waves worked a position in the field of eight for the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championships in Gulf Shores, Ala., finishing 5th overall. The Waves enter the 2017 season with an 85-13 record.

NCAA STATUS - This season marks the second season which beach volleyball will be an NCAA-sanctioned sport, with the NCAA Championships to be held again in Gulf Shores, Ala. from May 5-7. Last season in the inaugural NCAA Beach Volleyball Championships in Gulf Shores after an eight-team field of competition, USC took the first-ever championship title. Previously, collegiate sand volleyball, completed the fourth and final year as an "emerging sport" in the 2015 season. It was given 10 years to gain the minimum 40 sponsoring institutions for two years in a row to be considered an NCAA Championship sport. With requirements met in record time, sand volleyball was voted into NCAA Championship Sport status in 2015. The NCAA will host only a team championship, and not a pairs championship.

MATTHIES - Nina Matthies' retired from coaching the indoor game following the 2013 season and finishes her 31-season run with a career record of 590-343 (.632). In the span, Matthies led the Waves to 10 conference championships and 20 NCAA Tournament appearances. She is by far the WCC's all-time winningest coach and is a 10-time WCC Coach of the Year. Matthies was among the world's top players and is a member of the Beach Volleyball Hall of Fame and in 2015 was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame and earned the USA Volleyball's All-Time Great Female Beach Player award. In 2009, Dig Magazine rated her and former partner Linda Hanley as the second-best women's beach team of all time. She won two AIAW national championships as a player at UCLA. In 2013, she was honored by her peers as the inaugural winner of the AVCA Sand Volleyball Coach of the Year award. She enters the 2017 beach season, her sixth at the helm, with a 85-13 record. She will be assisted this season once again by Marcio Sicoli, along with second-year volunteer coach Gustavo Rocha.

SICOLI - Marcio Sicoli is in his sixth season assisting Nina Matthies in the sand, after spending six season with her as assistant indoor volleyball coach. Sicoli is highly lauded for his approach to training and served as head coach for Misty May-Treanor and Kerri Walsh Jennings during their gold-medal run at the 2012 London Olympics as well as the Walsh Jennings and April Ross bronze medal run at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro, Brazil Olympica. Sicoli also served as the assistant coach for the Brazilian Olympic Women's Beach Volleyball Team from 2000 to 2004. In 2004, his team of Adriana Behar and Shelda Bede took home the silver medal in Athens. He currently serves as coach to 2016 Olympic hopefuls Walsh Jennings and April Ross.

ZUMA BEACH - The Waves call Zuma Beach "home," practicing and hosting all home events at one of Malibu's most picturesque locations. Courts are located just west of Point Dume, between Towers 2 & 3 or at the 29800 block of the Pacific Coast Highway.

ABOUT PEPPERDINE - Pepperdine boasts a one-of-a-kind athletic department with unprecedented success for a school of its size. The Waves have won NCAA Division I Championships in five different men's sports — one of just 17 schools to have accomplished this feat — and nine overall. Of this elite group, Pepperdine has the smallest undergraduate enrollment, is the only school without football and is the only university that has not been affiliated with a "major" conference. The Waves have won a total of 25 team or individual national championships in their history. Pepperdine has also earned the Division I-AAA All-Sports Trophy, an award based on postseason success that's given to the top non-football school, three times (most recently in 2011-12). Located in scenic Malibu, Calif., the university overlooks the Pacific Ocean and its campus and athletic facilities are regularly voted among the nation's most beautiful. Pepperdine, which is affiliated with the Church of Christ, ranks No. 50 overall on U.S. News and World Report's list of America's best colleges.
