

FEE-FOR-LESSON COMPENSATION

NCAA Bylaw 12.4.2.1 Fee-for-Lesson Instruction

A student-athlete may receive compensation for teaching or coaching sport skills or techniques in his or her sport on a fee-for-lesson basis, provided:

- (a) Institutional facilities are not used;
- (b) Playing lessons shall not be permitted;
- (c) The institution obtains and keeps on file documentation of the recipient of the lesson(s) and the fee for the lesson(s) provided during any time of the year;
- (d) The compensation is paid by the lesson recipient (or the recipient's family) and not another individual or entity.
- (e) Instruction to each individual is comparable to the instruction that would be provided during a private lesson when the instruction involves more than one individual at a time.
- (f) The student-athlete does not use his or her name, picture or appearance to promote or advertise the availability of fee-for-lesson sessions.

Person responsible for payment to student-athlete: _____

Flat fee or rate of hourly pay to the student-athlete: _____

By signing below, I acknowledge that the payee is being paid for work actually performed and being paid the going rate that is commensurate with that of similar work in the same locality. I also acknowledge that I have been advised of the NCAA rules governing preferential treatment and offers and inducements. I understand that failure to abide by those rules could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility.
