P.J. HISER became the first Panther to be named First-Team All-America, earning the honor from Collegiate Baseball in 2004.

BRAD REA, Pittsburgh's all-time leader in home runs (46) and RBIs (198), was named an All-American by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) following the 2002 season.

NICK EVANGELISTA was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 2004 Major League Draft. Evangelista joined P.J. Hiser and T.J. Gornati drafted in 2004, marking the most Panthers selected in one season.

Editor's Note: Complete Baseball records are only available since 1968. This list was compiled from various sources. Although all cautions were taken to avoid errors, we realize that names were likely omitted due to the immensity of the task. If you have any additions or find errors, please contact the Pittsburgh Media Relations Office.
