Pitt surpassed season-highs for free throws made (27) and free throw attempts (27). Pitt, which improved to 20-0 in games in which it led at halftime, led by as many as 16 points late in the second half.

Pitt concluded its regular season with a 25-6 overall record and 12-4 Big East record. Over the last six years, Pitt has proven to be the winningest Big East Conference basketball program. From 2001-07, Pitt owns the league's top records for league play (71-24) and overall games (159-38). It has averaged 11.8 league wins and 26.5 overall wins per year during that period, the best totals in the Big East. Pitt is the only Big East Conference school to win 20 or more overall games and 10 or more league contests in each of the last six seasons. This year, Pitt also set a school record with its sixth consecutive 20-overall win and 10-league win season. Prior to the 2001-02 season, Pitt won 20 or more games in only two consecutive seasons. It marks Pitt's 14th all-time 20-win season.

Additionally, Pitt Head Coach Jamie Dixon (102 career wins) is the first coach in school history to win 20 or more games in four consecutive seasons. Dixon is one of only nine coaches in NCAA Division I history to win 100 or more games in the first four years of a coaching career. Dixon needs six more wins to break the NCAA record for most victories over the first four seasons of a coaching career. Everett Case holds the record with 107 wins in his first four years as the head coach at North Carolina State (1947-50).

PITT REACHES 26 WINS FOR FOURTH TIME IN SCHOOL HISTORY

With its victory over Marquette, Pitt won its 26th game for the fourth time in school history. Pitt is attempting to set its school record for victories in a season. The record is 31 wins in 2003-04, Dixon's first season at Pitt. Pitt also won 29 games in 2001-02 and 28 games in 2002-03.

GRAY EARNS NABC ALL-AMERICA THIRD TEAM HONORS

Aaron Gray became the 10th player in school history to earn All-America honors when he was named to the National Association of Basketball Coaches All-America Third Team. Fifteen players nationally were honored with the award.

He is the fifth player in school history to earn All-America honors from the NABC including Don Hennon, Billy Knight, Jerome Lane and Charles Smith.

Gray earned NABC All-District 3 honors earlier in the year.

YOUNG ON SCORING STREAK

Sophomore forward Sam Young has reached double figure scoring in five of his last six games including a 17-point performance against Marquette. During that six-game streak, Young has scored 62 points (10.3 ppg.), all coming off the bench.

GRAY'S PLAY ELEVATES IN BIG EAST CHAMPIONSHIP

Aaron Gray has set a precedent for outstanding consistent play in the Big East Championship. Over his last five games in BEC play, Gray has averaged 14.8 ppg. (74 points) and 11.4 rebounds (57 rebounds). He has netted four double-doubles in those five games. Last year, Gray set the Big East Championship record with 47 rebounds over a full tournament.

Gray needs just 15 rebounds to set Pitt's all-time Big East Championship career record for most rebounds. The record is 71 rebounds set by Jaron Brown from 2000-04 followed by 70 from Isaac Hawkins (1997-01) and 63 from Ricardo Greer (1998-01). Gray currently stands in fourth place with 57 career rebounds.

SENIOR TRIO ADVANCES ON ALL-TIME BIG EAST CHAMPIONSHIP WIN LIST

Seniors Aaron Gray, Antonio Graves and Levon Kendall moved into eighth place on Pitt's all-time Big East Championship win list with their sixth victory. The trio still trails several other players including Jaron Brown (10), Julius Page (10), Toree Morris (10), Carl Krauser (8), Brandin Knight (8), Donatas Zavackas (8), Chevon Troutman (7) and Mark McCarroll (7).

Next week, the trio will set the school record with their fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Only three others players at Pitt appeared in four NCAA Tournaments: Chevon Troutman, Carl Krauser and Mark McCarroll.

GRAY EARNS AEROPOSTALE MEN'S BASKETBALL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE AWARD

Aaron Gray was named the 2006-07 Big East/Aéropostale Men's Basketball Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Gray receives a $2,000 scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.

A Communication & Rhetoric major, Gray is on pace to graduate from the University of Pittsburgh in August. He has also been involved in numerous community service activities on campus and around Pittsburgh. The 2006-07 preseason Big East Player of the Year, Gray is a finalist for the Wooden Award, Naismith Award and Lowe's Senior CLASS Award. Last week he was named to the NABC All-District 3 team.

An Emmaus, Pa., native, Gray was named to the All-Big East First Team for the second consecutive season. He joined the company of Charles Smith (1986-87 and 1987-88) and Brian Shorter (1988-89, 1989-90) as Pitt's three players who earned All-Big East First Team honors in two different seasons. A unanimous selection by league coaches, Gray is one of only two Big East players to average double figures in both scoring (14.4 ppg.) and rebounding (10.1 rpg.). Gray, who has 14 double-doubles on the year, is shooting 59.1 percent (179-303) from the floor and leads the team in blocked shots with 51. For his career, Gray has totaled 1,041 points (9.7 ppg.), 752 rebounds (7.0 rpg.) and 119 blocked shots.

No. 3 seeded Pittsburgh (25-6, 12-4 Big East) opens Big East Championship competition on Thursday when it plays the winner of the Marquette-St. John's game at 9 p.m. The contest will be nationally televised on ESPN.

The BIG EAST/Aéropostale Scholar-Athlete Awards were established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field.
