This Week For The Panthers

Pitt looks to build on its momentum from the previous weekend when it went 2-0 with an upset at then No. 6 Lehigh (11/12/11) and a 25-13 win over Drexel the following day. The Panthers will host No. 6 Michigan in their home opener on Saturday at Fitzgerald Field House. A win for Pitt, currently ranked 11th in the NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll, could mean an appearance in the top 10 of the national polls.

Moving Up In The Polls

The Panthers made the biggest jump of any team in the national rankings this week, moving up six spots from No. 17 to No. 11 in the NWCA/USA Today Coaches Poll. Pitt is the only team from the Eastern Wrestling League in the top-25. Edinboro is listed as an "honorable mention".

The Big Ten is the dominant conference in the polls early on with the top two teams (Iowa and Penn State) and another four (Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois and Ohio State) in the top 10.

Nauman Selected For NWCA All-Star Classic

Redshirt senior Tyler Nauman has been selected to compete in the NWCA All-Star Classic Presented by the Marines. The event features some of the best wrestlers in the country as all 20 participants are ranked in the top six of their weight class. The Classic will be held at Arizona State University on Monday, Nov. 21, 2011, at 7:30 p.m. It can be viewed live on www.livesportsvideo.com.

Nauman, ranked fifth at 149 pounds, will take on No. 3 Jamal Parks (Oklahoma State). The two met in the 2010 NCAA Tournament, where Nauman won 5-3 to clinch All-American honors.

Nauman is just the third Pitt wrestler to compete in the All-Star Classic. Two-time national champion Pat Santoro defeated Sean O'Day (Edinboro) 16-10 in 1988. Keith Gavin, also a national champion for the Panthers, topped Matt Stolpinski (Navy) 8-4 in 2008.

Win Streak On The Line

The Panthers are on a roll heading into their match with the Wolverines. They have won seven consecutive dual meets dating back to last season.

Winning On Their Feet

One thing is clear so far this season, when the Panthers win individual matches, they do it from the neutral position. Pitt won 13 of the 20 individual bouts in its victories over Lehigh and Drexel. In those 13 wins, the Panthers have posted a 36-7 advantage in takedowns, totaling a 72-14 edge in points scored from neutral.

Shelton Mack and Anthony Zanetta have been dominant on their feet in their two dual wins apiece. Mack has yet to be taken down in dual competition, outscoring his opponents 22-0 from neutral. Zanetta has been nearly as flawless, outscoring his opponents 16-2 on his feet.

Galloway Wins Title At East Stroudsburg

Erik Galloway won the title at the East Stroudsburg Open on Saturday, Nov. 12, posting a 4-0 record in the 133-pound bracket. The sophomore from State College, Pa. was impressive in his first competition of the season, recording a technical fall over Anthony Abidin (Nassau) in the finals. He also had a pin in the opening round and a 13-0 major decision in the semifinals.

Freshman Ronnie Garbinsky also had a good showing at East Stroudsburg, recording a runner-up finish with a 3-1 record. The Panther newcomer registered three straight wins, including a 12-8 win over Bryan Pearsall (Penn State) in the semifinals, before falling to Luke Frey (Penn State) in the championship match. Garbinsky improved to 7-3 on the season and placed in his second consecutive tournament. He finished seventh at the Buffalo Open on Sunday, Nov. 6.

Nauman Moves Up Pitt Wins List

Tyler Nauman is 10th on Pitt's all-time wins list with a career record of 116-25. The redshirt senior entered the season in 13th with 110, but with six wins this year he has passed Mike Zisko (111), Chad Jesko (111) and J.J. Fasnacht (114). With a win against Michigan, he would tie Scott Hovan (117) for ninth all-time.

Nauman also moved into a tie for third in all-time pins, matching Justin Nestor's total of 35 with a fall in his first match of the season. He is five pins away from tying Ryan Tomei for second. Redshirt senior Ethan Headlee is ninth on the list with 26.

Three Pitt Wrestlers Win Titles At Buffalo Open

Three Pitt wrestlers opened the season by winning titles at the Buffalo Open. Anthony Zanetta, Tyler Nauman and Zac Thomusseit all placed first, while another five Panthers finished as runner-up.

Zanetta rolled to the title at 125 pounds, outscoring his four opponents 56-14. The junior opened the tournament with a pair of 23-6 technical falls before advancing to the finals with a 4-2 win over Caleb Richardson. He wrapped up a perfect 4-0 day with a 6-2 win over third-seeded Korey Mines (Edinboro) in the championship match.

Nauman, ranked third in the nation at 149, won his bracket with a 10-3 win over second-seeded Kyle Rosser (Lehigh). The senior's only close match of the day came in the semifinals where he edged Edinboro's David Habat 6-5. Prior to that, he had pinned Korey Gillen (Lock Haven) in the first period and posted a 12-3 major decision over Josh Micek (Buffalo).

Thomusseit wrestled unattached and went 3-0 to win his first competition at heavyweight. A returning national qualifier at 197, Thomusseit proved he can have success moving up a weight as he was in control the entire tournament. After easy 8-1 and 7-0 wins in his first two matches, he topped Ernest James, a returning starter for Edinboro, 3-2 in the finals.

Pitt had wrestlers in seven of the 10 championship matches. Shelton Mack (133), Donnie Tasser (157), P.J. Tasser (174), Andy Vaughan (184) and Matt Wilps (197) all came up one match short with second-place showings.

In all, Pitt had 12 wrestlers place in the tournament. Rounding out the Panther place-winners were freshman Travis Shaffer (4th at 141), freshman Nick Bonaccorsi (5th at 174), senior Zach Grove (7th at 133), freshman Ronnie Garbinsky (7th at 141) and senior Victor Konno (7th at 157).

Four-time National Qualifiers

In the nearly 100-year history of Pitt wrestling, only 12 wrestlers have qualified for nationals in all four of the seasons with the Panthers. Included in that list is head coach Rande Stottlemeyer (1974-78) and assistant coach Matt Kocher (2003-08). That number may increase to 14 at the end of this season as both Tyler Nauman and Ethan Headlee entered the season as three-time national qualifiers.

Double Trouble

This season, the Panthers roster features three sets of brothers, including Donnie and P.J. Tasser, Max and Zac Thomusseit, and Matt and Tyler Wilps.

Tough Schedule

Pitt's non-conference schedule includes four teams ranked in the top 11 in the country in the preseason, including No. 2 Penn State, No. 6 Lehigh, No. 8 Michigan and No. 11 Ohio State. The Panthers' schedule also includes a conference matchup with No. 24 Edinboro.

Welcome to the Hall of Fame

Pitt Head Coach Rande Stottlemeyer was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame on April 18, 2010. Stottlemeyer received a Lifetime Service to Wrestling Award. A week later, Stottlemeyer was inducted into the Pennsylvania Wrestling Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Ringin' in the Championship

The 2010-11 wrestling team and staff were honored at Heinz Field during the Pitt football game against Utah on Oct. 15 for winning the EWL regular season and tournament titles. Each member received a championship ring. The team now has captured three EWL titles (2 regular season, 1 tournament) in the past two seasons.

RANDE STOTTMLEYER

Head Coach
University of Pittsburgh, 1992

Record at Pitt: 283-222 (32nd season)
Career Record: 283-222 (32nd season)

Thirty-one years at the helm of one of the most history-rich wrestling programs in the East is no small accomplishment. Pitt's head wrestling coach, Rande Stottlemeyer, has done it the old-fashioned way: through dedication and commitment to one's principles and beliefs and a good day of hard work.

Stottlemeyer was able to see rewards of that hard work the past two seasons as Pitt captured back-to-back Eastern Wrestling League regular-season titles and its first-ever EWL Tournament title (2011). In each of the past two seasons, the Panthers have posted perfect 6-0 records against conference opponents.

In 2011, Stottlemeyer was inducted into the National Wrestling Hall of Fame by the Pennsylvania Chapter as he earned the Lifetime Service to Wrestling Award. In addition, he was also inducted into the Pennsylvania Wrestling Coaches Association Hall of Fame.

Pitt's all-time winningest coach with 281 victories in 32 seasons, Stottlemeyer still enjoys what he does and gets just as much of a thrill in seeing his team succeed as he did in taking the job back in 1979. His excitement and enthusiasm for a sport he has been a part of for over 30 years is contagious as he talks about his coaching duties with the Panthers.

"Coaching at the University of Pittsburgh has given me an opportunity to work with great young men and outstanding assistants," Stottlemeyer said. "It has also given me an opportunity to help student-athletes build character and acquire tools they will need in the future."

During his tenure, Stottlemeyer and his staff have produced a two-time national champion in Pat Santoro, one-time national champion in Keith Gavin, 20 NCAA All-Americans, 143 national qualifiers and 42 Eastern Wrestling League Champions. In 20 of the last 27 years of his career, they have coached at least one NCAA All-American. Pitt has finished in the nation's top-25 in seven of the last 14 seasons.

Stottlemeyer's strong ties and success in the sport of wrestling date back to his high school career at Hickory High School in nearby Hermitage, Pa., where he was a PIAA state runner-up and two-time Junior National Freestyle wrestling champion.

Following a stellar scholastic career at Hickory, Stottlemeyer enrolled at the University of Pittsburgh, where he became a three-time NCAA All-American, achieving that level of distinction only one year before becoming a full-time assistant coach to then Panther wrestling coach Dave Adams.
