FRIARS LOSE HALL TO INJURY... Junior center Ray Hall (Denver, Colo.) has suffered an injury that will prevent him from continuing his collegiate athletic career. Hall plans to remain with the team and will continue to pursue his bachelor's degree at Providence College. Hall played in 41 games over two seasons as a Friar, averaging 2.0 points and 1.7 rebounds per game.

PROVIDENCE ALL-TIME... In 82 seasons of basketball, the Friars have posted a 1,271-835 mark (.604). The team's all-time record at the Dunkin' Donuts Center is 449-182 (.712). In 2008-09, Providence has registered a 12-4 mark at the Dunkin' Donuts Center.

MCDERMOTT REGISTERED 150 AND 250 FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR... Senior Geoff McDermott had another record setting season in 2008 as he recorded 250 rebounds and 151 assists for the second straight season. He is the only person in the history of Friar basketball to accomplish this feat and he has done it twice.

JOHN EGAN'S NUMBER RETIRED... Providence College honored one of its greatest backcourt players of all-time on Saturday, February 21 at halftime of the game versus Notre Dame at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. The College honored John Egan '61 by unveiling a banner in the rafters of the Dunkin' Donuts Center with his name and his number 34. Egan became the fifth player, and seventh member of the Friar basketball family, to be honored as part of the Friar Legends Forever Tradition. Egan played the point guard and shooting guard positions during his four years at Providence. As a senior, he averaged 18.8 points per game and earned Second Team All-America honors. Also during his senior season, Egan helped lead the Friars to their first NIT title. A native of Weaver, Conn., he earned NIT All-Tournament Team honors in 1959 and 1961. In his three seasons of varsity basketball (freshmen were not eligible to participate), he averaged 17.9 points per game (1,434 points), while shooting 42.7 percent from the field. Egan recorded an impressive 20.9 ppg as a sophomore. Egan was selected 12th in the 1961 NBA Draft by the Detroit Pistons. He played 11 seasons in the NBA and averaged 7.8 ppg.

RENOVATIONS COMPLETE ON THE DUNKIN' DONUTS CENTER... In September, work was completed on the $80 million renovation project to the Dunkin' Donuts Center. The three-year project turned the building into one of the most state-of-the-art arenas in college basketball. The entire arena was renovated, including the lobby, the lockerrooms, the box office, the concession stands, and the restaurant. New additions to the facility include a new video scoreboard and 20 luxury suites.

2008-09 PROVIDENCE COLLEGE BASKETBALL - Keno Davis

On April 15, 2008, the Keno Davis era began at Providence College. The 36-year-old Davis became the 14th head coach of the College's storied men's basketball program.

"It is an honor to now be a part of Providence College basketball and it is a dream come true for me to be in the BIG EAST," Davis said after being introduced as the new head coach at the College. "I want to make Providence and the entire state of Rhode Island excited about college basketball. I think it's at a tipping point where we can do something special here!"

Davis came to PC after spending the 2007-08 season as the head coach at Drake University. Davis, a 1995 graduate of the University of Iowa, was named the 2008 National Coach of the Year by six organizations, including the Associated Press, the U.S. Basketball Writers Association and The Sporting News.

In making the appointment, Providence College President Reverend Brian Shanley, O.P. said, "We are very excited to have Keno Davis leading our men's basketball program. We were looking for someone who could inspire and I believe he will. Keno talked to us about developing the right kind of character in his players and as a priest and a teacher, the thing I care about most with respect to athletics is not winning, but it's building character. I believe that we have a coach who will build the character of our student-athletes. And, oh yes, he will win!"

In his first season as a head coach, Davis led the Drake Bulldogs to a 28-5 mark, which included a 15-3 record in the Missouri Valley Conference. His team captured its first MVC regular season title since 1971 and its first ever MVC Tournament title. Drake became the first MVC school to win both the regular season and league tournament titles since 2002. For his efforts, he was named the Missouri Valley Conference Coach of the Year. The Bulldogs also made their first trip to the NCAA Tournament since 1971. Drake was defeated in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament by Western Kentucky, 101-99, in overtime.

During the 2008 season, Drake was nationally ranked for a school-record eight consecutive weeks. The Bulldogs finished ranked 14th in the Associated Press Poll and 23rd in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. Davis had all this success in his first season after inheriting a team that was 17-15 in 2007 and lost four starters to graduation. His 2008 squad was picked to finish ninth in the MVC.

"I believe Keno Davis has the knowledge, passion, commitment and ability to bring Providence College basketball to another level," Providence College Athletics Director Bob Driscoll said. "Throughout his career he has demonstrated that he is an excellent leader and teacher. From the first moment I met Keno, I was impressed with his competitive nature and his desire to return Friar basketball to national prominence. His hiring is one of the many steps we have taken to improve the Friar men's basketball program."

Prior to being selected as the head coach at Drake, Davis served as an assistant under his father, Dr. Tom Davis, at Drake from 2003-07. He began his coaching career in 1995 as an assistant under Bruce Pearl at Southern Indiana. He left Southern Indiana in 1997 and took an assistant position under Gary Garner at Southeast Missouri State. He was at Southeast Missouri State for six seasons.

Although he never lived in Rhode Island prior to becoming the Friars' head coach, Davis was no stranger to New England. In fact, he spent much of his childhood just one hour from the Ocean State as he lived on Commonwealth Avenue in Newton, Massachusetts adjacent to the Boston College campus. Davis' father, Tom, served as the head coach of the Eagles from 1977-82. While living in Massachusetts, Keno Davis grew to love New England and appreciate college basketball. He also saw the early days of the BIG EAST and has watched closely as the league has become a basketball powerhouse.

Keno Davis was exposed to basketball at a very young age as he watched his father as a head coach. Dr. Tom Davis is one of the winningest coaches all-time in the NCAA. In 32 seasons as a head coach at Lafayette (1971-77), Boston College (1977-82), Stanford (1982-86), Iowa (1986-99) and Drake (2003-07), he registered a 598-355 mark (.628), which included 18 post-season appearances and 16 20-win seasons. He also was named the 1987 Associated Press National Coach of the Year. When Keno earned the same honor in 2007, it marked the first time ever that a father and son duo had captured the national coach of the year honor.

Keno Davis has written two books on basketball, "Pressure Defense" which was published in 1994 and "Camp Success" published in 2004.

Davis and wife, Krista, have one son, Brady, who was born on November 12, 2007.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT KENO DAVIS...

“Keno Davis is one of the top young up-and-coming coaches in the industry. He has that combination that makes coaches successful at the highest level - he gets the most of out his players, is a terrific at evaluating talent and obviously he’s proven - in just one season - that he can coach. You look at what he did at Drake in recruiting many of the players and then coaching them to the NCAA tournament in one of the season’s biggest surprises a year ago and it was extremely impressive.” — FOXSports.com Senior Basketball Writer Jeff Goodman

“I can’t remember a coach who made as big an impact in his ‘rookie’ year as Keno Davis. But what gets lost in the fuss over how he did as a first-year head coach is that he was very much a part of building the Drake program to the point where it could enjoy that level of success. He didn’t just walk in and take over a ready-made team. He helped to scout, recruit and coach the Drake players who came together in such a magical season. That’s why I voted for him for coach of the year.” — Sporting News’ Mike DeCourcy

“He’s a young man from a coaching family who has earned his stripes based on dedication, hard work and doing the little thing like working various camps. He was never one to take short cuts. It’s very rewarding to see that the net result of his hard work is getting to coach one of the more storied programs in college basketball. By being around his father, Dr. Tom, he knows what it takes to be successful at a program with great tradition and that has definitely prepared him for the task ahead.” - University of Wisconsin Head Coach Bo Ryan

“To go in to Drake and be the national coach of the year in his first year is a tremendous accomplishment. Keno is one of the brightest young coaches in the country.” — University of Tennessee Head Coach Bruce Pearl

The Huskies came out strong to start the second half behind Matt Janning's nine quick points and took a 40-34 lead with 13:26 to go in the contest. A three-pointer by Northeastern's Baptiste Bataille with 9:11 remaining made it 51-40 Huskies, but back-to-back threes by Brian McKenzie (Brooklyn, N.Y.) and Jeff Xavier (Pawtucket, R.I.) cut the Northeastern lead to 51-46 at the 8:29 mark. McKenzie hit his third three-pointer of the half to make it 55-52 Huskies at 8:40 and a Geoff McDermott (New Rochelle, N.Y.) triple tied the game at 57-43 with 4:32 left. But Northeastern hit three clutch three-pointers in the game's final four minutes to seal the game for the Huskies.

Recap: The Providence College men's basketball team (1-1) earned its first win of the 2008-09 season, defeating Dartmouth College (0-2) by the score of 100-82 on Tuesday, November 18 at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. The win also was the first at Providence for Head Coach Ken Davis. Seven Friars scored 10 or more points in the game, marking the first time Providence has had six or more players in double figures since January 2007 against Connecticut. Sophomore Marshon Brooks (Stone Mountain, Ga.) led Providence with a career-best 18 points and pulled down a career-high seven rebounds. The Friars never trailed in the contest en route to the victory. Providence opened the game on a 15-0 run, due in part to an effective full court press that forced five Dartmouth turnovers. A three-point play by Randall Hanke (New York, N.Y.) on a feed from Sharaud Curry (Gainesville, Ga.) made the score 31-19 with 7:26 to go in the first half. Behind 48.4 percent shooting, PC entered intermission holding a 46-36 advantage. Senior Jeff Xavier (Pawtucket, R.I.) led the Friars with 11 points and contributed four rebounds in the half. Brian McKenzie (Brooklyn, N.Y.) opened the second half strong for the Friars, posting five quick points as PC took a 62-46 lead with 14:54 to go. An electric dunk by Brooks off a missed free throw made it 79-64 at the 8:43 mark. On the next Friar possession, Brooks hit a 3-pointer and was fouled, completing the four-point play to put the score at 83-66. The Big Green couldn't come back from the large deficit and the Friars held on for the first win of the Ken Davis era. Providence was aggressive around the basket throughout the contest, outshooting Dartmouth 46 to 14 from the free throw line. The 100 points scored by the Friars marked the first time Dartmouth has given up 100 points in a game since 2002 against Penn State. The last time the Friars scored 100 points was against Florida State on Dec. 22, 2007. Alex Barnett paced the Big Green with 28 points and five rebounds on the night.

Recap: The Providence College men's basketball team (5-3) closed out a 86-62 win over Brown University (3-4) on Wednesday, Dec. 3 at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. Sophomore guard Marshon Brooks (Stone Mountain, Ga.) led the Friars with 22 points and added five rebounds, marking the second time that Brooks has eclipsed the 20-point mark this season. The Friars built an early 16-11 lead behind 10 points from big man Randall Hanke (New York, N.Y.) and Jonathan Kale (Mattapan, Mass.). A Weyemi Efejuku (Fresh Meadows, N.Y.) 3-pointer with 9:18 to go in the half put PC up 21-13 and a nifty Brooks finger roll extended the lead to 26-13 at the 7:21 mark. Brooks finished the half with a team-high 17 points as the Friars led 48-25 at the break. PC shot a blistering 60.0% from the field and held Brown to 34.6 percent. The Friars were excellent with the basketball, committing only two turnovers in the half. Providence extended the lead to 59-32 at the 16:01 mark of the second half on a three-point play by senior Geoff McDermott (New Rochelle, N.Y.). A three-pointer and fast break lay-in by Sharad Curry (Gainesville, Ga.) on consecutive possessions gave the Friars their largest advantage of the game at 71-41 and Brown was unable to cut into the lead for the remainder of the contest. For this game, PC held the Bears to just 19 field goals and 33.3 percent shooting, both season bests for the Friar defense. Curry posted 14 points, eight assists and a season-long 0 turnovers, while Kale chipped in 13 points and eight boards. Kale has posted double-digit point totals in six-straight games and seven-of-eight contests on the year. Hanke finished with 13 points and 10 rebounds for his first double-double of the season. Peter Sullivan led Brown with 16 points.

Recap: The Providence College men's basketball team (9-4, 1-0) defeated St. John's University (9-4, 0-1) by a score of 75-54 on Wednesday, December 31 at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. The New Year's Eve win was the first BIG EAST victory for PC Head Coach Keno Davis who joins Gordy Chisena and Rick Barnes as the only Frisco coaches to win their league debuts. Senior Randall Hanke (New York, N.Y.) passed PC with 17 points on 10 shooting and added three blocks. "We were playing good defense which led to easy baskets and transition points," Hanke said. "My teammates did a great job looking for me and I finished around the hoop." St. John's opened the game on a 11-0 run but Providence quickly responded with seven straight points to cut the lead to 11-7 at the 13:53 mark of the first half. After three consecutive baskets by PC, the Friars surged ahead, 24-17, with 5:25 to go on the half. A Marshon Brooks (Stone Mountain, Ga.) three-pointer pushed the lead to 29-19, and two straight lay-ups by Hanke gave the Friars a 33-25 halftime lead. Providence played excellent defense in the first half, forcing 13 turnovers and grabbing eight steals and St. John's was held to 39.3 percent shooting for the stanza. Brooks led the Friars in the half with nine points on 3-of-7 shooting. A three-pointer by Jeff Xavier (Pawtucket, R.I.) and a lay-up by Jonathan Kale (Mattapan, Mass.) on consecutive possessions pushed the Friars lead to 40-27 with 12:01 remaining in the game. Senior Yewinmi Efejuke (Fresh Meadows, N.Y.) swished a three to make the score 50-39 at the 9:27 mark. Junior Sharaud Curry added a three-pointer to move the Friars ahead, 55-42, with 7:37 to go and a Hanke three-point play put the score at 60-47. PC took its largest lead, 75-52, on a Kale lay-in with 1:22 remaining in the game. Curry registered 16 points and eight assists and Brooks added 15 points and three steals for Providence. The Friars' lead was dominant throughout the game, as St. John's was limited to 35.4 percent shooting (23-65), including 11 percent (2-17) from three-point range. The Red Storm's 54 point output was the team's lowest of the season and marks the lowest point total for a Friar opponent this year. PC's win was the seventh straight against St. John's at the Dunkin' Donuts Center. Paris Home and Sean Evans led the Johnnies with 16 points each.

Recap: Austin Freeman scored 18 points, Greg Monroe nearly had a triple-double, and No. 9 Georgetown held Providence scoreless for more than 6 minutes to rally for an 82-75 victory Saturday that ended the Hoyas' two-game Big East losing streak. Georgetown (11-3, 2-2) rallied by nine points in the first half and allowed Providence (11-5, 3-1) to go ahead 44-40 on Brian McKenzie's 3-point layup with 16:15 left. The Hoyas' bad news for Georgetown: Its leading scorer, Daluan Summers, went to the sideline with four fouls shortly thereafter. That, though, is when Monroe began to get more assertive, leading a 15-0 run by the hosts. After a one-basket first half, he finished with 13 points, 11 rebounds and eight assists. Marshon Brooks scored 15 of his 18 points in the second half for Providence, which was trying to get to a 0-10 Big East play for the first time. He helped make things interesting down the stretch after Georgetown had gone ahead by 16 points at 66-50. Providence chipped away at the big deficit, pulling to 76-73, but Yewinmi Efejuke wadded a chance to make it a one-point game when he missed a layup after a steal with about a minute left. Monroe finished off a fastbreak the other way with a rim-shaking, two-handed slam, making it 78-73 with 56.3 seconds left. Similarly, Monroe was in the right places at the right times during the game's key stretch. Jason Clark, a freshman who had made only four 3-pointers all season, connected from beyond the arc to put Georgetown ahead 45-44--the Hoyas' first lead since 8-6. A few minutes later, Monroe split two defenders, drove down the lane and rose for a left-handed dunk over Jonathan Kale, who fouled him on the play. Monroe chest-bumped teammate Henry Stins, pounded his fist over his heart and yelled, "Let's go." Then, after composing himself, Monroe made the free throw to complete his three-point play and give Georgetown a 50-44 lead with 13 minutes remaining. Later, Monroe's two foul shots capped the run at 55-44. The game's first four baskets were all 3-pointers, as Providence ran its outside-oriented three-guard offense and Georgetown had problems getting the ball inside to Monroe. Helped by two droughts by the Hoyas of longer than 3 1/2 minutes without a field goal, Providence took a 21-12 lead midway through the first half and Efejuke's dunk following a steal. Recap: The Providence College men's basketball team (16-10, 8-6 BIG EAST) fell to No. 77 Louisville (20-5, 11-2 BIG EAST) by the score of 94-76 on Wednesday, February 18 at Freedom Hall in Louisville, Ky. Senior Jonathan Kale (Mattapan, Mass.) posted 15 points and grabbed a team-high nine rebounds for the Friars. Providence forced an early timeout from Louisville Head Coach Rick Pitino after PC opened the game leading 7-4. A strong drive by senior Geoff McDermott (New Rochelle, N.Y.) moved the Friars ahead 11-6 but the Cardinals used a 11-2 run to take a 17-13 lead at the 13:23 mark of the first half. A 3-pointer by senior Jeff Xavier (Pawtucket, R.I.) and a runner by sophomore Marshon Brooks (Stone Mountain, Ga.) on consecutive possessions helped the Friars tie the score at 21. Louisville responded by scoring 10 of the game's next 12 points and took a 31-23 lead with 8:55 to go in the half. Seven straight points by the Friars, capped off by a 3-pointer by junior Sharaud Curry (Gainesville, Ga.) moved Providence back within one at 31-30. A lay-in by senior Randall Hanke (New York, N.Y.) off a good feed from junior Brian McKenzie (Brooklyn, N.Y.) moved the Friars back ahead, 36-35, and a free throw by Curry gave PC a 39-38 advantage with 3:07 to go in the first half. After a well-paced opening stanza, the Friars entered intermission with a 46-45 lead. PC shot an impressive 75.0 percent (19-24) from the field in the first half and made 57.1 percent (4-7) of their 3-point attempts. Senior Weyinmi Efejuku (Fresh Meadows, N.Y.) paced Providence in the half with 10 points. After the teams traded baskets in the opening minutes of the second half, Louisville used a 13-0 run to build a 63-53 lead with 12:04 to go in the game. A 3-pointer by Jerry Smith extended the Cardinal advantage to 14 and two free throws by Edgar Soga gave Louisville a 77-60 lead with 6:53 to play. The Cardinals pressure defense proved effective in the game, forcing 22 Providence turnovers that led to 29 points. Louisville clamped down in the second half, allowing the Friars to shoot only 30.0 percent (9-30) after the 75.0 percent opening half. Terrence Williams and Samardo Samuels each notched 17 points for the Cardinals. Earl Clark added a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds.
