The Friars and River Hawks are meeting for the 67th time in the all-time series, which Providence leads, 33-27-6. Lowell has won the only meeting between the two teams this season, defeating the Friars, 4-3, in Lowell on October 26 in a game the Friars played without junior co-captain Devin Rask. The River Hawks lead the series in Providence, posting a 18-16-0 mark, while the Friars lead the series at Lowell, 17-8-6.

PROVIDENCE VS. THE HOCKEY EAST:

The Friars have an all-time record of 186-215-45 in HOCKEY EAST league competition. Last year, the Friars had their best record in HOCKEY EAST play since the inaugural 1984-85 season when PC went 15-14-5 and won the HOCKEY EAST Championship. Last year, PC was 13-8-3 and finished tied for second in the regular season standings, Providence's highest finish ever in league play. In the Friars' league games this season, PC has posted a 8-8-1 record. Providence has wins over UMass Amherst, 3-2 twice, Merrimack, 3-2 and 4-1, Northeastern, 5-3, a 4-3 upset win at third-ranked UNH and a pair of wins over Boston College (6-4 and 5-2). The Friars were defeated in league games by UMass Lowell, UMass Amherst, Northeastern twice, Boston College, New Hampshire, Merrimack and Maine. PC's only tie came against Boston Uni-

PROVIDENCE VERSUS NON-LEAGUE OPPONENTS:

This season, the Friars are 5-5-2 against non-league opponents. PC opened the season by falling to third-ranked Michigan (6-3) and 12th-ranked Nebraska-Omaha (4-3 OT) at the Maverick Stampede. PC defeated Sacred Heart (8-1) on October 19 in its next non-conference contest. The Friars then played three consecutive games against teams from the ECAC, skating to a 4-4 tie on November 20 at Union College, losing, 4-3, in overtime to St. Lawrence on November 23 and defeating Clarkson, 4-2 on November 24. PC defeated Quinnipiac University, 5-2, on Friday, December 7 and at the Mariucci Classic, the Friars defeated Western Michigan, 4-1, in the first game and were defeated, 6-1, in the championship game against second-ranked Minnesota. On Friday, January 18, the Friars skated to a 2-2 overtime tie with the University of Connecticut and on Saturday, January 19, the Friars were defeated by No. 2-ranked St. Cloud State, 5-2. Providence won its final non-league game of the season, defeating Brown in the 16th annual Mayor's Cup game, 4-3, in overtime. Last season, the Friars compiled a 6-3-2 record against non-league opponents. PC posted a 1-1 record against ECAC teams, a 2-0 record against MAAC teams, a 0-2-2 record against WCHA teams and a 3-0-0 record against CCHA teams. PC earned non-conference victories over Ferris St., Holy Cross, Iona, Lake Superior St., Miami (Ohio) and Union.

FRIARS VERSUS RANKED TEAMS:

The Friars picked up their first win of the season against a ranked team on Sunday, January 13 when PC upset the third-ranked UNH Wildcats, 4-3, in Durham, N.H. This season, the Friars have lost 13 games with seven of the 13 losses against teams ranked in the top-15 in the national polls. In the season-opener against Michigan, the Wolverines were ranked third in the nation and defeated the Friars, 6-3. In the second contest against Nebraska-Omaha, the Mavericks were ranked 12th in the nation and defeated PC, 4-3, in overtime. At UMass Lowell on October 26, the River Hawks were ranked 13th

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAY:

The Friars scored their 20th power-play goal of the season on Friday, February 1 at Northeastern. The goal was the ninth power-play tally for the Friars in the last nine games. PC has converted on 20-of-139 (0.144) man-advantage situations. PC's opponents have scored 25 power play goals, and the Friars have spoiled 126-of-151 (0.834) chances. The Friars have allowed just two power-play goals on the penalty kill in the last seven games, spoiling 28 of their opponents' last 30 power-play chances (0.933). Providence's Devin Rask leads the Friars with six power-play goals on the season. Teammates Jon DiSalvatore and Peter Fregoe have four power-play goals each. Senior Drew Omicioli and sophomore defenseman Stephen Wood have two power-play goals each while Doug Wright, Mike Lucci and Chris Chaput each have one power-play goal. DiSalvatore and Drew Omicioli have two short-handed goals while Rask and junior Mike Lucci each have one short-handed goal.

STARTING A TREND:

The Friars have scored first in six of the last nine games, which is a reversal of the first half of the season, where PC rarely scored first. On the season, PC has scored the game's first goal nine times: vs. Merrimack College (11/3); vs. Clarkson University (11/24); vs. Western Michigan (12/28); vs. Boston University (1/11); at UNH (1/13); vs. Connecticut (1/18); vs. St. Cloud (1/19); vs. Boston College (1/25) and at UMass Amherst (2/2). Providence has posted a 6-1-2 record in games where they scored first.

REVERSAL OF JANUARY FORTUNES:

Traditionally in the tenure of Paul Pooley, the Friars have struggled in the month of January. In eight Januaries, Pooley's teams have compiled a 27-37-5 (0.428) record. In the last two years, though, PC's squads have posted 4-2-2 and 4-2-1 records, respectively. In January play under Pooley, PC has had a winning first month just three times: January of 1999 (6-4-0), January of 2001 (4-2-1) and this past January, where the Friars were 4-2-2.

FRIARS HAVE STATISTICALLY SUCCESSFUL JANUARY:

Several members of the Friars had a successful January, helping lead Providence to a 4-2-2 month. Junior co-captain Jon DiSalvatore led the Friars with 15 points in the eight-game month. DiSalvatore scored four goals and added 11 assists and was named the HOCKEY EAST Offensive Player of the Month for his efforts. His classmate and co-captain Devin Rask scored seven goals for the month and chipped in with six assists for 13 points. Senior center Peter Fregoe also totalled 13 points in the month, scoring four goals and adding nine assists. Senior forward Drew Omicioli totalled four goals and three assists for seven points in eight games last month while sophomore leftwing Peter Zingoni totalled four goals and two assists for six points in just five January games.

DISALVATORE LEADING PC SCORER:

Junior forward Jon DiSalvatore (South Windsor, Conn.) is the leading scorer on the Friars this season through 29 games. DiSalvatore has totalled a team-leading 14 goals and also has a team-leading 21 assists for 35 points. In his last six games, DiSalvatore has totalled one goal and nine assists for 10 points. He has scored in each of those six games. Since the start of January, DiSalvatore has recorded a point in nine of the 10 games, totalling four goals and 13 assists for 17 points. DiSalvatore has been named HOCKEY EAST Offensive Player of the Week, U.S. College Hockey Online Offensive Player of the Week and HOCKEY EAST Offensive Player of the Month for January. Last season, DiSalvatore finished sixth on the squad in scoring, totalling nine goals and 16 assists for 25 points in 36 games. He also played for the U.S. World Junior Team, where he tied for the team lead in scoring with six goals and three assists for nine points.

DISALVATORE NAMED OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE MONTH:

Junior forward Jon DiSalvatore (South Windsor, Conn.) was named the HOCKEY EAST Offensive Player of the Month for January on Wednesday, January 31 by the league office. DiSalvatore led the Friars to a 4-2-2 record in January and totalled four goals and 11 assists for 15 points.

FREGOE SECOND ON FRIARS:

Senior center Peter Fregoe (Massena, N.Y.) is second on the team in scoring for the Friars through 29 games this season with 13 goals and 19 assists for 32 points. Fregoe also has scored four power-play goals and is second in that category. Last season as a junior, Fregoe totalled 16 goals and 21 assists for 37 points in 40 games. Fregoe also is excelling at winning faceoffs this season. The center iceman has won 63% of his draws, posting a 446-260 faceoff record. In 103 career games, Fregoe has amassed 43 career goals and 55 career assists for 98 career points. He needs two points to become the 45th player in Friar history to record 100 or more points.

OMICIOLI THIRD ON FRIARS IN SCORING:

PC senior Drew Omicioli (West Warwick, R.I.) is third in scoring for the Friars this season with 13 goals and 15 assists for 28 points in 28 games this season. Omicioli has scored two shorthanded goals this season after he ranked second in the nation last season with four shorthanded goals. Two weeks ago, Omicioli scored four goals and added two assists as PC won all three games it played. Omicioli scored the game-winning goal in each of last week's games, and was named HOCKEY EAST's Co-Offensive Player of the Week and USCHO's Offensive Player of the Week. In 126 career games, Omicioli has amassed 44 career goals and 51 career assists for 95 career points. He needs five points to become the 45th player in Friar history to record 100 or more points.

RASK HEATING UP AROUND THE GOAL:

Junior left wing Devin Rask (Parkside, Sask.) is fourth on the team in scoring with 11 goals and 16 assists for 27 points in 28 games. Rask leads all PC players with six power-play goals and also has a short-handed goal on the season. Last season, Rask earned All-America and First Team All-HOCKEY EAST honors for his 23 goals and 28 assists for a 51-point season. In 105 career games, Rask has amassed 41 career goals and 58 career assists for 99 career points. With his next point, Rask will become the 45th player in Friar history to record 100 or more points.

SCHAEFER SOLID BETWEEN THE PIPES:

Junior goaltender Nolan Schaefer (Yellow Grass, Sask.) has started 25 of the 27 contests he has played in, posting a 3.32 goals against average, a .901 save percentage and a 11-12-3 record.

SCHAEFER'S 30-PLUS SAVE GAMES

Schaefer has posted 17 games this season where he has recorded 30 or more saves in a game. Three times this season, Schaefer has recorded a career-high 44 saves in a game.

Schaefer has logged 1573:29 minutes this season out of a possible 1761:28. Last season, Schaefer earned All-America and Second Team All-HOCKEY EAST honors, posting a 15-8-2 record, a 2.47 goals against average and a .915 save percentage. Schaefer ranks eighth all-time at Providence with 1,858 career saves. He needs 981 saves to become the PC career record holder.

WOOD LEADS FRIAR BLUELINERS:

Sophomore defenseman Stephen Wood (Sudbury, Mass.) is leading all PC defensemen in scoring with four goals and 15 assists for 19 points in 27 games this season, having surpassed his offensive output from his freshman year. Wood ranks fifth on the team in scoring this season, he is tied for third in scoring among HOCKEY EAST defensemen and has posted a +11 plus/minus rating, which ranks him second on the team. Last year, Wood totalled three goals and four assists for seven points while playing in 36 games.

SCHNEIDER ARENA:

Providence College's Schneider Arena is in its 29th season this year, and fans at Schneider have seen the PC Friars win 61 percent of their games at Schneider. Opened in 1973 with a 1-0 win over visiting Pennsylvania, the Friars have totalled a 279-169-30 (0.615) overall record. During the 2000-01 season, the Friars posted their best home record since 1989-90 when PC posted a 13-4-2 mark. Last year, the Friars' home record was 15-4-1. This season, the Friars are 8-5-2 at Schneider with wins over Sacred Heart, UMass Amherst, Merrimack (twice), Clarkson, Quinnipiac, Brown and Boston College. PC has losses at home to UMass Amherst, Northeastern, New Hampshire, St. Lawrence and St. Cloud State. The Friars' ties came against Boston University and Connecticut.

FRIARS DEFEAT UMASS AMHERST, 3-2:

The Providence College men's hockey team defeated UMass Amherst, 3-2, on Saturday, February 2 at the Mullins Center in Amherst, Mass. Senior center Peter Fregoe (Massena, N.Y.) began the scoring, converting a feed from junior co-captain Jon DiSalvatore (South Windsor, Conn.) to give Providence a 1-0 lead. UMass' Josh Hanson tied the contest 40 seconds later for the Minutemen but PC sophomore defenseman Regan Kelly (Imperial, Sask.) put PC ahead, 2-1, just 26 seconds later. Kelly scored his second of the game and sixth of the season just 2:51 into the third period, giving the Friars a 3-1 lead. Sean Regan added the game's final tally for UMass. Providence junior goaltender Nolan Schaefer (Yellow Grass, Sask.) made 28 saves in the win for the Friars.

FRIARS DEFEATED AT NORTHEASTERN, 3-2:

The Providence College men's hockey team was defeated, 3-2, at Northeastern on Friday, February 1 in HOCKEY EAST action. PC juniors Doug Wright (Kamsack, Sask.) and Michael Lucci (Parma, Ohio) scored for the Friars. Wright's fourth goal of the season tied the contest at 1-1 in the first period. Lucci's goal pulled PC to within one goal at 3-2 in the second period, but the Friars could not get any closer. PC junior goaltender Nolan Schaefer (Yellow Grass, Sask.) made 35 saves in the loss.

FRIARS SIGN THREE RECRUITS TO NLI'S:

Providence College men's hockey coach Paul Pooley announced on Friday, November 30 the signing of three recruits to National Letters of Intent to play for the Friar men's hockey team during the 2002-03 season. The three recruits are: Bobby Goepfert (Kings Park, N.Y./Cedar Rapids Roughriders-USHL), Torry Gajda (Westfield, Mass./New England Coyotes-EJHL) and Bryan Horan (Farmingham, Conn./New England Coyotes-EJHL).

"All three of these players bring a level of enthusiasm, experience and excitement to our team," PC coach Paul Pooley said. "Their signing is an indication of the Providence program continuing to move forward."

Goepfert is a 5-foot-10-inch, 165-pound goaltender, who is in his second year playing for the Cedar Rapids Roughriders of the United States Hockey League. In 2000-01, Goepfert was named to the USHL All-Rookie team, voted USHL Goalie of the Year and participated in the USHL All-Star game. This season, Goepfert leads the USHL in almost all major goaltending statistics. He recently was selected to participate in the Top Prospects' Tournament to represent the United States in an international tournament in early January. He is also a prospect to make the 2002 U.S. Junior National Team.

Gajda is in his third year playing for the New England Junior Coyotes of the Eastern Junior Hockey League. He is a 5-foot-9-inch, 185-pound left wing who is a co-captain for the Coyotes this season. Last season, Gajda had a breakthrough year, leading his team in scoring with 110 points, being named First Team All-EJHL and making the EJHL All-Star game. This year, he is currently one of the top scorers in the league, despite being sidelined with an injury.

The final signee is Horan, who is also in his third year playing with the New England Coyotes of the EJHL. In 2000-01, the 6-foot-1-inch, 175-pound forward was the third leading scorer for the Coyotes behind Gajda and current Friar Chris Chaput. He was selected to participate in the 2001 EJHL All-Star game and also was selected to play for the U.S. Select Under-18 team that played in Germany last summer. This year, Horan was named co-captain of the Coyotes. He only has seen action in seven games due to a wrist injury.

The three signees will join the Friars next fall and will add to the former Coyotes and Roughriders already on the PC roster. Gajda and Horan will join six other former Coyotes and Goepfert will join a former Roughrider. Gajda and Horan will join junior Jon DiSalvatore (South Windsor, Conn.) sophomore Peter Zingoni (Newtown, Conn.) and freshmen Eric Lundberg (Vernon, Conn.), Chris Chaput (Pawtucket, R.I.) and Jeff Mason (Easthampton, Mass.). Goepfert will join freshman David Carpentier (Faribault, Minn.), who played for the Roughriders last season.

WRAP-UP OF 2000-01 SEASON:

The 2000-01 Providence College Hockey Team celebrated the 50th season of Friar hockey in style, competing in the HOCKEY EAST Championship game and reaching the NCAA Tournament. The Friars' overall record of 22-13-5 was the best in Head Coach Paul Pooley's seven years at PC. The team tied for second place in the HOCKEY EAST standings after a 13-8-3 league record, which is the highest a Providence team has ever finished. Captains Matt Libby and Jay Leach led a young PC team all the way to the HOCKEY EAST Championship game and to the NCAA's while All-American Devin Rask led the scoring effort with 23 goals and 28 assists for 51 points. His teammate and fellow All-American, Nolan Schaefer, anchored the defense in goal for the Friars. Schaefer posted a 2.47 goals against average, a 0.915 save percentage and a 15-8-2 record last season.

FRIARS ALL-TIME:

In 51 seasons of Friar hockey, PC has posted a 732-671-75 (.521) mark. In Paul Pooley's seven-plus seasons as the Friars' Head Coach the team has recorded a 138-131-24 mark.

HEAD COACH PAUL POOLEY:

Pooley is the 10th coach in the history of Providence College Hockey. Since 1994, Pooley has compiled an 138-131-24 record and brought the Friars to three HOCKEY EAST Finals and two NCAA Tournament appearances. Last season, Pooley was named HOCKEY EAST Coach of the Year after leading the Friars to their highest finish ever in league play (tied for second) with a 13-8-3 record. In 1994-95, Pooley became the first head coach to bring a team to the HOCKEY EAST Championship in his inaugural season behind the bench. In 1995-96 he guided the Friars to their second HOCKEY EAST title and first since 1985. Pooley also led the team to its eighth appearance in the NCAA Tournament. He came to Providence after spending three years as an assistant coach at Lake Superior State University (1991-94). Pooley began his coaching career at his alma-mater, Ohio State, where he served as an assistant to Jerry Welsh from 1988-91. On January 22, Pooley was named Ohio State's top men's hockey player of all time at the Buckeye's "Century Night." At OSU's Century Night, the Touchdown Club of Columbus announced their "All-Century" teams paying tribute to all 36 varsity sports.

PIM:	Providence (9-18); Nebraska-Omaha (8-16)
Attendance:	8,314
Winning or Tying goal in CAPS

Game notes: Looking to salvage a split at the season-opening Maverick Stampede, the Friars found themselves behind early in the contest for the second straight game. PC's Peter Fregoe and Devin Rask tied the contest with goals in the second period - Fregoe's on the power play and Rask's short handed. Fregoe then tallied for the second time to put PC up, 3-2, in the third period. With 4:32 remaining in the third period, UNO's Kyle O'Keefe tied the contest and then in overtime with 55 second left, Greg Zanon scored to win the game for the Mavericks.

OCTOBER 19, 2001 AT PROVIDENCE, R.I. (GAME 3)

PIM:	Sacred Heart (6-12); Providence (6-12)
Attendance:	2,007
Winning or Tying goal in CAPS

Game notes: In the first meeting between the two schools, Sacred Heart got out to a quick, 1-0, lead when Konn Hawkes scored on the power play just 1:51 into the contest. Peter Fregoe tied the contest for the Friars with a power-play goal of his own. Doug Wright put PC ahead for good when he scored what would prove to be the game winner at 9:50 on a quick wrist shot. Jonathan Goodwin scored the first of his two goals on the evening at the 18:25 mark in the first period and Drew Omicioli roofed a shot with six seconds remaining in the period for a 4-1 Providence lead at the end of one period. Goodwin scored his second goal of the game in the second period and he assisted on Mike Lucci's first score of the season in the period as well. The third period belonged to PC freshman Chris Chaput, who scored twice for his first collegiate goals.

OCTOBER 26, 2001 AT LOWELL, MASS. (GAME 4)

#14 PROVIDENCE (1-3-0/0-1)	1	1	1	--	3
#13 UMass Lowell (4-0-0/2-0)	3	1	0	--	4
Goals:	PC (Drew Omicioli, Jon DiSalvatore, Peter Fregoe)

Attendance:	2,730
Winning or Tying goal in CAPS

Game notes: In the HOCKEY EAST opener for the Friars on Friday, October 26 at UMass Lowell, PC fell behind early on a UML goal, but Drew Omicioli scored the equalizer at the 9:30 mark of the first period. The River Hawks responded with two more goals to open a 3-1 lead at the end of one period. UML increased their lead to 4-1 in the second period before Jon DiSalvatore cut the lead in half with just 24 second remaining in period two. Peter Fregoe got the Friars to within just one goal at the 13:05 mark in the third period, but the Friars, even with a six-on-three power play advantage in the period, could not tie the contest in the third period to force overtime. PC's Nolan Schaefer, who played 58:36 of a possible 60 minutes, recorded 24 saves.

OCTOBER 28, 2001 AT PROVIDENCE, R.I. (GAME 5)

Winning or Tying goal in CAPS

Game notes: The Friars were defeated by UMass Amherst, 4-3, on Sunday, October 28 at PC's Schneider Arena. Craig MacDonald converted a PC turnover into the first goal of the game at the 3:57 mark and four minutes later Devin Rask (Parkside, Sask.) scored on the power play when he tipped in a Drew Omicioli (West Warwick, R.I.) blast from the point. Sophomore John Luszcz (Ludlow, Mass.) knocked in a loss puck at 12:34 to put the Friars ahead, 2-1. UMass tied the contest at the 16:13 mark when Tim Turner converted a power-play opportunity. In the second period, UMA's Jimmy Callahan scored the period's only goal, giving the Minutemen a 3-2 lead. Omicioli negated that lead at the start of the third period, scoring his first short-handed goal of the season just 1:08 into the start of the period. Brad Nizwantowski scored the game-winning goal at 5:07 for UMass. Nolan Schaefer (Yellow Grass, Sask.) recorded 26 saves in the loss for the Friars.

NOVEMBER 2, 2001 AT PROVIDENCE, R.I. (GAME 6)

Game notes: The Providence College men's hockey team overcame a two-goal, third-period deficit to tie the contest and force overtime with Boston University. Neither team could capitalize in the overtime period and the teams skated to a 5-5 tie. The Friars opened the scoring for just the third time all season as senior Peter Fregoe (Massena, N.Y.) and freshman Chris Chaput (Pawtucket, R.I.) scored in the first 7:21 of the game. BU answered with three straight goals before PC junior Jon DiSalvatore (South Windsor, Conn.) scored on the power play to pull the Friars even with the Terriers. Boston University regained the lead with two late second-period goals and began the third period with a 5-3 advantage. The Friars killed off a 65-second 5-on-3 BU power play and managed their first shot of the period after 12 minutes had past. But the Friars' Devin Rask (Parkside, Sask.) capitalized, collecting a feed in front of the BU goal, where he flipped a backhanded shot over a prone Sean Fields to pull PC to within one goal. DiSalvatore scored that goal, with 1:11 remaining in regulation, after Rask knocked the puck away from a BU defender in front of the BU goal. DiSalvatore collected the puck and fired his second goal of the evening past Fields. PC's Nolan Schaefer (Yellow Grass, Sask.) played all 65 minutes and recorded 33 saves.

Game notes: The Providence College men's hockey team upset third-ranked New Hampshire, 4-3, in Durham, N.H. on Sunday, January 13. PC junior co-captain Devin Rask (Parkside, Sask.) got the Friars on the scoreboard first, tipping in sophomore defenseman Stephen Wood's (Sudbury, Mass.) blast from the point for a power-play tally and 1-0 lead. Senior Marc Suderman (Regina, Sask.) scored in the second period off assists from Peter Fregoe (Massena, N.Y.) and Jon DiSalvatore (South Windsor, Conn.) to give Providence a 2-0 lead. After a New Hampshire goal cut the PC lead in half, junior forward Doug Wright (Kamsack, Sask.) pounded in a rebound to put the Friars ahead by two goals. Suderman scored the second of his two goals 5:39 after Wright's goal as sophomore John Luszcz (Ludlow, Mass.) stole the puck from a Wildcat defenseman in the neutral zone, skated in on UNH's Matt Carney and fed Suderman for the wrist-shot goal. UNH scored twice in the third period to pull to within one goal at 4-3, but PC's junior goaltender Nolan Schaefer (Yellow Grass, Sask.) played well and kept the Wildcats from evening the score. Schaefer finished the contest with 32 saves in the victory.

Game notes: The Providence College men's ice hockey team skated to a >2-2 tie with the University of Connecticut in a non-league contest on >Friday, January 18 at PC's Schneider Arena. The Friars opened the first period scoring when freshman Chris Chaput (Pawtucket, R.I.) one-timed a feed from sophomore defenseman Dominic Torretti (Ludlow, Mass.). Chaput's goal was the eighth of his rookie season. Sophomore forward Cody Loughlean (Innisfail, Alta.) was credited with the second assist on the Friars' goal. Connecticut pulled even with the Friars in the second period, as the Huskies' Matt Grew beat PC's Nolan Schaefer (Yellow Grass, Sask.) with an unassisted tally. Providence regained the lead 4:20 into the third period when senior Peter Fregoe (Massena, N.Y.) finished off some pretty passing and slipped his shot under the pads of UConn's Artie Imbriano for the score. PC's one goal lead did not stand up, though, as Connecticut's Anders Johnson and Charles Ridolf pulled the Huskies even on a two-on-one break when Johnson banging the puck past Schaefer at the 11:56 mark of the third period. The Friars outplayed the Huskies, outshooting UConn, 56-22, but Imbriano had a career night, stopping 54 shots in the tie. Schaefer recorded 20 saves for the Friars.
