MAAC Championship Tournament (Loudonville, N.Y. - Siena College)

FRIARS HOST MOUNT ST. MARY'S... Providence hosts Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) foe Mount St. Mary's on Saturday, April 5 in Providence, R.I. The game will be played at the Friar Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex and is set to face-off at 2:05 p.m.

PROVIDENCE VS. MOUNT ST. MARY'S ALL-TIME... The Friars and Mountaineers have met 14 times in the history of the two men's lacrosse programs. Mount St. Mary's leads the all-time series against Providence, 9-5. The Friars hold a 3-2 edge over The Mount in the last five meetings between the two squads.

A QUICK LOOK AT MOUNT ST. MARY'S... The Mount enters Saturday's game against Providence with a 1-6 overall record, including a 1-1 mark in the MAAC. Dan Mohr and Joe Derwent are the only members of the team who have reached double figures in points with 21 and 10, respectively. Mohr leads the way in goals (13) and assists (eight). Geery Grant has taken a team-high 41 shots this season and is second in goals (six) and tied for third overall in scoring with seven points. T.C. DiBartolo has played the majority of minutes in the cage (333:50) and owns a 14.20 goals against average and a 0.551 save percentage.

WHAT HAPPENED THE LAST TIME THE TWO TEAMS MET... The Friars and Mountaineers last met on March 24, 2007 in Emmitsburg, Md. The Mount earned a 12-7 victory over Providence on that day. Prior to PC's loss, the Friars earned back-to-back victories over Mount St. Mary's during the 2006 season, including an 8-6 victory in the MAAC Championship game on May 7, 2006 to earn the program's second-ever league title.

FRIARS ENTER SATURDAY'S GAME ON AN EIGHT-GAME WIN

STREAK IN MAAC REGULAR-SEASON PLAY... Providence enters Saturday's game against Mount St. Mary's on an eight-game win streak in MAAC regular-season action. This season, the Friars have started off the conference slate, 3-0. The Friars ended the 2007 regular-season with five-straight wins after beginning the season 0-3. If you throw in the Friars' two MAAC Tournament wins in 2007, PC is unbeaten in its last 10 games vs. MAAC opponents.

LEAGUE DOMINANCE... Providence has qualified for the MAAC Tournament in each of the last seven seasons, which is an unprecedented feat in the league and has won three of the last four MAAC Tournament titles, including two-straight (2006, 2007). The Friars have acquired three MAAC Tournament titles overall since joining the league in 1996. The Friars first title came in 2004. Providence also advanced to the NCAA Men's Lacrosse Championship during each of those seasons by virtue of the league's automatic bid.

MORE TITLES... In addition to Providence's three MAAC Tournament titles, the Friars also have three MAAC Regular-Season titles in the books (2003, 2005, 2006).

SUCCESS IN THE MAAC UNDER HEAD COACH CHRIS BURDICK... Providence College Head Lacrosse Coach Chris Burdick is in the midst of his 10th season with the Friars. To date, Burdick has posted a 70-83 overall record, including a 50-26 mark in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) regular-season play. Burdick leads all active head coaches in the MAAC Men's Lacrosse League with three MAAC tournament titles and three regular-season league titles. Mount St. Mary's Tom Gravante is second on the list with two tournament titles and two regular-season titles.

TWO OF THE LEAGUE'S TOP COACHES FACE-OFF SATURDAY... Providence College men's lacrosse coach Chris Burdick and Tom Gravante of Mount St. Mary's are arguably two of the top coaches in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC). To date, Burdick owns the top winning percentage overall among active MAAC lacrosse coaches (.458, 70-83), and is second to Gravante in winning percentage in MAAC play (.658, 50-26). Gravante is second in overall winning percentage (.452, 89-108) and tops all active coaches in the MAAC with a .787 win percentage in league play (70-19). The coaches have combined to win five MAAC Tournament titles and five regular-season league titles. Burdick leads the way in each of those categories having won three MAAC Tournament crowns (2004, 2006, 2007) and three regular-season titles (2003, 2005, 2006).

FRIARS COMING OFF OF 4-3 VICTORY AGAINST SIENA IN FOUR OVERTIMES... In Providence's most recent game, the squad defeated Siena, 4-3, in four overtimes on March 29 in Loudonville, N.Y. For the Friars it marked the longest game in their 29-year history, and helped to give Providence its third-straight MAAC win. Senior Robert Lamontagne (Pittsford, N.Y.) recorded the game-winning goal with two seconds left in the fourth overtime session after 75:58 minutes of game action. Junior goalkeeper Robert Bryan (Apex, N.C.) faced 38 shots overall, recorded 11 saves and picked up five groundballs.

FRIARS PICKED TO FINISH SECOND IN MAAC PRESEASON COACHES' POLL... The Providence men's lacrosse team was picked to finish second in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) preseason coaches' poll, released on February 6. The Friars accumulated 66 points in the poll. Siena topped the MAAC preseason rankings with 79 points. The Friars were the only MAAC team to defeat the Saints last season (twice), and recently dispatched Siena this season, 4-3 (4OT) on March 29 in Loudonville, N.Y. Canisius was picked to finish third (62 points), followed by St. Joseph's (56 points) and Marist (41 points) in fourth and fifth place, respectively. Manhattan and Mount St. Mary's each recorded 37 points in the poll, placing them in a tie for sixth. VMI (17 points) and Wagner (10 points) round out the preseason poll.

FRIARS LEAD NATION IN MAN-DOWN DEFENSE... The Providence College men's lacrosse program ranks No. 1 in the nation among NCAA Division I lacrosse teams in man-down defense. The Friars have allowed just three goals in 22 man-down situations this season through eight games (0.864). Additionally, Providence ranks sixth in the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 6.34 goals per game.

LET'S FACE IT... Graduate student Thomas Wenskus (East Islip, N.Y.) and junior Joe Watkins (Ocala, Fla.) have handled the face-off responsibilities for the Friars through eight games in 2008. Wenskus leads the way with a 0.553 winning percentage (42-76), while Watkins has won 25-of-52 face-off attempts for a 0.481 winning percentage. As a team, Providence ranks 26th in the nation in face-off percentage (0.511, 70-137). Yale University tops the nation in face-offs with a 0.652 winning percentage.

ROBERT BRYAN NAMED MAAC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK FOR SECOND TIME... Junior goalkeeper Robert Bryan (Apex, N.C.) has been named Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Defensive Player of the Week twice this season (3/17, 3/31). In his first season as Providence's starting goalkeeper, Bryan owns a 6.97 goals against average and a 0.548 save percentage. Bryan ranks 14th in the nation in goals against average.

HIGHER EDUCATION... The Friars have four graduate students on the roster, playing out their final seasons of eligibility. Bennett Murphy (Princeton, N.J.) and Mark Dillon (Gaithersburg, Md.) rank first and fourth among the team in scoring. Murphy has a team-best 15 points on 11 goals and four assists, while Dillon has 11 points on six goals and five assists. Fellow grad students Thomas Wenskus (East Islip, N.Y.) and Henry Pynchon (Ipswich, Mass.) also play large roles for the Friars. Wenskus is the team's primary face-off man and has a 0.553 winning percentage at the "X" (42-76). Pynchon has played in all eight games this season and owns five points on four goals and one assist. He is among the team leaders in shots on goal percentage (0.625).

THREE OF FIVE LOSSES HAVE BEEN DECIDED BY ONE GOAL... Three of Providence's five losses on the season have been decided by one goal, including two overtime contests. The Friars opened the season with back-to-back one-goal losses in overtime to Fairfield (7-6) on February 23 and at Air Force (8-7) on February 26. PC's remaining one-goal loss came at the hands of Quinnipiac (5-4) on March 8.

STINGY D... The Friars have allowed just one team to score double-digit goals this season. On March 3, the sixth-ranked Maryland Terrapins notched 13 goals against Providence in a 13-5 victory. Two opponents have reached eight goals this year through eight games and include Air Force (8-7 OT), and 3rd-ranked North Carolina (8-6).

PROVIDENCE IS 3-1 ON THE SEASON WHEN IT HOLDS ITS OPPONENTS TO FIVE GOALS OR LESS... Providence has held four of its opponents to five goals or less this season, and have posted a 3-1 record in those games. The only blemish on the schedule when holding an opponent to five goals or less came against Quinnipiac (5-4) on March 8.

Chris
BURDICK

Head Coach
10th Season
Alma Mater • Delaware

In nine seasons as Head Coach of the Providence College lacrosse team, Chris Burdick has led the Friars to an unprecedented seven-consecutive MAAC Tournament appearances (2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006 and 2007). Providence has captured three Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) Regular-Season titles (2003, 2005 and 2006). The Friars also have claimed the MAAC Tournament championship crown in three of the last four seasons (2004, 2006 and 2007) and advanced to the NCAA Division I Men's Lacrosse Tournament during each of those campaigns.

Currently in his 10th season at Providence, Burdick has compiled an overall record of 70-83 overall record, including a 50-26 mark in Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference play. Burdick tops all MAAC lacrosse coaches in overall win percentage (.458) and is second in overall wins (70). Burdick is second among active MAAC head lacrosse coaches in win percentage for MAAC regular-season games (.658, 50-26). Furthermore, Burdick leads all active coaches in the MAAC in league tournament titles (three) and regular-season league titles (three).

The Friars posted their best league finishes in 2003 and 2005, with identical MAAC records of 7-1. In 2006, Burdick guided the Friars to a program-best 10 wins overall (10-7), tying them with PC's 1985 squad who also finished with 10 victories (10-2).

Burdick also is credited with the recruitment and development of the first players at Providence College to be selected to the All-MAAC First and Second Teams since joining the conference in 1996. In all, Burdick has had 14 players earn All-Conference honors a total of 24 times, including Brian O'Rorke, who finished his eligibility in 2004 as the program's most decorated player. O'Rorke is a three-time MAAC Defensive Player of the Year and First-Team selection (2002, 2003 & 2004). O'Rorke also earned MAAC Rookie of the Year honors under Burdick's guidance as a freshman in 2001. In January of 2005, O'Rorke became the first lacrosse player from Providence to get drafted by Major League Lacrosse. The New Jersey Pride took O'Rorke in the 13th round (73rd overall) of the supplemental draft held in Philadelphia, Pa. Burdick also helped to develop the program's first-ever All-America selection in Michael Farley. Farley was named a USILA Honorable Mention All-American in 2006. In January of 2008, former Friar goalkeeper Peter Littell ('07) was added to the Long Island Lizard's 35-man roster, and will compete for a permanent roster spot on the team during April training camp.

Burdick came to Providence with an impressive resume, having earned valuable experience with some of the top teams in collegiate lacrosse. A 1991 graduate from the University of Delaware, he was one of the top goalkeepers to ever play for the Blue Hens. Upon graduation from Delaware, Burdick quickly got into coaching and began to establish himself as one of the best young evaluators of talent in collegiate lacrosse. He began his coaching career as an assistant at Notre Dame in 1992. He helped guide the Fighting Irish to two-consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. After two years at Notre Dame, Burdick returned to Delaware to serve as the defensive coordinator for the 15th-ranked Blue Hens in 1994. In 1995, he was named the offensive coordinator. While at Delaware, Burdick earned his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation.

He continued to work with top programs when he became an assistant coach for the 12th-ranked UMass Minutemen in 1996. At UMass, Burdick coached the team's goalies and worked with the defense. The following year, he went to Cornell to become the assistant head coach. He spent one season with the Big Red under coaching legend Richie Moran before coming to Providence.

In addition to his work as a coach in the collegiate ranks, Burdick is very involved with lacrosse at all levels, having made many speaking appearances at various clinics. He also was instrumental in helping to raise more than $4,500 for Eric Potts, a Wesley College lacrosse player who was paralyzed playing summer lacrosse. Burdick served as the president of the MAAC Lacrosse Coaches' Association in 2003, and has been a member of the regional advisory committee for NCAA tournament selection. In 2003, Burdick, along with John's Hopkins' Head Coach Dave Pietramala, were selected to coach in the Division I Men's Lacrosse North/South All-Star game. Burdick also is the director of the Friar Lacrosse Camps.

A native of Cortland, N.Y., he is the son of Angela and Frank Burdick.
