BIG EAST Championship at XL Center (Hartford, Conn.)

earned a 77-69 victory. Since then, the Panthers have defeated the Friars in back-to-back games.

FRIARS AND PANTHERS AT ALUMNI HALL... The Friars and Panthers have met 20 times at Alumni Hall/Mullaney Gymnasium during the all-time series. Providence has been dominant at home, posting a 15-5 record against Pitt in those meetings. However, the Panthers have won three of the last five games played at Alumni Hall, including the most recent meeting played there on January 23, 2010. Pitt took home a 72-58 victory on that day.

SCOUTING PITT... The Panthers enter Saturday's game with an 8-12 overall record and a 0-7 mark in the BIG EAST Conference. The Panthers are winless on the road this season with a 0-5 mark (0-3 BIG EAST). Pitt is in the midst of a six-game winless streak, with its last victory coming against Lafayette (74-69) on December 31. Brianna Kiesel leads the Panther offense with 12.7 points per game, while Leeza Burdges is tops on the team in rebounding (6.7 rpg).

FRIARS COMING OFF HARD-FOUGHT WIN AT MARQUETTE... The Friars are coming off of a hard-fought victory at Marquette on January 21. Providence defeated the Golden Eagles, 52-50, as senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) sank two free throws with one-tenth of a second remaining in the game. Marquette held an 11-point lead (its largest lead of the game) with 13:10 left to play (41-30). The Friars stayed composed and outscored the Golden Eagles, 22-9, to close out the game. Down the stretch the contest featured four ties and three lead changes. With the score tied, 50-50, with 1:20 remaining, Marquette missed its final two shots of the game. Leading up to Barnes' two free throws to seal the game, the Friars had missed five-straight attempts from the charity stripe.

CARDINALS TOO MUCH FOR FRIARS... On January 18, the squad suffered a 64-48 loss to No. 18/15 Louisville at the KFC YUM! Center in Louisville, Ky. Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) was the lone Friar in double figures with 14 points. The Cardinals got a big boost from their bench, outscoring the Friars, 25-13. The key stat of the game leading to Providence's loss was field goal percentage. The Friars shot just 30-percent (18-60) from the field, while the Cardinals hit 52.1-percent of their shot attempts (25-48). Louisville also held a 40-31 advantage on the glass.

FRIARS SNAP SIX-GAME WINLESS STREAK AT THE HANDS OF WEST VIRGINIA... The Friars defeated West Virginia, 51-48, on January 14 in their most recent game. With their win, the Friars snapped a six-game winless streak at the hands of the Mountaineers. Prior to Saturday, Providence's last win against WVU came on February 7, 2006 in Providence, R.I.

PROVIDENCE EARNS FIRST VICTORY OF THE YEAR WHEN TRAILING AT THE HALF... The Friars rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to defeat West Virginia, 51-48, on January 14. Heading into the match-up against WVU the Friars were 0-7 on the season when trailing at the half.

FRIARS STRUGGLE AGAINST HUSKIES... In Providence's most recent game, it fell to No. 3/3 Connecticut, 96-35, on January 10 in Hartford, Conn. The Friars were led by sophomore Lauren Okafor (New Haven, Conn.), who tallied eight points on 4-4 shooting from the field. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) who entered the game as the team's leader in scoring and rebounding, was limited to six points and four rebounds. She also contributed three steals and two assists. The Friars turned the ball over a season-high 25 times and shot just 30.0-percent (15-50) from the floor. Connecticut hit 65.5-percent of its shots (36-55) and notched assists on 29 of its 36 field goals.

FRIARS EARN WIN OVER #20/18 DE PAUL... The Friars earned a 60-52 victory over No. 20/18 DePaul on January 7 in Providence, R.I. Senior forward Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) recorded her league-leading 12th double-double of the season on 19 points and 12 rebounds. The Friars dominated the glass, 46-26. Twenty of their 46 rebounds came off of the offensive glass. Symone Roberts (New Britain, Conn.) added 13 points in the Friar effort, including nine in the second half. The Friars are 1-2 vs. ranked opponents this season. Providence two losses came against No. 19/23 Delaware (68-47) and No. 3/3 Connecticut (96-35).

LAST TIME THE FRIARS DEFEATED A RANKED FOE... Prior to its victory over No. 20/18 DePaul (1/7/12), the last time Providence defeated a ranked opponent was January 7, 2009. The Friars topped then-No. 19/20 Pittsburgh, 77-69, at Alumni Hall/Mullaney Gymnasium in Providence, R.I. The victory over No. 20/18 DePaul in the Friars' most recent game came on the three-year anniversary of the Pitt win.

WHEN THEY'VE DONE IT, THEY'VE DONE IT AT HOME... The Friars have defeated four ranked opponents under the direction of seventh-year Head Coach Phil Seymore. Each time, the Friars achieved the feat on their home court at Alumni Hall/Mullaney Gymnasium, with the most recent coming against No. 20/18 DePaul on January 7, 2012.

LATE-GAME DROUGHT DOOMS FRIARS AT ST. JOHN'S... On January, 4, Providence fell to St. John's 57-41 in Queens, N.Y. Trailing by three (43-40) with 7:20 remaining in the game, Providence went cold offensively down the stretch, scoring just one point the rest of the way. In the final 7:20, Providence committed five turnovers and was 0-4 from the field. The team's only point came on a Lauren Okafor (New Haven, Conn.) free throw with 15 seconds remaining.

TEYA WRIGHT CRACKS TOP-FIVE ON THE FRIARS' ALL-TIME CAREER REBOUNDING LIST... Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) enters Saturday's game against Pittsburgh tied for fifth on the Friars' all-time rebounding list. Wright recently passed Mary Ellen Buchanan '79, who recorded 784 rebounds from 1975-79. She is currently tied with Madeline McCoy '82, who recorded 798 boards in 115 games with the Friars (1978-82). In 108 career games at the NCAA Division I level, Wright has amassed 798 boards (includes two seasons at UMass (376 rebounds)). While with the Friars, Wright has recorded 422 rebounds.

WHO'S NEXT... Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) is moving up the career rebounding list at Providence at a rapid pace. She enters Saturday's game against Pitt needing just one rebound to take sole possession of fifth place. Her next target is Tracy Lis '92, who sits in fourth place with 821 rebounds. To pass Lis, Wright needs 24 rebounds.

DOUBLE-TROUBLE... Through 20 games, two Friars have recorded double-doubles in scoring and rebounding. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) leads the way with a BIG EAST-best 12 double-doubles, while sophomore Lauren "Lady" Okafor (New Haven, Conn.) owns one.

60 SOMETHING... Through 20 games, the Friars have eclipsed 60+ points nine times. Providence has posted an 8-1 record in those games, including a 4-0 mark when scoring 70+ points. The Friars are just 3-8 when they fail to score 60+ points in a game.

READY FROM THE START... The Friars are 9-1 this season when leading their opponent at halftime. Their only loss when leading at the half came against Boston University in the season opener on November 11. Providence led 41-28 at the break and fell to the Terriers, 65-62. PC is 1-0 when tied at the half and 1-6 when trailing at halftime. Providence earned its first victory of the season when trailing at the half against West Virginia on January 14.

TEYA WRIGHT TIED FOR SECOND IN THE NATION IN DOUBLE-DOUBLES... Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) leads the BIG EAST Conference with 12 double-doubles. She also is tied for second in the nation among NCAA Division I players, according to the most recent NCAA weekly statistics report (through games played January 22).

FRIARS NET SEASON-HIGH 78 POINTS AT AKRON... The Friars defeated Akron, 78-65, on December 28 in Akron, Ohio. Providence's 78 points mark a season high for a single game. Providence has scored 70+ points in a single game four times this season. The Friars are 4-0 when scoring 70+ points.

FIVE FRIARS REACH DOUBLE FIGURES AT AKRON... Five Friars scored in double figures in the team's 78-65 win over Akron on December 28. It marked the first time this season that five Friars have reached double figures in a single-game. The last time Providence had five players in double figures was on November 22, 2010 against Hofstra.

WELLS TALLIES CAREER HIGHS IN BACK-TO-BACK GAMES... Lola Wells (Fontana, Calif.) recorded a career-high 13 points in PC's win over Clemson (12/22). On December 28, Wells topped her personal best with 15 points. It is the first time in her collegiate career that she has scored double figures in back-to-back games. Wells has scored in double figures seven times during her career with the Friars, including three times in 2011-12. The Friars are 6-1 when Wells hits double digits.

READY FOR THE WEEKEND... The Friars are 6-0 this season in games played on Saturday. The Friars recently defeated Marquette, 52-50, on Saturday, January 21 in Milwaukee, Wis. The Friars' five victories on Saturday exceed the total number of victories collected by the team on the remaining six days of the week (five).

PLAYING PERCENTAGES... The Friars are 8-0 this season when they shoot an equal or higher percentage from the field than their opponent. Additionally, Providence is 6-1 on the year when holding their opponent below 40-percent from the field. Only three times this season have the Friars shot better than 45-percent in a game, and they earned victories in each of those games.

PROVIDENCE OWNS 3-0 RECORD WHEN FOUR OR MORE FRIARS HIT DOUBLE FIGURES... The Friars are 3-0 this season when four or more players on the roster hit for double-digits in the scoring column. Providence achieved the feat in games vs. Harvard, Dartmouth and Akron. In the win over Akron, the Friars had five players in double figures for the first time this season.

GETTING TO THE LINE... The Friars are 8-1 this season when they attempt more free throws than their opponent. Providence also is 6-1 when attempting 20+ free throws in a single game. On December 31, the Friars hit 19-27 free throw attempts in a win over Hartford in their most recent outing. Providence's 27 free-throw attempts mark a season high. Providence's only loss of the year when attempting more free throws than their opponent came on January 18 against Louisville. The Friars hit 9-15 from the stripe, while the Cardinals shot 8-13.

RACHEL BARNES NAMED TO BIG EAST WEEKLY HONOR ROLL... Senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) was named to the BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll on December 26, for her performance against then-No. 19/23 Delaware and Clemson. Barnes averaged 15.0 points, 4.0 rebounds, 1.5 assists and 1.0 steal per game. She netted 17 points, seven rebounds and two assists in the Friars' win over Clemson. Twelve of her 17 points came in the first half in addition to six of her seven rebounds. Barnes is the second Friar to earn BIG EAST Weekly Honor Roll accolades. Teya Wright earned the honor on December 5.

GETTING OFFENSIVE... Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) hauled in 10 offensive rebounds in a BIG EAST game vs. Villanova on December 7, marking the most offensive rebounds for the forward in BIG EAST play. Overall, Wright's personal best on the offensive glass during a single game came against non-conference foe Boston University on December 31, 2010. She recorded 12 offensive rebounds on that day. Wright currently leads the BIG EAST in offensive rebounds with 91 (4.6 per game).

TWO FRIARS HAVE HIT FOR 20+ POINTS IN A GAME THIS SEASON... Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) leads the Friars with three, 20+ point games this season. Senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) is the only other Friar to achieve the feat. Wright tallied a career-high 25 points against Fairfield (12/3) and also scored 20 points against Oakland (11/22) and 21 points at Boston University (11/11). Barnes scored a career-high 22 points against Harvard on November 18.

THE OFFENSE STARTS HERE... Senior Lola Wells (Fontana, Calif.) has recorded 237 career assists. During the 2010-11 season, she became the first player at Providence to hand out 100+ assists in a single season since 2007-08, and just the second player to achieve the feat in a single-season during the last decade. Wells was inactive for the Friars' first eight games with an injury. She returned for her first action of the season on December 7 against Villanova and has played 12 games overall. She is averaging 1.8 assists per game.

WHAT'S NEXT... After wrapping up play against Pittsburgh, the Friars will host Syracuse on Tuesday, January 31 at 7:00 p.m. The game will be played at Alumni Hall/Mullaney Gymnasium in Providence, R.I. The Friars lead the all-time series against the Orange, 31-18. Syracuse has earned victories in each of the last two meetings.

GAME #1 RECAP VS. BOSTON UNIVERSITY: The Providence College women's basketball team fell to Boston University, 65-62, on November 11 at Case Gym in Boston, Mass. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) recorded a career-high 21 points and added 11 rebounds for a double-double.

Providence got out to an early 11-5 lead heading into the first media timeout of the game. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) scored the Friars' first eight points, followed by eight straight points from fellow senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) to mount a 16-6 Friar lead.

Providence led by as many as 21 (37-16) with 4:09 to play before the Terriers went on a 11-4 run to close the half. Mo Moran keyed the run for BU with two three-point buckets. Wright finished the half with 12 points for Providence and Barnes added 11. Alex Young led Boston University with nine points.

Providence shot an impressive 56.3-percent from the field in the opening half (18-32), and also hit 42.9-percent of its three-point attempts (3-7). BU shot 33.3-percent from the field (9-27) and 36.4-percent from three-point territory (4-11).

The Friar offense cooled down in the second half, while the Terriers held on to the momentum they gained in the closing minutes of the first half. Boston University got within one point (50-51) with 7:48 remaining in the game and took its first lead (52-51) with 6:50 to play on an Alex Young turnaround from the left side of the key. BU went ahead 54-51 before Providence answered with back-to-back buckets, to regain the Friar lead (55-54).

Boston University came right back to take a three-point advantage (58-55) with 3:06 to play. The Friars tied the game, 58-58, with 2:42 on the clock, but BU closed out the game with a 7-4 scoring edge to take the come-from-behind win, 65-62.

Young led the Terriers with a game-high 24 points, including 15 in the decisive second half. Mo Moran added 17 points, while Chantell Alford chipped in 13 points.

GAME #2 RECAP VS. UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA: The Providence College women's basketball team fell to Virginia, 55-38, on November 14 at Alumni Hall/Mullaney Gymnasium in Providence, R.I. Virginia improves to 2-0 on the season, while the Friars drop to 0-2.

Virginia hit a three-point bucket just 20 seconds into the game and never relinquished the lead. The Cavaliers led by as many as 16 in the half, and took a 30-18 advantage into the locker room at halftime.

In the second half, the Friars cut Virginia's lead to seven (38-31) on a 13-8 run with 14:08 remaining. It proved to be as close as Providence could get down the stretch. The Cavaliers closed out the game on a 17-7 scoring advantage.

Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) and junior Symone Roberts (New Britain, Conn.) each recorded 10 points for the Friars. Roberts led the team in rebounding with six boards, while Wright hauled in five.

Virginia was led offensively by Simone Egwu's 12 points and Jazmin Pitts recorded 10. Chelsea Shine narrowly missed a double-double with eight points and a game-high 10 rebounds.

The Cavaliers enjoyed a 43-36 edge in rebounding.

GAME #3 RECAP VS. RHODE ISLAND: The Providence College women's basketball team fell to Rhode Island, 52-43, on Wednesday, November 16 in Kingston, R.I. Senior forward Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) recorded her second double-double of the season with 12 points and 13 rebounds, and was the lone Friar in double figures.

URI took a 24-18 lead into halftime after hitting 50-percent of its attempts from the field (10-20). The Friars shot just 23.1-percent (6-26) in the opening half, and 16.7-percent from three-point range (1-6). Providence held a 19-15 advantage in rebounding heading into the half. Ten of the Friars' 19 boards came off of the offensive glass. Wright led the Friars with eight points and eight rebounds. Ashley Rivera tallied nine points for Rhode Island.

The Friars cut the lead to two (37-35) heading into the second media time-out with 7:53 remaining in the game. Providence tied the game, 37-37, at the 7:28 mark on a turn-around jumper by Wright, but the Rams closed out the game on a 15-6 scoring run to take a 52-43 victory. Three of those six points came on a three-point bucket by senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) as time expired.

Emilie Cloutier led Rhode Island with 14 points, while Rivera finished the night with 13 and Boone added 10. Cloutier and Rivera each recorded five rebounds.

GAME #5 RECAP VS. OAKLAND: Providence College women's basketball team defeated Oakland, 51-50, in overtime on November 22 in Rochester, Mich. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) paced the Friars with 20 points and 14 rebounds for her fourth double-double of the season. Sophomore Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) scored 11 of her 13 points after the halftime intermission, including four of the Friars' six points in the decisive overtime.

The game was tied 16-16 with 5:30 to play in the first half before the Friars went on a 6-0 run to take a 22-16 lead. Oakland halted the run on a lay-in by Bethany Watterworth at 2:58. Watterworth added a free-throw at the 1:45 mark to make the score 22-19, but Wright closed the scoring for Providence with a lay-up at 1:17.

Wright scored 16 of the Friars' 24 points in the half on 8-of-10 shooting from the field. She also collected eight rebounds. Watterworth led Oakland with 13 points, and was the only player on the roster to hit a field goal. She was 4-of-6 from the field, while her teammates were 0-14. Eleven of the Golden Grizzlies' points came from the free-throw line in the half.

Oakland came out of the gate quickly on offense and started the second half on an 8-0 run for a 27-24 lead. Rachel Barnes stopped the bleeding on a lay-up with 16:35 on the clock. The Friars settled down and eventually took a four-point lead (43-39) with 4:25 to play. Oakland tied the game, 43-43, with 1:09 remaining on the clock, but Cropper came back for the Friars and hit a short jumper to put Providence ahead, 45-43, with 33-seconds left. Watterworth sent the game to overtime on two made free throws with 21-seconds remaining. The Friars had two chances to win the game in regulation, but could not convert as the game went to overtime tied at 45-45.

In the extra session, Cropper tallied four points and two rebounds to lead the way as Providence outscored Oakland, 6-5.

Watterworth finished the night with 24 points and 10 boards for Oakland. Victoria Lipscomb contributed six points and five steals.

GAME #6 RECAP VS. DARTMOUTH: Senior Chandler McCabe (Winter Park, Fla.) tallied a career-high 16 points to lead the Providence College women's basketball team to a 63-48 victory over Dartmouth on November 26 in Providence, R.I. McCabe hit 6-of-10 attempts from the floor, including 4-of-7 from three-point range in 21 minutes of play. Sophomore Lauren Okafor (New Haven, Conn.) recorded the first double-double of her collegiate career with personal bests of 11 points and 13 rebounds.

In the first half, Okafor matched her career high of nine points and added a team-best six rebounds to give the Friars a 28-26 lead at the break. Her ninth point of the afternoon came as time expired in the half, after hauling in an offensive board and connecting on the put-back. McCabe added seven points in the first half. Tia Dawson led Dartmouth with six points and five rebounds.

In the second half, Dartmouth hit a three point bucket to take a 29-28 lead just 25 seconds into the action. The Friars answered to go ahead six (35-29) with a quick 7-0 run at the 15:47 mark. The Big Green cut the deficit to three (35-32) with 14:57 on the clock, but it would be as close as they would get the rest of the way. Providence closed the game with a 28-16 scoring advantage.

Joining McCabe and Okafor in double digits were Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) and Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.). Wright recorded 11 points and four rebounds, while Barnes chipped in 13 points and nine boards. Eleven of her 13 points came in the decisive second half of play.

Dartmouth was led by Kamala Thompson's 12 points, and Dawson finished the day with 10 points and a team-best eight rebounds.

The Friars return to action on December 3-4 at the Brown Bear Classic on the campus of Brown University in Providence, R.I. The Friars' first opponent will be Fairfield on Saturday, December 3 at 4:00 p.m. Providence will take on host Brown the following day (Sunday, December 4) at 4:00 p.m. All games will be played at the Pizzitola Sports Center.

GAME #7 RECAP VS. FAIRFIELD: The Providence College women's basketball team defeated Fairfield, 75-43, at the Brown Bear Classic on December 3. The game was played at the Pizzitola Sports Center on the campus of Brown University in Providence, R.I. The Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) recorded her fifth double-double of the season with a career-high 25 points and added 12 boards.

The Friars took a 37-26 lead at halftime, fueled by a 23-6 scoring spurt in the final 6:45 of the half. Fairfield owned a 20-14 lead capped off by a three-point play with 6:45 on the clock. The Friars responded with an 11-0 run to take a 25-20 lead at the 4:23 mark. Fairfield halted the run on a baseline jumper with 3:07 remaining.

The Friars held strong down the stretch, outscoring the Stags 12-6 the final three minutes of the half. Wright scored 12 of her 16 first-half points during the Friars' run. She also hauled in eight first-half rebounds. Fairfield was led by Taryn Johnson's 11 points and six boards.

Providence increased its lead to 19 (53-34) heading into the 12-minute media timeout with 11:51 to play. During that time, the Friars outscored Fairfield, 16-6. Providence kept its strangle-hold on the Stags, finishing out the game with a 22-9 scoring advantage.

Joining Wright in double figures was Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) and Brianna Edwards (Minneapolis, Minn.), who each chipped in 10 points. Sophomore Danielle Pearson (Brooklyn, N.Y.) led the Friars with four assists.

Johnson finished the day with 18 points and eight rebounds for Fairfield. Desiree Pina contributed 14 points.

GAME #8 RECAP VS. BROWN: Providence College women's basketball fell to Brown, 70-57, in the Brown Bear Classic on December 4. The game was held at the Pizzitola Sports Center in Providence, R.I. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) led the Friars with her sixth double-double of the season on 14 points and a season-high 17 rebounds. Sophomore Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) added a game-high 16 points.

The Bears held a 20-13 lead at the 7:45 mark of the first half and closed out the half on a 16-0 run to take a 36-13 lead at halftime. Brown hit 12-of-22 shots from the field, including 6-of-12 from three-point range. Meanwhile, the Friars hit just 6-of-28 attempts from the field (21.4-percent), including 1-of-8 from beyond the three-point arc. Providence missed its final 11 shots of the half. Sheila Dixon netted 16 of the Bears' 36 points on 6-of-9 shooting from the field, including 4-of-5 from three.

The Friars started the half on a 7-0 run, forcing Brown to call a timeout, with the score showing 36-20. The run grew to 13-0 by the first media timeout at 15:26 and Providence was within 10 (36-26). The Friars got it to within nine (43-34), but it would be the closest the Friars would get the rest of the way.

The Friars outscored the Bears, 44-34, in the second half, but the halftime deficit proved too great to overcome.

Dixon finished the day with a game-high 26 points. Lindsay Nickel and Lauren Clarke added 16 and 10, respectively.

Junior Symone Roberts (New Britain, Conn.) joined Wright and Cropper in double figures for the Friars with 11. Sophomore Danielle Pearson (Brooklyn, N.Y.) collected a career-high nine rebounds and added a team-best three assists. The Friars owned a 43-24 advantage on the glass in the game. Twenty-two of the Friars' 43 boards were offensive.

GAME #12 RECAP VS. CLEMSON: The Providence College women's basketball team defeated Clemson, 73-63, on December 22 in Providence, R.I. Senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) led three Friars in double figures with 17 points. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) posted her ninth double-double of the season on 16 points and 10 rebounds. Lauren Okafor (New Haven, Conn.) chipped in seven points, 11 rebounds and a career-high five blocked shots.

The Friars took a 41-34 lead into the locker room at halftime on the strength of Barnes' 12 first-half points. She also hauled in six rebounds in the opening 20 minutes, five of which came off the offensive glass. Shaniqua Pauldo led Clemson in the first half with 10 points.

The Friars' lead swelled to 14 (48-34) as the team started the second half on a 7-0 run in the first 1:28 of play. Clemson fought back to get within four (54-50) with 8:38 remaining in the game, but senior Lola Wells (Fontana, Calif.) knocked down a three-pointer to push the Friars' lead to seven (57-50) with 8:10 on the clock. It proved to be the closest Clemson would get the rest of the way.

Sophomore guard Danielle Pearson (Brooklyn, N.Y.) contributed a team-high four assists in 10 minutes of action for Providence. Junior Symone Roberts (New Britain, Conn.) added six points, four rebounds, three assists and a game-high three steals.

Wright jumped into the top-10 on the Friars' all-time career rebounding list with her 10 boards. She heads into the holiday break with 737 career rebounds, which is good for 9th place. She passed Stefanie Goettsche '94 and Lucie Fontanella '94, who registered 733 and 735 rebounds, respectively, during their careers.

Pauldo finished with a game-high 20 points for Clemson and added six rebounds. Nikki Dixon led the offensive effort with 13 points, while Quinyotta Pettaway added 10 points and a team-best seven rebounds. Five of Pettaway's rebounds came off the offensive glass.

GAME #13 RECAP VS. AKRON: The Providence College women's basketball team defeated Akron, 78-65, on December 28 in Akron, Ohio. Sophomore guard Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) matched her career highs of 16 points and five rebounds to lead the effort. Cropper hit 6-of-7 shots from the field and added three assists on the day.

Providence jumped out to a 12-2 lead heading into the first media timeout at the 15:08 mark. To that point, Akron hit just 1-of-7 attempts from the field. Providence also showed dominance on the board with a 10-2 advantage in rebounding.

The Friars led by as many as 12 (16-4) with 13:48 on the clock, but the Zips responded with a 20-8 run to tie the game, 24-24, with 4:31 left. The Friars hit back-to-back buckets to take a 29-24 lead. Akron held a 7-2 scoring advantage down the stretch and the two teams went into the break tied, 31-31.

The Friars held a 23-12 edge in rebounding during the opening 20 minutes. Akron took advantage of 11 Friar turnovers in the half and came away with 11 points. The Zips also outscored the Friars, 9-3, from the foul line.

Akron took its first lead of the game (39-38) as Taylor Ruper buried a three-point bucket at the 16:48 mark. Providence regained the lead (46-41) with 13:17 to play with a 6-0 run, but the Zips scored seven-straight points to take a 48-46 lead.

Wright tied the game with a lay-up at 10:05, but Akron came right back to take a 50-48 advantage just four seconds later. Friar senior Lola Wells (Fontana, Calif.) answered with back-to-back three pointers to give Providence a 54-50 lead with 8:58 on the clock. The Friars extended their lead to 57-50 at the 6:49 mark.

Akron cut the lead to three (59-56) with 4:40 remaining, but the Friars went on a 16-5 run to take a 14-point advantage with 1:12 left.

Wright finished the game with 14 points and 11 rebounds for her BIG EAST leading 10th double-double. It marked the first time this season that five Friars reached double figures in the scoring column. Wells contributed a career-high 15 points, while senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) and junior Brianna Edwards (Minneapolis, Minn.) chipped in 14 and 10 points, respectively.

The Friars matched their season high of 18 assists in the game. Providence also finished the night with a 37-32 rebounding advantage. The Friars, who were plagued by turnovers in the first half, only turned the ball over four times in the second half.

GAME #14 RECAP VS. HARTFORD: The Providence College women's basketball team defeated Hartford, 63-46, in its final non-conference game of the year on December 31 in Providence, R.I. Junior Symone Roberts (New Britain, Conn.) matched her career high with 18 points to lead the Friar offense. Roberts has reached 18 points three other times during her career, including a victory over Hawks in East Hartford last season. Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) posted her BIG EAST leading 11th double-double of the year with 11 points and 14 rebounds.

Providence took a 27-24 lead into the locker room at halftime, as senior Lola Wells (Fontana, Calif.) and sophomore Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) scored seven points each for the Friars. Ruthanne Doherty led Hartford in the opening 20 minutes with 10 points. Each team turned the ball over just three times in the half and rebounds were even at 20 apiece. The scored was tied four times, with the Hawks taking just one lead (11-10) with 15:19 on the clock.

The Friars extended their lead to double-digits just 2:39 into the second half, leading 36-26. Hartford cut the lead to eight just eight-seconds later, on a lay-up by Amber Bepko, but it would be the closest the Hawks would get the rest of the way. Providence outscored Hartford, 36-22, in the second half.

Doherty was limited to three points in the second half and finished the day with 13 to lead Hartford. Nikkia Smith chipped in 10 points, while Daphne Elliott hauled in a team-best 10 rebounds.

Senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) enjoyed a well-balanced game for Providence with nine points and eight rebounds. She also dished a career-high five assists for the second-straight game.

GAME #15 RECAP VS. ST. JOHN'S: The Providence College women's basketball team trailed by three points (41-38) with 7:20 remaining in the game, but St. John's closed out the evening with a 16-3 scoring advantage to defeat the Friars, 57-41, on January 4 in Queens, N.Y. Senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) scored a team-best 15 points for the Friars, including 12 in the second half. St. John's was led offensively by Shenneika Smith's 18 points.

St. John's started the game on a 12-2 run during the first 5:30 of play, as the Red Storm hit five of their first seven shot attempts. Providence cut the deficit to four (12-8) on a 6-0 run at the 12:02 mark. As both offenses struggled to convert baskets, the Red Storm maintained their four-point margin (20-16) with 2:05 left in the half. St. John's scored five-straight points to extend its lead to 25-16, including a three-point basket by Eugenia McPherson with 1:31 on the clock. Providence's Lauren Okafor (New Haven, Conn.) closed the half with a conventional three-point play, and St. John's took a 25-19 lead into halftime.

Barnes scored the Friars' first eight points of the second half, including two three-point baskets and was 3-of-3 from the field. Heading into the first media timeout, St. John's held a five-point advantage (32-27).

Providence cut the lead to three (41-38) with 7:45 remaining in the game on a short jumper by Symone Roberts (New Britain, Conn.). The lead remained three points (41-38), with 7:20 on the clock as sophomore Danielle Pearson (Brooklyn, N.Y.) hit a lay-up off an inbounds play under the basket. The Friars' only point in the closing 7:20 came on a free throw with 15 seconds left.

Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.), who scored double figures in each of Providence's games leading up to the St. John's game, finished the night with four points and a team-best seven rebounds. She played just 22 minutes due to foul trouble.

Providence out-rebounded the Red Storm, 37-36. St. John's benefited from 18 Friar turnovers by converting 22 points. Providence tallied 11 points off of 15 St. John's miscues.

GAME #16 RECAP VS. #20/18 DE PAUL: The Providence College women's basketball team defeated No. 20/18 DePaul, 60-52, on Saturday, January 7 at Alumni Hall/Mullaney Gymnasium in Providence, R.I. It marked the program's first victory over a nationally-ranked opponent since January 7, 2009 - exactly three years to the day. That win came against then-No. 19/20 Pittsburgh (77-69). Senior forward Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) posted her league-leading 12th double-double with 19 points and 12 boards to lead the Friars.

In the first half, the Friars led by as many as 12 (35-23) with 1:07 remaining on the clock. DePaul closed the half on a 5-0 run to get within seven at the break (35-28). The Friars were able to control the half with a 29-8 rebounding margin. Fifteen of the Friars' 29 boards came off the offensive glass. Providence held a 9-0 scoring advantage in second-chance points. Wright led the Friars with 12 points and seven rebounds in the opening 20 minutes. Six of her seven boards were offensive. Anna Martin led DePaul with nine points in the half.

DePaul started the second half where it left off, scoring six unanswered points to get within one (35-34) with 17:17 on the clock. However, Providence would not relinquish its lead en route to the victory. With 6:36 remaining in the game, the Friar pushed their lead to 10 (50-40); punctuated by a short baseline jumper by Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.). DePaul cut the deficit to five (52-47) with 3:20 on the clock, but it was the closest the Blue Demons could get.

The Friars connected on 6-of-6 free throws in the final 1:17 to hold off the possibility of a Blue Demon rally. Junior Symone Roberts was 4-of-4 during that stretch and was 7-of-7 from the stripe for the game. Roberts finished the night with 13 points, three rebounds, two steals, one assist and one block.

Providence dominated the glass with a 46-26 rebounding advantage. The Friars 26 defensive rebounds equaled the total number of Blue Demon boards for the game. Providence improves to 8-1 on the season when scoring 60+ points and 8-1 when leading at halftime.

Martin finished the day with 17 points, while Jasmine Penny added 10. Katherine Harry contributed eight points and a team-high six rebounds.

GAME #17 VS. #3/3 CONNECTICUT: The Providence College women's basketball team fell to No. 3/3 Connecticut, 96-35, on Tuesday, January 10 at the XL Center in Hartford, Conn. Tiffany Hayes and Bria Hartley each recorded 19 points for the Huskies, while Providence was led offensively by Lauren Okafor (New Haven, Conn.), who posted eight points on 4-4 shooting.

Providence fell victim to a smothering defense in the first half and headed into the locker room facing a 48-17 deficit. The Huskies outscored the Friars, 17-2, in points off turnovers. UConn also held a 30-8 advantage in the paint. Hartley led all scorers with 15 points in the opening 20 minutes. Seniors Lola Wells (Fontana, Calif.) and Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) recorded four points each for the Friars.

The second half was much of the same as the Huskies out-scored the Friars, 48-18. Connecticut finished the game with a 42-18 advantage in rebounding. The Huskies recorded assists on 29 of their 36 field goals on the evening. Providence finished the night with a season-high 26 turnovers, which UConn converted into 33 points. The final margin for points in the paint favored the Huskies, 56-14.

GAME #18 VS. -/rv WEST VIRGINIA: The Providence College women's basketball team rallied from a 10-point halftime deficit to defeat West Virginia, 51-48, on January 14 in Providence, R.I. Senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) recorded a game-high 19 points to lead the Friars, including 14 in the decisive second half.

West Virginia took a 28-18 lead into the locker room, following an opening 20 minutes filled with scoring runs. The Mountaineers started the game off on an 8-0 run in the first 3:19 of play. Providence responded with an 8-0 run of its own to tie the game with 14:43 showing on the clock. The Mountaineers answered with a 12-2 run to take a 20-10 lead at the 9:24 mark, which was followed by an 8-0 Friar run to get within two (20-18) at the 6:07 mark. West Virginia pushed its lead back to 10 with an 8-0 scoring advantage to close the half.

Providence opened the second half with a pair of free throws and WVU came right back with a short jumper by Jessica Harlee to make the score, 30-20, with 18:20 on the clock. At that point, the Friars exploded offensively and out-scored the Mountaineers, 17-4, to take a 39-34 advantage remaining in the game. West Virginia battled back to tie the game three times down the stretch, but the Friars would not relinquish their lead.

Joining Barnes in double figures for the Friars was sophomore Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) and senior Lola Wells (Fontana, Calif.), who tallied 13 and 10 points, respectively. Cropper added five rebounds and four assists. Sophomore Lauren Okafor (New Haven, Conn.) led Providence on the glass with seven rebounds and added a career-high five steals.

West Virginia won the battle of the boards, 45-32. However, the Mountaineers committed 23 turnovers compared to the Friars' 13. Asya Bussie finished the day with 14 points for WVU. Christal Caldwell and Taylor Palmer added 13 points each. Caldwell added a game-high nine rebounds.

The victory marks the first for Providence this season when trailing at the half. The Friars entered the game with an 0-7 record when trailing at halftime. Providence also improves to 5-0 in games played on Saturday.

Providence also snapped a six-game winless streak at the hands of the Mountaineers with its victory on Saturday. The last time the Friars defeated West Virginia dates back to February 7, 2006. On that day, Providence earned a 57-55 win at Alumni Hall/Mullaney Gymnasium in Providence, R.I.

GAME #19 VS. #18/15 LOUISVILLE: The Providence College women's basketball team fell to No. 18/15 Louisville, 64-48, on January 18 at the KFC YUM! Center in Louisville, Ky. Sophomore guard Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) led the Friar effort with 14 points. Bria Smith led three Cardinals in double figures with 12 points.

The Friars trailed 7-6 in the first half the Cardinals went on a 16-2 run to take a 23-8 lead with 8:18 left on the clock. Providence responded with an 11-0 run to get within four (23-19) at the 1:34 mark. Antonita Slaughter halted the Cardinals scoring drought on a three-point bucket with 34-seconds left to push Louisville's lead to seven at the half (26-19).

In the second half, the Friars cut the deficit to five (30-25) with 16:53 to play, but Louisville took control with a 17-8 run to take a 47-33 lead at the 10:55 mark. Providence trimmed the 14-point deficit to nine (52-43), but it proved to be as close as the Friars would get down the stretch. The Cards finished off the game with a 12-5 scoring edge to take the win.

Louisville shot 52.1-percent from the field (25-48), including 6-15 from three point range (40.0-percent). The Friars were held to 30.0-percent shooting (18-60). The Cards also held a 40-31 advantage in rebounding.

Senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) led the Friars on the glass with seven rebounds and chipped in three points and two steals.

Becky Burke and Slaughter joined Smith in double figures with 11 and 10 points, respectively. Asia Taylor came off the bench to record a game-high 10 rebounds.

GAME #20 VS. MARQUETTE: The Providence College women's basketball team defeated BIG EAST foe Marquette, 52-50, on Saturday, January 21 at the Al McGuire Center in Milwaukee, Wis. Senior Rachel Barnes (Windsor, Conn.) hit two free throws with one-tenth of a second left on the clock to lift the Friars to the victory. Fellow senior Teya Wright (Paterson, N.J.) paced Providence with a game-high 18 points.

The Golden Eagles took a 10-5 lead in the first half, but the Friars responded with a 10-2 run to take a 15-12 lead with 10:47 on the clock. The Friars held a 19-17 lead at the 4:29 mark, but pushed out to their largest lead of the half (25-17) with a 6-0 spurt. Providence went into the locker room at the break with a 26-19 advantage. Wright led the way with 11 points, while Marquette's Apiew Ojulu tallied seven points. Marquette turned the ball over 15 times in the opening 20 minutes, compared to eight Friar turnovers.

Marquette came out of the gates fast in the second half, outscoring the Friars, 22-4, to take a 41-30 lead with 13:11 remaining in the game. Providence responded with an 11-0 run to tie the game, 41-41, with 9:04 to play. The Friars regained the lead (46-45) at the 5:35 mark, but Marquette quickly answered with a three to take a 48-46 lead with 5:08 on the clock.

Barnes and sophomore Alicia Cropper (Brooklyn, N.Y.) tallied back-to-back fast-break lay-ups for the Friars to take a 50-48 advantage heading into the final media timeout at 3:27.

Marquette struck first out of the timeout to tie the score, 50-50, with 1:20 remaining. The Friars shot attempt on the next possession was off the mark and the Golden Eagles secured the rebound. On the other end, Marquette's Katie Young shot misfired and hit the iron, but the Golden Eagles secured the offensive board and called time out with 27 seconds left.

The Friars caused a held ball with four seconds left, but the Golden Eagles retained possession. Marquette got a shot off in the final seconds from the right baseline, but Barnes came up with the defensive rebound and was fouled with a tenth of a second remaining. With the Friars in the double-bonus, Barnes hit both free throws to take the 52-50 win.

Barnes finished the night with 11 points, six rebounds and five steals. Junior Brianna Edwards (Minneapolis, Minn.) recorded a team-best seven boards for the Friars. Six of her seven boards came off the offensive glass.

FORMER FRIAR DORIS BURKE '87 NAMED RECIPIENT OF NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD

Burke among elite field of award winners who will be honored on January 13 in Indianapolis, Ind.

PROVIDENCE, R.I. -- Former Providence College women's basketball stand-out and current NBA, WNBA and college basketball TV analyst, Doris Burke '87, was named a recipient of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award. The NCAA has named six former student-athletes as recipients of its Silver Anniversary Award that annually recognizes distinguished individuals on the 25th anniversary of the conclusion of their college athletics careers. Burke becomes just the second Providence College graduate to earn the prestigious honor. Former men's basketball player Ray Flynn '63 was an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award winner in 1988.

Joining Burke among the list of 2012 recipients are: Tim Brown (Notre Dame/Football), Kevin Johnson (University of California, Berkeley/Men's Basketball), Sean Payton (Eastern Illinois University/Football), Amy Perko (Wake Forest/Women's Basketball) and David Robinson (United States Naval Academy/Basketball). The 2012 award winners will be recognized at the Honors Celebration on Jan. 13 during the NCAA Convention in Indianapolis, Ind.

"In the history of both collegiate and professional basketball, Doris Burke's achievements in broadcast journalism stand at the very pinnacle of the profession," said Providence College President Rev. Brian J. Shanley, O.P. "Doris is a true pioneer, someone who used both her collegiate education and her athletic career as a springboard to explore and transcend the defined limits of her craft. The entire Providence College community congratulates Doris on this most significant and deserving honor from the NCAA and salutes her continued excellence."

Burke, a member of the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame and New England Basketball Hall of Fame, had an impressive playing career with the Friars from 1983-1987. The gritty point guard led Providence in assists during three of her four seasons with the program and was a three-time All-BIG EAST selection. Burke led the BIG EAST Conference in assists two-straight seasons from 1985-1987, and still ranks second all-time at Providence College in assists with 602 handouts in 113 career games.

In addition to earning All-BIG EAST honors, Burke was selected to the KODAK District I All-America Team in 1987. She also was named to the BIG EAST All-Tournament Team twice during her career, and is one of only three players in program history to make the All-Tournament Team multiple times. Not only did Burke facilitate the offense for others as the lead play-maker, she also was a prolific scorer. To date, Burke ranks 10th all-time at Providence in career scoring, with 1,372 points.

Since graduation, Burke has become a pioneer in the field of TV sports journalism. Working for ESPN since 1991, Burke has served as a sideline reporter, analyst and play-by-play broadcaster for NCAA men's and women's basketball, the NBA and the WNBA. She is the first woman to call a BIG EAST Conference men's basketball game, the first woman to be hired as a regular commentator for a men's college basketball package and the first woman to call a New York Knicks game on the radio and on television.

"Doris has set the bar quite high during her athletic and professional endeavors, and the Providence College community is very proud," Providence College Athletics Director Robert G. Driscoll said. "The honor is well deserved, and is a tribute to her exceptional character, drive and passion for athletics, not just during her time here at Providence College, but as she has progressed through her professional career. "
