WHO, WHEN, WHERE... The Providence College women's basketball team will face #1 Connecticut, in BIG EAST Conference action on Wednesday, February 20 at 7:30 p.m. The game is scheduled to be played at Gampel Pavilion, in Storrs, Connecticut. The Huskies defeated Providence, 85-61, earlier this season on February 3, in Providence, R.I.

PROVIDENCE VERSUS CONNECTICUT... The Friars and Huskies will meet for the 49th time, on Wednesday February 20. Providence trails the all-time series with UConn, 21-27. The Huskies have won the last 15 games versus the Friars, dating back to January 16, 1994, when UConn earned, 85-58, victory in Storrs, Conn. The last time Providence defeated Connecticut was on March 7, 1993. On that day, PC earned a 87-73 victory in Providence, R.I. In the teams' most recent match-up earlier this season in Providence, UConn earned a, 85-61, win (2/3/02).

FOR THE RECORD... The Friars and Huskies have met 48 times in the 27-year history of the PC women's basketball program. Connecticut leads the all-time series, 27-21. In games played in Providence, R.I., the all-time series is tied, 11-11. In games played at Connecticut, the Huskies hold a 8-13 advantage. In games played on a neutral court, the Huskies lead the series, 3-2.

SCOUTING THE HUSKIES... The Connecticut Huskies enter Wednesday's game with a 27-0 overall record, including a 13-0 mark in BIG EAST play. In recent action, the Huskies defeated Syracuse, 85-55, on February 13, in Syracuse, N.Y. Diana Taurasi led all scorers with 24 points, and added a game-high eight assists. Swin Cash chipped in 17 points and a game-high eight rebounds. Asjha Jones scored 12, and Maria Conlon added 11 to round out the Huskies in double-digits. Overall, Cash leads Connecticut in scoring and rebounding, averaging 15.4 points and 9.2 rebounds per game. Sue

Bird is second on the team in scoring with 14.1 points per game, and leads the team in assists with 6.0 handouts per game. Taurasi is third in scoring with 14.1 points, and second in assists (5.1 apg). Jones averages 13.4 points per game, and Tamika Williams adds 10.5 points per game.

THE FRIARS LAST TIME OUT... The Providence College women's basketball team's three-game winning streak came to a halt in Morgantown, West Virginia, with a 65-50 loss to West Virginia on February 16. Freshman guard/forward Michal Epstein (Rehovot, Israel) led the Friars with 14 points. Graduate student Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.) added 10 points and a team-high eight rebounds. PC trailed the Mountaineers, 31-27, at the halftime break. In the second half, the Friars shot a dismal 25.7 percent from the field, while WVU connected on 52.2 percent of its attempts from the floor to take the decisive win.

EARLIER THIS SEASON VERSUS CONNECTICUT... Diana Taurasi scored 20 points, and Swin Cash had 14 points, seven rebounds and six assists to lead No. 1 Connecticut to an 85-6 victory over Providence on Sunday, February 3. PC Guard Michal Epstein (Rehovot, Israel) scored a game-high 23 points for Providence. She shot seven-for-10 from the field, including four-for-six from beyond the three-point arc. Connecticut raced to a 35-12 lead before Epstein scored eight points in the span of just a minute late in the first half on a pair of 3-pointers and two free throws. The Friars were outscored by just two points the Huskies, 40-38, in the second half of play.

FRIARS REACH 11 WINS... The Friars reached 11 wins, with a 67-61, win over #22/21 Virginia Tech on February 13. The Friars matched their season-win total of 11, set one-year ago (2000-01), with three games remaining on the 2001-02 regular-season schedule. The Friars have not won more than 11 games since the 1996-97 season, when the team posted a 13-14 record.

HOW THE FRIARS HAVE FARED THIS SEASON... The Providence College women's basketball team enters its 25th game of the 2001-02 season, with a 11-13 overall record, and a 5-8 mark in the BIG EAST. The Friars are 4-9 on the road, 0-1 on a neutral court, and 7-3 on their home court (Alumni Hall), in Providence, R.I. Against BIG EAST opponents, PC is 4-2 at home and 1-6 on the road. Providence is ranked ninth place in the BIG EAST standings in games played through February 17. On February 13, the Friars defeated #22/21 Virginia Tech, 67-61, in Providence, R.I. The win marked the first victory over a ranked opponent under the six-year direction of head coach Jim Jabir.

BIG EAST RESULTS... The Friars have played 13 BIG EAST games this season, and hold a record of 5-8. On December 5, the Friars were defeated by Rutgers, 71-61, in Piscataway, N.J. PC evened its conference record (1-1), with a 59-55 win over Georgetown, in Providence, R.I. on January 2. On January 5, Providence fell to 1-2 in the conference, with a 72-66 loss to Notre Dame, in Notre Dame, Indiana. On January 9, PC moved to 2-2 in conference play with a 62-49 win over Villanova, in Providence, R.I. The Friars fell to 2-3 in BIG EAST play with an 81-52 loss at Syracuse on January 12. PC lost its second-straight game of the season, and fell to 2-4 in the conference, with a 69-49 loss at Boston College on January 12. PC lost its third-straight game, 69-41, at home against Notre Dame on January 19. The Friars extended their losing streak to four games, with a 64-54 loss at Seton Hall on January 26. On February 3, PC fell to #1-ranked UConn, 85-61, in Providence, R.I. On February 6, the Friars snapped their five-game losing streak at St. John's, with a 62-51 victory, in Jamaica, N.Y. The Friars pulled off an 80-70 upset victory against Syracuse on February 9, in Providence, R.I. The win over Syracuse earned PC its second-straight victory. PC extended its win-streak to three games with a 67-61, victory over #21/22 Virginia Tech, in Providence,

* in order to be ranked in any of the above categories, a player must have appeared in at least 75% of her teams' games.

TRIPPANY SETS PERSONAL BEST MARK FOR REBOUNDING IN A SINGLE SEASON... Grad student Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.) has pulled down 153 rebounds this season, through 24 games, marking a personal single-season career best. During the 2000-01 season, Trippany recorded a single-season-best 98 rebounds. Trippany pulled down her 99th board of the 2001-02 season, in a 81-52 loss to Syracuse, on January 12. Trippany currently has 413 rebounds in her career at PC, and ranks first among her teammates in rebounding this season, averaging 6.4 boards per game. Trippany eclipsed the 400-rebound plateau in a 67-61 victory over #21/22 Virginia Tech on February 13, 2002.

SEEING DOUBLE... Graduate student Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.) and freshman Jessica Simmonds (South Orange, N.J.) are the only Friars on the 2001-02 roster to have registered a double-double this season. Trippany leads the Friars in double-doubles, with three. Only 17 players in the BIG EAST Conference have registered three double-doubles or more. Trippany had not recorded a double-double in any of the four previous seasons with the Friars.

Trippany's first collegiate double-double was recorded on November 27 versus Rhode Island (13 points, 13 rebounds). She also earned double-doubles versus Idaho (12 points, 10 rebounds) and Georgetown (10 points, 10 rebounds). Simmonds has recorded two double-doubles during her first season with the Friars, in games versus St. John's (10 points, 10 rebounds) and Syracuse (12 points, 13 rebounds).

ROSTER CHANGES... The Friars began the 2001-02 season with a 16-player roster. To date, sophomore Jenese Wilcox (Port Chester, N.Y.) and junior Andrea Horvath (Sopron, Hungary) are no longer active, sinking the roster total to 14. Wilcox, who played in 13 games with three appearances in the starting line-up, is currently academically ineligible. Horvath appeared in six games for the Friars this season. She is eligible to practice, however, she will not appear in uniform until further notice, pending an NCAA review on her playing status in native country of Hungary.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY... Only three players, Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.), Catrina Hawley-Stewart (West Haven, Conn.) and Brooke Freeburg (Waterford, Pa.) have played in all 24 of the Friars' games this season. 10 of the team's 14 active players have appeared in the starting line-up at least once. Trippany leads the team in games started during the 2001-02 season, with 21 appearances as the starting center. Freeburg has started 18 games, as a guard/forward. Ten of the team's 14 active players are averaging 12.8 minutes per game or more. Senior Chrissy Vozab (Amenia, N.Y.) leads the Friars with 663 minutes played (28.8 minutes per game).

2001-2002 PROVIDENCE COLLEGE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NOTES

HEAD COACH JIM JABIR

Jim Jabir enters his sixth season leading the Providence College women's basketball program. This season he has the players to start making a mark in the BIG EAST Conference. The Friars made a big stride last winter, defeating Seton Hall University, 72-61, in the first round of the 2001 BIG EAST Conference Tournament and advancing to the quarterfinal round for the first time under Jabir.

Known for his ability to attract high-caliber student-athletes, Jabir has two of the top sophomores returning in sophomore point guard Kristin Quinn and sophomore post-player Jenese Wilcox. Added to the two super-sophs is a quality recruiting class of athletes who figure to make immediate impact on the court this season.

After a 2-3 start last season, Jabir engineered five-straight non-conference victories to enter the conference season. The growth of two rookies in the starting lineup and some near-upsets of nationally ranked Rutgers, Notre Dame and Virginia Tech led to a pair of victories in the squad's last three contests and a final 11-17 overall record.

Jabir owns a career record of 207-208 in 15 years as a Division I head coach. The personable and well-liked Jabir is dedicated to the program and to its resurgence in the BIG EAST.

Providence College welcomed Jabir into the Friar family on May 21, 1996 as he was named the sixth head coach in the 22-year history of the program.

In 15 seasons as a collegiate head coach, eight of his teams have posted winning records. In the last five seasons, the Friars have taken important steps toward rebuilding, and are now poised to advance in the BIG EAST standings. In 1996-97, the Friars posted a 13-13 regular season record and lost to Villanova in the first round of the BIG EAST Championship. The following season, PC went 10-17 and exited the BIG EAST Tournament in the first round at the hands of Boston College. Injuries played a role in the win-loss ratio during the 1998-99 season as the Friars found themselves at a 5-22 overall record when the BIG EAST Tournament ended with a 69-68 loss to Villanova. In 1999-2000, PC was still plagued with injuries but doubled their win total from the previous year with a 10-17 overall mark.

Prior to coming to Providence, Jabir spent six years at Marquette, where he became the most successful coach in the history of the program and elevated the Golden Eagles into the national spotlight.

Under his high-powered offense, Jabir established a program that earned respect from people in Milwaukee, in the nation and in the ranks of women's basketball.

After posting a 7-20 record during his inaugural year (1990-91) with the Golden Eagles, Jabir guided his team to four consecutive winning seasons, two 20-plus winning seasons and three straight post-season appearances, including back-to-back bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In 1994-95, Marquette won the Great Midwest Conference Tournament, the first tournament championship in school history. This followed the 1993-94 season in which Jabir compiled a program-best 22-7 overall record and its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Just four years after Jabir's arrival at Marquette, the program made its way onto the national scene as it earned its first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament. Seeded 14th, Marquette was four points shy of pulling off an upset over No. 5 Colorado. The Lady Buffs needed three last-second free throws to earn the 77-74 victory.

In 1994-95 Marquette received a No. 10 seed and the chance to play No. 7 seed North Carolina State on a neutral court at Penn State. Despite a grand effort, MU fell to the Wolfpack, 77-62.

Jabir matriculated to Marquette from Siena College, where he served as the head coach of the Lady Saints for three seasons (1987-90) and compiled a 50-20 overall record. Jabir's teams posted three consecutive winning seasons and his 1989-90 team was a semifinalist in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) post-season tournament.

Prior to his stint at Siena, Jabir was the head coach at Buffalo State during the 1986-87 season at the young age of 24. He led that team to a 14-11 record. Jabir guided the Bengals to the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) championship and an appearance in the NCAA Division III South Regional Tournament.

The Brooklyn, N.Y. native began his coaching career as an assistant at Nazareth College (1984-85) and at Buffalo State (1985-86). Jabir was instrumental in leading the Bengals to a 23-3 slate, the SUNYAC title, a 22-game winning streak, an NCAA regional tournament appearance and a national ranking (#3) during the 1985-86 season.
