WHO, WHEN, WHERE... The Providence College women's basketball team will host Syracuse in BIG EAST Conference action, on Saturday, February 9 at 1:00 p.m. The game is scheduled to be played at Alumni Hall in Providence, Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE VERSUS SYRACUSE... The Friars and Orangewomen will tip-off against each other for the 39th time, in the 27-year history of the PC women's basketball program. Providence leads the all-time series against Syracuse, 27-11. The two teams locked up earlier this season on January 12, in Syracuse, New York. The Orangewomen defeated the Friars, 81-52, in that game. Prior January 12, Syracuse had not defeated PC since January 7, 1999, in Providence, Rhode Island (82-64). The last time Providence defeated Syracuse was on February 27, 2001, in Providence, R.I. (79-74).

FOR THE RECORD... The Friars and Orangewomen will meet for the 39th time on Saturday, February 9, 2002. PC leads the all-time series, 27-11. In games played in Providence, Rhode Island, the Friars lead the series 16-3. In games played in Syracuse, New York, the Friars lead the series, 9-8. In games played at a neutral site, PC leads the series, 2-0.

HEAD COACH JIM JABIR VERSUS ST. JOHN'S... Providence College head coach Jim Jabir is 6-5 overall against Syracuse, in his 16 years as a collegiate head coach.

LAST TIME OUT VERSUS THE ORANGEWOMEN... The Providence College women's basketball team was defeated by Syracuse University in BIG EAST Conference action, 81-52, in Syracuse, N.Y., on Saturday, January 12. The Friars were led by graduate student Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.), who scored 18 points, and pulled down five rebounds. Trippany connected on seven of her 10 attempts from the field, including a perfect three-for-three from beyond the three-point arc. She also made good on her only free-throw attempt of the day, and registered one assist and one steal. Freshman Jessica Simmonds (South Orange, N.J.) recorded 10 points, two assists, two blocks and two steals. The Orangewomen got off to a quick, 4-0, lead and never trailed at any point during the game. Syracuse guard Jaime James led all scorers with 21 points, and recorded a game-high eight assists, to go along with eight rebounds, two steals and one block. Julie McBride scored 16 points and dished out six assists. Leaf Newman tallied 14 points and handed out five assists, and Shannon Perry scored 12 points and pulled down a game-high nine rebounds.

SCOUTING THE ORANGEWOMEN... The Syracuse Orangewomen enter Saturday's game with a 14-7 overall record and a 7-3 mark in BIG EAST Conference play. In the teams' last game, Syracuse defeated Rutgers, 68-51, at Manley Fieldhouse in Syracuse, N.Y. Jaime James led the Orangewomen to victory with a game-high 19 points. Shannon Perry added 16 points and a game-high nine rebounds. Julie McBride dished out a game-high seven assists, and added 13 points. McBride leads the Orangewomen in overall scoring and assists, averaging 15.5 points and 5.7 assists per game. James is second on the team in scoring, with 14.8 points per game. Perry averages 11.8 points, and a team-leading 6.5 rebounds per game.

THE FRIARS LAST TIME OUT... The Providence College women's basketball team snapped a five-game losing streak on Wednesday, February 6, with a BIG EAST Conference victory over St. John's (62-51), at Alumni Hall in Jamaica, New York. The game marked the first BIG EAST Conference road win for the Friars. Freshman Keisha Blackwell (Baltimore, Md.) led the Friars with a career-high 11 points. Freshman Jessica Simmonds (South Orange, N.J.) recorded her first collegiate double-double with 10 points and a career-high 10 rebounds. Graduate student Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.) added nine points and 10 rebounds, while freshman Michal Epstein (Rehovot, Israel) registered nine points and a career-high six assists. In the game, Providence led, 35-19, at the halftime break, but went on to shoot 15.4% (4-26) from the field in the second half, to make things close. In the second half, St. John's outscored the Friars, 32-27. For the game, PC shot 27.0% (17-63) from the field, 24.1% (7-29) from behind the three-point arc, and 67.7% (21-31) from the free-throw line.

HOW THE FRIARS HAVE FARED THIS SEASON... The Providence College women's basketball team enters its 22nd game of the 2001-02 season, with a 9-12 overall record, and a 3-7 mark in the BIG EAST. The Friars are 4-8 on the road, 0-1 on a neutral court, and 5-3 on their home court (Alumni Hall), in Providence, R.I. Against BIG EAST opponents, PC is 2-2 at home and 1-5 on the road.

BIG EAST RESULTS... The Friars have played nine BIG EAST games this season, and hold a record of 3-6. On December 5, the Friars were defeated by Rutgers, 71-61, in Piscataway, N.J. PC evened its conference record (1-1), with a 59-55 win over Georgetown, in Providence, R.I. on January 2. On January 5, Providence fell to 1-2 in the conference, with a 72-66 loss to Notre Dame, in Notre Dame, Indiana. On January 9, PC moved to 2-2 in conference play with a 62-49 win over Villanova, in Providence, R.I. The Friars fell to 2-3 in BIG EAST play with an 81-52 loss at Syracuse on January 12. PC lost it's second-straight game of the season, and fell to 2-4 in the conference, with a 69-49 loss at Boston College on January 12. PC lost it's third-straight game, 69-41, at home against Notre Dame on January 19. The Friars extended their losing streak to four games, with a 64-54 loss at Seton Hall on January 26. On February 3, PC fell to #1-ranked UConn, 85-61, in Providence, R.I. On February 6, the Friars snapped their five-game losing streak at St. John's, with a 62-51 victory, in Jamaica, N.Y. In BIG EAST Conference games, the Friars are 2-2 at home in Alumni Hall, and 1-5 on the road.

SEVERAL NOTES ON THE PLAYERS TO WATCH

VOZAB RANKS 10TH ALL-TIME IN ASSISTS...

Senior guard Chrissy Vozab (Amenia, N.Y.) is ranked 10th all-time in career assists for the Providence College women's basketball team. She moved into the top 10, after dishing out three assists in a, 67-53, win at Brown on Thursday, November 29 at the Pizzitola Sports Center in Providence, R.I. She is averaging 2.3 assists per game this season (2001-02). Vozab currently has 323 assists in her career, with 6 regular-season games remaining on the 2001-02 schedule. Vozab needs 2 assists to move past Mary Ann McCoy '80 and into ninth-place all-time. McCoy finished her career at Providence with 324 assists. Shayna Evans '91 is PC's all-time career assist leader, with 978.

VOZAB INCHING CLOSER TO THE 1,000 POINT PLATEAU...

Senior guard Chrissy Vozab (Amenia, N.Y.) needs 138 points, to reach 1,000 career points as a member of the Providence women's basketball team. Prior to the start of the 2001-02 season, Vozab recorded 724 career points in three seasons with the Friars. This season, Vozab has registered 138 points, to bring her career total to 862. Vozab is currently ranked fourth on the team in scoring (2001-02), averaging 6.9 points per game.

SEEING DOUBLE... Graduate student Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.) earned the first double-double of her career during the 2001-02 season, on November 27, at home against the University of Rhode Island (13 points, 13 rebounds). Since then, Trippany has registered double-doubles against Idaho (12 points, 10 rebounds) on December 29 and Georgetown on January 2, for a total of three career double-doubles. Trippany leads the Friars this season in scoring (10.6 ppg) and rebounding (6.4 rpg). Freshman Jessica Simmonds (South Orange, N.J.) recorded her first collegiate double-double on February 6 versus St. John's. Simmonds registered 10 points and added a game-high 10 rebounds to hit the mark.

TRIPPANY SETS PERSONAL BEST MARK FOR REBOUNDING IN A SINGLE SEASON...

Grad student Dani Trippany (Massena, N.Y.) has pulled down 121 rebounds this season, through 20 games, which marks a single-season career best. During the 2000-01 season, Trippany recorded a season-best total of 98 rebounds. Trippany pulled down her 99th board of the 2001-02 season, in a

2001-2002 PROVIDENCE COLLEGE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL NOTES

Jim Jabir enters his sixth season leading the Providence College women's basketball program. This season he has the players to start making a mark in the BIG EAST Conference. The Friars made a big stride last winter, defeating Seton Hall University, 72-61, in the first round of the 2001 BIG EAST Conference Tournament and advancing to the quarterfinal round for the first time under Jabir.

Known for his ability to attract high-caliber student-athletes, Jabir has two of the top sophomores returning in sophomore point guard Kristin Quinn and sophomore post-player Jenese Wilcox. Added to the two super-sophs is a quality recruiting class of athletes who figure to make immediate impact on the court this season.

After a 2-3 start last season, Jabir engineered five-straight non-conference victories to enter the conference season. The growth of two rookies in the starting lineup and some near-upsets of nationally ranked Rutgers, Notre Dame and Virginia Tech led to a pair of victories in the squad's last three contests and a final 11-17 overall record.

Jabir owns a career record of 207-208 in 15 years as a Division I head coach. The personable and well-liked Jabir is dedicated to the program and to its resurgence in the BIG EAST.

Providence College welcomed Jabir into the Friar family on May 21, 1996 as he was named the sixth head coach in the 22-year history of the program.

In 15 seasons as a collegiate head coach, eight of his teams have posted winning records. In the last five seasons, the Friars have taken important steps toward rebuilding, and are now poised to advance in the BIG EAST standings. In 1996-97, the Friars posted a 13-13 regular season record and lost to Villanova in the first round of the BIG EAST Championship. The following season, PC went 10-17 and exited the BIG EAST Tournament in the first round at the hands of Boston College. Injuries played a role in the win-loss ratio during the 1998-99 season as the Friars found themselves at a 5-22 overall record when the BIG EAST Tournament ended with a 69-68 loss to Villanova. In 1999-2000, PC was still plagued with injuries but doubled their win total from the previous year with a 10-17 overall mark.

Prior to coming to Providence, Jabir spent six years at Marquette, where he became the most successful coach in the history of the program and elevated the Golden Eagles into the national spotlight.

Under his high-powered offense, Jabir established a program that earned respect from people in Milwaukee, in the nation and in the ranks of women's basketball.

After posting a 7-20 record during his inaugural year (1990-91) with the Golden Eagles, Jabir guided his team to four consecutive winning seasons, two 20-plus winning seasons and three straight post-season appearances, including back-to-back bids to the NCAA Tournament.

In 1994-95, Marquette won the Great Midwest Conference Tournament, the first tournament championship in school history. This followed the 1993-94 season in which Jabir compiled a program-best 22-7 overall record and its first trip to the NCAA Tournament.

Just four years after Jabir's arrival at Marquette, the program made its way onto the national scene as it earned its first-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament. Seeded 14th, Marquette was four points shy of pulling off an upset over No. 5 Colorado. The Lady Buffs needed three last-second free throws to earn the 77-74 victory.

In 1994-95 Marquette received a No. 10 seed and the chance to play No. 7 seed North Carolina State on a neutral court at Penn State. Despite a grand effort, MU fell to the Wolfpack, 77-62.

Jabir matriculated to Marquette from Siena College, where he served as the head coach of the Lady Saints for three seasons (1987-90) and compiled a 50-20 overall record. Jabir's teams posted three consecutive winning seasons and his 1989-90 team was a semifinalist in the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference (MAAC) post-season tournament.

Prior to his stint at Siena, Jabir was the head coach at Buffalo State during the 1986-87 season at the young age of 24. He led that team to a 14-11 record. Jabir guided the Bengals to the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) championship and an appearance in the NCAA Division III South Regional Tournament.

The Brooklyn, N.Y. native began his coaching career as an assistant at Nazareth College (1984-85) and at Buffalo State (1985-86). Jabir was instrumental in leading the Bengals to a 23-3 slate, the SUNYAC title, a 22-game winning streak, an NCAA regional tournament appearance and a national ranking (#3) during the 1985-86 season.
