% - Homecoming Weekend

THIS WEEKEND... The Friars will play a two-game series versus Hockey East foe Northeastern. On Saturday, February 16, the Friars will travel to Boston, Mass. to play at NU's Matthews Arena. Then the Friars will host NU on the 17. Both games will begin at 2:00 p.m. and they will be a part of Hockey East's Skating Strides annual fundraiser.

SCOUTING THE HUSKIES... Most recently, the Huskies lost in the Beanpot consolation game to Boston College by a score of 2-1 on February 12. Chelsea Jones scored the lone NU goal. For the season, the NU offense led by Kristi Kehoe and Jones. Kehoe leads NU with 21 points (9 goals, 12 assists), while Jones leads the team in goals with 12. In net, Leah Sulyma has seen the most time between the pipes, posting a 3.10 GAA and a .911 save %, as well as a 6-16-3 record.

PROVIDENCE VERSUS NORTHEASTERN... The Friars have posted a 52-36-9 record versus NU all-time. The series dates back to the 1978-79 season when the teams split a home-and-home series. Under head coach Bob Deraney, PC holds a 17-7-1 versus NU. The Friars and Huskies met previously this season on November 6 in Providence, R.I. NU earned a 5-4 win on that day behind Chelsey Jones' two third-period power-play goals. The Friars' four different goalscorers in the game included Sarah Feldman (Fall River, Mass.), Alyse Ruff (Tualatin, Ore.), Danielle Tangredi (London, Ontario) and Jean O'Neill (Strafford, Pa.).

SKATING STRIDES... The Friars will play a home-and-home series against the Northeastern Huskies on February 16 and 17 as a part of Skating Strides 2008. Skating Strides 2008 is a two-day event raising both awareness and dollars in the fight against breast cancer. All eight women's HOCKEY EAST teams will participate in Skating Strides 2008. This event is a great chance for student-athletes to give something back to the communities in which they study and play hockey. Fans are encouraged to participate in merchandise sales, raffles, auctions, and/or special events during the games. All of the proceeds from Skating Strides 2008 will be donated to breast cancer charities. The Friars are also excited to announce that the first 500 fans in attendance on Sunday, February 17 will receive a free Friar Mr. Potato Head toy, complete with a Friar hockey jersey. The inaugural Skating Strides 2007 raised over $20,000. For more information on Skating Strides 2008, visit www.HockeyEastOnline.com, and click on women's league and look for the Skating Strides icon on the right-hand side.

O'NEILL FIRSTS... In the Friars' 5-3 win over Connecticut on February 10, freshman Jean O'Neill (Strafford, Pa.) registered her first career power-play goal. The goal also turned out to be the game-winner, the first of O'Neill's career as well. O'Neill has now been credited with a power-play, game-winning, and short-handed goal on the season. She is one of only eight Hockey East players to do so this season.

MOVIN' UP... Seniors Kelli Doolin (Dorchester, Mass.) and Kathleen Smith (Waterloo, Ontario) are moving up the all-time games played list at Providence College. Doolin (131) is now tied for the 15th most games played, while Smith (130) is in 16th place.

THREE IS THE KEY... In each Friar victory thus far, PC has scored three or more goals. Overall, the Friars have scored three or more goals in 15 of their 28 games. In the 15 games in which they have scored three or more goals, the Friars have posted a 13-1-1 record.

SCORING DISTRIBUTION... Of the 19 Friar skaters who have suited up this season, each one has recorded at least one point. Additionally, 15 have scored at least one goal.

DERANEY WINS GOLD... The U.S. Women's National Under-18 Team captured the first-ever gold medal awarded at the inaugural 2008 International Ice Hockey Federation World Women's U-18 Championship with a 5-2 victory over Canada. Head Coach Bob Deraney helped lead Team USA to the victory, as he was an assistant coach for the team. Also on the team are future Friars Kate Bacon (Chanhassen, Minn.) and Ashley Cottrell (Sterling Heights, Mich.). Cottrell finished the tournament as Team USA's third leading scorer, with ten points (five goals and five assists) in five games played. Bacon added three goals in five games played for Team USA as well.

LUCKY SEVENS... Versus the Colonials of Robert Morris, the Friars posted a 7-1 victory on November 25. Then, in their next game, the Friars defeated Maine by a score of 7-2 on December 1. It marked the first time the Friars have scored seven goals in back-to-back games since the 2002-2003 season. Most recently, the Friars defeated Mercyhurst by a score of 7-3 on January 12. The Friars are undefeated when scoring seven or more goals under head coach Bob Deraney, posting a 22-0-0 record.

CIARLETTA EARNS DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS FOR THE SECOND STRAIGHT WEEK...

Junior goaltender Danielle Ciarletta (Blaine, Minn.) was named the Hockey East Defensive Player of the week on Monday, January 21. Ciarletta led the Friars to a 1-0-1 mark on the weekend, turning aside 53 of the 55 shots she faced. It marks the third time this season, and the fifth time in her career, that Ciarletta has earned Defensive Player of the Week honors. On Saturday, January 19 Ciarletta made 27 saves as PC tied No. 1 UNH, 1-1 at the Whittemore Center in Durham, N.H. Three of her 27 saves came in overtime to preserve the tie. It was the first time this season that a Hockey East team has come away with a point after facing UNH. A day later, Ciarletta made 26 saves to lead the Friars past Boston University by a score of 3-1. Last week Ciarletta helped the Friars split a series with No. 4 Mercyhurst, on her way to being named defensive player of the week. Ciarletta led the Friars to a 7-3 victory versus Mercyhurst on January 12, as she made 35 saves. A day later, in PC's 3-0 loss to the Lakers, Ciarletta made a season high 44 saves. On the weekend, she stopped 79 of the 84 shots she faced. In 2008, Ciarletta and the Friars have posted a 4-1-1 record to begin the second half of the season, which includes three games against top-four ranked opponents. Over the six game span in 2008, Ciarletta has a 1.15 goals against average and a .961 save percentage.

POINT STREAK... Friar defenseman Kathleen Smith (Waterloo, Ontario) had a six game point scoring streak until Mercyhurst kept her off the board on January 13. During her career-high six game streak, Smith notched five goals and added six assists for eleven points. Smith, who leads the Friars in scoring, ranks first among Hockey East defensemen in scoring as well with 13 goals and 13 assists for 26 points.

GRANATO HONORED... The NHL honored former Friar great Cammi Granato '93 as a 2007 recipient of the Lester Patrick Award. Given annually, the award is one of the most prestigious in all of hockey. Granato, PC's all-time leading point and goal scorer was given the award at a luncheon on November 7. Granato has the distinction of being the first individual female recipient of the award. In addition, Granato will be inducted into the Providence College Athletic Hall of Fame on February 16, 2008.

FIRSTS... Freshman Leigh Riley (Lexington, Mass.) registered an assist versus UVM on January 25, her first point as a Friar... Sophomore Pamela McDevitt (So. Boston, Mass.) scored her first goal as a Friar against Mercyhurst on January 12, 2008... Freshman Jean O'Neill (Strafford, Pa.) notched her first career assist versus Maine on December 1.... Freshman Amber Yung (Rockville, Va.) notched her first career goal versus Robert Morris University on November 25... O'Neill (Strafford, Pa.) notched her first career goal as a Friar versus Northeastern on November 6, as did senior Danielle Tangredi (London, Ont.). Freshman Alyse Ruff (Tualatin, Ore.) notched her first collegiate goal (and point) versus Colgate on October 19. Her goal tied the game at 2-2. A day later, classmate Jennifer Smith (St. Albans, Vt.) saw her first action in net for the Friars, making four saves in over 24 minutes of work against St. Lawrence. Most recently, freshman Amber Yung notched her first career point versus Boston College, as she assisted on PC's game-winner, while Smith earned her first career victory.

CIARLETTA GOES BACK-TO-BACK... Junior goalie Danielle Ciarletta (Blaine, Minn.) shutout Niagara in back-to-back games. It marked her second and third shutouts of the season. Additionally, she became the first HE goalie to record consecutive shutouts this season, and the first Friar to do so since Ciarletta's former teammate Jana Bugden (Corner Brook, Newfoundland) blanked Northeastern on March 6 and 7 during the 2003-04 season. Overall, Ciarletta has not been scored upon in her last 150:05 of play in the Friar net.

FINISH DUTY... Friar forward Mari Pehkonen (Tampere, Finland) has recently returned from playing in the European Air Canada Cup for Team Finland. Over the course of the U-22 tournament, Pehkonen scored a goal and added four assists. Pehkonen and her Finish teammates made it to the championship game but could not knock off Canada, losing by a score of 7-5 to secure the Silver Medal.

Orono, Maine- The women's ice hockey team opened the 2007-08 season with a 2-2 overtime tie at the University of Maine. Seniors Rachel Crissy and Sarah Feldman led the way for the Friars with a goal apiece. The Friars jumped out to an early lead as they were able to net two goals in the game's first three minutes. Crissy put the Friars on the board when she scored on a pass from classmate Kathleen Smith at 1:09 of the first period. Then, less than two minutes later, Feldman put the Friars up 2-0, with her first power-play tally of the young season. Feldman's goal was assisted by Erin Normore and Smith. The Friars continued to pressure the Black Bears as they outshot their opponents 20-7 in the first period. After two periods of play, the Friars held a 2-0 lead, as they were unable to beat Maine goalkeeper Genevieve Turgeon. But Maine cut PC's lead in half when Taryn Peacock scored an unassisted goal at the 17:10 mark of the third period. With 22 seconds left, Maine pulled Turgeon in favor of an extra attacker, and it paid off as Vanessa Vani was able to force overtime when she scored with nine seconds remaining in the third period. Vani's goal was assisted by Madelen Eriksson and Peacock. In overtime, both teams were able to put two shots on net, but both Turgeon and PC's Danielle Ciarletta were able to preserve the 2-2 tie. Turgeon finished with 40 saves, while Ciarletta made 29 saves.

Hamilton, N.Y. - The women's ice hockey team came back from a one goal deficit on two different occasions to tie Colgate, 5-5. Senior Cherie Hendrickson got the Friars on the board first. Erin Normore was credited with an assist on the goal. But the Red Raiders of Colgate answered back when Nicole McDonald, off of a Evan Minnick assist, tied the score at 1-1, which held up through the remainder of the first period. After the break, Colgate took the lead when Hannah Milan scored at short-handed tally. Providence's Alyse Ruff produced the game's second tie when she scored her first collegiate goal. But Colgate regained the lead when Minnick scored, with an assist going to Laura Jansen, giving Colgate a 3-2 lead at the second intermission. The Friars came out and scored three straight goals to open the third period. The first goal of the period, making it 3-3, was scored by Kathleen Smith, with an assist going to Hendrickson. Junior Katy Beach gave the Friars the lead back when she scored her first of the season, with assists by Rachel Crissy and Normore. Junior Brittany Simpson then scored her first of the season, giving the Friars a 5-3 advantage. The goal was assisted by classmate Colleen Martin. But the Raiders fought back and made the score 5-4 when Elin Brown notched a power play goal. Milan and Katie Stewart were credited with assists on the play. Colgate's Ali Edell scored to tie the game.

Canton, N.Y. - The women's ice hockey team suffered its first loss of the 2007-08 season at the hands of No. 4/5 St. Lawrence by a score of 8-0 on Saturday night. The Saints took a 3-0 lead after one period of play behind a Sabrina Harbec strike at 6:31, and two consecutive scores by Marianna Locke. Locke's first goal was assisted by Kristen Roach, while the second was from Annie Guay and Harbec. Harbec then opened the scoring in the second period, as she scored on a short-handed bid at 10:10 of the period. Tara Akstull closed the scoring in the second period as she gave the Saints a 5-0 lead at 15:18. Chelsea Grills and Guay were credited with assists on the play. The Saints added three more in the third. Lisa Batchelor scored a short-handed goal at 9:09, with an assist from Courtney Sawchuk. Then Locke added her third of the night, with assists from Karell Emard and Brittany Maschmeyer. Grills closed out the scoring at 15:03. PC's Danielle Ciarletta (Blaine, Minn.) made 20 stops in the game before giving way to freshman Jennifer Smith (St. Albans, Vt.), who registered four saves in her first collegiate appearance. St. Lawrence's Maxie Weisz made 15 saves to earn the shutout for the Saints.

Storrs, Conn. - The women's ice hockey team was defeated at the hands of No. 8 Connecticut on Thursday night. The Huskies jumped out to an early lead as Jody Sydor scored a power play goal 59 seconds into the game off of a shot from the top of the left face-off circle that beat PC's Danielle Ciarletta. Moments later, Ciarletta flashed her left pad to keep the Friars within one, as UConn's Dominique Thibault's shot was turned aside by PC's junior goalkeeper. Ciarletta made another save on a Thibault break away attempt at 10:39. But UConn was able to add a second goal when Brittany Murphy scored an unassisted goal at 14:13. Mari Pehkonen had the Friars' best chance from the bottom of the circles at 15:56, but Connecticut's Brittany Wilson made a glove save. After one period of play, the Huskies held a 2-0 lead. The second period opened with much back and forth action. About half way through the stanza the Friars almost scored when Kathleen Smith sent a shot just wide off of some great puck movement from Brittany Simpson and Sarah Feldman while on the power play. But the Huskies did increase their lead to 3-0 when Jaclyn Hawkins scored a power play goal at 15:39, as she was able to deflect Cristin Allen's shot from the point, through a screen to the back of the net. At 18:15 Wilson made her best save of the stanza for the Huskies when she once again denied Pehkonen from just outside of her goal crease. In the third period, Cherie Hendrickson developed a scoring chance for herself as she took a shot from the point that was saved by Wilson, but Hendrickson then beat the defense to the rebound only to have Wilson come up with another pad save to push the puck wide. But UConn converted another power-play opportunity when Bridget King scored at 9:38. Then UConn's Thibault made it 5-0 at 10:25 to conclude the scoring. Ciarletta finished with 25 saves for the Friars, while Wilson made 19 saves for the Huskies.

Chestnut Hill, Mass. - The women's ice hockey team upset No. 9 Boston College, 3-2 behind the strength of three first period goals. PC's efforts paid off at 6:21, as Sarah Feldman jammed home a rebound, beating BC goaltender Molly Schaus from just outside the top of the crease. Mari Pehkonen was credited with an assist on the play. Then at 15:32 the Friars struck again as Pehkonen netted a goal off of an assist from Feldman. PC's third goal of the period came just 20 seconds later when Jenna Keilch found Alyse Ruff with a pass from the low slot. Ruff then beat Schaus high with the ensuing shot. In addition to Keilch, freshman Amber Yung was also credited with an assist on the play, the first point of her Friar career. The Friars out-shot the Eagles 10-7 and held a 3-0 edge after one period of play. BC answered quickly in the second, as Meghan Fardelmann scored for the eagles just 52 seconds into the period, with an assist going to Kelli Stack. Play went back and forth, but at 6:14 PC's lead was cut to one as Brie Baskin netted a goal for the Eagles. With two minutes remaining in the period, the Eagles almost tied the game while on the power-play, but Jennifer Smith came up with a save on the point-blank Eagle drive to preserve the lead. The third period featured more back and forth play. Feldman had a great opportunity to add to the Friar lead when she developed a partial breakaway attempt after creating an Eagle turn over, but Schaus was able to make a high glove save at 16:50. The Eagles had several opportunities to tie the game as they pulled their goalie with 1:20 to play, but PC's defense blocked several shots, while Smith made several more stops. On the game, Smith finished with 23 saves to earn her first collegiate win. Schaus made 19 saves for the Eagles.

Providence, R.I. - The women's ice hockey team was defeated by Northeastern University, 5-4. After some up and down play from both sides, the Huskies jumped on the board first at 13:08 of the first period when Kristi Kehoe netted NU's first power play goal of the night. Just 13 seconds later, NU increased the lead to 2-0 as Annie Hogan scored, with assists going to Alyssa Wohlfeiler and Ginny Berg. NU made it 3-0 at 15:34 as Lori Antflick netted her first of the season. PC got on the board at the 17:02 mark while on the power play. From the point, junior Brittany Simpson passed the puck down low to senior Kathleen Smith, who then found classmate Sarah Feldman at the far post with a pass. Feldman put it in the back of the net for her second power play goal of the season. The Friars were able to cut the lead to one goal at 18:14 when freshman Alyse Ruff put in a rebound that was created off a Rachel Crissy drive from the point. Feldman was also credited with an assist on the play, as she was able to pass the loose puck to Ruff after Crissy's initial shot. Then, with 56 seconds to play in the period, senior Danielle Tangredi tied the score at 3-3, as she notched her first goal as a Friar. Kelli Doolin and Smith were credited with assists. In the third period, NU's Chelsey Jones scored two consecutive power play goals to gain the lead back for the Huskies. Jones' first was at 9:52, while her second was at 10:48. Jean O'Neill answered quickly for the Friars at 11:27, as she rang a shot off the post and in from the bottom of the face-off circles, but it was as close as the Friars would get. O'Neill's goal was assisted by Katy Beach. Sulyma made 31 saves to earn the win, while Jennifer Smith and Danielle Ciarletta combined to make 24 saves for the Friars.

Providence, R.I.- The women's ice hockey team came back from a two goal deficit to defeat the University of Vermont Catamounts, 4-2. In the first period of play, the Catamounts were able to take a 1-0 lead off of a Celeste Doucet goal at 9:35. In the second period, PC dominated play, out-shooting the Catamounts 15-5 in the stanza, but it was Vermont who was able to add to their lead. Kristi Anderson streaked down the left hand boards and then cut in to release a shot from the top of the face-off circles that rang off the post and in to give Vermont a 2-0 advantage at 13:07. In the third period, the Friars were finally able to beat Vermont goaltender Kristen Olychuck. Ruff got the Friars on the board just 17 seconds into the period for her fourth goal of the season. The goal was assisted by classmate Amber Yung. Then Ruff struck for her second in a row at 2:19 while the Friars were on the power-play. The goal was assisted by Rachel Crissy and Sarah Feldman. Friar goaltender Danielle Ciarletta then made a vital glove save to keep the game tied, as she was able to turn aside a Kate Lesniak drive from the bottom of the face-off circles at 2:37. Then, at 7:18, Hendrickson was able to score what proved to be the game-winner. Erin Normore took an initial shot from the point that was saved by Olychuck, but Hendrickson was able to put in the rebound. PC's fourth goal was scored at 11:45, as Jenna Keilch was able to beat Olychuck on a wraparound attempt for her first of the season. Ciarletta ended up with 12 save to earn the win for the Friars, while Olychuck made 31 saves for Vermont.

Providence's Jean O'Neill tied the game at 1-1 in the first period, but Dartmouth was able to score a power-play goal in the third to win the game. Dartmouth opened the scoring at 2:18 of the first period when Jenna Cunningham beat PC's Danielle Ciarletta after the Big Green's Maggie Kennedy won an offensive zone face-off. Kennedy was credited with an assist on the play. PC was able to tie the game at 1-1 at 9:11 of the first when O'Neill scored her second goal of the season, as she tipped in a shot from Erin Normore, who assisted on the goal. Much of the second period was dominated by the Friars, as they out shot Dartmouth 17-13 in the stanza, but the Friars were unable to beat Big Green goaltender Carli Clemis again. In the third period Dartmouth pulled ahead while on the power-play. Julia Bronson gathered a loose puck at the top of the circles and shot it past a screened Ciarletta for the game-winner. Ciarletta finished with 27 saves for the Friars, while Clemis made 35 stops for the Big Green.

Columbus, Ohio - The women's ice hockey team dropped a thriller to the Buckeyes of Ohio State University, 2-1. The teams remained tied 0-0 after one period of play, but both the Friars and the Buckeyes generated scoring chances. PC's junior goaltender Danielle Ciarletta was tested early by the Buckeyes, as she had to come up with consecutive saves in order to keep OSU's Christina Manucuso off the score board at 4:59. For the Friars, Kathleen Smith had a scoring chance at 6:01 when Sarah Feldman feathered a pass from the bottom of the face off circle over to Smith in the slot, but OSU's junior goaltender Liana Bonanno made the save. Ciarletta was tested again at 15:35 when she made a left pad save on OSU's Morgan Marziali, who was in on a break away. Ciarletta made 18 saves in the period, her personal high for one period of play this season. OSU got on the board in the second at 6:28 when Michele Tonnessen beat Ciarletta while on a three on two break for the Buckeyes. Colleen Olson and Sandy Nelson were credited with assists on the play. At 11:00 Jenna Kilpatrick added to the Buckeye lead, as she was able to take a pass from Tonnessen and beat Ciarletta from in close. The Friars were able to halve the OSU lead at 14:13 when junior Brittany Simpson skated onto a pass from Feldman and shot it into the top corner of the net for her second goal of the season at 14:13. Senior Kathleen Smith also notched an assist on the play. At 19:42 of the third, Erin Normore fed Feldman for a breakout that saw the senior winger sent off on a partial breakaway, but Bonanno made a stick save for OSU. Feldman was able to draw a penalty on the play. And so, trailing by one with 59 second to play, the Friars were on the power play and they pulled Ciarletta in favor of the extra attacker as well, but could not score the equalizer. Ciarletta finished with a season high 38 saves for the Friars, while Bonanno made 26 for OSU.

Columbus, Ohio - The women's ice hockey team lost to the Buckeyes of Ohio State University, 4-1 on Saturday afternoon. Ohio State opened the scoring at 4:52 of the first period when, from below the goal-line, Erin Keys fed Mallory Peckels in the slot who one-timed a shot past PC's Danielle Ciarletta. At 8:06 PC's Mari Pehkonen levelled for the Friars as she cut across the slot with the puck and beat OSU's Liana Bonanno with a shot high to the stick side. The goal was assisted by Brittany Simpson. At 11:55 the Buckeyes had what looked like another great scoring opportunity, but a diving poke-check from backchecking forward Sarah Feldman negated OSU's break away chance. In the second period OSU was able to regain the lead at 12:34 when Keys skated out from the face-off circle and took a high shot for her eighth goal of the season, with assists going to Morgan Marziali and Peckels. After two periods of play, OSU held the 2-1 advantage. In the third period, the Friars had another scoring chance on an offensive zone face-off win, but Bonanno turned aside the Jenna Keilch shot at 8:40. OSU then added to the lead at 12:35 when Mancuso poked in a loose puck in front of the Friar net. Hayley Klassen and Raelyn LaRoque were credited with assists on the goal. The Friars pulled the goalie in favor of the extra attacker, but were unable to edge any closer. OSU's Keys scored an empty net goal at 19:59. In net, Ciarletta finished with 21 saves for the Friars, while Bonanno made 31 saves to earn the win for the Buckeyes.

Providence, R.I. - The women's ice hockey team defeated Brown University in the 13th Annual Mayor's Cup, 5-2. Senior Cherie Hendrickson got the Friars on the board at the 6:39 mark, as she was able to score her first power-play goal of the season, assisted by Rachel Crissy and Erin Normore. Kathleen Smith struck next for the Friars when she blasted a shot from the point that beat Brown goalie Nicole Stock high to the stick side. Smith's goal came off of a face-off win at 12:31, and was assisted by Brittany Simpson and Mari Pehkonen. Senior Danielle Tangredi gave the Friars a 3-0 lead just 1:52 into the second as she snapped a wrist shot up high past Stock from the slot. Stephanie Morris was credited with an assist on the play. At 11:39 of the second Brown University got on the board as Nicole Brown scored off of assists from Maggie Suprey and Erin Connors. Less than two minutes later Katy Beach regained a three goal advantage for the Friars, as she took an Amber Yung pass and beat Stock for her second goal of the season. After two periods of play, Providence held a 4-1 lead. Brown threatened in the third, as Jenny Cedorchuck scored a power-play goal just 21 seconds into the period for the Bears. But through some fine defending along with the goaltending of Danielle Ciarletta, who made ten saves in the period, the Friars were able to keep the lead. With 55 seconds to play, Alyse Ruf took a pass from Jackie Duncan in the high slot and rang a wrist shot off the far post to seal the Mayor's Cup win for the Friars. In net Ciarletta finished with 27 saves to earn the win, while Stock made 43 saves for the Bears.

Providence, R.I. - The women's ice hockey team defeated the Colonials of Robert Morris University, 7-1 on Sunday afternoon at Schneider Arena. Senior Cherie Hendrickson lead the offense with a goal and three assists for a career high four points. Rachel Crissy, Kathleen Smith, Amber Yung and Brittany Simpson all registered two points for the Friars. The Colonials came out and took the lead 3:49 into the first period as they were able to convert on the game's first power play opportunity. The Colonial goal was scored by Maria Stoa. But the Friars would go on to score seven straight goals, as they answered back with a power-play goal from Smith at 14:49. Junior Katy Beach assisted on the score. Hendrickson then gave PC the lead when she took a pass from Crissy and fired a shot high past RMU goalie Brienne McLaughlin from the top of the face-off circles. Just 55 seconds later, senior Danielle Tangredi added to the lead as she scored on a wraparound attempt. Simpson was credited with an assist on the play. At 4:50 of the second, Yung made it 4-1 as she deposited a shot from the left point into the top right corner of the RMU net for her first collegiate goal, with assists going to Crissy and Hendrickson. Exactly 3:00 minutes later, senior Kelli Doolin got in on the scoring act, netting her first of the season. Doolin's goal was assisted by Yung and Hendrickson. The Friars continued the scoring in the third period at the 12:01 mark when Simpson netted her first power-play goal, and third overall, of the season. Erin Normore and Hendrickson assisted on the goal. At 16:57, Smith closed out the scoring for PC with her second of the game. Hendrickson and senior Jenna Keilch earned assists on the goal. In net, junior Danielle Ciarletta finished with 14 saves to earn her third win of the season.

Providence, R.I. - The women's ice hockey team blanked the Black Bears of Maine, 4-0 on Sunday afternoon at Schneider Arena. Senior defenseman Kathleen Smith scored two goals for the Friars and junior goaltender Danielle Ciarletta stopped all 24 shots she faced. The Friars jumped out to an early 1-0 lead when, at 2:07, junior Erin Normore blasted a shot from the point past Maine goaltender Genevieve Turgeon for her first goal of the season. Seniors Sarah Feldman and Kelli Doolin assisted on the goal. 59 seconds later Smith put the Friars up 2-0 when she picked up a loose puck along the near boards, cut towards the middle and shot one past Turgeon from the high slot area. Feldman then scored the next Friar goal at 3:49 of the second period. Feldman's linemates Mari Pehkonen and Katy Beach cycled the puck down low and then found the senior center open in front for the goal. Junior goaltender Danielle Ciarletta made a key left-pad save on Maine's Amy Stech just prior to Feldman's goal to keep the Black Bears off the board. After two periods of play, the Friars lead by a score of 3-0. Smith scored the lone goal of the third period at 1:28, as she took a deflected Jean O'Neill shot and beat Turgeon for her second goal of the game from in close. The goal came while the Friars were on the power-play. In net, Ciarletta finished with 24 saves to earn her second career shut out. Turgeon made 38 saves for the Black Bears.

Providence, R.I. - The women's ice hockey team was defeated by the Bulldogs of Yale University, 2-1, on Thursday evening at Schneider Arena. The Friars took a 1-0 lead with just 1:05 remaining in the first period when senior Kelli Doolin (Dorchester, Mass.) scored her second goal of the season. Senior Kathleen Smith (Waterloo, Ont.) collected a loose puck at the red line and skated down the left wing before playing the puck in front. The puck was deflected by a Yale defender, but Doolin was there to fire a one-timer past Bulldog goalie Shylon Zillis. However, the Bulldogs bounced back and scored twice in the second period to take a 2-1 lead. Kristen Stupay scored off an assist from Danielle Kozlowski at 5:22 and Helen Resor tallied her third goal of the season at 9:55. The Friars pulled junior goalie Danielle Ciarletta for an extra skater with 1:57 left in the third period and nearly scored the equalizer when freshman Jean O'Neill (Strafford, Pa.) fired a shot from the slot that Zillis saved. The Friars outshot the Bulldogs, 35-15 as Zillis stopped 34 shots. Ciarletta finished with 13 saves. The Friars return to action Saturday, December 8 versus the No. 2 ranked Crimson of Harvard University. The game, which will be the last for the Friars before the winter break, will begin at 7:00 p.m. at Schneider Arena.

Providence, R.I. - The women's ice hockey team defeated the Black Bears of Maine, 7-2 on Saturday afternoon at Schneider Arena. Freshman Alyse Ruff scored three times for the Friars. Ruff got the Friars on the board late in the first period when, at the 17:43 mark, she put a rebound past Maine goaltender Genevieve Turgeon. The goal, which came on a PC power-play, was assisted by Amber Yung and Erin Normore. Ruff netted her second of the game at 4:48 of the second period while on the power-play once again. Yung was credited with an assist, as was Jackie Duncan. Katy Beach scored next for the Friars, with assists going to O'Neill and Yung. O'Neill then scored an unassisted goal at the 11:32 mark. Maine closed out the scoring in the second period when Abby Barton got the Black Bears on the board at 11:45. In the third period, Ruff notched her third of the game off of a pass from Colleen Martin. Brittany Simpson scored PC's third power-play goal of the game at the 8:46 mark, with an assist going to Mari Pehkonen. Jennie Gallo scored for Maine at 15:45, but then Cherie Hendrickson closed out the scoring at 18:12 to make the score 7-2 in favor of the Friars. Hendrickson's goal, which came off of a rebound chance in front, was assisted by seniors Jenna Keilch and Rachel Crissy. In net, junior Danielle Ciarletta finished with 17 saves while Turgeon made 58 saves for the Black Bears.

Providence, R.I. - The women's ice hockey team was defeated by the Crimson of Harvard University, 4-1, on Saturday evening at Schneider Arena. Providence cut the Crimson lead to 2-1 in the second period, but could not edge closer. After some up and down play by both sides, Harvard took the lead at 16:24 of the first period when Caitlin Cahow scored a power-play goal for the Crimson, with assists going to Sarah Vaillancourt and Liza Ryabkina. Harvard continued the scoring at 7:53 of the second when Vaillancourt notched her ninth goal of the season. Then, Katy Beach got the Friars on the board at 13:03. Beach took a pass from Kathleen Smith at the top of the crease, skated to her right and slid the puck past Harvard goaltender Christina Kessler to make the score 2-1. But Harvard answered just 45 seconds later when Ryabkina notched the Crimson's second power-play goal of the game. Jenny Brine closed out the scoring for the game at 17:15 of the second period when she converted on partial break-away attempt. In net, Kessler made 17 saves to earn the win, while PC's Jennifer Smith made 28 saves in her third career start.

(Niagara, N.Y.) - The women's ice hockey team returned from their winter break with a 3-0 triumph over the Purple Eagles on Friday evening at Niagara University's Dwyer Arena. In the first period, the Purple Eagles earned an early five-on-three advantage, but junior goalkeeper Danielle Ciarletta, aided by a blocked shot at 17:25 by senior Kelli Doolin, kept Niagara off the board. Ciarletta then made a right-pad save on Niagara's Ashley Riggs, who was in on a partial breakaway at 10:05. The Friars were the able to open the scoring at 14:33 when Keilch scored her second goal of the season off of an Erin Normore pass. Normore picked up the puck down low off of a rebounded shot taken by senior Rachel Chrissy and then took it behind the Niagara net and found Keilch open in front at the far side, where the junior converted on a one-timer. Cherie Hendrickson almost doubled the Friar lead at 16:30 when she cut down through the slot and received a pass from Normore, but the senior winger's shot went just wide of the net. In the third, the Friars added to their lead when Katy Beach scored after rebound in front of the Niagara net at 2:15. The goal was assisted by seniors Danielle Tangredi and Kathleen Smith. Smith took a shot on net from the point that was saved, but then the puck was deflected by Tangredi to Beach who deposited a backhanded shot in the net. The Friars notched their third goal to break it open when Smith snuck in from the far point and received a pass through traffic from the near goal line from Crissy at 5:59. Stephanie Morris also assisted on the play. In net Ciarletta finished with 25 saves to earn her second shutout victory of the season, while Nikki Rudy and Jill Zelonis combined to make 27 saves for the Purple Eagles.

(Niagara, N.Y.) - The women's ice hockey team faced-off against Niagara University, and for the second straight day the Friars earned a shutout victory, this time 4-0, at Dwyer Arena. Just 20 seconds into the game Normore gave the Friars a 1-0 lead as she fired a one-timer from the point to beat Niagara goaltender Nikki Rudy high to the stick side. Senior Kathleen Smith was credited with an assist on the play. The Purple Eagles almost scored on their first shot on goal as well, as Marie Henriksen found herself alone in front, but Ciarletta was able to make a right pad save at 2:40. The Friars doubled their lead at the 14:35 mark when senior Rachel Chrissy notched her second goal of the season, with assists going to Pamela McDevitt and Jean O'Neill. O'Neill created the scoring chance when she beat the Niagara defense into the zone on the forecheck and played the puck from the corner to the front of the net where McDevitt poked it in on goal, and Crissy scored on the rebound. The Friars continued to pressure Niagara in the second period. At 4:22 they struck for their third goal as the Friar forecheck created another turnover, allowing Smith to send it in on net where Katy Beach jammed the rebound past new Purple Eagle goaltender Jill Zelonis for her second goal in as many games. The Friars controlled the game in the third period as well and closed out the game's scoring at the 7:00 mark when Alyse Ruf scored her team leading tenth goal of the season, with assists going to O'Neill and Normore. In net Ciarletta finished with 15 saves to earn her second straight shutout victory for the Friars. Overall, Ciarletta has not been scored upon in her last 150:05 of play in the Friar cage. Rudy, Zelonis and Amanda Rowe combined to make 27 saves for the Purple Eagles.

(Providence, R.I.) - The women's ice hockey team knocked off the No. 4 ranked Lakers of Mercyhurst College by a score of 7-3 on Saturday afternoon at Schneider Arena. Mercyhurst opened the scoring at 15:13 of the first period as freshman Vicki Bendus snuck one by Providence goalie Danielle Ciarletta just inside the right post for her sixth goal of the season, with assists going to Valerie Chouinard and Jesse Scanzano. The Friars tied the score at one goal apiece when senior Kathleen Smith was able to put home a loose puck from the left side of the Mercyhurst crease. Fellow senior Rachel Chrissy assisted on the goal. Jenna Keilch gave PC the lead with just over one minute remaining in the first as she netted her third goal of the season off-of a feed from Crissy while the two were skating down on a two-on-one. Mercyhurst's Stephanie Jones tied the game at 2-2 at the 5:05 mark of the second period while on the power-play. But the resilient Friars continued to pressure the Lakers, and at 14:12 Smith scored her second of the game to regain the lead. She picked up a loose puck around center ice, cut toward the right side of the ice and beat the Mercyhurst goaltender from in close. Just under two minutes later, Keilch scored on a wraparound attempt at 15:58, with assists going to Cherie Hendrickson and Smith. After two periods of play, PC held the 4-2 lead. In the third period, sophomore Pamela McDevitt scored at 3:15 when she took a Kelli Doolin pass and shot it high over the glove of Mercyhurst goaltender Laura Hosier from a few strides inside the blue line for the first goal of her career. Brittany Simpson also assisted on the score. Senior Danielle Tangredi scored the next Friar goal at 5:40 while on the power-play, with assists going to classmates Sarah Feldman and Smith. Hendrickson closed out the scoring at 15:16, with an assist going to Keilch. Ciarletta made 35 saves to earn the win, while Courtney Drennen and Hosier combined for 28 saves for the Lakers.

(Providence, R.I.) - The women's ice hockey team was defeated by the No. 4 ranked Mercyhurst Lakers, 3-0, this afternoon in a non-conference game at Schneider Arena. In the first period, the Lakers outshot the Friars, 14-12, as PC junior Danielle Ciarletta was strong between the pipes, thwarting all 14 shots. Mercyhurst also had two shots glance off the post. Ciarletta continued her strong play in the second period, stopping 15 more shots. The Friars created several scoring opportunities in the second as they had a five-on-three power play, but Mercyhurst goalie Laura Hosier kept the Friars off the scoreboard. PC junior Erin Normore nearly gave the Friars the lead at 16:58, but her shot from the top of the right circle hit the post. Early on in the third period, the Friars came close again to scoring the game's first goal when senior Sarah Feldman stole the puck at the Mercyhurst blue line and raced in on a breakaway, but Hosier made the save on the play at 3:17. Shortly thereafter, the Lakers went on the power play and freshman Ashley Cockell rifled a slap shot off the right post. However, the Lakers finally broke through at 8:19 when junior Natalie Payne's shot from in close beat Ciarletta. Freshman Cassea Schols assisted on the goal. Senior Stephanie Jones gave the Lakers a two-goal cushion as she scored a short-handed goal at 13:06, while Schols added an empty netter at 18:53 to seal the win. Ciarletta finished with 44 saves, one shy of matching her career high which she set last season against Mercyhurst. Hosier stopped all 32 shots in the victory.

(Providence, R.I.) - The women's ice hockey team defeated Boston University, 3-1, in a Hockey East matchup Sunday afternoon. Kathleen Smith led the way for the Friars, recording two goals and an assist. The Friars struck for the game's first goal as Sarah Feldman won an offensive zone face-off back to linemate Katy Beach who was at the top of the circle. Beach then slid a pass to Kathleen Smith, who fired a slapshot into the top right corner of the net to give the Friars a 1-0 lead at 8:15. BU was able to then tie the game at 17:15 when Jillian Kirchner took advantage of a Friar turnover and scored on a wraparound attempt. Caroline Bourdeau was credited with an assist on the play. The Friars were able to regain the lead in the second period as they converted on a power-play chance at 15:53. Brittany Simpson passed the puck over to Smith at the point, who put a shot on net that BU goaltender Allyse Wilcox turned aside, but Danielle Tangredi put home the rebound for her second goal in as many days. In the third period, PC's Erin Normore came close to giving the Friars a two goal lead at 14:00 when she rang a shot from the point off of the cross bar. Then Smith was able to give the Friars a 3-1 lead at 8:02, when she took a pass from Beach and beat Wilcox with a low shot from the point. Feldman assisted on the power-play goal as well. BU had a chance to get back in the game as they had an extended five-on-three advantage, but the PC penalty kill held off the Terrier attack. In net, junior Danielle Ciarletta finished with 26 saves to earn the win, while BU's Wilcox made 33 saves in defeat.

(Burlington, Vt.) - The women's ice hockey team defeated the University of Vermont, 3-2, in Hockey East action on Friday night. Vermont was able to twice come back from one goal deficits, but PC kept the pressure on the Catamounts to come away with the win behind a third period game winning goal by junior Katy Beach. The Friars took a 1-0 lead when junior forward Mari Pehkonen picked up an Erin Normore pass in the high slot and ripped a wrist-shot high past UVM goalie Kristen Olychuck at 3:43. UVM was then able to tie the game when Celeste Doucet passed the puck ahead to send Teddy Fortin in on a breakaway, who then beat PC goalie Danielle Ciarletta. UVM almost took the lead at 18:38 when Fortin skated in on another partial breakaway attempt, but Ciarletta came out and saved the puck off of her left shoulder. The Friars were able to regain a one goal lead at 6:18 of the second period. The go-ahead-goal was scored by senior Sarah Feldman who took a pass from freshman Leigh Riley at the top of the circles and rang a the shot off of Olychuck's right post and in for her fifth goal of the season, giving Riley the first point of her Friar career. Danielle Ciarletta also assisted on the goal. Olychuck kept it a one goal lead for the Friars when she came up with a break away save on Feldman at 17:34 when the senior winger bid for her first short-handed score of the season. After two periods of play, the Friars held a 2-1 advantage. Early in the third period, UVM was able to tie the game at 2-2 when Sarah Smiddy forced the puck over the goal line on a wraparound attempt. Melanie Greene assisted on the goal, which was scored at the 4:07 mark. The Friars once again regained the lead at 8:41 when Beach notched her seventh of the season. Beach was able to take a pass from Normore in the high slot and beat Olychuck. Brittany Simpson, who originally shot the puck which Normore picked up behind the UVM net, also notched an assist on the play. Ciarletta finished with 16 saves to earn the win, while Olychuck made 26 saves in defeat.

The Friars then earned a power play chance and capitalized at 15:41 when freshman Jean O'Neill took a pass from Amber Yung, who had picked up an errant UVM clearing attempt at the point, and beat Vermont goalie Kristen Olychuck from just outside the crease. Vermont answered back at 18:41 to tie the game, 1-1, on a Molly Morrison goal. UVM threatened to take the lead with 15 seconds left in the period as Hannah Westbrook skated down the left side on a breakaway, but Smith was able to make a save to keep the teams tied at one as they headed to the first intermission. UVM was able to take the lead at 16:51 when Celeste Doucet knocked home her own rebounded shot after J. Smith made the initial save on Doucet's wraparound attempt. With 1:30 left the Friars, who were on the power play, pulled Smith in favor of an extra attacker, but Olychuck kept the Friars off the board as she made key stops on both Katy Beach and Mari Pehkonen. Smith finished with 10 saves for the Friars, while Olychuck made 30 saves in UVM's victory.

(Providence, R.I.) - The women's ice hockey team came back from a two goal deficit to defeat Boston University, 4-3, on Thursday night. In the first period, Boston University started the scoring with two goals. Holly Lorms scored the first goal 8:56 into the game, with the assists going to Amanda Shaw and Laurel Koller. The Terriers struck again at 9:48 to take the 2-0 lead when Sarah Appleton picked up a loose puck in the slot and found the back of the net after PC goaltender Danielle Ciarletta made the initial stop on Kelley Karnan, who was credited with an assist. In the second period, the Friars were able to erase the deficit with two goals of their own. Jean O'Neill scored at 3:58 when she one-timed a Mari Pehkonen pass past BU goaltender Melissa Haber from the slot. Providence struck again at 8:54 when Kathleen Smith ripped one past Haber from the right face-off dot. Colleen Martin had an assist on the goal. In the third period, Providence was able to score the go ahead goal at 1:29 when O'Neill netted her second of the game, with assists going to linemates Pehkonen and Alyse Ruff. But BU answered back when Jillian Kirchner beat Ciarletta down low while on the power-play. The goal was made possible by a Sarah Appleton pass that came from the near point to Kirchner, who was just off the far post. Beach then scored the game-winner at 14:09. She picked up a Sarah Feldman pass in the neutral zone, skated down the near side boards, then cut in front at the goal line to deke Haber and deposit a backhander into the back of the net. Danielle Tangredi also collected an assist on the play. Ciarletta finished with 22 saves for the Friars, while Haber made 28 saves in defeat.

(Boston, Mass.) - The women's ice hockey team was defeated at Boston University, 3-1, in Hockey East action on Saturday afternoon. In the first period, the Friars had several scoring opportunities, including early chances by Kathleen Smith and Jean O'Neill that required BU goaltender Alyse Wilcox to make two left-pad saves. The Terriers then had their best chance to score at 8:08 when Sarah Appleton had two shots in close on Friar goaltender Danielle Ciarletta, who made consecutive saves to keep the Terriers off the board. In the second period Katy Beach came close to giving the Friars the lead at 4:57 when she deked two BU defenders in order to get a shot off from just outside the BU crease, but Wilcox made the save. The Terriers were then able to take the lead off of a Melissa Anderson power-play goal that developed after a BU face-off win in the PC defensive zone at 11:06. BU made it 2-0 at 14:30 when Appleton scored while the Terriers were skating on a five-on-three advantage, as she converted a one-timer from the top of Ciarletta's left face-off circle. In the third, BU netted their third power-play goal at 2:58 when Melissa Anderson's shot deflected off a skate in front and past Ciarletta to make the score 3-0. Gina Kearns assisted on the goal. At 4:53 Smith almost got one back for the Friars while they were skating with the man advantage, when her drive from the point eluded Wilcox, only to hit the far post. On the same power-play, O'Neill came close when she took a pass from Alyse Ruff across the slot, but again Wilcox made the save. While on the power-play Tangredi got the Friars on the board as she jammed a loose puck home to make the score 3-1 at 10:51. Beach and Smith were credited with assists. The Friars kept up the pressure, out-shooting BU 25-2 in the period, but Wilcox and BU held on for the win. Ciarletta finished with 21 saves for the Friars, while Wilcox made 46 saves to earn the win.

(Storrs, Conn.) - The women's ice hockey team was defeated by No. 8/9 Connecticut, 3-0, in Hockey East action on Saturday afternoon. The Friars created several scoring chances but UConn's Brittany Wilson shut down the Friars, turning aside all 21 shots he faced, while the Connecticut offense used two third period goals to pull away. In the second, Ciarletta came up with another save at the 8:56 mark when she turned aside a Michelle Binning chance from her right side. From the ensuing breakout, Katy Beach ended up with a shot from the top of UConn's crease, but Wilson made the save. Providence continued to control play, and while on the power-play, the Friars generated several more quality chances, including two consecutive shots by Mari Pehkonen that required Wilson to make two right-pad stops. UConn then had a few chances while they skated with the five-on-four advantage, including Samantha Reid's shot from just outside the crease, but Ciarletta and the Friars killed of the power-play. But UConn was able to strike first when Jaclyn Hawkins slid her shot along the ice past a screened Ciarletta from in close. UConn added to their lead early in the third when Dominique Thibault scored on a two-on-one break, with a pass from Amy Hollstein, to give the Huskies a 2-0 lead at 1:12. UConn made it 3-0 at 4:27 when Hollstein forced a turnover at her own blueline, picked up the loose puck and beat Ciarletta with a slap-shot from the top of the left face-off circle. Ciarletta and freshman Jennifer Smith combined to make 13 saves for the Friars, while Wilson made 21 saves to earn the win.

Game-Winning Goal in CAPS

(Providence, R.I.) - The women's ice hockey team defeated No. 8/9 Connecticut, 5-3, on Sunday afternoon at Schneider Arena. Freshman Jean O'Neill scored the game winner while PC was on the power-play at 8:29 of the second. The Friars pressured the Huskies for much of the first period and that pressure paid off at 12:59 when junior Mari Pehkonen took advantage of a turnover in the UConn zone and scored her fourth goal of the season. Senior Kathleen Smith gave the Friars a 2-0 lead at 17:43 when she potted her team-leading 13th goal of the season and her fifth on the power play. Smith collected a Brittany Simpson pass at the right wing and skated into the circle before firing a wrist shot over the left shoulder of UConn goalie Brittany Wilson. The Friars finished with a 16-1 shot advantage in the first 20 minutes. However, the Huskies wasted little time in the second period as they scored on the power play just 23 seconds into the period to cut the lead to 2-1. Samantha Reid setup Amy Hollstein who fired a shot from that slot that beat PC goalie Danielle Ciarletta. The Friars responded at 3:50 and regained their two goal edge (3-1) as senior Cherie Hendrickson fired a shot from the left circle that glanced off the right post and into the net for her seventh tally of the season. Providence scored their second power-play goal of the game at 8:29 to gain a 4-1 advantage. O'Neill re-directed a pass in front and past Wilson for her seventh goal of the season. The Huskies then scored two power-play goals to cut the lead to 4-3. Reid tallied her fifth goal of the season at 12:32, while Nicole Tritter recorded her 10th tally at 17:48. However, the Friars sealed the win as freshman Alyse Ruff scored an empty netter with 35 seconds remaining, with an assist going to Pehkonen. Ciarletta finished with 14 saves for the Friars, while Wilson stopped 25 shots for the Huskies.
