KERRI JACKLETS
- Head Coach -

Kerri Jacklets was named acting head coach of the Providence College softball program on January 20, 2006 following the departure of eight year coach Dana Fulmer.

Last season, Jacklets served as an assistant coach at Providence and helped the Friars to a 33-20 overall record.

Prior to her assistant coaching position at Providence, Jacklets served three seasons (2001-04) as an assistant at Brown University. While with the Bears, Jacklets was responsible for overseeing a number of roles, including practice coaching duties with an emphasis on hitting, catching and the out-field. She also was responsible for recruiting, managing budgetary requests, and organizing transportation and other accommodations. In 2004, she helped guide the Bears to the Ivy League Championship. She has coached numerous players who have earned Ivy League and Northeast Region honors, including the 2004 Ivy League Pitcher of the Year. In addition to her coaching abilities, Jacklets excels at recruiting. She recruited and coached the Ivy League Rookie of the Year in 2004.

Jacklets enjoyed a stellar career as a catcher at Providence from 1998-2001. She ranks second all-time at the College in batting average (.315), third all-time in home runs (18) and fourth in hits (179). Jacklets also ranks fifth all-time in walks (41) and fourth in runs batted in (76). In 2001, she was named to the All-Northeast Region First Team. Jacklets was a four-time BIG EAST Academic All-Star and graduated from PC with a 3.33 GPA in Social Science.

Jacklets, a native of Sayville, N.Y., currently resides in Providence, R.I.

KERRI JACKLETS FILE:

Full Name: Kerri Ann Jacklets
 Bom: April 25, 1979 in Sayville, N.Y.
 Education: Providence College, 2001; Bachelor of Arts

Playing Experience: Providence College, 1998-2001. All-Northeast Region First Team Selection, 2001; Ranks second all-time at PC in career batting average record (.315), third all-time in homeruns (18) and fourth in hits (179).

Coaching Experience:
 Assistant Coach, Brown University (2001-04)
 Assistant Coach, Providence College (2005)
 Head Coach, Providence College (2006-present)

LAURA TAYLOR
- Assistant Coach -

Former Seton Hall standout Laura Taylor (Hockessin, Del.) joined the Friar softball program assistant coach in February of 2006. The 2005 BIG EAST Player of the Year, Taylor finished her playing career as the top power hitter in school history, as well as one of the top sluggers in NCAA history.

Seton Hall's all-time leader in home runs, Taylor totaled 59 round trippers over her four year career, which is also one of the top-10 figures in NCAA history. In addition, she totaled 180 hits and a school-record 160 RBI. A three-time All-BIG EAST selection, she also was a three-time All-Northeast Region choice.

A Finance major at Seton Hall, Taylor graduated as a Dean's List member in May of 2005. This past summer, Taylor signed a professional contract with the NY/NJ Juggernauts of the National Pro Fastpitch League.

CARYN HASKINS
- Assistant Coach -

Caryn Haskins begins her second season as an assistant coach for the Friar softball program.

A 2002 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Haskins pitched four years for the Huskies (1999-02). In addition, she played for UConn's eighth NCAA tournament participating team and the 2001 Big East championship team.

She ranked seventh all time in appearances with 76 and had the most appearances of any freshman pitcher in UConn history. As a freshman, Haskins led the Big East in saves with four. A three time Big East Academic All-Star, she also was a NFCA All-American Scholar Athlete in 2002. Haskins graduated in 2002 with a 3.8 GPA and a bachelor's degree in Communication Disorders.

Following graduation, she worked for the Senior Women's Athletic Administrator at UConn and then was the pitching coach at Tufts University during the 2003-04 season.

In 2005, she received her master's degree in Education and School Counseling from Cambridge College and is currently a guidance counselor at Concord-Carlisle High School in Concord, Mass. She is also an instructor at camps and clinics in the area, including Boston College, Babson College, Tufts and Dan Duquette's Sports Academy.

Haskins currently resides in Medford, Mass.

CHRISTINE LEVREULT
- Athletic Trainer -

Christine Levreault is in her second year as a graduate assistant trainer with the softball program.

Levreault graduated from Northeastern University in 2002 with a degree in Science (with an emphasis on athletic training). She is certified by the National Athletic Training Association.

Following her graduation at Northeastern, Levreault spent two seasons as an intern in the athletic training department at Bryant University where she worked with the men's lacrosse, football and field hockey teams.

Levreault, who is pursuing a master's degree in Education/Guidance and Counseling, currently resides in Woonsocket, R.I.

Coming off back-to-back seasons with over 30 wins, the 2006 Providence College softball team will aim for a third consecutive season with 30 or more victories for only the third time in school history. With the arrival of six newcomers and the return of nine veterans from last season's squad that posted a 33-20 record and a 5-13 mark in the BIG EAST, the 2006 Friars will look to make some noise in the new 12-team BIG EAST Conference.

PITCHERS

Led by one of PC's all-time best pitchers, Nicole Bartholomew (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.), the Friars finished last season ranked fourth in the BIG EAST in pitching, posting a 1.92 earned run average. Despite not having Nicole Bartholomew because of graduation, the Friars have three players who will solidify the pitching position.

Sara Surosky (Elmira, N.Y.) enters her third year at Providence after a strong sophomore season. Surosky led all Friar pitchers with a 1.74 ERA in 92.2 innings of action. In addition, she posted an 8-7 record, three shutouts and 92 strikeouts. The Friars also will look to freshmen Alisha Levin (Fort Campbell, Ky.) and Jennifer Maccio (Huntington Station, N.Y.). Levin is expected to see many innings on the mound. She finished her impressive career at Fort Campbell High School with a record 639 strikeouts. In addition, she had one perfect game and six no-hitters. Maccio will split time on the mound and the infield. Last season, she pitched a perfect game for Whitman High School.

Senior Michelle Willette
CATCHERS

The Friars will have plenty of depth at the catching position as three players will see time behind the plate. Senior Elena Romero (Chula Vista, Calif.) saw most of the action behind the dish last season. She played in all 53 games (46 as a catcher) and posted a .271 batting average with four home runs and 16 runs batted in. As one of four seniors on the team, Romero will provide strong leadership for the Friars.

Classmate Michelle Willette (Moorpark, Calif.) is another versatile infielder, who will see time behind the plate. Willette, who has strong leadership skills, played in 51 games (two as a catcher) and posted a .302 batting average with nine home runs and 33 RBI. Willette will provide power to the PC lineup.

Junior utility player Rachel Bartholomew (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.), who played in all 53 games last season, also will bring a strong, consistent bat to the PC lineup. Bartholomew finished tied with Willette last season with nine home runs and led the squad in RBI (34) and slugging percentage (.544). Bartholomew saw much action in the outfield last season, but this season she also will see time as a catcher. Freshman Erin Moran (Wilbraham, Mass.) will add more depth to the catching position.

INFIELDERS

In addition to playing the catching position, seniors Michelle Willette and Elena Romero will play prominent roles in the infield. Last season, Willette played 43 games at third base, while Romero saw action at shortstop. Sam Pittman (San Diego, Calif.) saw limited time in the field last season, but is slated to see an increase in playing time, primarily at second base. Pittman played in 53 games last season and provided consistency with her bat. She batted .270 with three home runs and 28 RBI.

Senior Tara Sullivan (Tualatin, Ore.) will look to make the most out of her senior year in 2006. She will split time between first base and the outfield. Junior Caroline Santilli (Westwood, Mass.), who provided speed to the Friar lineup last season, will look to do the same in 2006. She played in 37 games last season.

Freshman Mary Sheehy (Woodbridge, Conn.) is a utility player, who will see action at first and third base. Sheehy was a consistent hitter for the Friars this past fall and will look to carry on that consistency this spring. She finished her senior year at Luralton Hall with a .534 batting average. Jennifer Maccio is another player, who will see action at either corner in addition to her pitching duties. Freshman Lindsey Arria (Hanover, Mass.) rounds out the infield. Arria will play mostly in the middle infield. While playing for Hanover High School last season, Arria recorded a .604 batting average and an impressive .842 on-base percentage.

OUTFIELDERS

Senior Michele Bowers (Staten Island, N.Y.), who also is one of the team's leaders, will patrol the outfield this season. Bowers enjoyed a career year in 2005 as she played in all 53 games and improved in all offensive categories.

The versatile Rachel Bartholomew also will see action in the outfield this season. Bartholomew played 49 games in the outfield last season and recorded 32 putouts and one assist. Freshman Gina Rossi (Bakersfield, Calif.) will provide an impact role for the Friars this season. At the plate, Rossi will be vying for a lead-off spot in the batting order. Junior Katie Ross (Middleboro, Mass.) rounds out the outfield. She played in five games last season and will add strength and speed to the outfield this season.

Under the tutelage of Head Coach Kerri Jacklets, the Friars will look to compile another 30-win season as they welcome six newcomers and return nine veterans from last season's team, including four seniors. PC will begin its season on March 5 at the Rebel Spring Games in Ocoee, Fla.

* BIG EAST Game
Bold CAPS - Home game

The 2005 softball team earned 33 wins for the second consecutive season, finishing with a 33-20 overall mark, including a 5-13 record in BIG EAST action. It marked the first time since 1994-95 that the Friars enjoyed back-to-back seasons with over 30 wins.

Providence began the season on March 1 as they split a doubleheader against the College of Charleston (8-0, 0-5). Two days later, the Friars swept a doubleheader from Furman (3-0, 3-0). On March 4, Providence played fourth-ranked Tennessee in the first game of the Charleston Southern Invitational played in Charleston, S.C. Led by senior pitcher Nicole Bartholomew (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.), the Friars upset the Lady Volunteers, 1-0. Sophomore Rachel Bartholomew (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.) accounted for the lone run as she hit a home run in the fourth inning to take a 1-0 lead. That same day, the Friars defeated Furman, 3-0, in the second game of the tournament. On March 6, the Friars lost, 6-2, to Northern Colorado, defeated Morehead State, 6-0, and dropped a 2-1 decision to Tennessee Tech. Following her exceptional performance at the Charleston Southern Invitational, Bartholomew was named BIG EAST Pitcher of the Week.

The Friars returned to South Carolina on March 11 to play in the Winthrop Invitational in Rock Hill. The Friars won the first four games of the tournament, before falling, 2-1 to the College of Charleston March 13. At the tournament, the Friars were led by junior shortstop Shannon Garvin (Fresno, Calif.), who batted .500 with two home runs and six RBIs as PC posted a 4-1 record to improve to 10-4 overall. Garvin went on to earn BIG EAST Player of the Week on March 14.

Providence continued on the road as it played at the Bash At The Beach Tournament in Georgetown, Del. Garvin continue to ignite the team as the Friars captured four consecutive games at the tournament, before losing, 5-2, to Lehigh in the Championship game. Garvin was named the tournament's most valuable player as she batted .389 with two doubles and one triple in five games.

Boasting a 14-5 record, the Friars returned to New England and defeated Harvard (12-4, 4-1) on March 30 in a doubleheader played at PC's Raymond Field. The twin bill was scheduled to be played at Harvard, however as a result of field conditions in Cambridge, the doubleheader was moved to Providence. Providence played its official home opener on March 31 and fell to Quinnipiac (2-4, 0-4).

The Quinnipiac doubleheader was part of a 10-game home stand in which the Friars posted a 7-3 record. Three of those victories were BIG EAST wins. The Friars defeated Rutgers twice on April 9 (1-0, 6-0) and split against Villanova (1-4, 6-3) on April 10. Following the Villanova series, the Friars struggled in BIG EAST play, posting a 2-12 record the rest of the way. On April 16, Providence dropped a pair of close decisions against Notre Dame (1-0, 5-4) at Raymond Field. The Friars bounced back the following day to split a home doubleheader against Pittsburgh, winning the first game, 9-2, before losing, 3-2, in the nightcap.

Providence then won the next four non-conference games, including a 10-0 triumph in the home finale on April 21. After losing two games at Connecticut (0-2, 0-1) on April 22, the Friars split a twin bill at Boston College, winning 2-0 and losing 6-4 on April 26. Two days later, the Friars downed the Brown Bears 12-6 and 5-3 at Brown. The Friars concluded the season with losses at Seton Hall on March 30 and at St. John's on May 1.

Garvin led the team with a .329 batting average, 58 hits and a .364 on base percentage. She also had eight home runs and 29 runs batted in. For her efforts, she was named to the BIG EAST

Third Team. Senior Kalena Petersen (Mission Viejo, Calif.) posted a .319 batting average with six home runs and 22 RBIs. Junior Michelle Willette (Moorpark, Calif.) and sophomore Rachel Bartholomew (Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.) finished third and fourth on the team, respectively. They finished tied for the team lead with nine home runs each. Willette batted .302 with 34 RBIs, while Bartholomew batted .301 with 33 RBIs.

On the mound, Nicole Bartholomew enjoyed a successful season for the Friars. She posted a 16-11 record, with a 1.88 earned average in over 178 innings of action. In addition, Bartholomew set a single season record with 192 strikeouts and tied a school mark with nine shutouts. For her efforts, Bartholomew was named the College's Female Athlete of the Year for a team sport.

Sophomore Sara Surosky (Elmira, N.Y.) led the team with a 1.74 ERA. She also posted an 8-7 record and 72 Strikeouts.

ATHLETIC ACADEMIC SERVICES

The Office of Academic Services (OAS) provides specialized support to student-athletes in light of the unique time demands, responsibilities, and rules governing participation in intercollegiate athletics. Services are provided in a safe, personal environment where academic growth is a priority, personal development and independence are enhanced, and long-term success is nurtured by a staff which models these same commitments.

Student-athletes who have distinguished themselves in the classroom as well as on the field or court, may be nominated for the BIG EAST Academic All-Star Team, the HOCKEY EAST Academic Honor Roll, NFHCA Division I Academic Team, MAAC All-Academic, ECAC All-Academic or the ESPN The Magazine All-America Program, presented by CoSIDA. The Providence College Athletic Department also honors student-athletes each semester who have achieved a 3.00 grade point average or higher.

Student-Athlete Support Staff:

Michael Walsh, Academic Coordinator for Student-Athletes

TBA, Asst Academic Coordinator/Life Skills Coordinator for Student-Athletes

Eero Vartiainen, Graduate Assistant Student-Athlete Services

SERVICES AVAILABLE TO PROVIDENCE COLLEGE STUDENT-ATHLETES

Academic Monitoring

Progress report slips (i.e., requesting information regarding class attendance and performance) are sent to each instructor for all student-athletes at least once per semester. The staff tracks individual progress, schedules meetings with student-athletes as appropriate, and personally contacts instructors as necessary.

Counseling/Mentoring

The staff meets with student-athletes, individually and in-groups, regarding academic, athletic, career, and/or personal issues.

Life Skills Program/Special Projects

Programs and workshops on select life skills (i.e., NCAA/CHAMPS Life Skills Program) are presented, covering the following five component areas: academics, personal development, community service, athletics, and career development. The OAS has collaborative relationships with many units on campus to help provide these services.

Pre-Advisement/Registration

The staff assists student-athletes with planning and course registration. In conjunction with the Office of Academic Records, dates are determined for pre-registration each semester.

Study Hall

Quiet, monitored study time is available, during daytime and evening hours. Student-athletes are required and/or recommended to attend, on a sport-by-sport basis, by their respective head coach.

Travel Notifications

At the beginning of each semester, student-athletes are provided with letters for their instructors, notifying them of travel/competitive schedules.

Tutorial Services and The Writing Center

The Tutorial Center, which is nationally certified by the College Reading & Learning Association, provides peer tutoring in most all subject areas. The Tutorial Center is open until 9:00 pm weeknights. The Writing Center provides more intensive and specialized writing support and also maintains evening hours for student-athletes' convenience.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Providence College is primarily a coeducational four-year undergraduate college of liberal arts and sciences. Its main objective is the intellectual development of its students through the disciplines of the sciences and the humanities, equipping them to become productive and responsible citizens of a democratic society.

To be eligible for a degree, a student must accumulate 116 credit hours over an eight semester period with an overall quality point average of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale. In addition, a student must complete a minimum of 24 upper-division credits in the field of their major with an overall 2.0 cumulative average unless stipulated. Included in the total credit hours are the following prerequisites for any degree: Development of Western Civilization (20); Social Sciences (6); Natural Science (6); Philosophy (6); Theology (6); Mathematics (3) and Fine Arts (3). The remaining credit hours are elective with at least nine coming from areas outside one's major. In addition, all students establish English (writing) Proficiency by coursework or standards designated by the English Department.

The five most popular concentrations for the Class of 2005 were Marketing, Management, English, Political Science and Elementary Education. In all, the college offers a total of 34 majors and 36 minors ranging from theatre arts to computer science.

Although this may seem overwhelming on paper, our staff goes to great lengths to monitor each student's academic progress. The Athletic Department's Academic Advisor counsels all of the school's athletes and assists them in any areas in which they are experiencing difficulties. It's a system that Providence is quite proud of and one which we've worked long and hard to establish.

Any student-athlete who feels the need for tutorial assistance can utilize the college's tutorial center, as well as the athletic department's advisors who can supply them with individuals capable of assisting them in their particular course of study.

ATHLETIC DEPARTMENT MISSION

The mission of the Providence College Intercollegiate Athletics program is to foster the personal development and education of young men and women through their participation in NCAA Division I athletics. Athletic contests provide an opportunity for the campus and the community at large to demonstrate their support of the College, its athletics program, and the student-athletes.

The Athletic Department strives to fulfill student-athlete needs and goals in an environment steeped in the Dominican tradition in which honesty, integrity, mutual respect, effort and constant improvement are cherished and cultivated.

Responding to the needs of Rhode Island, the Dominican Order of Preachers made a special commitment to the state in 1917 and founded Providence College — the only institution of higher learning in North America that is conducted by the Order. In 88 years, Providence College has steadily moved to a position of national prominence, while maintaining a personal, community-like atmosphere that fosters growth and development among its student population.

Providence College's rich heritage dates back to 1216, or the origins of the Dominican Order in Spain. Through the ages, the Dominican Friars became known as the "champions of the faith," spreading the gospel message through the centuries into every corner of the globe. Today, Dominican Friars continue to spread the gospel in a wide range of remote areas of the world, to teach at every level of the United States educational system.

With the Dominican tradition as its foundation, Providence College focuses on developing the entire person through its values-oriented education.

The college seeks to complement a student's knowledge with knowledge of his own values — values that will remain the foundation for sound judgement throughout a lifetime.

To that end, Providence College aims to relate its curriculum to the problems of contemporary society, offering diverse programs of study that remain grounded in the liberal arts. Students may choose from some 60 concentrations ranging from computer science to labor relations to theatre arts. In addition, qualified students who wish to structure a program not specifically provided under the regular concentrations may develop their own program with the approval of the dean of the college.

As part of the core curriculum, all students take a two-year, team-taught course, Development of Western Civilization (DWC) which integrates the study of literature, philosophy, history and religious studies through the ages into a cohesive interdisciplinary unit.

Situated just on the fringe of downtown Providence, the College's location enables students to have easy access to the many social, cultural, educational and recreational amenities of urban life — the Providence Public Library; entertainment at the Providence Performing Arts Center; sporting events, entertainment and trade shows at the Dunkin' Donuts Center and the Providence Convention Center; shopping at the Providence Place Mall and dozens of fine restaurants. With several other major educational institutions located in Providence, the city has become a hub of collegiate activity.

THE MISSION OF THE COLLEGE

Providence College is a primarily undergraduate, liberal arts, Catholic institution of higher education. Committed to fostering academic excellence through the sciences and humanities, the College provides a variety of opportunities for intellectual, social, moral and spiritual growth in a supportive environment.

The College actively cultivates intellectual, spiritual, ethical and aesthetic values within the context of the Judaeo-Christian heritage.

These values are nurtured by the unique tradition of the Dominican Order which emphasizes quality teaching and scholarship.

Providence College recognizes the unity of the human family that proceeds from its one Creator. It therefore encourages the deepest respect for the essential dignity, freedom and equality of every person and welcomes qualified women and men from all religious, racial and ethnic backgrounds. Providence College prepares its students to be responsible and productive citizens to serve in their own society and the greater world community.

ROBERT G. DRISCOLL, JR.

Athletic Director

Four years ago, Robert G. Driscoll, Jr. came to Providence College with a vision. A vision of excellence for the department of intercollegiate athletics that would help to instill a level of pride among the entire campus community and throughout the State of Rhode Island. Since his hiring on November 2, 2001, Driscoll has worked diligently to make the Providence College Athletics Department a highly respected Division I program.

In 2004-05, the Friar community enjoyed another great year on the playing fields and in the classroom. The women's cross country team finished third at the NCAA Championship and All-American Kim Smith captured the individual NCAA title, marking the first individual women's cross country champion in school history. The women's ice hockey team captured its third-consecutive HOCKEY EAST Championship and fourth-straight conference title overall. The program also made its first-ever trip to the NCAA Women's Ice Hockey Championship. The men's lacrosse team won the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference Regular-Season crown for the second time in three-years and qualified for the MAAC Championship Tournament for the fifth-consecutive season. Providence College also was represented at the NCAA's by the men's cross country team and the men's and women's outdoor track teams.

Academically, 101 student-athletes who compete in sports sponsored by the BIG EAST Conference were named to the BIG EAST Academic All-Star Team. Two student-athletes earned ESPN The Magazine All-Academic District I First Team honors, including Mark Rotella who became the first men's lacrosse player at Providence College to earn ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors as a member of the Third Team. Eighteen other student-athletes were named to academic all-star teams affiliated with their sport specific conference or affiliation. Twelve Friars were inducted into the National Collegiate Athlete Honors Society (Chi Alpha Sigma).

In 2005-06, Driscoll and the Friars will enter a new era of excellence as the BIG EAST Conference welcomes five new members and expands to 16 institutions. Cincinnati, DePaul, Marquette, Louisville and South Florida officially joined the BIG EAST on July 1, 2005. The BIG EAST, which already is one of the most dominant Division I athletic conferences in the country, gets even better. Driscoll is primed and ready to help propel the Friar Athletic Department into the national spotlight within the toughest league in the country. This year also will mark the opening of the College's new $6-million artificial turf field hockey and lacrosse complex. The new facility was the direct result of Driscoll's hard work and diligence. Another facility project that has been a major focus for Driscoll is the renovation of the Dunkin' Donuts Center. This plan received the necessary support in the summer of 2005 and the $60-million renovation is scheduled to begin immediately with a completion date of 2008.

Driscoll is in the midst of his second year as a member of the NCAA I Management Council. He was appointed to the council in May of 2004, and is one of 49 athletic administrators, faculty athletics representatives and institutional administrators to whom athletics departments report or who have other significant duties regarding athletics. The Division I Management Council, which reports to the NCAA Division I Board of Directors, is empowered to make recommendations to the Board and handle responsibilities delegated to it.

Driscoll joined the Providence community after 14 years in athletic administration at the University of California, Berkeley. At Cal, Driscoll served as the director of athletic administration and was responsible for the overall administration of the revenue-producing sports of football and men's basketball. He also oversaw the men's and women's swimming, men's and women's water polo, rugby, strength training, equipment and sports medicine programs.

Driscoll was hired at Cal as the associate athletic director for student services, a position he held for five years. In that role, he oversaw such areas as recruiting, admissions and financial aid. He then assumed the position of executive associate athletic director, at which point he was responsible for the administration of 27 varsity sports. During his tenure at Cal, he also oversaw 25 club sports, a staff of 250 and a $36 million budget. Prior to coming to Providence, he served as the acting executive director for intercollegiate athletics and recreational sports. During his tenure, Cal won over 20 national championships, competed in the Citrus, Copper, Alamo and Aloha Bowls, and finished as high as 12th in the NACDA Directors' Cup.

Before arriving at Cal, Driscoll served six years (1981-87) as the athletic director and chair of the Department of Physical Education, Recreation and Intramural Sports at Mills College in Oakland, Calif. Prior to arriving at Mills, Driscoll was assistant athletic director and head baseball and hockey coach at Union College in Schenectady, N.Y. from 1977-81. At Union, he was responsible for 22 men's and women's intercollegiate sports teams, including nationally ranked football and hockey teams.

Driscoll was a standout hockey and baseball player at Ithaca College (N.Y.), where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in physical education in 1974. He earned his Master's of Science in physical education/psychology of sports from Ithaca in 1975.

A native of Concord, Mass., Driscoll was inducted into inaugural class of Concord Carlisle High School's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1993. He is the proud father of three children, Tara, Kelly and Sean and resides in North Kingstown with his wife, Cathy.

REVEREND BRIAN J. SHANLEY, O.P.

President

On February 1, 2005, Providence College announced the election of Reverend Brian J. Shanley, O.P., to serve as the 12th president of the College. Father Shanley assumed his duties at the College on July 1, 2005, and succeeded Reverend Philip A. Smith, O.P., who served as the College's president from 1994-2005. Prior to his arrival at Providence, Father Shanley served as an associate professor in the School of Philosophy at The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.

Father Shanley is a native of Warwick, Rhode Island. A parishioner at St. Gregory the Great Church, he attended local public schools, graduating from Toll Gate High School in 1976.

In 1980, Father Shanley earned his undergraduate degree in history at Providence College. He holds a doctorate degree in philosophy from the University of Toronto, where he completed the Collaborative Providence in Philosophy and Medieval Studies. He also holds a master of divinity degree (theology) and the Licentiate in Sacred Theology (S.T.L.), both from the Dominican House of Studies in Washington, D.C. (Pontifical Faculty of the Immaculate Conception.)

Ordained to the priesthood in 1987, Father Shanley has devoted his entire career to teaching and administration in Catholic higher education. Following teaching assignments at Providence College and the University of Toronto, he began his tenure at The Catholic University of America in 1994, achieving the rank of associate professor in 2001. Father Shanley's first teaching assignment was at Providence College from 1988-91. He was an instructor of philosophy, and taught in the Development of Western Civilization Program.

Father Shanley spent the Fall 2002 semester as a visiting professor at the Candler School of Theology at Emory University. He previously engaged in a post-doctoral fellowship at the University of Notre Dame's Center for Philosophy of Religion in 1998-99.

As the Regent of Studies for the Dominican Province of St. Joseph, Father Shanley holds a seat on the Provincial Council, a body of 12 Dominican Friars serving as cabinet-level advisors to the Prior Provincial. He advises the Prior Provincial on all matters pertaining to the intellectual and academic life of the Province and oversees the academic endeavors of members of the Province, including those in preparation for the priesthood and those engaged in graduate studies.

Father Shanley has been widely published in philosophy-focused academic journals and has been a guest lecturer at a wide range of scholarly conferences.

Over the fall of 2005, the Providence College softball team continued its ongoing tradition of helping out the Providence community. Many devoted and dedicated hours went into helping our neighbors and we are very grateful we had the opportunity to help out.

On Sunday, October 16th, we participated in our ninth Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walk. To help the American Cancer Society in their fight against breast cancer, we raised over $800 dollars in donations. We were 15 out of the 8,000 walkers taking on the 5K march that Sunday morning at Roger Williams Park. This particular Making Strides walk raised $600,000 to help continue the American Cancer Society patient support, education, research, and advocacy programs. We are proud to be part of such a good cause and look forward to it every year.

In addition to the Making Strides walk, the juniors organized the 10th annual Providence Softball Holiday Food Drive. We sent out 800 flyers to local neighborhoods around Providence College. We collected between 400 and 450 lbs of food that people in our surrounding neighborhoods donated. We gave the donations to the Rhode Island Food Bank, which was in a desperate need of food for the upcoming Thanksgiving season.

Lastly, for the second year in a row the Providence College softball team volunteered at the Rhode Island Festival of Trees on December 4, 2005. The Rhode Island

Festival of Trees is a charitable organization founded by the Providence Warwick Convention and Visitors Bureau. The mission of the festival is to present an annual, state-wide holiday event which will also help raise funds for local non-profit organizations. All the items featured at the event including, trees, wreaths, raffle and auction items, and gift shop items were donated and were eventually sold. This year all proceeds benefited the young children of the Rhode Island Zoological Society, specifically the polar bear exhibit. As volunteers, the Friars helped with: greeting visitors at the festival, general assistance with live entertainment, supervision over the children's activity area, and the finalizing of sales for the tree and wreath exhibits.

We were so happy that we could help and support the community around us throughout this year. Although not all of us come from or live on the east coast, we all consider Providence our home. Our community is important to us, and we only wish we could give back more. We look forward to and will continue our hard work and dedication to this community for many years to come.

RHODE ISLAND

As soon as you land at the airport or cross the state line, you are in FRIARTOWN. The state of Rhode Island is comprised of hard-working, family-oriented people who are Friar Fanatics.

And make no mistake, you are in the most unique state in the union. Rhode Island has the country's best beaches, a beautiful New England coastline, country charm, big-boy advantages in Providence, the mansions in Newport, American history in every town, and, of course, the Providence College Friars.

Roger Williams came to colonial Rhode Island to escape religious persecution in Massachusetts. It became a bastion of religious freedom and independence. In 1638, the first Baptist Church in America was founded. In 1699, the country's oldest Quaker Meeting House was founded in Newport. Later, the oldest Jewish temple in the United States, Touro Synagogue, was established in Newport in 1763, and the first Roman Catholic mass celebrated in the new country was held in Rhode Island.

Being "first" is a Rhode Island tradition. Rhode Island was the first state to declare independence from the British throne on May 4, 1776. In 1790, Samuel Slater built the first textile mill in Pawtucket, and is recognized as the father of America's Industrial Revolution. In the late 1600's, the country's first woman doctor, Sarah Sands, set up her practice in Rhode Island, while Anne Hutchinson founded Portsmouth, the first town in America founded by a woman.

Rhode Island's native sons also have distinguished themselves in countless endeavors.

General Nathaniel Green was second-in-command to General George Washington. Lieutenant Stephen Olney led the charge of Cornwallis' troops in the battle that ended the Revolutionary War. Colonial artist Gilbert Stuart, who painted the most recognized portrait of George Washington, was born in Rhode Island.

There are numerous attractions in Rhode Island, including Hammersmith Farm in Newport where John F. Kennedy and Jacqueline Bouvier were married and vacationed. The International Tennis Hall of Fame is also in Newport as are the mansions which served as America's first vacationland to the rich. The oldest tavern in the United States is in Rhode Island, as is the first enclosed shopping mall. T.F. Greene airport is the first state-owned airport in the country.

The state along with the city of Providence has enjoyed a renaissance of sorts in recent years.

The state capital, Providence, is the home or the workplace of over one-quarter of the state's one million residents. The downtown area has become alive again with various new buildings, including a convention center and hotel next to the Dunkin' Donuts Center and the Waterplace Park. Along with newer historic landmarks like the Biltmore Hotel, the Trinity Square Repertory Theater and the Providence Performing Arts Center.

The state capitol building features a Georgian marble dome which is the fourth largest unsupported dome in the world. The Dunkin' Donuts Center, "the home of the basketball Friars" has played host to the U.S. Figure Skating Championships, the 1995 and 2000 NCAA Hockey Championships, the first and second rounds of the 1996 NCAA Basketball Tournament and the NCAA East Regional Hockey Championship in 2003.

"The Ocean State" features 400 miles of coastline and is the home of the Boston Red Sox AAA Farm Team. There are 12 colleges in Rhode Island and one can reach any location in the state in less than 50 minutes. It is a state of eight cities, 30 towns and 250 villages and hamlets. Make no mistake about it, Rhode Island has something for everyone.
