Eagles News & Notes . . .

- The Coppin State men’s basketball team is in the midst of its 53rd season in school-history and travels to face Penn State on Saturday, December 30.
- This is the second meeting ever between Coppin State and Penn State with the Nittany Lions victorious, 66-49 on December 28, 2001 at the Golden Bear Classic at Haas Pavilion in Berkeley, Calif.
- In the last nine games, grad student Karonn Davis is averaging 12.8 points, 4.9 rebounds and 4.3 assists per game.
- Sparked by a 30 pt game at UConn, Lamar Morgan is averaging 15.4 points the last 5 games.
- The Eagles have used eight different starting lineups through 14 games.
- Local Legend and Baltimore native Head Coach Juan Dixon is in his 1st year as head coach of the Eagles. Dixon was a two-time All-American and all-time leading scorer at Maryland, led the Terrapins to the 2002 National Championship and played nine seasons in the NBA.
- The Eagles return just four players (Juan Dixon, Lamar Morgan, Blake Simpson & Lucian Brownlee) from last year’s squad and feature nine newcomers with four true freshman, four junior college transfers and a graduate transfer.
- The nine scholarship newcomers is the fourth-most in NCAA Division I behind Pittsburgh (11) and both Arkansas-Little Rock (10) and Robert Morris (10). Like Coppin, South Florida also features nine scholarship-newcomers.
- Among that list of teams with the most scholarship newcomers, CSU’s four JUCO transfers is the most.
- With Clayton injured and Thomas, Simpson and Brownlee all coming off the bench in all but two games this season (Thomas at WVU), it is likely that Coppin will start a lineup with five players new to the program this season.
- Clayton was a member of the MEAC All-Rookie Team last year and was voted to the Preseason All-MEAC Team.
- Clayton is injured and is not likely to play today.
- The Eagles were picked 12th out of 13 teams in the MEAC Preseason Poll.

Dixon wrapped up his nine-year NBA career with the Wizards in 2008-09. Coach on the Men's Basketball coaching staff at his alma mater, University of Maryland. There he supported 2015 Big 10 Conference Coach of the Year, Mark Turgeon, by enhancing game plans and strategizing how to attack opponents offensively and defensively. He helped implement offensive sets and defensive principles, analyzed and broke down film, and mentored, motivated, counseled and developed student-athletes, including future NBA players Alex Len, Diamond Stone, Jake Layman and Robert Carter, Jr.

Dixon also coached DMV's Finest and Team Maryland during The Basketball Tournament (TBT) in Philadelphia, PA, and directs his own Juan Dixon Basketball Camp and Premier Basketball Camp, both in Baltimore, MD.

One of the most celebrated student-athletes in Maryland history, Dixon remains the all-time leading scorer in program history (2,269 points) after leading the Terrapins to their first national title in 2002 as a senior. He holds six different records in program history, ranging from points, games played, steals and 3-pointers.

The Most Outstanding Player of the 2002 NCAA Final Four and ACC Player of the Year, Dixon earned two All-America selections, three First Team All-ACC selections and two All-ACC Tournament selections throughout his illustrious career. He averaged 16.1 points, 4.2 rebounds, 2.6 assists, and 2.4 steals in 141 games from 1998-2002.

Dixon was drafted with the 17th pick of the 2002 NBA draft by the Washington Wizards, where he spent three seasons. He signed with the Portland Trail Blazers in 2005, and he averaged a career-high 12.3 points during his first season with the team. After stops in Toronto and Detroit, Dixon wrapped up his nine-year NBA career with the Wizards in 2008-09. Throughout his NBA career, Dixon played under Hall of Fame player Doug Collins and Patrick Ewing (Wizards), Monty Williams and Nate McMillan (Trail Blazers), 2007 NBA Coach of the Year Sam Mitchell (Toronto Raptors), Flip Saunders (Detroit Pistons), and Eddie Jordan (Wizards). He also played alongside the following: Charles Oakley, Jerry Stackhouse, Gilbert Arenas, Antawn Jamison, Christian Laettner, Tyrone Lue, (former Maryland backcourt-mate) Steve Blake, Zach Randolph, Theo Ratliff, Chris Bosh, TJ Ford, José Calderón, Chauncey Billups, Richard Hamilton, Rasheed Wallace, Antonio McDyess and Caron Butler. During his first stint with the Wards, he was also teammates with and mentored by NBA legend Michael Jordan.

Dixon, a graduate of Calvert Hall College High School in Towson, MD, earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Family Science in 2013 from the University of Maryland.

During his student-athlete career at Maryland he earned numerous distinctions including: NCAA Senior CLASS Award (2002), Chip Hilton Award (2002), ESPN Shooting Guard of the Year (2002), Wooden Player of the Year Award candidate (2002), Third Team NABC All-American (2001) and Third Team USBWA All-American (2001). He was inducted into the University of Maryland Athletics Hall of Fame in October 2012, and he was selected as one of 75 All-Time March Madness Players in 2012.

Prior to UDC, Dixon served as the Special Assistant to the Head Coach on the Men’s Basketball coaching staff at his alma mater, University of Maryland. There he supported 2015 Big 10 Conference Coach of the Year, Mark Turgeon, by enhancing game plans and strategizing how to attack opponents offensively and defensively. He was inducted into the University of Maryland Athletics Hall of Fame in October 2012, and he was selected as one of 75 All-Time March Madness Players in 2012.

Associate Head Coach John Auslander

John Auslander is in his first season as the associate head coach at Coppin State where he is responsible for assisting in the overall management, supervision and coordination of the men's basketball program.

Auslander came to Coppin after serving a season as an assistant coach with the Maine Red Claws, a Boston Celtics affiliate in the NBA Developmental League. With the Red Claws who won a Division Title and advanced to the Conference Finals, he was primarily responsible for the defense which finished sixth in the League which was ranked 17th at the time of takeover. He also assisted in the development of game plans, develop and present opponent scouting reports, edit and conduct player and team film sessions and conduct both individual and team player development sessions.

Prior to working with the Red Claws, Auslander was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, University of Maryland from 2014 to 2016. With the Terrapins, who set a regular season wins record in 2015 and reached the Sweet Sixteen in 2016, Auslander was responsible for monitoring the team's academic progress and assisted with travel arrangements. He also assisted in implementing offensive and defensive sets and principles, analyze and edit film and skill development for Washington Wizards Player Development Coach David Adkins.

While concurrently assisting with the Terps, Auslander also spent two summers as the head coach of DMV’s Finest which consisted of several professional players and worked as a NBA Player Development Coach for potential Boston Celtics and Washington Wizards draftees and free agents, including former Terrapins Melo Trimble, Jake Layman and Alex Len.

After transferring from Division III Greensboro College, Auslander was a four-year letterwinner and twice named team captain at Maryland where he earned the Tom McMillen Academic Excellence award as a sophomore and the Greivis Vasquez Award for Most Inspirational Player as a senior. A roommate of Len’s at College Park, Auslander was a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll all four years.

A native of Herndon, Va., Auslander was a standout at Herndon High School before being named the Most Valuable Player at West Nottingham Academy.

Assistant Coach Phil Gaetano

Philip Gaetano joined the Coppin State men’s basketball coaching staff in June 2017 and is in his first season with the Eagles. His responsibilities include recruiting, player development, film breakdown, opponent scouting, and various other aspects.

Gaetano comes to Coppin after spending the previous season as an assistant coach with the Maine Red Claws in the NBA Development League. He handled player development, scouting, video breakdown and other duties for the Red Claws. The Red Claws went on to win a playoff series for the first time in their history in 2016-17.

Prior to working with the Red Claws, Gaetano served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Sacred Heart University for the 2015–16 season. In his graduate assistant role, Gaetano was responsible for video breakdown, scouting reports, coordinating team travel. That season, Gaetano worked closely with All-NEC selection Cane Brome as well as All-Rookie selection Quincy McKnight.

Gaetano was a standout student-athlete at Sacred Heart University from 2011-2015. Known for his high basketball IQ and passing ability, Gaetano holds the career assist record in the Division I era for the Pioneers. In 2012-13, Gaetano finished second in the nation with 7.9 assists per game. Gaetano led the Pioneers to two Northeast Conference Tournament appearances during his tenure.

Off the floor, Gaetano was equally impressive as he was named NEC Scholar Athlete of the Year for three consecutive seasons, a first for the league. Gaetano earned his bachelor’s degree in business administration in 2014 and completed his master’s in business administration in 2015.

A Wallingford, Connecticut native, Gaetano led Sheehan High School to its lone state championship his senior season. That same year he was named a McDonald’s All-American nominee and still holds the career assist record at Sheehan.
Davis Adds a Veteran Presence to Backcourt
Karonn Davis provides the most experience on the roster despite this being with Coppin since the beginning of the season. A graduate transfer, Davis played his first two seasons with Niagara University where he started 28 games, including 26 games as a freshman in the 2014-15 season. As a freshman, Davis averaged 7.3 points and 2.8 rebounds to go with a team-high 81 assists. His playing time diminished as a sophomore before transferring to Division II Bloomsburg for his junior season.

In the last eight games, Davis is putting up 12.8 points, 4.8 rebounds and 4.3 assists per game.

Returning Backcourt Duo
Despite both players being at Coppin just one season, the Eagles will need to rely heavily on senior Tre' Thomas and sophomore Dejuan Clayton to lead the team in 2017-18. Clayton was a MEAC All-Rookie Team performer last year while averaging 12.4 points and leading the team in assists as a freshman. Clayton averaged over 15 points in conference play. Thomas averaged nearly 10 points last year after transferring nearby Baltimore City CC. Out of the four returning players from last year, Clayton and Thomas account for 79 percent of the point production.

Lights Out Lamar
At the University of Connecticut, junior college transfer Lamar Morgan went off for 30 points on 8-of-12 shooting while making 7-of-11 from three-point range as well as 7-of-8 from the free throw line. Morgan went into the game averaging just 5.3 points per game. Morgan is the first Eagles’ men’s basketball player to score 30 points in a game since Michael Harper tallied 30 points on January 23, 2012 against North Carolina A&T. Morgan’s seven triples were the most for a CSU player since Andre Armstrong made eight against North Carolina A&T on January 28, 2013.

Council’s Block Party(s)
Junior Cedric Council, Jr., blocked a season-high five shots in a loss at Ohio University. Council’s five blocks were the most for an Eagle in nearly four years when Brandon St. Louis blocked five shots against UMBC on December 11, 2013. The game against the Bobcats thrusted Council to among the nation’s leaders in blocked shots as he averages nearly a blocked shot per game.

This last game at Georgia Tch, which was a homecoming of sorts for Council who had about 20 family members and friends in attendance, Council went off for a season-high 17 points along with five 3-pointers. Council also tallied three blocks and a season-high three steals. Council grew up just minutes from the Georgia Tech campus in Kennesaw, Ga.

Productive in Their Season Debuts
After missing the first 11 games of the season with an injury, freshman Jordan Hardwick made his collegiate debut at West Virginia on December 20. Coming off the bench, Hardwick recorded four points, including a dunk, as well as four rebounds and a pair of blocked shots.

Making his first appearance of the season at Ohio University on December 1, senior Blake Simpson scored six points while grabbing four rebounds and blocking a shot against the Bobcats. Simpson’s three made field goals were a career-high and the Eagles recorded what were then season-highs in both rebounds (37) and blocked shots (seven). At six-foot-seven, 230 pounds, Simpson adds a different dimension to the CSU lineup with his size and experience at the Division I level.

New England Freshman Duo
The duo of freshmen KeAndre Fair and Jordan Hardwick all hail from the New England area. Fair played in four consecutive state championship games and won a state title in 2015 with two losses coming in overtime. He was named first-team All-State for all four years of his high school career, a two-time New Haven Register first team All-State selection, and the 2015 Hartford Courant Player of the Year. He is Weaver High School’s all-time leading scorer with over 2,000 career points. Hardwick played at prep school powerhouse Springfield Commonwealth Academy, which won over 20 games and qualified for its first National Prep Championship his senior season.

Strong at the Free Throw Line
Through 14 games this season, one of the team’s strengths has been at the charity stripe where the Eagles are shooting 76.0% as a team, ranking 25th in the nation. Junior Adam Traore was nationally ranked in the category for several weeks but has cooled off. Karonn Davis is shooting 80% from the line this season, and after his big game at UConn where he made 7-of-8 from the stripe, Lamar Morgan is now shooting 90.3% from the line (28-of-31).

Second Half Team
In all but three games this season (at Georgetown, Connecticut & Georgia Tech) which were arguably three of the best games CSU has played this year, the Eagles have shot better from the field in the second half. In the first half of games, Coppin is shooting just 28.9% from the field compared to 36.2% in the second half. Prior to the game at Georgia Tech where the Eagles went cold in the 2nd half, this stat also applied to 3-point and free throw shooting.

Live & Die By the Three
Lacking in size inside, Coppin has taken a large number of three-pointers this season with 47.5% of their field goals coming from behind-the-arc. This is the second-highest percentage of any team in the MEAC while Savannah State has taken the most 3-point attempts in the nation coming into tonight.

Individually, KeAndre Fair and Lamar Morgan take the most percentage of their shots from three with Fair taking 88.1% (52-of-59) and Morgan taking 85.4% (88-of-103) of their shots from distance. Lucian Brownlee and Taqwain Drummond also take a majority of their shots from deep.

Strength of Schedule
In the latest rankings published by ESPN.com, Coppin has played the 42nd toughest schedule in the Nation. This is the 3rd hardest among MEAC Teams (Savannah State - 5th; Maryland Eastern Shore - 19th). Texas Southern has the hardest strength of schedule according to the report on: http://www.espn.com/mens-college-basketball/rpi/_/sort/sos

Every Tuesday on WNST 1570 AM
Every Tuesday morning during the season, head coach Juan Dixon will be interviewed on WNST 1570 AM. WNST will air all Coppin home men's and women's basketball games this season as well as selected road games. Games will also be aired on Fox Sports Williamsport as well as CSU's UStream channel.

Preseason Projections
Coppin State was picked to finish 12th of 13 teams in the MEAC Preseason Poll. Dejuan Clayton, a member of the 2016-17 All-Rookie Team was named a 3rd Team Preseason All-Conference selection.

Morgan State was picked to win the conference with 13 first place tallies in voting conducted between the leagues’ head coaches and sports information directors. Six teams received at least one first place vote.

From GoPSUSports.com

The Penn State Nittany Lions overcame cold shooting in the first half to out-hustle the Coppin State Eagles on route to a 66-49 win in the first round of the California Golden Bear Classic.

Freshman Jan Jagla, making his second straight start, had nine points and a team-high nine rebounds in the game. He also lead Penn State with three assists and two blocks.

Sharif Chambliss and Tyler Smith both hit for 13 points each with Chambliss grabbing a-game-high four steals. Chambliss, continuing his torrid shooting from long range, hit three of eight treys in the game.

Other fine individual performances for Penn State included Jamaal Tates nine points and nine rebounds and Daren Tielschs six points and eight boards.

Penn State opened the game with an 8-0 run and never trailed. The Eagles would cut the lead to as little as four at various spots in the first half but the Nittany Lions would take a 29-23 lead into the halftime lockerroom, despite hitting only 10 of 30 field goals in the first stanza.

The second half saw a better shooting PSU squad take the floor as the team hit 13 of 28 field goals and led by as many as 20 points. Coppin State hit only eight of 24 field goals in the first half and 19 of 50 overall. Penn State committed 20 turnovers in the contest while CSU had 19 but the Lions were dominant on the boards, out-rebounding Coppin State 44-27.

Larry Tucker led Coppin State with 22 points and nine rebounds while Jimmy Boykin also finished in double figures with 12 points.
