PSU CLOSES OUT REGULAR SEASON WITH HOME SERIES AGAINST MICHIGAN

The Nittany Lions will play their final regular season contest at home this Saturday and Sunday against the University of Michigan Wolverines. The two teams will battle on Saturday and Sunday at noon on Nittany Lion Field. Both games will be broadcast nationally on the Big Ten Network.

SERIES HISTORY

This will be the 46st and 47th meetings between the Nittany Lions and Wolverines. The series began back in 1992 and quickly went in favor of the Wolverines. Michigan currently holds the advantage with a 38-7 record against the Nittany Lions. PSU has won four of the last six contests between the two teams. PSU met Michigan earlier this season at the Time Warner Cable Texas Invitational and fell 6-2.

SCOUTING THE COMPETITION

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN (46-5, 16-2 BIG TEN)

The Wolverines have won all 16 of their road contests this season. Their last loss overall was at home to Northwestern University 2-1 in the opening game of their doubleheader on April 27. Previous to that loss they had won 14-straight contests.

Michigan is led at the plate by senior's Samantha Findlay and Alessandra Giampaolo. Findlay has a .396 batting average with 19 homeruns and 65 RBIs while Giampaolo clocks in with a .373 batting average and 22 RBIs. On the mound Michigan boasts the NCAA leading pitching staff with a team ERA of 0.82. Freshman Jordan Taylor and sophomore Nikki Nemitz have done all the work for the Wolverines. Taylor has logged 179.2 innings pitched while Nemitz has 163.1. Taylor has a record of 25-2 while Nemitz strolls in with a 21-3 mark.

ASHLEY ESPARZA NAMED BIG TEN PITCHER OF THE WEEK

Senior Ashley Esparza was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week the conference office announced March 24. Esparza is the second Nittany Lion to receive Pitcher of the Week this season as Jackie Hill received the honor the week before. This marks the first time in school history to receive the award twice in one season.

Esparza had a great weekend as she picked up a win and a save in her two appearances on the mound. She went a combined 10.0 innings in the circle while striking out 10 and allowing just one earned run. In her first appearances she pitched 3.0 innings of relief while striking out four and not allowing a hit against Youngstown State. She started the very next game going the full seven innings picking up a win versus Miami (Ohio). She added six more strikeouts in that victory and allowed only one walk in all 10.0 innings.

Home Games in Bold

Nittany Lion Softball 2

Esparza also went 5-for-12 at the plate picking up two RBIs along with two runs scored. She had two hits in both the win over Toledo and the win over Youngstown State.

JACKIE HILL NAMED BIG TEN PITCHER OF THE WEEK AS WELL AS PENN STATE FEMALE STUDENT-ATHLETE OF THE WEEK

Redshirt-freshman Jackie Hill of the Penn State University softball team was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Week the conference office announced March 17. She also picked up the Penn State Female Student-Athlete of the Week award as well. Hill is the first Nittany Lion to receive Pitcher of the Week since Missy Beseres (2002-06) won it back on February 28, 2006.

Hill had a tremendous week going 3-1 with a save in five appearances. She also had the game-winning hit in the final game of the week, a walk-off single in the bottom of the seventh to propel the Nittany Lions to a 3-2 victory over Boston University.

She pitched 25.2 innings striking out 11 while allowing just one run good for a 0.27 ERA. Hill pitched three complete games including two shutouts in her three starts while coming in relief for two games. In her first game of the week she pitched a complete game two hitter against Sam Houston State University.

The awards cap off a tremendous spring break for Hill as she went 5-1 with a 0.16 ERA in 43.1 innings. She registered 34 strikeouts and allowed only one run over the 10-day span. Her team-leading 0.82 ERA on the year has propelled the Nittany Lion pitching staff's ERA to a season-low 1.00 after 24 games.

NEAR PERFECT GAME

Redshirt-freshman Jackie Hill did what many consider a huge feat for any pitcher in softball by throwing a no-hitter and near perfect game against Syracuse University. A late-inning error nullified the perfect game for Hill but she would not stumble as she completed the no-hitter.

Hill became only the seventh pitcher in school history to achieve the feat and the first since 2002 when both Marisa Hanson and Tina Skelly registered no-hitters.

THREE PLAYERS NAMED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Senior Ashley Esparza, junior Danielle Kinley and redshirt-freshman Jackie Hill of the Penn State University softball team were all named to the All-Tournament team at last weekend's Easton Purple and Gold Challenge. Penn State was one of only two schools to have three players on the team. The other school with three was tournament champion LSU.

Esparza pitched 19.2 innings including a one-hit shutout of #9 LSU during the three-day tournament. She recorded 23 strikeouts and had a record of 1-1 with a 0.36 ERA. She also had two hits including a game-tying homerun in the eventual extra-inning loss to Tulsa. Despite having only two hits she recorded a .471 on-base percentage thanks to her four walks and two hit-by-pitches.
