MATT PAINTER HEAD COACH SEVENTH SEASON PURDUE '94

With a pair of Sweet 16 appearances, five-consecutive NCAA Tournament berths, Big Ten regular-season and tournament championships and an international gold medal on his résumé, seventh-year head coach Matt Painter is widely regarded as one of the brightest and most-respected coaches in the college game.

In just six years, Painter has returned his alma mater to the ranks of the nation's elite, becoming one of only eight programs in the nation to win at least 25 games in each of the last four seasons. His work has earned him two international coaching appointments, and been roundly acknowledged by both his coaching peers and the media with a trophy case full of awards.

Painter affirmed his long-term commitment to Purdue in March of 2011, agreeing to a new eight-year contract that will keep him in West Lafayette through at least the 2018-19 season.

Entering the 2011-12 season, Painter owns a 163-69 (.703) record in seven years as a head coach, while attaining a 138-64 (.683) mark at Purdue and a 66-38 (.635) record in the Big Ten. In addition to his on-court success, Painter has dedicated himself to developing student-athletes who represent their university with pride on college basketball's biggest stages.

Purdue Highlights

Painter's tenure as Purdue's head coach has been one of rejuvenation. The last six years have seen five 20-win seasons and NCAA Tournament berths, two Sweet 16 appearances, a regular-season Big Ten title and a Big Ten Tournament crown.

Painter has averaged 23 wins per season during his tenure at the helm of the Purdue program, including at least 25 victories in each of the last four seasons. The last four years have seen the Boilermakers win 107 games, a program record for a four-year stretch.

Painter has also guided the Boilermakers to consecutive Sweet 16 appearances (2009, 2010) and five-straight NCAA Tournament berths, while instilling a recruiting plan that places an emphasis on bringing the top talent from both the Midwest and the state of Indiana to West Lafayette.

Success, however, didn't happen overnight.

As part of a planned transition into the head coaching job, Painter was tabbed in April of 2004 to succeed legendary Purdue head coach Gene Keady. He spent the 2004-05 campaign as associate head coach as the Boilermakers won just seven games and finished 10th in the Big Ten.

Painter officially became the 18th head men's basketball coach in Purdue history on April 1, 2005, and immediately set about laying the groundwork for a dramatic reversal in the program's fortunes.

The 2005-06 campaign saw a two-game improvement, from seven wins to nine, over the previous season despite the fact that star guard David Teague missed the entire season with injury and standout forward Carl Landry played only five games before an injury sidelined him for the remainder of the year.

Perhaps the biggest impact of Painter's initial season at the helm was his tenacious recruiting of the state of Indiana. In the fall of 2006, Painter and his staff signed four in-state products, including future Purdue stars Robbie Hummel, Jajuan Johnson and E'Twaun Moore, in a class that was ranked first in the Big Ten and regarded as one of the nation's five best by various recruiting publications.

Painter rode the momentum of that recruiting haul into the 2006-07 season, which turned out to be a landmark campaign for the program.

Led by Landry and Teague, who both garnered All-Big Ten honors as seniors, the Boilermakers won 22 games en route to their first NCAA Tournament appearance in four years. Purdue won nine conference games in 2006-07, setting a program record for improvement after capturing just three league victories the previous season. The Boilers' 13-game overall turnaround was also a program record, and ranked as the fourth-best in the nation that season.

Painter picked up his first NCAA Tournament win as a head coach along the way, as Purdue defeated Arizona in the first round before dropping a seven-point decision to eventual national champion and top overall seed Florida.

Having to compensate for the loss of his two senior leaders didn't slow Painter down in 2007-08, as the year proved to be another pivotal step in Purdue's resurgence.

Despite counting four true freshmen, two sophomores and a junior college transfer among his top seven scorers, Painter guided the Boilermakers to a 25-9 record, a second-place finish in the Big Ten and a second-consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament.

With a 15-3 record in the Big Ten, the Boilers finished just one game out of first place and swept league champion Wisconsin to hand the Badgers their only two Big Ten losses of the year. Painter also took a team known as the "Baby Boilers" and directed it to an 11-game winning streak during conference play, as Purdue didn't lose for more than a month during the run.

Purdue ranked as high as 14th in the polls in 2007-08, wrapping up the campaign at No. 20 in both the AP and ESPN/USA Today rankings. The Boilers also showed a knack for knocking off some of the nation's top teams in 2007-08, posting three victories over squads ranked in the top 11 spots of the polls.

The season's efforts also brought individual honors for Painter's players, as Hummel became the first Purdue freshman ever to earn first-team All-Big Ten honors, while Moore was named to the second team and Chris Kramer took home Defensive Player of the Year accolades.

Painter kept the ball rolling in a 2008-09 season that proved to be an historic one for the Boilermakers. Purdue was a constant presence in the national polls, rising as high as ninth to mark its first appearance in the AP top 10 since 1999, while its 27 victories were its most in more than a decade.

The Boilermakers were at their best during the 2009 postseason run, rattling off double-digit victories over Penn State and Illinois to reach the Big Ten Tournament final, where they dispatched Ohio State, 65-61, to earn the first conference tournament crown in program history.

The Big Ten Tournament, however, was just the first act of Purdue's postseason script in 2009, as the Boilers earned the fifth seed in the West Region and headed out to Portland, Ore., for the NCAA Tournament. After defeating Northern Iowa in its first-round game, Purdue earned a 76-74 triumph over Washington in front of a highly-partisan UW crowd at the Rose Garden to capture its first Sweet 16 berth since 2000.

Acclaim was once again forthcoming for Painter's players following the success of the 2008-09 campaign. Johnson, Moore and Hummel were named first, second and third-team All-Big Ten, respectively, while Kramer was an honorable mention all-league pick and Lewis Jackson earned a spot on the Big Ten All-Freshman Team.

Hummel and Johnson were also named to the USBWA All-District V team, making Purdue the only school with multiple honorees, while the latter also earned inclusion on the NABC District 7 first team.

With a core of talented and experienced players back in the fold, expectations were high for the Boilermakers heading into the 2009-10 season, and Painter and Co. didn't disappoint.

Ranked seventh to open the season, Purdue won the Paradise Jam in the U.S. Virgin Islands, defeated Wake Forest in the Big Ten/ACC Challenge and came out on top of a top-10 showdown with West Virginia on New Year's Day en route to matching the best start in program history with a 14-0 run to open the year.

Painter's team faced adversity after a 2-3 start to Big Ten play, but rebounded to win 10-straight league games, and 12 of their last 13, to earn a share of the program's first Big Ten title in 14 years. Along the way, the Boilermakers set a program record with four wins over top-10 teams, tied the 1993-94 squad's program standard of six wins over top-25 teams, vanquished decade-long losing streaks at Indiana, Michigan State and Ohio State, and became the first Purdue team ever to win at Illinois, Indiana, Michigan State and Ohio State in the same season.

With his team once again facing doubters due to a late-season knee injury to Hummel, Painter orchestrated yet another storied postseason run for the Boilermakers.

Fourth-seeded Purdue was a popular pick to be upset by Siena in first-round action in Spokane, Wash., but used a second-half surge to pick up an eight-point win over the Saints. The win marked the 12th-consecutive first-round NCAA Tournament victory for the Boilermakers.

Outsized by Texas A&M in the second-round, the Boilers battled back from a second-half deficit to force an overtime session that would decide a berth to the Sweet 16. Trailing by two with just over a minute left in the extra frame, Moore sank a baseline jumper to tie the score at 61-61. After a defensive stop, Painter called timeout and drew up a play that would see Kramer beat his man off the dribble for the game-winning layup with four seconds on the clock, sending the Boilermakers to their second-consecutive Sweet 16.

The 2010 awards season was also bountiful for Painter's charges, as both Hummel and Moore were named All-Americans – the former earning second-team honors from the coaches' association and both garnering honorable mention recognition from the AP – after earning inclusion on the All-Big Ten first team. Johnson was named second-team All-Big Ten following his junior season, while Kramer captured his second-career Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year award and became the first player in league history to be named to the Big Ten All-Defensive Team in each of his four seasons.

The Boilermakers were widely written off before the 2010-11 season began as they lost Hummel to another knee injury at the beginning of fall practice. Painter, however, was undaunted and led Purdue to another of the finest seasons in program history.

The Boilers finished 26-8 overall, and 14-4 in the Big Ten to finish second in the league. Purdue posted separate winning streaks of seven and 10 games during the campaign, and knocked off a pair of top-10 teams at Mackey Arena in the same week, defeating No. 10 Wisconsin on Feb. 16 and toppling second-ranked Ohio State by 13 points on Feb. 20.

Painter also piloted the Boilermakers to their fifth-straight NCAA Tournament berth, where they defeated Saint Peter's in the second round before falling to eventual Final Four participant VCU in the third round.

The 2010-11 season also saw Painter protégés Johnson and Moore post two of the best individual campaigns that the program had ever seen.

COACHING STAFF

Johnson led the Big Ten in scoring and blocks en route to being named a consensus All-American, Big Ten Player of the Year and Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year, while Moore earned first-team All-Big Ten honors and was named an All-American for the second-straight season after becoming just the fifth Boilermaker in history to break the 2,000-point barrier for his career.

The winningest players in program history at the conclusion of their careers, Johnson and Moore became the first pair of teammates in program history to both score more than 600 points in the same season in 2010-11.

Johnson also earned the Pete Newell Big Man Award from the NABC, given annually to the nation's top interior player as voted by the NABC membership.

Painter has also resurrected Mackey Arena as one of the country's best home-court advantages, piling up an 86-12 (.878) record at home over the last six seasons. In 2010-11, the Boilermakers went 16-0 at home, marking just the second undefeated home slate in the history of Mackey Arena, and the first since the 1968-69 campaign. The 16 home wins also tied the program record set in both 2006-07 and 2007-08, when Purdue went 16-1 on its home floor.

The 2007-08 campaign also included Purdue's first 9-0 home Big Ten record since the 1987-88 season. On Jan. 5, 2010, Painter presided over the 500th win at Mackey Arena.

The Next Level

With Painter at the helm of the Purdue program, a host of Boilermakers have earned the opportunity to play basketball at the professional level.

The 2011 NBA Draft was a seminal moment in the history of the program, as Johnson and Moore were both selected and, by the end of the night, reunited as members of the Boston Celtics. After being selected 27th overall by New Jersey to become Purdue's first first-round pick since 1994, Johnson was traded to Boston, which later chose Moore with the 55th overall selection.

Carl Landry became the first NBA draft choice of the Painter Era in 2007, when Seattle (now Oklahoma City) called his name with the No. 31 selection and traded his rights to Houston. Landry went on to earn a place on the 2008 NBA All-Rookie Team, and recently completed his fourth season in the league by helping lead the New Orleans Hornets to the Western Conference playoffs.

Former Purdue standouts Chris Kramer and Keaton Grant have also started promising professional careers. Kramer attended training camp with the Milwaukee Bucks in 2010 before averaging 13.5 points and 3.9 rebounds per game for the Fort Wayne Mad Ants of the NBA Development League, while Grant averaged 9.3 points and 4.9 boards per game for the D-League's Sioux Falls Sky Force in 2010-11.

Numerous players who studied under Painter in West Lafayette have also forged professional careers overseas, including recent Boilermakers David Teague, Nemanja Calasan and Marcus Green.

Honors and Awards

As the architect of some of the finest seasons in Purdue's long basketball history, it is only fitting that Painter has been recognized time and again by both his coaching peers and the media for his efforts.

Painter has been named Big Ten Coach of the Year three times in the last four seasons, earning the consensus award in 2008 and 2011, and winning the coaches' vote in 2010. He is one of only four men to win the award more at least three times since its inception in 1974, along with legendary former Purdue coach Gene Keady, Ohio State's Thad Matta and former Indiana coach Bob Knight. Painter's three wins, combined with Keady's seven, give Purdue a league-best 10 Big Ten Coach of the Year honors.

While at Purdue, Painter has also been named a district coach of the year by the NABC three times and the USBWA twice, as well as a three-time finalist for the Jim Phelan Coach of the Year awards. He was also selected as a finalist for the Naismith Coach of the Year award, the Henry Iba Coach of the Year award and the Skip Prosser Man of the Year award in 2008.

Commitment to Success Off the Court

Winning championships, however, is only one part of Painter's equation for success. He has also focused himself on developing student-athletes who will represent Purdue with pride.

To that end, Painter has seen a total of 15 players earn a combined 24 Academic All-Big Ten honors during his tenure as head coach. Painter has also mentored an Academic All-American, as Moore earned second-team honors during the 2009-10 season.

A commitment to the community is also part of Painter's focus on student-athlete development, and his players devote themselves to that cause during their time under his watch.

In addition to participation in Special Olympics clinics, Painter's players have also visited local elementary schools and hospitals, and devoted time to the Boys and Girls Club and Big Brothers/Big Sisters. In each of the last three years, the team has also participated in The Challenge, a 5K run/walk that benefits the Purdue Center for Cancer Research.

In 2010 and 2011, respectively, Kramer and Moore were named one of 10 finalists for the Lowe's Senior CLASS Award, given annually to the Division I men's basketball player who exemplifies four areas of excellence: classroom, character, community and competition.

International Experience

In July of 2009, Painter extended his reach past the collegiate game and into the international arena, serving as an assistant coach with the United States' squad that captured the gold medal at the FIBA U19 World Championship in Auckland, New Zealand. Despite medaling in seven of the last nine U19 Worlds, Team USA hadn't won gold since 1991.

Two of Painter's players also garnered international attention in 2009, as Hummel and Johnson were both invited to the World University Games Trials. Hummel eventually made the squad and helped lead the Americans to a bronze medal.

In the summer of 2010, Johnson was chosen as part of an elite group of college players known as the USA Men's Select Team, whose charge was to help Team USA train for its gold-medal run at the FIBA World Championship.

Painter himself once again ventured into the international spectrum in the summer of 2011, serving as head coach for the U.S. World University Games Team in Shenzhen, China. Despite being knocked from medal contention with a loss in the quarterfinals, Painter led the USA to a 7-1 record that tied for the best in the tournament.

Playing Career

A hardnosed guard with excellent court vision and passing skills, Painter played under Keady at Purdue from 1990-93, leading the Boilermakers to three NCAA Tournament bids and an NIT appearance. He piled up 276 assists during his playing days, a figure that still ranks in the top 20 of the program's career chart.

Painter served as team captain as a senior in 1992-93, earning honorable mention All-Big Ten honors after averaging better than 4.5 assists per game.

Prior to Purdue

Painter wasted no time in beginning his journey through the college coaching ranks, joining former Purdue assistant Tom Reiter at Washington & Jefferson College for the 1993-94 season. He helped guide Washington & Jeff to a 22-3 record and an appearance in the Division III Elite Eight in his only season on the bench.

After spending the 1994-95 campaign as an assistant at Division II Barton College, Painter broke into the Division I coaching ranks as an assistant at Eastern Illinois. Painter's stint in Charleston, Ill., lasted from 1995-98. During his tenure, Painter was heavily involved in recruiting EIU stars Kyle Hill and Henry Domercant, who later led the Panthers to the 2001 NCAA Tournament.

In 1998, Painter reunited with former longtime Purdue assistant Bruce Weber at Southern Illinois, where he spent five seasons as the latter's top assistant and helped quickly reverse the fortunes of a program that had suffered three-straight losing season prior to his arrival.

Painter helped return Southern Illinois to the national spotlight during the 2001-02 season, mentoring a team that set a school record with 28 wins and advanced to the Sweet 16. The Salukis made a return trip to the Big Dance with Painter on the bench in 2003, and were featured in a nationally-televised documentary on MTV.

Painter was introduced to the head coaching ranks at Southern Illinois in 2003-04, when he succeeded longtime Purdue assistant Bruce Weber in Carbondale and led the Salukis to a 25-5 record and an NCAA Tournament berth. SIU rose as high as 15th in the AP poll during the campaign, and Painter was rewarded with Missouri Valley Coach of the Year honors.

COACHING STAFF

Jack Owens is in his fourth season at Purdue, and first as associate head coach after being elevated to the position in August 2011.

Owens' three seasons on the Boilermaker bench have been three of the finest in recent memory, as he has helped lead Purdue to pair of Sweet 16 trips and a total of 82 wins.

One of Owens' star pupils in West Lafayette was E'Twaun Moore, who finished his career ranked third in Purdue history in points (2,136) and ninth in assists (400). Under Owens' mentorship, Moore became just the third player in Big Ten history to record 2,000 points, 500 rebounds and 400 assists in his career. He was also a two-time AP honorable mention All-American and a third-team All-America selection by the NABC in 2011.

Moore was selected by the Boston Celtics in the second round of 2011 NBA Draft.

Owens came to Purdue after a five-season stint as an assistant at Southern Illinois, where he was initially hired by current Purdue head coach Matt Painter when the latter held the same position at SIU. In 2003-04, Owens helped Painter lead Southern Illinois to a 25-5 record and an NCAA Tournament berth.

In four seasons at SIU under head coach Chris Lowery, who took over for Painter when the current Purdue head coach made the move to West Lafayette, Owens helped guide the Salukis to three more NCAA Tournament berths, a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16, a Missouri Valley Conference title and an appearance in the National Invitation Tournament.

Combining Owens' time at both Southern Illinois and Purdue, he has coached in the postseason in eight-consecutive seasons, reaching seven NCAA Tournaments, including three Sweet 16s, and making one appearance in the NIT.

Prior to joining the SIU staff, Owens served as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Eastern Illinois, during the 2002-03 season, and spent the 2001-02 campaign as an assistant at Barton County Community College, which reached as high as No. 2 in the national polls during the season. Owens began his coaching career as an assistant at Howard Community College during the 2000-01 season, serving as the team's interim head coach for a portion of the year.

The Indianapolis native began his collegiate playing career at Murray State and played a season at Howard Community College before playing two seasons at Eastern Illinois. While at EIU, Owens averaged 11.7 points and 6.5 assists per game as a senior, earning honorable mention All-Ohio Valley Conference honors. He also served as team captain during his final campaign, and garnered team MVP and Outstanding Defensive Player honors. During the 1999-00 season, Owens remained a part of the Eastern Illinois program as a student assistant coach.

Owens and his wife, Kamilah, have two daughters, Alanah and Anyah.

GREG GARY ASSISTANT COACH FIRST SEASON TULANE '92

The Anderson, Ind., native is an 18-year veteran of the college coaching ranks, including two seasons as a head coach. He has made seven postseason appearances as a college assistant, reaching the NCAA Tournament twice.

Gary came to Purdue from two stints at Duquesne, where he spent the 2007-08 and 2010-11 seasons as an assistant coach, sandwiched around two seasons as head coach at Centenary. Gary resigned from his post at Centenary after the school announced in July 2009 that it would seek reclassification as an NCAA Division III member.

A program that had won a total of 10 Summit League games in the four years prior to Gary's arrival, Centenary posted nine league wins in his two seasons at the helm.

Prior to arriving at Duquesne, Gary spent three seasons (2004-05 through 2006-07) as an assistant coach at South Florida, helping the Bulls transition from Conference USA to the BIG EAST. While in Tampa, Gary worked with Bulls' big man Solomon Jones, who was drafted by the Atlanta Hawks in 2006 and recently completed his fifth season in the NBA.

Gary served as an assistant coach under Perry Clark at Miami from 2000-04, helping lead the Hurricanes to the NIT in 2001 and the NCAA Tournament in 2002. During his tenure at Miami, Gary aided in the development of current NBA players James Jones and John Salmons, as well as former NBA player Robert Hite. He also served as the Canes academic coordinator.

Gary spent six of his first seven years in the coaching industry at Tulane, helping guide his alma mater the NCAA Tournament in 1995 and the NIT on four occasions. In his second stint with the Green Wave, he also served as the team's recruiting coordinator and oversaw the players' academic responsibilities.

At Tulane, Gary coached three players – Jerald Honeycutt, Linton Johnson and Chris Owens – who spent time on NBA rosters.

Gary served as an assistant coach at McNeese State for the 2007-08 campaign.

After graduating from Anderson Highland High School in 1988 and spending a year at Aquinas College in Nashville, Tenn., Gary transferred to Tulane. He was a vital component in the revitalization of a program that was dropped in 1985 and reinstated in 1988, leading the Green Wave to the 1992 NCAA Tournament as a senior.

Despite playing only three seasons in New Orleans, Gary finished his career as Tulane's all-time leader in assists.

Gary earned a B.S. in sport management from Tulane in 1992. He and his wife, Claudia, have four daughters, Gabrielle, Logan, Alexandra and Brooklyn.

MICAH SHREWSBERRY ASSISTANT COACH FIRST SEASON HANOVER '99

Micah Shrewsberry is in his first season as an assistant coach at Purdue, having joined the staff in April 2011.

Shrewsberry came to Purdue after a four-year run at Butler that saw him coach in back-to-back NCAA championship games. The Indianapolis native arrived at Butler in 2007 as coordinator of basketball operations, and was promoted to assistant coach in July 2008.

During his tenure with the Bulldogs, Shrewsberry aided in the development of Shelvin Mack, who finished his career at Butler regarded as the best point guard in the school's history. Under Shrewsberry's tutelage, Mack score more than 1,500 points and handed out nearly 400 assists in three seasons at Butler, earning NCAA Southeast Regional MOP honors in 2011 and Final Four All-Tournament Team accolades in both 2010 and 2011.

Mack was selected 34th overall in the 2011 NBA Draft by the Washington Wizards.

A graduate of Cathedral High School, Shrewsberry began his coaching career in 1999 as a graduate assistant at the University of Indianapolis. After stints as an assistant coach at Wabash College (2000-01) and DePauw University (2001-03), he spent the 2003-04 and 2004-05 seasons as director of basketball operations at Marshall.

The two seasons prior to his arrival at Butler saw Shrewsberry serve as the first-ever full-time head coach at IU-South Bend.

Shrewsberry was a three-year starting guard at Hanover during his playing career, serving as a tri-captain as a senior in 1998-99. He led the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference in free throw shooting (.833) and assists (4.4 apg) in his final campaign.

Shrewsberry earned a B.A. from Hanover in 1999 and a Master's degree in sports management from Indiana State in 2003. He and his wife, Molly, have three children, Braeden, Nicholas and Caitlin.

ELLIOT BLOOM SUPERVISOR OF OPERATIONS FOURTH SEASON PURDUE '99

Elliot Bloom is in his fourth season as supervisor of basketball operations at Purdue after making the transition from his former position in the sports information department.

In his current role, Bloom serves as the program's point person for scheduling and team travel, while also assisting in recruiting efforts and coordinating the team's weekly schedule. He also oversees Purdue's team of undergraduate student managers.

Bloom was the Boilermakers' sports information contact from 2001-08, as well as the primary contact for men's and women's golf (2001-06), secondary contact for football (2001-06) and director of new media (2006-08).

Prior to returning to his alma mater in 2001, Bloom worked in the sports information office at Duke during the 2000-01 season and at Kansas for the 1999-00 campaign.

Bloom graduated from Purdue in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in liberal arts. He and his wife, Monica, have a daughter, Lucy.

Since 1950, the Big Ten has awarded second and third-team honors, as well as the previously listed first-team selections. The following is a complete list of all second and third-team All-Big Ten honorees. Beginning in 1975, two all-conference teams were selected, one by the league's head coaches and one by select media members. The middle column indicates whether the selection was by the league's coaches (c), media members (m), or both (c/m).

RED MACKEY AWARD

Established in honor of the late Purdue athletics director, this award recognizes athletes who exemplify the overall success of Boilermaker athletics. Guy "Red" Mackey devoted nearly half a century to Purdue athletics before his death in February 1971. The criteria for nomination includes competitive spirit, positive attitude, loyalty and self-discipline, hard work for the best interest of the team, and a willingness to help others. At the completion of the intercollegiate athletic season, a committee of letterwinners selects three of the nominees to receive the scholarship award for postgraduate study or completion of their degrees. The following are men's basketball nominees, with scholarship winners designated with an asterisk (*).

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

1897 • 1-1

Curtis was the first coach in Purdue history. After defeating the Lafayette YMCA in a contest held at the "Old Gym," his team came up four points short in a 23-19 loss to Wabash.

ALPHA P. JAMISON

After three years of hibernation, Purdue basketball returned to the hardwood under Jamison, who was also Purdue's head football coach at the time. In 1901, he led Purdue to its first-ever undefeated season by going 12-0, which included a 20-15 win over Indiana in the initial game of the heated rivalry.

C.M. BESY

1902 • 10-3

After a 2-2 start, Besy's squad won eight of its final nine games, including defeating Indiana and Butler twice. The Boilermakers ended the season having won their final six games.

C.I. FREEMAN

Freeman took the helm and guided Purdue to eight wins without a loss. Upon conclusion of the season, the university recognized the popularity of the sport and made basketball part of the Purdue Athletic Association.

One of six coaches in the first decade of Boilermaker basketball, Nufer's club posted just three wins in nine attempts and recorded Purdue's first losing season in five years.

C.B. JAMISON

1906-08 • 16-24

This Lafayette native led the Boilermakers through some hard times, posting just 16 wins in 40 contests. In Jamison's final year, his squad went winless in conference play.

E.J. STEWART

Athletics Director Hugh Nicol was having difficulty finding a coach for the 1908-09 season. Practice had already commenced. Finally, after searching a good portion of the Midwest, Nicol came to terms with Ed Stewart from Mt. Union College just days before the season began. After four consecutive losing seasons, the first-year coach directed Purdue to an 8-4 season and second place in the conference.

RALPH JONES

1910-12 • 32-9

With Jones came a marked change in style. He believed in long passing and quick movement up the court at a time when dribbling was the norm. The opening of Memorial Gymnasium provided an additional spark to his team, which eventually captured the 1911 and 1912 Big Nine titles. Following the 1912 season, he left for the University of Illinois, where he coached the Fighting Illini to a 12-4 record against the Boilermakers.

R.E. VAUGHN

1913-16 • 21-32

Vaughn played basketball for Crawfordsville High School and then went on to play collegiate football at Notre Dame. Vaughn's teams posted a winning record (7-5) in his initial season, but suffered three straight losing campaigns after that.

WARD "PIGGY" LAMBERT

Lambert's positive, low-key approach off the court, coupled with his frenetic on-court presence, helped him achieve legendary status with Purdue fans and players alike. Lambert won more games than any other Purdue coach at the time and has 11 Big Ten titles to his credit. His 228 victories in conference play are the third most of any coach in Big Ten history. Along the way, he produced 10 consensus All-Americans and nine league-leading scorers.

J.J. MALONEY

1918 • 11-5

This attorney from Crawfordsville took charge while Lambert was off serving his country in 1918. Practices were limited to just a few minutes per day as a result of a shortage of coal during the war effort. Despite the lack of practice time, Maloney's troops finished the season at 11-5 and defeated league champ Illinois.

MEL TAUBE

1946-50 • 45-46

Taube became the 12th head coach in Purdue history after serving as Lambert's assistant since 1936. Many considered him to have been the tactician behind the operation in Lambert's later years. Unable to follow in the footsteps of a legend, Taube resigned under pressure on March 27, 1950.

RAY EDDY

Eddy placed a great deal of emphasis on the academic success of his players. During his 15 years at Purdue, he was able to attract a number of talented players, including All-Americans Terry Dischinger and Dave Schellhase. While finishing as Big Ten runner-up on three different occasions, Purdue failed to win the title during Eddy's tenure.

Eddy's 176 wins rank third all-time at Purdue, as do his 15 years on the bench.

GEORGE KING

King, who represented a new breed of coaches, brought with him from West Virginia an up-tempo style of play. Explosive fast breaks were the trademark of his teams. After directing the Boilermakers to their first Big Ten title in 29 years, King led his team into the 1969 NCAA Tournament, where it finished as runner-up to

ALL-TIME HEAD COACHES

UCLA. Two seasons later, King stepped down as head basketball coach in order to succeed Red Mackey as Purdue athletics director. King retired as athletics director on June 30, 1992.

FRED SCHAUS 1973-78 • 104-60

Schaus, an imposing man at 6-foot-5, ventured to West Lafayette via the Los Angeles Lakers. His fast-breaking style excited fans, while his stingy defenses frustrated opponents. In six seasons at the Boilermaker helm, Schaus guided Purdue to three postseason tournaments and a 104-60 record. Schaus ranks sixth all-time at Purdue in coaching victories.

LEE ROSE 1979-80 • 50-18

An opposite of his predecessor, Rose implemented a controlled and systematic offense. His short stay is well-remembered. This master tactician led the Boilermakers to the 1979 Big Ten title and a third-place finish in the 1980 NCAA Tournament. After the 1980 season, Rose departed for the University of South Florida.

GENE KEADY 1981-2005 • 512-270 (.655)

Gene Keady became the winningest coach in Purdue history on Dec. 6, 1997, by defeating Louisville, 87-69. He led the Boilermakers to six Big Ten championships (1984, '87, '88, '94, '95, '96). Purdue advanced to postseason play in 22 of his 25 seasons, including 17 NCAA Tournament berths. He graduated nearly 90 percent of his players, and Boilermakers were selected Academic All-Big Ten 41 times, including seven Academic All-America picks during his tenure.

Keady was selected Big Ten Coach of the Year a league-record seven times and the nation's top coach eight times in six different seasons. Keady's record was equally impressive in international competition. He led U.S. teams to two gold medals, a silver and a bronze, while establishing an impressive 22-2 record (.917).

On Dec. 12, 1997, the Mackey Arena playing floor was renamed Keady Court to honor the Boilermaker coaching legend.

MATT PAINTER 2005- present • 138-64 (.683)

A former Purdue player from 1989 to 1993, Painter was named Gene Keady's successor on April 9, 2004. After serving as the associate head coach for the 2004-05 season, Painter became head coach on April 1, 2005.

In only his second season, Painter led the Boilermakers back to the NCAA Tournament, tied for fourth in the Big Ten and set a Mackey Arena record with 16 wins. Painter's Boilermakers repeated those feats in his third season, returning to the NCAA Tournament after a second-place showing in the Big Ten Conference and 16 home wins. He was named Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2008.

Painter's fourth season in West Lafayette saw him lead the Boilermakers back to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the first time in nearly a decade.

In 2009-10, Painter again earned Big Ten Coach of the Year accolades after guiding the Boilermakers to a program record-tying 29 wins, a share of their first Big Ten title in 14 years and their second-straight Sweet 16 appearance.

Painter won his second-straight Big Ten Coach of the Year award, and third in four years, in 2010-11 after piloting the Boilermakers to a 26-8 record and a fifth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance. Purdue finished 14-4 in the Big Ten to claim runner-up honors in the league, and posted its first undefeated home record since the 1968-69 season with a mark of 16-0 at Mackey Arena.

E.J. STEWART

1909 (ONE SEASON)
RECORD: 8-4

Athletics Director Hugh Nichol was having difficulty finding a coach for the 1908-09 season. Practice had already commenced. Finally, after searching a good portion of the Midwest, Nichol came to terms with Ed Stewart from Mt. Union College just days before the season began. After four consecutive losing seasons, the first-year coach directed Purdue to an 8-4 season and second place in the conference.

RALPH JONES

1910-12 (THREE SEASONS)
RECORD: 32-9

With Jones came a marked change in style. He believed in long passing and quick movement up the court at a time when dribbling was the norm. The opening of Memorial Gym provided an additional spark to his team, which eventually captured the 1911 and 1912 Big Ten titles. Following the 1912 season, he left for the University of Illinois, where he coached the Fighting Illini to a 12-4 record against the Boilermakers.

WARD "PIGGY" LAMBERT

1917, 1919-46 (28 1/2 SEASONS)
RECORD: 371-152

Lambert's positive, low-key approach off the court, coupled with his frenetic on-court presence, helped him achieve legendary status with Purdue fans and players alike. Lambert won more games than any other Purdue coach at the time and has 11 Big Ten titles to his credit. His 228 victories in conference play are the third most of any coach in Big Ten history. Along the way, he had the pleasure of tutoring 10 consensus All-Americans and nine league-leading scorers.

J.J. MALONEY

1918 (ONE SEASON)
RECORD: 11-5

This attorney from Crawfordsville took charge while Lambert served in World War in 1918. Practices were limited to just a few minutes per day as a result of a shortage of coal during the war effort. Despite the lack of practice time, Maloney's troops finished the season at 11-5 and defeated league champ Illinois.

Coaching legend Ward "Piggy" Lambert, who retired from Purdue during the 1945-46 season, was named the country's most outstanding collegiate basketball coach by Esquire magazine in 1945.

MEL TAUBE

1946-50 (4 1/2 SEASONS)
 RECORD: 45-46

Taube became the 12th head coach in Purdue history after serving as Lambert's assistant since 1936. Many considered him to have been the tactician behind the operation in Lambert's later years. Unable to continue in the footsteps of a legend, Taube resigned under pressure on March 27, 1950.

RAY EDDY

1951-65 (15 SEASONS)
 RECORD: 176-164

Eddy placed a great deal of emphasis on the academic success of his players. During his 15 years at Purdue, he was able to attract a number of talented players, including All-Americans Terry Dischinger and Dave Schellhase. While finishing as Big Ten runner-up on three different occasions, Purdue failed to win the title during Eddy's tenure.

GEORGE KING

1966-72 (SEVEN SEASONS)

RECORD: 109-64

King, who represented a new breed of coaches, brought with him from West Virginia an up-tempo style of play. Explosive fast breaks were the trademark of his teams. After directing the Boilermakers to their first Big Ten title in 29 years, King led his team into the 1969 NCAA Tournament, where it finished runner-up to UCLA. Two seasons later, King stepped down as head basketball coach in order to succeed Guy "Red" Mackey as athletics director. King retired as athletics director on June 30, 1992.

FRED SCHAUS

1973-78 (SIX SEASONS)

RECORD: 105-59 (.640)

Schaus, an imposing man at 6-foot-5, ventured to West Lafayette via the Los Angeles Lakers. His fast-breaking style excited fans while his stingy defenses frustrated opponents. In six seasons at the Boilermaker helm, Schaus guided Purdue to three postseason tournaments.

LEE ROSE

1979-80 (TWO SEASONS)

RECORD: 50-18 (.735)

The opposite of his predecessor, Rose implemented a controlled and systematic offense. His short stay is well remembered. This master tactician led the Boilermakers to the 1979 Big Ten title and a third-place finish in the 1980 NCAA Tournament. After the 1980 season, Rose departed for the University of South Florida.

GENE KEADY

RECORD: 512-270 (.655)

Keady became the winningest Purdue coach in history on Dec. 6, 1997, by defeating Louisville 87-69. He led the Boilermakers to six Big Ten Championships (1984, '87, '88, '94, '95, '96). Purdue advanced to postseason play in 22 of his 25 seasons, including 17 NCAA Tournament berths. He graduated nearly 90 percent of his players, and Boilermakers were selected Academic All-Big Ten 41 times, with seven Academic All-America picks during his tenure. Keady was selected Big Ten Coach of the Year a league-record seven times and the nation's top coach six times. Keady's record was equally impressive in international competition. He led U.S. teams to three gold medals, a silver and a bronze, while establishing an impressive 40-2 record (.952).

RECORD: 138-64 (.683)

A former Purdue player from 1989 to 1993, Painter was named Gene Keady's successor April 9, 2004. After serving as the associate head coach for the 2004-05 season, Painter became head coach April 1, 2005.

Prior to returning home to Purdue, he was head coach at Southern Illinois during the 2003-04 season, where he led the Salukis to a 25-5 record and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. He was named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year after a 17-1 conference record and an MVC Championship.
