

Rice University Tennis Club

At the all new,
George R. Brown Tennis Center

The George R. Brown Tennis Center offers six professionally lighted hard courts with seating overlooking each court. A Club membership provides access to a private locker room with showers, daily use lockers, and private access cards to gain entry into the G.R.B. Tennis Center. Parking options are also available if interested.

Club members may reserve courts from 6am to 11pm during the week except during special events and varsity practices and competitions, which you are welcome to attend free of charge. Court reservations will be made online and information on reserving a court will be e-mailed to you after your application is received. You may reserve a court up to 7 days in advance.

The annual due structure is as follows:

	Single	Family	Initiation Fee
Rice Faculty and Staff	$850	$1,100	$150
Rice Alumni	$900	$1,150	$200
Community Membership	$950	$1,200	$300

*Current Members do NOT need to pay Initiation Fee

Billing operates on the calendar year beginning January 1. Dues are therefore pro-rated to new memberships according to the time of the year you join. Discounts are given to Rice Faculty and Staff.

For more information and to receive a membership application, please contact, Joel Peters, the Club Director, at tennisclub@rice.edu.
