Dear Owl Club Supporter:

Thank you for joining over 1,200 alumni, letterwinners, friends and fans who so generously supported Rice student–athletes through gifts to the Owl Club during a record-setting fiscal year. As part of the New Vision for Rice Athletics, we set ambitious goals and asked you, our loyal supporters, to join in our efforts to elevate Rice Athletics to a place of broadly recognized excellence and distinction. As a result of your generosity, the Owl Club raised over $2.3 million for the enhancement of the student–athlete experience, providing vital resources for each varsity sports program such as team travel, scholarships, recruiting, equipment, sports medicine, and strength and conditioning. Thanks in part to your assistance, our future is bright, and I cannot thank you enough for all you do to support our tremendous student–athletes.

In addition to a successful Owl Club campaign, we witnessed many other notable accomplishments. Some of the highlights, among others documented in this report, include three conference championships, a dominant Hawai‘i Bowl victory, a revitalized men’s basketball program, increases in season ticket sales across most ticketed sports and breaking ground on the new Brian Patterson Sports Performance Center.

As we position our student–athlete and varsity programs for greater success in 2015–16, your continued support of the Owl Club remains vital to the vision in building a stable and effective funding model. Indeed, we took a great first step by eclipsing previous Owl Club fundraising records, but we need your generosity again this fiscal year to help us move one step closer to reaching our full potential. Goals for fiscal year 2016 include growing the Owl Club to $2.5 million and continuing our efforts to enhance ticket sales, sponsorships, athletic endowment and NCAA/conference revenues. The university is committed to these goals and will continue to support athletics at or above its current level even as Owl Club and other sources of funding grow.

With a supportive president who values the merits of a successful athletics program, coaches and staff who are committed to teaching the values of leadership and teamwork, and a talented group of student–athletes who make it proud every day through their effort in the classroom and in competition, I am very optimistic for the future of Rice Athletics. Combining these attributes with an enthusiastic community of friends, fans and alumni who care deeply about the university and success of our student–athletes, we are poised for more victories and accomplishments in the year ahead.

Thank you again for your continued support of Rice Athletics and generous gifts to the Owl Club. I’m honored to serve as your director of athletics, and look forward to partnering with you to ensure a successful and sustainable future for our Rice Owls!

Go Owls!

Joe Karlgaard
Director of Athletics, Recreation and Lifetime Fitness

“Coming to Rice was the best decision of my life. Giving back to my alma mater through the Owl Club is my way of saying thank you to those who helped make my Rice experience so impactful and an opportunity to give back in support of the current generation of student–athletes.”

~José Cruz Jr. ’96

“Great to have you with us for another great year! We’ve followed Rice athletics since growing up in Houston in the 50s, and Joannie joined the effort in the 70s. While neither of us are Rice alums, we both have admired the university as a whole and athletics in particular. We feel that Rice embodies the purest form of student athleticism, while still playing at the highest level within the NCAA, and are happy to lend our support.”

~Glen Kraicza-Radcliffe, Rice Owls Fan

Facility Upgrades

Brian Patterson Sports Performance Center

This past spring, Rice University held a ceremonial groundbreaking for the $31.5 million, 60,000-square-foot Brian Patterson Sports Performance Center. The two-story structure will house a weight room, a football team locker room, coaching and staff offices, an auditorium that will seat 150 people, a football team lounge, and areas for training and sports medicine that include hydrotherapy, plunge pools and exam rooms. Expected to open prior to the 2016 football season, the weight room and sports medicine areas will be available to student–athletes from all sports at Rice.

“…the construction of the Brian Patterson Sports Performance Center touches each of these pillars by supporting the athletic and academic self-actualization of our student–athletes.”

Joe Karlgaard

Soccer and Track and Field Facilities

In June 2015, Rice Athletics announced a $2.2 million renovation to Wendel D. Ley Track. Renovations include a new grandstand, enclosed press box, and team facilities for soccer and men’s and women’s track and field and cross country. The new grandstand, which will accommodate 1,200 people with a mixture of chairback and bleacher seating and other amenities, is scheduled to be completed in January 2016. The university is assisting in the funding of the renovation.

“We have outstanding soccer and track teams and are delighted that our athletes and their fans will have an improved facility in which to compete and cheer. These students are extraordinary members of our community, on and off the field, and we’re pleased that these improvements will give them an even better competitive experience and also enable us to continue recruiting the most talented athletes.”

President David W. Leebron
“We are excited by the direction of Rice Athletics over the last few years and are proud to support excellence in sports without sacrificing excellence in academics. The future is bright.”
—Goran and Orpha Haag, Parents of Kristine Haag ’11

Rice Athletics received $14.77 million in gifts during the fiscal year that ended June 30, 2015, reflecting the philanthropic support of nearly 3,700 donors. The fundraising total comprises gifts and pledge payments received from July 1, 2014, through June 30, 2015, and does not include pledges of future support. This represents a 124 percent increase in dollars raised over the previous fiscal year, which can be attributed in large part to the $21.76 million received in gifts and pledges for the Brian Patterson Sports Performance Center located in the north end zone of Rice Stadium.
“I’m energized and enthused by the Rice athletics department’s modern strategy to combine Rice’s traditional values of doing things the right way and doing things the smart way.”

—Mike Insell ‘67

“the only way to reach our goals and meet the challenge of building a top 25 program is for each of us to invest in our programs.”

—David Batliff, Head Football Coach
“The Owl Club is a great representation of all that makes Rice University athletics so special. Helping all 350 student-athletes achieve their academic and athletic goals is important to me and to our future as an athletic department.”

—Tina Langley, Head Women’s Basketball Coach
