

2010 Richmond Girls Soccer Camps

College Academy Program

This camp is designed to expose players to a college level training environment. This experience will provide the participants with a window into the life of a college soccer player.

The Camp includes:

- A two day, comprehensive experience on the Richmond campus including meals in the Dining Hall, lodging in a University Residence Hall and use of the University training facilities
- A detailed presentation on the college recruiting process
- 2 college level training sessions with Head Coach Peter Albright and Assistant Coach Jen Woodie
- Several training games for the participant
- Fee includes camp shirt and written evaluation by camp staff
- Previous College Academy Program staff have included coaches from James Madison University and Virginia Commonwealth University

Cost: $195.00

College Academy Week I - Mon. June 28th - Tues. June 29th

College Academy Week II - Fri. July 30th - Sat. July 31st

Open to ALL
College
Prospects

(Rising
Freshmen,
Sophomores,
Juniors and Seniors)

All UR Girls Soccer Camps are professionally run and supervised by UR Head Coach Peter Albright and Jen Woodie, UR Assistant Coach. The University of Richmond provides soccer players with an outstanding playing and training facility of unmatched safety and quality. NATA Certified Athletic Trainers on site at all times: the safety of the players is our #1 concern.

Additional Information:

University of Richmond Women's Soccer
Girls Academy Program
213 Robins Center
Richmond, VA 23173
(804)287-6855
jwoodie@richmond.edu

RICHMONDTM SPIDERS

Anthem

Sponsored by:

Health. Join In. Blue Cross