

Student-Athlete Leadership Council

April 13, 2004

6:30 p.m.

Castruccio Meeting Room

MINUTES

- Student-Athlete Day – April 24th (baseball vs. St. Mary's)
 - Ideas to attract student-athletes to games: team/coaches need to go, toss out shirts, trivia, raffle
- Thank-a-thon – It went well, easy
- Senior Night Awards (May 25th, Brass Rail)
 - Nominations: One per team; due April 16th
 - Carroll Williams Award – nominated and voted; Winner to be announced at Senior Night Awards
 - Theme: Bronco Fever (Saturday Night Fever). Dress 70s/disco
 - Presenters: talk to Chardi if you want to be a presenter (dress up)
 - Opening Act: a team or group of students who want to do the opening act must talk to Valeri ASAP
 - Suggestions/ideas for Senior Night Awards: acknowledge senior athletes more; picture/video of nominees
 - Pictures/highlight tapes (due April 21st)
- Committees
 - A. Public Relations: SALC on website (www.santaclarabroncos.com); go to “On Campus” to find “Student-Athlete Leadership Council”
 - B. Community Service: Relay for Life (June 19-20 – if interested contact Valeri, Micaela, or Candice Palmer); To fundraise for Relay for Life, SALC and other student-athletes are going to sell luminarias to family and friends and at the baseball games during the Pepperdine series (May 14-16)
 - C. Educational: suggestions for alcohol speaker – need to make it fun and interesting
 - D. Events: Bronco Battles – Softball, this Sunday (12 and 2 pm games), Baseball, May 16th vs. Pepperdine; Athlete Ball – voted to have it at Adobe Lodge on May 16th from 8 – 12pm
- Battle of the Bands – Proposed to have it in Leavey on May 19th (4-5 bands); total cost is $4500; will need volunteers to help with operations, staffing, and marketing
- Next SALC meeting – bring new reps, nominate and vote for Executive Committee
- SALC dinner – Buca Di Peppo or Los Gatos Bar & Grill in late May (depends on how much money we make)
- Team updates