

Santa Clara Invitational hosted by Santa Clara University

October 18th, 2008 Baylands Regional Park, Sunnyvale

The Santa Clara Invite will be two weeks prior to Conference Championship weekend and provides a flat and fast alternative to those not attending the Pre-NCAA meet.

Baylands Regional Park is located in Sunnyvale, Calif., approximately 10 miles north of Santa Clara University at the southwest end of the San Francisco Bay. The course at Baylands consists of low cut grass and hard packed dirt paths. The popularity of this meet continues to grow because of the fast course and excellent competition. If necessary we could add a Men's Open race at 11:15 AM.

We will accept unlimited entries from your school.
Also, unattached and open are welcome to participate.
