Broncos Conclude Season at U.S. Intercollegiate

The Santa Clara University men's golf team wrapped up its 2002-2003 season with the final round of the U.S. Intercollegiate Golf Tournament hosted by Stanford at the Stanford Golf Course. The Broncos fired a final round 307 and finished in 16th place with their 54-hole total of 902, eight strokes behind the University of San Diego for 15th place. Juniors Justin Ahasic and Chris DeMartini were the top finishers for the Broncos as they finished in a tie for 52nd at 10-over par, 223. Ahasic fired a final round score of 2-over par, 73, while DeMartini carded a 76 on Sunday after posting rounds of 75 and 72 on Saturday.

SCU Finishes Third at WCC Championships

The Santa Clara University men's golf team concluded play at the 2003 West Coast Conference Championships by firing a final round 303 to claim third place Tuesday afternoon at the Riverbend Golf Club in Madera, Calif. The third place finish was the program's best finish in the league tournament since capturing the conference crown in 1998. The Broncos were playing in the final grouping after finishing day one in second place, just three strokes behind Pepperdine. Their 303, however, was 14 strokes higher than their second round score, moving SCU back into third place, 20 strokes behind Pepperdine and 15 shots behind second place, San Francisco. Freshman Michael Nicoletti was the top finisher for Santa Clara as his two-day total of 2-over par, 218 was capped off by a final round 78, giving him a share of eighth place. Matt Klenz posted a final round 75 to conclude the tournament in a tie for 10th place at 3-over par. For their efforts at the tournament, Nicoletti and Klenz each earned All-WCC Honorable mention honors.
