

Camp Directors

Eric Yamamoto, Asst. Men's Soccer

Eric has been an assistant at Santa Clara University since 1992. During his college career, he was an All-Far West selection, three time Academic All-American, and National Champion for Santa Clara University. Eric currently works with the men's Region IV and National Teams and holds a USSF A License.

Rusty Johnson, Asst. Men's Soccer

Rusty has been an assistant at Santa Clara University since 2003. As a player at Santa Clara, he received All-American and All-Far West honors. Rusty also coaches the U-18 MVLA Wolfpack in addition to being in charge of the goalkeepers at Santa Clara.

Curtis McAlister, Asst. Women's Soccer

Curtis joined the Bronco coaching staff in January of 2003. In addition to working with the goalkeepers and defenders, he assists in all aspects of the program. Curtis brings seven years of professional playing experience to the Bronco program.

Gregg Murphy, Associate Head Coach Women's Soccer

Gregg joined the Bronco staff in 2007 after spending 11 seasons at LMU as the Head Women's Soccer Coach. Gregg works with many of our national teams and holds a USSF A license.

Camp Coaches

In addition, today's SCU players will also help round out the coaching staff along with other collegiate coaches and professional players.

Mission Statement

The Mission of the Santa Clara Soccer Camps is to develop the American youth soccer player through the SCU Soccer Philosophy. The philosophy of positive teaching by role-models provides a nurturing environment for each player to gain self confidence, self-motivation, and self-discipline. All players are challenged and supported by the curriculum while forming friendships with the coaching staff and fellow players.
