This Week for the Broncos

The West Coast Conference Co-Champion Santa Clara Broncos (19-11) have accepted a bid to the 2006 Women's National Invitational Tournament and will face the Oregon State Beavers (15-14) of the Pacific-10 Conference in a preliminary round contest Thursday night, March 16 at 7 p.m. The winner of Thursday's first-round contest will go on to face the Wyoming Cowgirls (20-8) in a first-round contest in Laramie on Saturday night. Bronco fans can follow all of Thursday night's action live on the Internet via Gametracker at www.santaclarabroncos.com.

Last Week for the Broncos

Santa Clara ended last week's WCC Tournament by falling 71-67 to the Pepperdine Waves in the title game. Despite Michelle Cozad's 24 points and nine rebounds, the Broncos dropped a heart-breaking decision. In the first two rounds, top-seeded Santa Clara defeated the Portland Pilots 83-77 behind 25 points and nine rebounds from Cozad and 21 points on 8-of-11 shooting from Chandice Cronk. In the semis, Cronk hit a game-tying three with 3.1 seconds left to force overtime, where Kasey Monteith scored five points to lead the Broncos to a 75-65 overtime win.

Scouting Oregon State

The Beavers (15-14) finished seventh in the Pac-10 in 2005-06. Following a 79-34 victory over Washington State in a Pac-10 Tournament play-in game, Oregon State was ousted in the first round by a 74-66 loss to the Arizona State Sun Devils. The Beavers are led by Kim Butler, a transfer from Santa Clara, who earned All-Pac-10 Honorable Mention honors by averaging 18.7 points and 5.1 rebounds a game. Mandy Close and Anita Rivera average 13.4 and 12.0 points a game, respectively, while Casey Nash pulls down 7.1 rebounds a game for OSU. The Beavers have won four of five career contests against the Broncos, but Santa Clara captured the last meeting between the schools with a 79-64 victory at Toso Pavilion on Nov. 30, 1997.

Head Coach Michelle Bento-Jackson

In her fourth season as the head coach at Santa Clara, Michelle Bento-Jackson has compiled a career record of 65-56 (32-24 WCC), and this season brought home not only her first WCC regular-season title and a bid to the WNIT but was also named WCC Coach of the Year for the first time. Bento-Jackson also led the Broncos to the WCC Tournament title and an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2005. In her first season on the Mission Campus, Bento-Jackson guided the Broncos to a 20-11 record and a 9-5 WCC mark, earning a WNIT bid. She joined Santa Clara after serving on the women's basketball coaching staff at Syracuse for four seasons, and before that spent two seasons as an assistant at her alma mater, Fresno State. At Fresno State Bento-Jackson was a two-sport star in basketball and softball, leading the Bulldogs the the WNIT in 1990 and in 1992 being named to the College World Series All-Tournament team.

SCU In the WNIT

This season's bid to the WNIT marks the fifth time in school history that the Broncos have appeared in the postseason tournament and 11th overall postseason appearance. Santa Clara won the 1991 WNIT with a 71-68 victory over Indiana on March 23, 1991 in Amarillo, Texas. The Broncos appeared in the WNIT in the 2000, '01 and '03 editions of the tournament but made first-round exits all three times, falling to USC, Hawaii and Fresno State, respectively.

Big-Time Performers

Following the WCC Tournament final, the conference officials announced the All-Tournament team. Broncos Michelle Cozad and Chandice Cronk earned spots on the team. Cozad tied the conference record she set last season by scoring 67 points over the three games while Cronk averaged 13.3 points a game and shot 60.0% (15-for-25) from the floor over the three games, including 61.5% (8-for-13) from three-point range. It was the second such honor for Cozad, who last year was named the Tournament MVP.

Bringing Home the Hardware

The West Coast Conference office announced its postseason awards last week and Santa Clara found itself taking home some prestigious honors. In voting don by the eight WCC head coaches, SCU head coach Michelle Bento-Jackson was named WCC Coach of the Year after leading Santa Clara to its first WCC regular-season title in seven years. Senior guard Michelle Cozad was named WCC Player of the Year and first-team All-WCC while senior guard Kayla Huss earned first-team All-WCC honors as well.

Player of the Month

Senior guard Kayla Huss was named the WCC's Player of the Month for the month of February after averaging 13.0 points, 4.0 assists, 3.0 rebounds and shooting 50.0% (18-of-36) from behind the arc. In the team's seven games in February, Huss' performance helped the Broncos to a 6-1 mark which helped close out their first WCC regular-season title since the 1998-99 season.

Members Only

With 4:15 remaining in the first half of Santa Clara's first-round game against Portland, Michelle Cozad spotted up from the right wing and drained a three-pointer which gave her 1,001 career points and made her the 15th member of SCU Women's Basketball's exclusive "1,000-Point Club." In only two-plus years Cozad has reached this milestone, and at the conclusion of the weekend stood at 1,057 career points, 13th all-time on the Santa Clara scoring list.

Alaskan Assassin

Wasilla, Alaska native Chandice Cronk earned WCC All-Tournament honors last weekend after averaging 13.3 points over the three games, including 21 points in the first-round victory over Portland. For the weekend Cronk shot 60.0% (15-for-25) from the floor and 61.5% (8-for-13) from behind the arc. In the semifinal win against USF, Cronk swished what she called "the biggest shot of her entire life," a three-pointer with 3.1 seconds to play that tied the game at 58-apiece. On the season Cronk is ranked fifth in the nation with her 45.8% three-point shooting, and leads SCU with an 88.0% accuracy rate from the free-throw line and is second on the team in scoring with 10.3 points a game.

SCU In the Postseason

With a bid to either the NCAA Tournament or the WNIT next week, the Broncos will then have made a postseason appearance in seven of the last eight seasons. Those appearances include four NCAA berths and three WNIT bids. Last season, the Broncos met Stanford in the NCAA Tournament at the Save Mart Center in Fresno.

Looking Back At Last Year

As a No. 15 seed in last year's NCAA Tournament facing No. 2 seed Stanford, the Broncos came out firing, taking an early lead before going into the break down 10 at 43-33. But Stanford pulled away in the second half and went on to take a 94-57 decision. Michelle Cozad led the Broncos with 23 points and six rebounds while shooting 9-for-13 from the floor, while Ashley Graham, Kasey Monteith and Tracey Walker each added eight points.

Nationally Speaking

Santa Clara's prolific offense is among the nation's best, with its 73.7 points per game ranking 18th in the NCAA. That total reflects the Broncos' precision from the floor, as SCU leads the nation with 257 three-pointers made and 8.6 threes made per game. The team's 38.5% accuracy from behind the arc is 11th in the NCAA. Also helping in the points column is SCU's 75.9% success rate from the free throw line, eighth-best in the nation.

Best In the WCC

Senior guard Michelle Cozad added to her illustrious Santa Clara basketball resume by being voted the West Coast Conference Player of the Year and first-team All-WCC last Monday. The Stockton native led the WCC with 17.7 points and 2.30 steals per game. She also ranked second in the WCC with 9.1 rebounds a game and sixth in assists with 2.81 a game. Additionally Cozad was named First-Team All-WCC and to the WCC All-Tournament team, more honors to go along with her six WCC Player of the Week honors earned in 2005-06.

Ms. Clutch

Senior guard Kayla Huss has proven herself time and again throughout her career at Santa Clara that she is one of the most clutch performers in school history. Not only was she named WCC Player of the Month for February after her late-season surge catapulted the Broncos to a WCC regular-season title, but she also has a penchant for playing big when it matters. Against Ball State on Dec. 31, Huss' jumper as time expired stole a 70-69 overtime victory, and her 12 second-half points helped SCU earn a crucial 67-63 road win at San Diego on Jan. 28.

Can't-Miss Monteith

Forward Kasey Monteith continued her breakout junior year with a solid performance at the WCC Tournament. The Boise, Idaho native averaged 8.7 points, 3.3 rebounds and 2.3 blocks a game while shooting 61.1% (11-for-18) from the floor over the three games. This season Monteith is shooting 54.8% from the floor, a figure that is in the top-five of SCU's all-time single-season bests, and her 30 blocks this year currently ranks No. 6 all-time for a single season.

Dynamic Duo

Senior Michelle Cozad and sophomore Chandice Cronk are not only the two top scorers for the Broncos this season but are also one of the highest-scoring all-time duos in Santa Clara history. The pair have accounted for 856 points thus far in 2005-06, the sixth-best single-season output from a Bronco tandem in school history. And with possibly at least one more postseason game remaining, Cozad and Cronk have a chance to move into the all-time top-five, as they are only 18 points back of the 874 combined points of Dorinda Lindstrom and Debbie Dyson in the 1987-88 season.

Return of Gonny

Forward Ashley Gonnerman, who returned from a foot injury on Feb. 2 after missing seven games, has returned to her previous form and has been a solid second post player for the Broncos. "Gonny" averaged 7.7 points over the three games of the WCC Tournament in addition to grabbing 4.7 rebounds and turning away four shots. In the title game against Pepperdine, Gonnerman scored 10 points and grabbed eight rebounds.

Lovin' Leavey

Santa Clara posted an 11-3 mark in the Leavey Center in 2005-06, including four-straight wins to close out the home slate. Since the old Toso Pavilion was remodeled and renamed the Leavey Center in 2000-01, the Broncos have put together a 53-28 (.654) mark at home, including a perfect 12-0 record in 2001-02.

Bombs Away

One major reason why the Broncos have such a high-scoring offense is their ability to consistently sink three-pointers. SCU leads the nation with 257 threes made and is averaging 8.6 a game. The Broncos have hit 10 or more threes in eight games this season, including an amazing 18 in a 74-73 win over Portland on Jan. 8. Ashley Graham alone accounted for nine of those, tying a WCC record. In their first-round WCC Tournament win over Portland, the Broncos hit 13-of-33 shots from behind the arc.

Injury Report

The Broncos currently boast the healthy squad that began play in November. Only sophomore guard Sara Majors, who continues to rehab from a preseason injury, has not yet seen action this season.

Familiar Faces

With 11 returning letterwinners and four returning starters from last season, the Broncos have not missed a beat in finding a groove on the floor. With tri-captains Michelle Cozad, Chandice Cronk and Anna Martin leading the way, Santa Clara has opened the year with hot hands and in-your-face aggression. Despite an opening-night 92-91 loss to Georgia, SCU came out firing, leading the Lady Bulldogs throughout much of the match and matching them point-for-point to the end.

Broncos Maintain High-Scoring Pace

Coming off of a season in which they scored 2,220 points, the fifth-most of any Santa Clara squad, the 2005-06 Broncos have averaged 73.7 points over their 30 games of the 2005-06 season. Despite an opening-night loss to No. 8 Georgia, the Broncos lit up the scoreboard in Athens, shooting 57% from the field (36-for-63) and 59% from three-point land (13-for-22) for 91 points. Michelle Cozad averaged just under 25 points over the weekend and Kayla Huss and Ashley Graham each turned in an 18-point night on the trip. On Dec. 4, the Broncos put up a season-high 99 points in a 99-71 victory over UC Irvine.

In the Rankings

The Bronco program is known to play a tough schedule on a regular basis, and this year's was no exception. Santa Clara has played at No. 8 Georgia and has also faced 2005 NCAA Tournament teams Kansas State, Central Florida and Montana in non-conference action. Additionally, conference rivals Loyola Marymount and Gonzaga, who went 14-0 in WCC play last season, always provide a stiff challenge.

2004-05 in Review

The Broncos finished last season in strong fashion by capturing the WCC Tournament title and making their sixth NCAA Tournament appearance. Paced by the deadly sharpshooting of Quinn Thomas, Michelle Cozad, Ashley Graham and Chandice Cronk, the 2004-05 Broncos set multiple program records including three-pointers made (272) and attempted (718). Santa Clara finished third in the WCC regular season and engineered a victorious WCC Tournament run with wins over San Francisco, Loyola Marymount and regular-season champion Gonzaga. The Broncos finished the season with a record of 17-14 overall and 8-6 in conference play.

Broncos Picked Third in WCC

Santa Clara was picked by West Coast Conference coaches to finish third during the 2005-06 regular season, league officials announced in mid-October. Loyola Marymount was picked as the favorite in a close ballot, receiving four first-place votes.
