SANTA CLARA: The Broncos are looking to breakthrough with a win at home after losing twice at the buzzer on its home floor earlier this month. SCU is armed with two of the most talented players in the league, junior F Lena Gipson (13.8 ppg/9.9 rpg) and sophomore PG Alyssa Shoji (13.9 ppg/2.8 3FG pg). The team is extremely young; 12 of its 16 players are underclassmen. True freshman guard Meagan Fulps (10.6 ppg) has started in nine of 11 games. Classmates Ashley Armstrong (22 min pg) and Noe Vioria (15 pts vs. BSU Saturday) also figure to be a big part of Santa Clara's future. Second-year head coach Jennifer Mountain – who helped build her alma mater Gonzaga into one of the nation's best teams – is trying to retool a Broncos' program that went 4-27 last season. The team is looking to rebound after losing twice on the road last week, 91-51 @ Minnesota and 75-67 @ Boise State. SCU is in the midst of playing 7-of-9 away from home.

CAL POLY SLO: The Mustangs – who won 21 games last season - picked up two road wins on its current four-game stretch playing away from home. Tuesday's game will be Cal Poly's fifth against a WCC opponent.

Cal Poly vs. WCC this year:

W, 62-59 vs. PEPPERDINE (11/21)
 L, 73-65 vs. SAN DIEGO (12/5)
 W, 73-52 @ USF (12/13)
 L, 80-63 @ LMU (12/19)

Additionally, Cal Poly beat CSU Bakersfield 89-80 at home on November 29th, a team Santa Clara lost to at the buzzer, 78-76, at the Leavey Center on December 11. All-Big West forward Kristina Santiago (18.1 ppg) was among the Big West leaders in FG%, points and free throw

SANTA CLARA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL 2009-10

% as a sophomore last season. Front-court teammate, senior Becky Tratter adds 10.7 points per night and Irish import Rachel Clancey shoots 54% from the field. Saturday. The Broncos have the week off, prior to hosting Santa Clara, a game that initiates a four-game homestand.

THE SERIES: Santa Clara has won 10-straight against Cal Poly dating back to 1981-82. The last meeting came in 2007-08, a 79-72 road win for the Broncos. Cal Poly has played at Santa Clara seven times, losing the last five by an average of 26 points.

LAST TIME OUT: The Santa Clara women's basketball team hung tough with WAC-leading Boise State Saturday afternoon on the road, but came up just short, 75-67.

Santa Clara (2-9) got as close as five with 4:54 left thanks to a long 3 by Meagan Fulps. All-WCC forward Lena Gipson scored 17 points and 12 rebounds and true freshman Noe Vilorio had 15 on 5-of-7 shooting. Vilorio – who had her number retired at Huntington Beach High School last year – played a season-high 27 minutes. She had missed seven of the first eight games with injury. Boise State (9-3) entered the week as the top team in the WAC. Jessica Van Hoogen made four 3s and led all scorers with 19. Van Hoogen led three BSU players who scored in double-figures.

QUOTABLES: "We have been in so many close games like this," said Lena Gipson after SCU's last-second loss to CSU Bakersfield. "It's frustrating because we know we can turn the corner, win close games. We are right there we just need to reach out and take it."

"I don't think we played particularly well," said Santa Clara head coach Jennifer Mountain after a 75-67 loss to Boise State Saturday. "Defensively is where we are really struggling, we are having a hard time stopping people."

FRESH FACES: Santa Clara has welcomed eight new players to the Mission Campus - in fact, 12 of the team's 16 players are underclassmen.

"I am really proud of the class we've brought in," said Jennifer Mountain. "We're much better than we were last year. We're different. I think we will be quicker, more athletic. Now we have an inside-outside game, so people won't be able to hone in on Lena (Gipson). That should open up things, allowing her to do a bit more."

'NO-KNEE': Santa Clara star forward Lena Gipson has undergone five unsuccessful knee surgeries since tearing her ACL early in her senior season at Fresno's San Joaquin Memorial High School. To this day she plays without an ACL in her left knee. Gipson originally attended Arizona State University before transferring to Fresno City College, where she was an All-America player as a redshirt freshman prior to attending Santa Clara.

IN THE COMMUNITY: Santa Clara University has a unique relationship with the community in the Bay Area. Through its affiliation with BAWSI (Bay Area Women's Sports Initiative), the Broncos have been afforded the opportunity to aid in the development of young girls as individuals and athletes. Bronco student-athletes spend time each week mentoring young girls at local elementary schools.

SCU SIGNS TWO: Santa Clara University's women's basketball Head Coach Jennifer Mountain has received commitments from two local guards who will attend the University and be part of the Broncos' team in 2010-11. The recruits - Ricki Radanovich (Carondelet High School/Concord) and Iman Scott (Archbishop Mitty High School/San Jose) - play for two of the top prep programs in Northern California.

"Not only are they terrific basketball players but they are exceptional students," said Mountain. "Both will make immediate contributions on the court and possess qualities that will allow them to excel as student-athletes here at Santa Clara. They are great people who will embrace the mission of our school and represent Santa Clara in a very positive manner."

JENNIFER MOUNTAIN
HEAD COACH
2nd-Season at SCU

Jennifer Mountain became the eighth Santa Clara head women's basketball coach in April 2008. Mountain came to the Mission Campus after serving seven seasons as the top assistant coach at Gonzaga, where she helped the Bulldogs to four-straight West Coast Conference regular-season championships and one WCC Tournament crown.

Mountain earned her first career victory at SCU on Nov. 28 against Chicago State in the first round of the UM Thanksgiving Tournament, hosted by the University of Miami. SCU rallied back to claim a 52-48 triumph. Then, on Feb. 21 - 'Senior Night' at the Leavey Center - the Broncos produced a 51-46 win over San Francisco. The rivalry win was Mountain's first career conference victory.

While at Gonzaga, Mountain helped turn the Bulldogs from a 2-12 WCC record in 2001-02 to four-time regular-season champion. The Bulldogs compiled a 140-79 overall record and a league mark of 72-40 when Mountain rejoined the coaching staff. Gonzaga advanced to the NCAA Tournament once and twice advanced to the Women's NIT, and in 2005 garnered the school's first national ranking.

BY THE NUMBERS

- 8 WCC Commissioner's Honor Roll selections
- 1 All-WCC Honoree
- 1 ESPN The Magazine Academic All-District VIII Selection
- 1 WCC All-Academic honoree
- 1 Div. I-AAA Athletics Directors Association Scholar-Athlete Team selection
- 1 WCC Postgraduate Scholarship Recipient

Mountain, a 1991 Gonzaga graduate, worked as an assistant under Julie Holt and helped recruit and coach many of the players that guided the Bulldogs to their first WNIT appearance in 1994.

From 1994-2001, she served as the head boys' basketball coach at Saint George's School in Spokane, where they compiled a 134-62 overall record. In 1996 and 2001, Mountain coached the Dragons to a pair of Panorama League Tournament titles. In those two seasons, the Dragons were the Washington State Class B Tournament runner-up in 1996 and 2001. In their only other State B Tournament appearance under Mountain, the Dragons finished seventh.

Under her tutelage, Saint George's also advanced to the District 7 Tournament five times, finishing in the top four three times including winning the 1996 title. Mountain returned to Gonzaga as an assistant coach in 2001.

Mountain became a double alumna of Gonzaga in 1999 when she received a masters degree in athletic administration. She also holds a bachelors degree in physical education and health. Following her first stint as assistant coach, Mountain also served as the head coach for the boys and girls' track and girls' volleyball teams at Saint George's, and was a volunteer assistant basketball coach at Spokane's Whitworth College.

A native of Portland, Ore., Mountain scored 1,422 points in her Gonzaga career, including 465 points her senior season of 1990-91. She ranks in the top 10 in school history for career field goals made, 3-point field goals made, free throws made, assists and steals. She was also a three-time first-team All-West Coast Conference selection while earning honorable mention National Jesuit News Academic All-America team honors.

Meagan Fulps:

'National Honor Roll' by the Jesuit Basketball Spotlight (12/15)

GIPSON AMONG WCC ELITE: Lena Gipson (Hanford, Calif./San Joaquin Memorial HS) was one of just 11 players recognized league-wide on the 2009-10 All-West Coast Conference preseason team. Gipson, a 6-foot power forward, was among the NCAA's top rebounders (9.9 per game) a year ago - leading the WCC in rebounding throughout the 2008-09 season. Gipson also led the Broncos in points (13.6 per game), steals (46) and blocks (18). "I am really honored to be considered as a top player," said Gipson. "However, the team I'm most concerned with is the Santa Clara women's basketball team. We have a realistic chance of competing with every team in the WCC, but it's going to take 40 minutes of commitment from everyone each night. That is our focus right now."

NEW COACHES: Second-year Santa Clara head coach Jennifer Mountain has added two new assistant coaches to her 2009-10 staff. Former WNBA player and assistant coach at UC Santa Barbara Evan Unrau and Marissa White, a 2004 graduate and standout player at Chico State.
