This Week For Bronco Women's Soccer

The fifth-ranked Santa Clara Broncos will be making their 11th-straight NCAA Quarterfinal appearance Friday afternoon as they travel to University Park, Pa. to take on top-seeded Penn State at 4 p.m. ET (1 p.m. PT). Friday's match will be the second time that the Broncos and Nittany Lions have met in the NCAA Tournament, with Santa Clara taking a 3-1 decision in the second round of the 1996 tournament.

Last Week For Bronco Women's Soccer

Saturday's third-round match between Santa Clara and Boston College was the first-ever meeting between the two schools, with the Broncos coming out on top with a 2-1 come-from-behind victory. After BC's Nicole Reyes redirected a free kick for a 1-0 lead in the 36th minute, Santa Clara went into the half down a goal for only the fifth time all season. But the Broncos came out in force in the second half, pressing the Eagle defense and peppering goalie Arianna Criscione with shots. In the 59th minute, Tina Estrada was taken down in the box and buried the resulting penalty kick for the equalizer and her third goal of the tournament. Ten minutes after that, Micaela Esquivel wove her way through the BC defense and sent a textbook cross to Jordan Angeli, who one-timed it home for the game-winner.

All the Way to 11

With Saturday's 2-1 win, Santa Clara earned their eleventh-straight berth in the NCAA Quarterfinals. The Broncos equalized against BC on Tina Estrada's eleventh goal of the year, and this weekend will seek to advance to their eleventh College Cup. They are the only Division I school to reach the quarterfinal round in each of the last eleven seasons.

Broncos in the NCAAs

The Broncos are currently in the midst of their 17th-straight NCAA Tournament, holding one of four No. 2 seeds in the tournament. Santa Clara's lone national title came in 2001 as they defeated North Carolina 1-0 in Dallas, Tex. With Saturday's win, the Broncos hold an all-time record of 41-15 (.732) in the tournament, including a mark of 29-2 (.936) in tournament matches at Buck Shaw Stadium.

Playing the Best

Of the other seven teams left standing in the 2005 season, Santa Clara has already faced three of them in action this season. The Broncos defeated visiting Notre Dame 2-1 on Sept. 9 but fell 2-1 at home to UCLA on Sept. 16 and 3-1 at Portland on Oct. 21. Yet the consistent strength of the Bronco schedule is a crucial factor in why the team has achieved so much postseason success.

Climbing up the Career List

Santa Clara's career postseason record book reads like a who's who of Bronco legends. Two current Broncos, Tina Estrada and Julie Ryder, are etching their names in the annals of SCU women's soccer. Estrada's three goals so far in this year's tournament up her career total to five, placing her in the top ten in goals scored. Her 13 points are also in the top-ten. Ryder last week became the Broncos' all-time postseason shutouts leader with eight, and her current NCAA Tournament GAA (0.49) stands at the top of the career list as well.

Taking the Offensive

The Bronco attack has come alive in the first three rounds of the tournament, scoring 11 goals in three games. Additionally, Santa Clara boasts a pair of 10-goal scorers in Jordan Angeli (12) and Tina Estrada (11) for the first time since Kristi Candau (13) and Aly Wagner (11) in 2002. Additionally, Meagan Snell and Tiffany Roberts each have five goals, while Hayley Siegel and Elyse Shelger have added three apiece to give the Broncos a versatile attack and keep opponents guessing.

Defenders On the Offensive

While Santa Clara's back line is one of the nation's stingiest, shutting out 13 opponents this season, the Bronco defenders are also threats to score and make something happen offensively. Marian Dalmy has netted a goal and assist in the tournament already, while Micaela Esquivel set-up Jordan Angeli's game-winner against BC. Dalmy and Esquivel's ability to attack on the flanks from their outside back positions frees up extra attackers to crash the net, a major reason why ten different Broncos have scored a goal this season.

Mr. 300

Broncos head coach Jerry Smith collected his 300th career win on Sept. 23 with Santa Clara's 2-1 win over Saint Louis. Smith became only the third Division I women's soccer coach to reach the 300-win milestone, joining North Carolina's Anson Dorrance and Connecticut's Len Tsantiris. Smith's milestone victory came in his 400th match on the Mission Campus.

Following a Storied Line

Santa Clara's all-time greats have always been defined by their performances in the NCAA Tournament. Names like Brandi Chastain, Mandy Clemens, Aly Wagner, Danielle Slaton, Devvyn Hawkins and Leslie Osborne are all synonymous with postseason success. So far in this tournament, Tina Estrada (three goals, two assists), Meagan Snell (two goals), Jordan Angeli (two goals, one assist), Brittany Klein (one goal, two assists), Elyse Shelger and Marian Dalmy (one goal, one assist) are just a few Broncos who have stepped up in the first three rounds.

Versus Penn State

The Broncos and the Nittany Lions have met on only two occasions prior to this Friday's NCAA Quarterfinal. In 1996, Santa Clara eliminated Penn State from the postseason with a 3-1 second-round victory at Buck Shaw Stadium. In 2003, the teams played to a 2-2 draw at the University of Virginia Classic in Charlottesville, Va.

Broncos in the Rankings

Santa Clara remained in the top-ten this week as all polls have concluded for the regular season. The Broncos hold the No. 5 spot in the final regular-season Top Drawer Soccer poll. They were ranked eighth in the NSCAA poll and at the no. 10 spot in the Soccer Times, Soccer

America and Soccer Buzz polls.

Nine Broncos Named All-WCC

The WCC announced its all-conference teams last week and nine Broncos were honored for their performances in 2005. Tina Estrada and Marian Dalmy earned first-team nods while four Broncos, Jordan Angeli, Tiffany Roberts, Julie Ryder and Lauren Zealear all earned second-team bids. Micaela Esquivel was named All-WCC honorable mention and Amanda Poach and Dani Potts were selected to the All-Freshman Team.

Injury Updates

Outside back Marian Dalmy left Saturday's match in the 21st minute with a knee injury. Her status for Friday against Penn State is uncertain. Defender Cat Sigler missed this weekend's matches due to a high ankle sprain. Reserve midfielder Courtney Lewis, who suffered a torn ACL against UCLA, remains out for the rest of the season, while senior defender Jessica Ballweg continues to rehab after suffering a fractured right leg in the season-opener at Cal Poly in 2004.

A Variety of Line Ups

Head coach Jerry Smith used 16 different line ups in the 20 regular-season matches of the 2005 season. Some were due to injuries, but his general philosophy is to experiment with players in different positions and alongside different teammates in preparation for conference play and the postseason. Danielle Potts has solidified a starting spot on the back line and has been a major force in shutting down opposing attacks.

Last Season For The Broncos

Santa Clara concluded its 2004 season with an 18-5-2 record, 16th straight NCAA postseason appearance and 10th overall in the College Cup. The Broncos dropped a narrow 1-0 decision to eventual national champion Notre Dame in the semifinals after knocking off top-ranked North Carolina in the quarterfinals at Chapel Hill, N.C. the previous weekend SCU was the tournament's 16th overall seed and ranked fourth in the country. Santa Clara received the West Coast Conference's automatic berth into the tournament after winning its fourth straight league championship. Senior All-America and WCC Defensive Player of the Year Leslie Osborne was honored with the Honda Award as the national player of the year. Senior All-America Megan Kakadelas was named the NSCAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Marian Dalmy, Julie Ryder, Tina Estrada, joined Osborne and Kakadelas on all-WCC teams.

SCU Named A Best Value by U.S. News & World Report

For the 15th year in a row, Santa Clara ranked second among 124 master's universities in the West by the U.S. News and World Report. In an additional ranking listing "great schools at great prices" in four regions across the country, U.S. News ranked SCU second in the West region. The Western region includes all colleges and universities from Colorado to the West Coast, including Texas. Additional highlights from the 2005 U.S. News rankings include:

- SCU had the highest average graduation rate -- 82 percent
- SCU had the highest average freshman retention rate -- 92 percent
- SCU had the second highest peer assessment score -- 4.0

Live Match Coverage

The Broncos have played three matches on television so far in 2005. The Sept. 9 match against Notre Dame was carried on Comcast, the Sept. 18 match at Cal was televised by Fox Sports, and the Oct. 21 match at Portland was featured on CSTV. Should the Broncos advance to the College Cup, the semis and finals are annually televised by a ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU.

Follow The Game Online

Every Santa Clara home game and most road games are covered live on the Internet via www.SantaClaraBroncos.com. All home games will also feature a live audio broadcast as well.

Playing at Home

Santa Clara is accustomed to playing in front of large crowds at Buck Shaw. In fact, the team opened the 2002 season against Stanford in front of a regular-season record crowd of 4,756 fans. The 1996 NCAA Women's Soccer Championships drew 8,800 fans each day to Buck Shaw, setting an attendance record for women's collegiate soccer. The Broncos tend to win in front of their home fans, and are 183-25-12 (.859) since 1986 at Buck Shaw, and posted undefeated home seasons in 1998 and '99.
