CAMPS AND CLINICS: CAMP AND BROCHURE / WEBSITE APPROVAL

COACHES: This form must be completed and submitted with a copy of the camp brochure and website address (if applicable), for any member of the coaching staff who owns or operates any camp(s). The form must be approved by the individuals designated below before the brochure is printed. The brochure and/or website will be reviewed for compliance with NCAA rules and University policies.

NCAA Bylaw 13.4.1.1 (c) Camp Brochures. Camp brochures may be provided to a prospect. Brochures are not restricted by content or design, but are restricted to a single two-sided sheet, not to exceed 17" x 22" when opened in full. (Note: These brochures may be provided to a prospect prior to September 1 at the beginning of the prospect's junior year in high school.) (See also Bylaw 12.5.1.7).

OTHER REQUIREMENTS UNDER NCAA RULES:

Employment of Student-Athletes:

NCAA Bylaw 13.12.2.1 requires that student-athletes perform duties that are of a general supervisory character. Student-athletes may not receive compensation for simply demonstrating or lecturing at a camp/clinic. Additionally, there are separate employment requirements for football student-athletes under NCAA Bylaw 13.12.2.1.6.

Advertisements and Promotions Restrictions:

Camps or Clinics advertisements may be placed in recruiting publications that include a camp directory that meets the following requirements:

1. Size of the advertisement does not exceed one-half page and the format is identical to other advertisements.
2. Camp directory includes multiple listings of summer camps on each page (at least two camp advertisements of the same size must appear on each page).
3. Sacred Heart University and employee owned camps may not place an advertisement in a high school or two-year college game program.
