Sacred Heart Pioneers

(2-0, 0-0 NEC)

vs.

Iona Gaels

(2-0, 0-0 MAAC)

Game #3 - Saturday, Sept. 15, 2007- 1:00 pm
New Rochelle, N.Y. - Mazzella Field (2,440)

Setting the Scene... The Sacred Heart Pioneers will look to continue their hot start when they take on Iona College Saturday afternoon. The Pioneers offense has piled up 95 points over their first two games of 2007, the highest two-game total to start a season in SHU football history. The competition takes a step-up this week with the 2-0 Gaels staying home for the third-straight week to play host. Iona is coming off a 17-14 overtime win over fellow NEC school Wagner in week two after opening the year with a 14-12 win over Delaware Valley.

The SHU - Iona Series... Saturday's game marks the 13th meeting between the Pioneers and Gaels on the gridiron in a series that dates back to 1991. SHU has faced Iona almost more than any other program, behind just Stony Brook at 14 meetings. The two schools met for the first time in Sacred Heart's inaugural season with the Gaels winning 26-6, starting a string of five-straight wins. SHU has won three-straight in the series and six of the last seven meetings dating back to 2000. The Pioneers are 2-3 in games played at Iona College.

The Series... Tied, 6-6

1991	Iona, 26-6	2001	SHU, 49-7
1992	Iona, 34-14	2002	SHU, 30-3
1993	Iona, 24-0	2003	Iona, 38-31 (ot)
1998	Iona, 24-3	2004	SHU, 48-7
1999	Iona, 24-0	2005	SHU, 38-14
2000	SHU, 46-7	2006	SHU, 27-16

SHU vs. the MAAC... The Pioneers are 17-15 all-time against the MAAC since it's inception in 1993. SHU is 6-4 against Iona while the Gaels have belonged to the conference while the all-time series is tied, 6-6. Marist holds a 3-2 edge over the Pioneers while they have split their two meetings with Duquesne and are 1-0 against La Salle after last week's win. The Pioneers were 3-0 against Saint Peter's and 4-1 against Siena, both have dropped football. SHU was winless (0-6) against St. John's while they were a part of the league.

Up Next... The Pioneers return to Campus Field to take on their third-straight MAAC opponent as they play host to Duquesne University. The all-time series between the Pioneers and Dukes is tied at a win apiece. Kickoff for the 2007 "Homecoming Game" is slated for 1:00 pm.

The 2007 SHU radio package will feature 10 of the 11 football games this season. For the first time, the Pioneers will be broadcast on commercial radio on WICC 600 AM as part of a 50-game package of Sacred Heart athletics, including men's & women's basketball games and men's ice hockey games. Every game will be broadcast on WHRT 91.5 FM and streamed live on the internet through Sacred Heart University's website, SacredHeartPioneers.com. Jeff Holtz will call the play-by-play, while SHU Assistant Athletic Director Gene Gumbs and Associate Director of Athletic Communications Bill Peterson will provide color commentary and analysis.

The Head Coaches... Sacred Heart head coach Paul Gorham (New Hampshire '84) is entering his fourth season on the Pioneer sideline. Gorham was named the school's seventh head coach in June of 2004 and owns a 15-21 record in his four year career. Prior to becoming the Pioneer's head coach, Gorham had stops at UMass, Brown, New Haven and his alma mater New Hampshire. Iona head coach Fred Mariani (St. Joseph's (Ind.) '84) is in his 10th season at the head of the Gaels program and is the school's second-longest tenured coach. Mariani owns a 38-56 (.347) overall record over his 10 years of coaching. Prior to coming to Iona, Mariani was the offensive coordinator at Fordham University from 1994 through 1997. He also had coaching stops at Lehigh and Morehead State.

Last Meeting with Iona... The Pioneers picked up their first victory of 2006, a 27-16 win over Iona on Homecoming on September 16th. SHU ran for a 149 yards, led by Jason Payne who rushed for 99 yards on 17 carries including a first quarter score. Evin Jones ran for 57 yards and scored on a two-yard run in the second quarter. Iona pulled within four, 20-16, after a 13 play, 95 yard drive in the third quarter capped by a Dustin Cook one-yard plunge. SHU answered as Tyler Arciaga hit Alvin Franlin on a 35-yard pass and catch late in the third quarter and the defense forced two fourth quarter turnovers to seal the 27-16 win.

Week Two Highlights... The Pioneers are 2-0 to start a season for the first time since 2003. The win matches the Pioneers win total from last season (2-9)...SHU's 54 points were the most points scored in a game since a 53-45 win at home over Saint Francis (PA) on October 29, 2005...The win marked the second straight game the Pioneers have piled up over 450 yards of total offense (75 plays - 501 yards). The 501 yards is the sixth highest total in program history for a single game...For the second-straight week the Pioneer offense picked up 26 first downs and was better then 60% on third down (8-of-12). The SHU offensive unit is yet to turn the ball over in 2007 while the first-team unit is yet to yield a sack...Redshirt-Freshman Dale Fink continued his hot start, completing eight-of-nine for 122 and three scores while leading six-straight scoring drives to start the game...The Evin Jones-Jason Payne running back tandem continued to pay off for Sacred Heart. The duo combined for 125 yards on 13 carries and three touchdowns in the first half. Jones had his first career two-touchdown game...As a team, SHU piled up 319 yards on the ground with junior Ed Gurrieri leading all rushers with a career high 83 yards on 20 carries while scoring his first career touchdown...The Pioneers scored their first defensive touchdown since the 2004 season as senior safety John Wilson's took an interception back 54-yards for a score in the second quarter...Sacred Heart kicker Joe Schroeder hit six-of-seven on his extra point attempts, his two misses coming in the first half. Those two points would have set a new school record for points scored in a half (48 vs. Saint Peter's 10/23/04).

Head Coach Paul Gorham 4th Year New Hampshire '84

Paul Gorham was announced as Sacred Heart's seventh football coach in July of 2004, bringing with him a wealth of experience and accomplishments in his inaugural season as a collegiate head coach. He compiled 18 years of experience in the trenches as an assistant at the Division I-AA and Division II levels with stops at UMass, Brown, New Haven and his alma mater, New Hampshire. Through two years, he has guided SHU to an 15-21 record. A 1984 graduate of the UNH, Gorham was an All-Yankee Conference tight end in 1983 for the Wildcats. He and his wife, Noreen, have a son, Matthew (born June 8, 1992), and a daughter, Emma (born April 21, 1995).

Assistant Coaches:

Brian Fleury (Towson '02)- Defensive Coordinator
Mark Nofri (Keene St. '93) - Linebackers
Art Asselta (Hofstra '01) - Receivers

SHU Offense Rolling... Through the first two games of 2007, the Pioneer offense has piled up 95 points and is averaging 494 yards of total offense. The Pioneers rolled to a blow out win over La Salle where the offense piled up 501 yards and 26 first downs. SHU's offense scored on their first three possessions in the Assumptions win and their first six possessions against La Salle. The offense was so good that punter Derek Marks was never forced to take the field to punt, marking the only time in SHU's Division I history they have not punted on offense in a game. They punted just once in game twice; versus Iona in 2000 and Siena in 2003.

3rd-Down and Red-Zone Success... Much of the Pioneer's success early on can be attributed to their success on third down and in the red zone. SHU has converted 67% (18-27) on third down and have scored touchdowns on all eight of their red zone possessions.

Winning the Turnover Battle... The Pioneer defense forced three turnovers, scored a touchdown and had three sacks in the win over La Salle. SHU recovered a pair of fumbles and got a 54-yard interception return for a touchdown by safety John Wilson, their first defensive score since 2004. Defensive linemen Jason Richardson and Bill O'Brien and linebacker Brian Flumere all recorded sacks. The Pioneer defense was held sackless and without a turnover in week one.

Fink Wins Back-to-Back Rookie Awards... Red-shirt freshman Dale Fink picked up his second-straight NEC Rookie of the Week award after leading the Pioneers against La Salle. Fink threw for 122 yards and three touchdowns while leading six-straight scoring drives in the first half.

Bundy Moving Up SHU's All-Time Receiving Lists... Senior wide receiver Corey Bundy pulled down two balls against La Salle for 75 yards and jumped into second place on the all-time list for career receiving yards. Bundy has 1,361 career yards and trails just DeVeren Johnson (1,748) for first all-time. Bundy scored his first touchdown of the year on a 69-yard hookup with Dale Fink, moving him into sole possession of second place on the career touchdown reception list (14). Bundy trails Johnson (19) for the top spot.

Week One Record Breakers... Pioneer quarterback Dale Fink and wide receiver Steve Tedesco tied two SHU all-time records in the season opening win at Assumption. Fink threw for four touchdown passes, tying the record for TD tosses in a game, held by four other players. The record is also held by former qb's Tyler Arciaga, Dan Ammel, Justin Holtfreter and Matt McGreevy, who is SHU's new women's golf coach. Tedesco caught three of those scores, tying the SHU mark for touchdown catches in a game, set by teammate Corey Bundy in 2005 and DeVeren Johnson, who did it twice during the 2001 season.

Former Linebacker Signs with the Buffalo Bills...

Former Sacred Heart University linebacker Jon Corto has been signed to the Buffalo Bills practice squad for the upcoming 2007 season. Corto, an Orchard Park, NY native, signed with the Bill's as an undrafted free agent after attending the team's rookie minicamp in May. He played three games for the Bills during the preseason before being cut last Tuesday when the team needed to get their roster down to 75 players. Corto played for the Pioneers from 2003-06 and finished as the program's second all-time leading tackler with 300 stops. He finished his senior season earning Division I-AA Mid-Major All-American honors after recording a team leading 104 tackles (54 solo). The former collegiate linebacker has made the transition to safety in the NFL. Corto is the second Pioneer to make his way onto an NFL roster. Former wide receiver DeVeren Johnson (2001) was drafted by the Dallas Cowboys in the 2001 NFL Draft and spent that season on the team's practice squad.

Bundy a Preseason All-NEC Pick...

Sacred Heart senior wide receiver Corey Bundy was named to the Preseason All-Northeast Conference football team, voted on by the league's seven head coaches. Bundy is coming off a junior season where he made 35 receptions for 493 yards. Bundy, who averaged 14.1 yards per catch, reeled in six scoring strikes on the year.

Preseason NEC Polling... The 2007 Northeast Conference Preseason Coaches Poll was announced with the Pioneers picked to finish sixth, tied with Saint Francis (PA). The University at Albany was tabbed as the pre-season favorite with the Great Danes edging out defending champion Monmouth for top billing in the poll. Albany also earned the moniker of preseason favorite last year, but the Great Danes finished the 2006 campaign tied for second with a 5-2 NEC record. The Great Danes received three first-place votes as did Monmouth, which captured its fifth league title last year and represented the NEC in the inaugural Gridiron Classic. Robert Morris pulled in one first-place vote and finished tied for third in the poll with Central Connecticut State. Wagner landed in fifth with Sacred Heart and Saint Francis (PA) rounding out the preseason selections in a tie for sixth.

History of Sacred Heart Football... This is the 17th football season at Sacred Heart University. The program is 72-92 (.439) all-time and 52-37 (.584) since joining the Northeast Conference (NEC) and Division I FCS (formerly I-AA) in 1998. The program has had seven head coaches starting with Gary Reho (1991-96) who led the team to a 5-4 record in their inaugural season. Jim Fleming led the Pioneers to a 21-1 mark in his two seasons as head coach (2000-01) including the 11-0 2001 campaign that delivered the university and NEC title. 2001 also saw the Pioneers lone post season appearance, beating Duquesne in the ECAC Bowl, 31-15, laying claim to the Division I-AA Mid-Major National Championship.

Pioneer Quote Corner...

Head Coach Paul Gorham...

On today's 54-14 win: "We executed well and we did what I thought we were capable of doing. We're confident in our kids and we made the other team pay."

On next week versus Iona: "We were full of confidence at the end of the first half, but that's when I started to worry about Iona. My mantra has been leave the last one behind and look forward to the next one. We'll be ready."

Junior Running Back Evin Jones...

On the 2-0 start: "One game at a time, we got up early today but we've got to remember the game's not over, got to finish it out. Take it one week at a time."

Redshirt-Freshman Dale Fink...

On his confidence: "I was just about as nervous as I was for my first college game last week, but we wanted to get it going for our home crowd."

On offensive schemes: "We have to be able to run the ball to throw the ball. We need to keep defenses on their heels and the running game, which was great today, makes it easier on everyone."

Junior Linebacker Rich Marrone...

On the team's defensive effort vs. La Salle: "A great effort on the defense. All week going against the scout that was exactly what they did. We were just well prepared, the effort was there and everyone was just flying to the ball."

On SHU's 2-0 start: "A great start, but the comp gets harder and harder every week. A great start, got the ball rolling and hopefully we can keep it rolling."

- This Date in SHU Football History -

September 15th - The Sacred Heart Pioneer football program has never played a game on September 15th in their 17 years. In 2003, the Pioneers used the 15th as their final day of preparations to open the season. SHU hosted Western New England the next day in the season opener, posting a 42-3 win on Campus Field.

2007 Gridiron Classic

The Northeast Conference (NEC) and Pioneer Football League (PFL) entered a two-year agreement to meet in the Gridiron Classic, an exempted postseason football game that will match the champions of the two Division I FCS football conferences. The inaugural Gridiron Classic took place on Saturday, November 18, 2006 with the PFL champion Sand Diego topping NEC champ Monmouth, 27-7 in West Long Branch, NJ. The PFL winner will host the 2007 event.

The NEC began sponsoring football at the FCS level in 1996, and has since increased its membership from five to seven institutions. Central Connecticut State, Monmouth, Robert Morris, Sacred Heart, Saint Francis (PA) and Wagner are full-time NEC members who sponsor football, and are joined by associate member Albany. Duquesne will become the newest NEC football member in 2008.

Set to begin its 14th season, the Pioneer Football League is one of three Division I football-only sport conferences. The PFL is comprised of eight members: Butler, Dayton, Davidson, Drake, Jacksonville, Morehead State, San Diego and Valparaiso.

NEC Football Offensive Player of the Week

Vinny Esposito, Albany

So., QB, 6-1, 210, Demarest, NJ/Northern Valley

Esposito picks up the honor after accounting for one of the best games an Albany passer has had in the past five years... the sophomore signal caller completed 17 of 26 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown in the Great Danes' win at Fordham... he kept his mistakes to a minimum and was not once intercepted, while also gaining 11 rushing yards on 10 carries... his 173 passing yards were the most by an Albany QB since November 12, 2005 and the 17 completions were the most since Ryan Roeder had 20 against Florida International on November 9, 2002.

NEC Football Defensive Player of the Week

Dave Casale, Albany

So., FS, 6-2, 190, Troy, NY/Troy

Casale becomes the second Great Dane to hold this position in as many weeks after producing big plays in Albany's 23-20 road win at Fordham... Casale tallied four solo tackles, two pass break-ups, and one fumble recovery that sealed the victory over the Patriot League school... when linebacker Trevor DuPont forced the Rams' Richard Rayborn to fumble after a completed pass with less than two minutes remaining, Casale pounced on the loose ball... earlier in the fourth quarter, the sophomore free safety had a key pass break-up that led to a stalled Fordham drive with Albany clinging to a 23-20 advantage.

NEC Football Special Teams Player of the Week

Michael Wasler, Robert Morris

Jr., K, 5-10, 175, Thornville, Ohio/Sheridan

Wasler's foot was a major reason for Robert Morris' 20-17 road win at defending NEC champion Monmouth... the junior kicker made both of his field goal attempts and was also perfect on two PATs... with 47 seconds remaining on the clock and the score tied at 17, Wasler nailed a 37-yard game-winning field goal... moments later, he denied the Hawks any opportunity at good return by booting the ensuing kickoff into the end zone for a touchback... Wasler's first field goal of the day, a 22-yarder, gave RMU its first lead at 17-14 with 3:24 left in the third quarter.

NEC Football Rookie of the Week

Dale Fink, Sacred Heart

RS-Fr., QB, 6-4, 200, Swansea, IL/Althoff Catholic

Fink claims the honor for the second consecutive week by following up his four-touchdown pass opening day performance with another three TD passes in the Pioneers 54-14 rout of La Salle... he finished 8-of-9 passing for 122 yards... the rookie signal caller engineered scoring drives on each of SHU's first six possessions... through the first two games of his collegiate career, Fink has completed 24-of-34 passes for 360 yards and seven touchdowns, while not yet being intercepted.
