Setting the Scene... The Sacred Heart Pioneers make the trip out to Moon Township, Pennsylvania for their season finale against the Robert Morris Colonials. Last Meeting with Robert Morris... Robert Morris snapped a five-game Sacred Heart winning streak in the series with a 41-21 win in the season finale for both teams in Fairfield last season. The Colonials bolted out to a 41-0 advantage into the fourth quarter before the Pioneers got on the board. The Pioneers turned the ball over four times, leading to three RMU scores including a 94-yard fumble return and a 16-yard interception return. Sacred Heart finally got on the board in the fourth quarter on a two-yard plunge from Jason Payne to cap a nine-play drive. SHU's John Wilson blocked a punt for a touchdown on Robert Morris' next possession and senior quarterback Tyler Arciaga threw the 36th and final touchdown of his career with 2:02 left to Steve Tedesco from 19 yards out. During that final drive, Arciaga became the school's all-time leader in passing yards with 4,470 yards. Payne Rushing Through SHU Record Book... The Pioneer offense is relying heavily on running back Jason Payne over the final weeks of the season and the senior has responded. Payne is coming off his third-straight 100-yard game after piling up 207 yards on 28 carries last Saturday night at Central Connecticut, his second 200-yard plus game in the last three weeks. Payne is entering his final collegiate game on Saturday with 1,097 yards on the season, the first 1,000 yard rushing season since Ed Pricolo in 2005 (1,133). Payne currently ranks third behind Pricolo in the SHU record book for yards in a season. He is averaging 7.3 yards per rush, a mark that leads the NEC and his nine touchdowns rushing on the year is tied for second among the league's rushers. Payne moved into fifth place all-time with 19 career touchdowns scored and his 207 yards vaulted him into third place all-time for career yardage at 2,196.

Tedesco's Stellar Season Continues... Sophomore Wide Receiver Steve Tedesco is looking to put the finishing touches on an outstanding season this coming Saturday. Tedesco set a new school record for catches in a season (56) after pulling down eight balls for 91 yards and two touchdowns in last week's loss at CCSU. Tedesco has caught a touchdown in four-straight games, racking up eight scores over that stretch. He is the Northeast Conference's leading receiver with 56 catches for 712 yards and 11 touchdowns. He has four games this season with multiple touchdown grabs. Earlier this season, he came up one reception shy of setting a new school record at Wagner, catching 11 passes for 143 yards. His 184 yard day ranked fourth all-time for receiving yards in a game. His 11 touchdown grabs this year is two behind DeVeren Johnson (2001) for the SHU school record. Tedesco's two scoring grabs also pulled him even with teammates Corey Bundy and Joey Henley for career touchdown grabs with 16, a mark that also trails Johnson's 19 career scores.

Fink, NEC's Top-Rookie Again... Redshirt Freshman Dale Fink picked up his fourth NEC Rookie of the Week award on Monday. Fink won the award after completing 25 of 47 passes for 222 yards and three touchdowns against Central Connecticut. 2007 Gridiron Classic

The Northeast Conference (NEC) and Pioneer Football League (PFL) entered a two-year agreement to meet in the Gridiron Classic, an exempted postseason football game that will match the champions of the two Division I FCS football conferences. The inaugural Gridiron Classic took place on Saturday, November 18, 2006 with the PFL champion Sand Diego topping NEC champ Monmouth, 27-7 in West Long Branch, NJ. The PFL winner will host the 2007 event.

The NEC began sponsoring football at the FCS level in 1996, and has since increased its membership from five to seven institutions. Central Connecticut State, Monmouth, Robert Morris, Sacred Heart, Saint Francis (PA) and Wagner are full-time NEC members who sponsor football, and are joined by associate member Albany. Duquesne will become the newest NEC football member in 2008.

Set to begin its 14th season, the Pioneer Football League is one of three Division I football-only sport conferences. The PFL is comprised of eight members: Butler, Dayton, Davidson, Drake, Jacksonville, Morehead State, San Diego and Valparaiso.

NEC Football Offensive Player of the Week

David McCarty, Albany

So., TB, 6-0, 190, Gansevoort, NY/LaSalle Institute

McCarty scored three times and racked up 228 yards of offense in helping Albany remain the lone undefeated team in NEC play. The sophomore tailback rushed 27 times for 167 yards and two touchdowns during the Great Danes' 45-17 victory over Robert Morris. McCarty's other touchdown came on Albany's longest pass play since 2001 as the sophomore took a second-quarter screen pass 61 yards into the end zone. McCarty's 228 all-purpose yards were the most by a Great Dane since 10/23/04. Saturday's win marked the third consecutive game, and fifth this season, that UA tailback has eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark.

NEC Football Defensive Player of the Week

Victor D'Arrigo, Central Connecticut State

So., LB/SS, 5-10, 200, Staten Island, NY/Hargrave Military

D'Arrigo made a game-high and career-high 12 tackles in Central Connecticut State's 49-33 conference victory over Sacred Heart that allowed CCSU to stay close behind Albany in the NEC standings. The sophomore linebacker notched one tackle for a loss and forced a first-quarter fumble that led to the Blue Devils' third touchdown of the day. D'Arrigo was the main cog in a defensive effort that allowed Sacred Heart to score only once on six first-half possessions en route to a 35-6 score at the break.

NEC Football Special Teams Player of the Week

Jason Fralicker, Albany

Sr., K, 5-10, 190, North Tonawanda, NY/North Tonawanda

Fralicker's special teams tackling was as good as his kicking during Albany's 45-17 league win over Robert Morris, a victory that allowed the Great Danes to remain the lone unbeaten team in conference play. The senior kicker opened the game's scoring by connecting on his only field goal attempt, a 33-yarder, and was 6-for-6 on PATs. Fralicker made four tackles, three of which were unassisted, on kickoff coverage. Two of Fralicker's solo tackles stopped preseason all-NEC return specialist Mario Hines from going the distance.

NEC Football Rookie of the Week

Dale Fink, Sacred Heart

Fr., QB, 6-4, 200, Swansea, IL/Althoff Catholic

Fink threw for 222 yards and three touchdowns on 25-of-47 passing in Sacred Heart's setback at Central Connecticut State. After not being intercepted on Saturday, the rookie quarterback has only been picked off five times this year and has tossed a league-leading 20 touchdowns. He is completing 63.3 percent of his passes this season and boasts the conference's third-best passer efficiency rating at 145.7.
