2009-2010 Women's Ice Hockey - Game Notes

Head Coach Tom O'Malley

Tom O'Malley is entering his seventh season as the head coach of the Sacred Heart women's ice hockey program and has guided the Pioneers through the transition from Division III to Division I. Before taking over at Sacred Heart, O'Malley was the head coach of the Wayne State Warriors for four seasons and a coach at Boston College for fifteen seasons.

In 2005-06 O'Malley guided the Pioneers to the ECAC Open Tournament Championship, defeating Saint Anselm for the crown. SHU has made it to the finals of the ECAC tournament for four consecutive seasons. O'Malley has compiled a 54-101-8 record during his six year tenure at Sacred Heart.

When O'Malley took over at Wayne State in 1999 he was saddled with the task of building a varsity program from the ground up for the second time in his career. He was an integral part of building the Boston College women's program in the 1980's and was the coach when the Eagles made the jump to Division I for the 1994-95 season.

O'Malley, a Boston native, graduated from Boston College with a bachelor's degree in economics from the College of Arts and Sciences in 1989. He played college hockey at BC under coaches Len Ceglarski and Steve Cedorchuk.
