2008 NEC Tournament Champions... In one of the most exciting finishes in NEC Tournament history, the Pioneers netted the game winning goal with three seconds to play. Junior Amanda Williams shot up the right sideline heading toward goal racing against the clock. The junior attacker was able to make it into the 8-meter arc and drew a foul, setting up the final free position attempt. Williams pulled back on her attempt and place a perfect pass to Carissa Hauser right in front who scored her career-best fifth goal of the game to send Sacred Heart to the NCAA Tournament for the first time. The Pioneers battled back from down four goals in the first half and 10-9 at the half. Both Hauser and Williams posted five-point afternoons with Hauser scoring a career-high five goals. Hauser and Williams were joined on the NEC All-Tournament team by senior Katie Salamone, sophomore Chelsea Wagner and freshman Jessica Ingrilli.

Head Coach Laura Cook

Head Coach Laura Cook has built the Sacred Heart women's lacrosse program into one of the top-teams year in and year out in the Northeast Conference. Cook is entering her ninth year on the Pioneer sidelines having directed her teams to a 82-64 record. The Pioneers are coming off their second-straight trip to the NEC Tournament and their fifth appearance under Coach Cook.

SHU posted a 5-3 mark in conference play in 2007, earning the #3 seed in the tournament. In 2006, the Pioneers finished with a school record 7-1 mark in NEC play, earning the second seed in the tournament and advancing to the NEC Championship game, a feat that earned Cook the 2006 NEC Coach of the Year award.

Cook has guided the Pioneers to four 10 win seasons in the past six years (2005, 2004, 2003, 2001). Her best coaching performance arguably came in 2006 when SHU battled back from a 0-7 start to rattle off seven wins in the final nine games of the regular season, including five-straight. The Pioneers posted a 12-9 win over Quinnipiac in the semifinal game of the tournament to advance to their first-ever title game appearance. SHU took on top-seeded Monmouth, coming up short of their first-ever title, 10-5.

The Pioneers have had 21 All-Northeast Conference players under Coach Cook with returnees, juniors Mary Montesarchio and Amanda Williams, earning a spot last season. Joanne Montesarchio finished a stellar career in 2005 under Cook, scoring 157 points in four years, the most all-time in the Division I era. Goalkeeper Ginny Capicchioni, a three-time All-NEC player, played for the coach in 2000 and 2001 and became the first female goalkeeper in the National Lacrosse League when she played in a preseason game for the New Jersey Storm in 2002.

The Media, Pennsylvania native came to Sacred Heart after a standout playing career at the University of Massachusetts, where she graduated in 1999 with a degree in exercise science. She was a four-year starter at UMass and ranks among the program's top ten in scoring, goals and assists.

tournament team honors. In Friday's 12-11 win over Monmouth, Williams tallied three goals and an assist with three draw wins. In Sunday's Championship game with Quinnipiac, Williams totalled five points, scoring three goals and assisting on two, including the game-winner with three seconds left. On the year Williams leads the team with 45 goals with 11 assists for 56 points.

2008 NEC Semifinal... Sacred Heart got three goals apiece from Amanda Williams and Jessica Ingrassi as the Pioneers held off a late Monmouth rally to post a 12-11 win in the semifinal round. The #2 seeded Pioneers went up 12-6 with just over seven minutes to play but had to hold off a late run from the #3 seeded Hawks to advance to the title game for the second time in school history. The Pioneers scored on the game's opening draw and took a 4-1 lead midway through the first half. The Hawks cut the lead down to two but a pair of goals from Williams and Ingrassi just before the half sent the Pioneers into the locker room up 7-3. MU opened the second half with a marker but SHU put together a 3-1 run into the 10th minute for a 10-5 advantage. Carissa Hauser buried an 8meter attempt at 8:44 followed by a Salamone unassisted tally at 7:04 for a 12-6 lead. The Hawks refused to go quietly however and scored the game's final five to make it a one-goal game. Monmouth cut it down to three with 4:31 to go but couldn't get back on the board until 1:15 and threw one more in with just three ticks left to produce the final, 12-11.

All-NEC Pioneers... Seniors Liz Ottey and Alyssa Harris along with junior Mary Montesarchio were named to the All-NEC first team with junior Amanda Williams, sophomore Carissa Hauser and freshman Jessica Ingrassi were named to the All-NEC second team. Montesarchio makes her second appearance on the all-conference first team while Williams makes her second-straight appearance on the second team.

Mary Montesarchio a Record Breaker... Junior Mary Montesarchio set three new school records this season. Montesarchio's seven assist afternoon against Lafayette set a new Division I record for assists in a game. She also set new marks for assists in a season and career assists. Her 38 assists this season eclipsed the mark the of 18. She passed Jen Fallon's (1993-96) 52 career helpers over the weekend and now owns the career mark with 62 and counting.

SHU 100-Point Club... Sacred Heart has three Pioneers who have reached the 100-point mark in their careers and another on the cusp of joining the club. Junior Mary Montesarchio leads all active Pioneers with 130 career points on 62 goals and 68 assists. Seniors Katie Salamone and Liz Ottey are right behind here at 121 and 120 points, respectively. Salamone has 97 career goals and 24 assists while Ottey has 80 goals and 40 assist in just three years at Sacred Heart. Junior Amanda Williams is sitting on 99 career points, coming on 79 career markers and 20 helpers.
