Samford’s all-time scoring leader, Craig Beard, was the Bulldogs’ lone nomination to the 30-year anniversary team of the Birmingham Tip-Off Club. Beard played at Samford from 1982 to 1985 after transferring from Tulane. In three seasons, the 6-foot-6 forward from Birmingham scored 1,914 points without the benefit of the 3-point shot. Beard is the single-season leader in scoring with 703 points during the 1984–85 campaign. One of the most pivotal players in the revival of Samford basketball, Beard scored in double figures in 84 consecutive games.

Head Coach Jimmy Tillette picked up his 200th career victory Dec. 22, 2009, with a 58-56 win at Eastern Michigan.
