USF HEAD COACH JESSIE EVANS

A new era in USF basketball began on April 22, 2004 when Jessie Evans, the highly successful head basketball coach of Louisiana Lafayette was named Head Basketball Coach at USF.

In his first season as USF's head coach, he accomplished many things. The Dons beat five league champions during his first campaign, including #11 Gonzaga (WCC), St. Joseph's (Atlantic 10), Penn (Ivy), Pacific (Big West) and Denver (Sun Belt). USF also beat Big Sky tournament champ Montana and lost close to Stanford in overtime and at Gonzaga in the final second.

Evans also got the Dons into the postseason for the first time since 1998, as the Dons hosted Denver and Cal State Fullerton in the NIT. USF became the first WCC team to host a postseason contest.

Coach Evans took the Dons to the NIT in his first year as the team's head coach.

Although the team dropped to an 11-17 record in his second season, Evans focused again on building the team to a higher level of play.

Evans (132-81 in seven seasons at University of Louisiana) has been a consistent winner in his 28 years as a coach, including a highly successful run with nine consecutive NCAA bids as an assistant under Arizona's Lute Olson, including the 1997 national championship.

The 2003-04 (his last at Louisiana) campaign was his third straight 20-win season. He took the Ragin' Cajins to the NCAA tournament, where they lost 61-52 to highly ranked North Carolina State. In fact, five of Louisiana's nine losses came on the road to NCAA powers Georgia Tech, Xavier, Dayton, Arizona and North Carolina State, all away from home.

Evans was honored by his fellow coaches with the 2003 NABC District 8 Division I "Coach of the Year" regional award.

Jessie has been a very popular person among USF alumni, basketball fans and the Bay Area media. He makes frequent appearances on Bay Area radio and television, talking about all levels of the sport.

"I think that the USF program has unlimited potential," says Evans. "This is a great school with a great tradition in men's basketball. It is located in what is in my opinion the number one city in the world!"

Evans, who also served on the staffs at Texas, Wyoming, San Diego State and Minnesota before joining the Arizona staff in 1988, helped lead the Wildcats to a 25-9 record and that national title in his ninth and final year there.

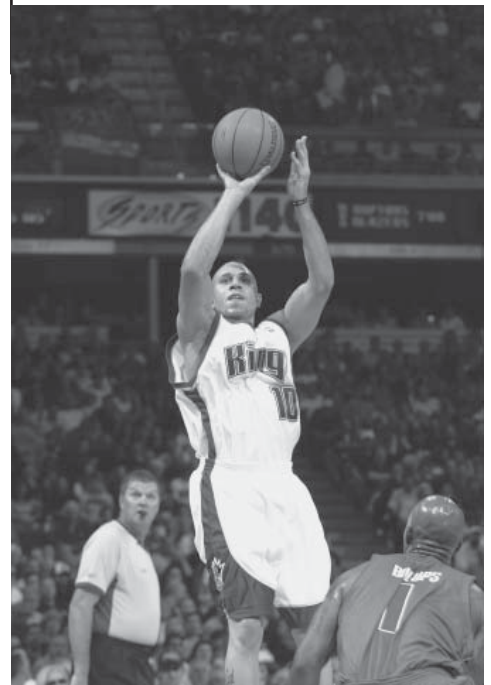

However, success wasn't anything new since Evans joined the staff in 1988 after two years at Texas. In serving as recruiting coordinator and assisting in all aspects of the Wildcat program, he helped Arizona average 27 victories per season during his stint there, including win totals of 24, 24, 29, 23, 26 and 25 over the past six seasons.

The Wildcats, who were 26-7 in 1995-96 and reached the NCAA regional semifinals, did not finish lower than third in the Pacific 10 Conference in any of the nine seasons that Evans served on the UA staff.

Evans also helped tutor a total of 14 Arizona players that have played in the NBA, including Sean Elliott of the San Antonio Spurs, Mike Bibby of the Sacramento Kings, Jason Terry of the Dallas Mavericks, Damon Stoudamire of the Portland Trailblazers, Khalid Reeves of the Dallas Mavericks and Kenny Lofton, now out of pro basketball but continuing his pro baseball career with the Los Angeles Dodgers. In all, he has recruited and/or coached a total of 26 players who played in the NBA during his career.

As a part of the Arizona staff, Evans worked primarily with perimeter players and overall defense, while also being involved with scouting, athlete counseling and academics.

Among the numerous pro players coached by Evans is the Sacramento Kings' Mike Bibby.

USF Basketball 2006-07

Evans served for two seasons on the Texas staff from 1986-88 prior to going to Arizona, and previously served as assistant coach at Wyoming from 1984-86 and at San Diego State from 1982-84 after beginning his collegiate coaching career at Minnesota, where he served for five years from 1976-81.

He was an all-state basketball player, playing four years with the varsity at Pontiac Central High School. He attended college at Eastern Michigan in Ypsilanti, where he played collegiately for four years before earning his bachelor's degree in 1972. He later earned his master's degree in education from EMU in 1980.

Following his collegiate career, he served as player-coach with the Flint Pros in the Continental Basketball Association for one year in 1972-73, before taking the head coaching slot at Flint Northwestern High. He guided that team to a three-year record of 57-18, to a state runner-up finish in 1975 and to the Saginaw Valley title in 1976.

In his five years at Minnesota, the Gophers averaged 20 wins per year and claimed the Big Ten title in 1981. He coached and helped recruit such notables as Kevin McHale, Mychal Thompson, Trent Tucker and Randy Breuer during that time.

Evans left Minnesota for two seasons at San Diego State, where he helped develop future NBA standout Michael Cage, and followed that with a two-year stint at Wyoming. He helped guide the Cowboys to the WAC title and to the 1986 NIT finals while coaching standouts Fennis Dembo and Eric Leckner.

He left Wyoming in 1986 to join the staff at Texas, where he coached Lance Blanks and Travis Mays, before joining the Arizona staff in April 1988 following UA's Final Four trip that year.

During his nine years at Arizona, they won five Pac-10 titles and finished second three times, while participating in nine straight NCAA Tournaments. The Wildcats were also ranked No. 1 in the nation in two different in both 1988-89 and 1990-91 and were ranked as high as No. 2 in 1989-90. Arizona also reached the Final Four in 1993-94 after winning the NCAA West Regional.

Evans' recruiting success had a great deal to do with that on-court success, with his recruiting classes consistently ranking among the nation's best. His 1996 recruiting class was ranked in the top five nationally by virtually every national recruiting service.

Evans and his wife Nancy, a former counselor, have a daughter Jayda, a sportswriter with the Seattle Times (who recently published a book on the WNBA "Game On"), and a son Jarret (a USF basketball assistant), who played two years at Louisiana-Lafayette.
