TUCKER, STALLWORTH PLAY FINAL HOME GAMES AS USF HOSTS SANTA CLARA FRI., SAN DIEGO SAT. DONS MAKE PUSH FOR SECOND SEED IN WCC

- * Darrell Tucker, WCC Player of the Week averaging 24.0 ppg, 9.0 rpg since returning from thumb injury – should move into third place in USF career scoring this week
- * Jason Gaines comes alive at the point, scores gamewinner at St. Mary's
- * Cox among league leaders in WCC scoring
- * Dons lead WCC in field goal and 3-pt. percentages, 2nd in FG%
- * USF has 10-6 record over last 16 games
- * Stallworth moves into 25th place on career scoring list

TUCKER NAMED WCC PLAYER OF WEEK FOR THIRD TIME USF WINS LEADS WCC IN FIELD GOAL & 3 PT. PERCENTAGE TUCKER CAN MOVE INTO THIRD PLACE THIS WEEKEND

FRI., FEB. 20	*SANTA CLARA	MEMORIAL GYM	7:00 PM
SAT., FEB. 21	*SAN DIEGO (FOX S BA)	MEMORIAL GYM	8:00 PM
Fri., Feb. 28	*at Loyola Marymount	Los Angeles, CA	7:00 PM
Sat., Mar. 1	*at Pepperdine	Malibu, CA	7:00 PM

San Francisco, CA- The USF Dons (11-12, 6-4 WCC) look to continue their strong finish when they close out their home season with games vs. Santa Clara Friday (7 p.m. KYCY 1550 AM) and San Diego Saturday (8 p.m., FSBA, KYCY). USF has won 10 of their last 16 games, since a 1-6 start. What makes it more impressive is that two of the losses were to two hot teams in tight road losses at Cal, at Michigan and at Gonzaga.

TUCKER WINS SECOND WCC PLAYER OF WEEK HONORS IN THREE

WEEKS: USF senior forward Darrell Tucker was named WCC Player of the Week for the second time in three weeks since returning from his thumb injury. Tucker made 16-26 shots from the floor (61.5%) and 10-14 shots from three-point range (71.4%) in earning the Dons a split in the Northwest.

TUCKER PLAYS LAST HOME GAMES: Darrell Tucker, the Oakland native and McClymonds High School grad, plays his final two home games this week. Tucker is trying to earning his third all-WCC selection this year. His 24.0 ppg in league play is the best in the conference, but he has not played enough games to qualify. Last week Tucker (1,689 career) passed former Dons Gerald Walker (1,665) and Ollie Johnson (1,668) to move into third place on the all-time USF career scoring list trailing only Winford Boynes (1,702), Quintin Dailey (1,841) and Bill Cartwright (2,116). He also has tied former Santa Clara player Steve Nash (1,689) for 21st place on the all-time WCC scoring list and will likely pass him Friday when USF hosts the Broncos.

STALLWORTH, TOO: Shamell Stallworth, while not making the impact of Tucker, still has an impressive USF career. The Fresno native is 24th on the USF career list (1,020 pts.) and has a chance to break into the top 20 before his career is done. When he is done he will be second on USF's all-time list for three-pointers made behind only Ali Thomas. His 37 points in a big win over BYU are a Dons' season high.

WHY NOT TAKE THREE: The Dons have become an excellent three-point shooting team recently. Over the last 11 games, the Dons have made 47.5% of their treys (95-200), paced by John Cox (27-56, .482) and Shamell Stallworth (26-53, 49.1%). Darrell Tucker has added 19-31 (61.3%) since returning, while Alvin Broussard is 13-29 (.448) over the past 11 games. The team hit a peak with 14-23 vs. LMU (60.9%). Over the past six games, USF is 64-123 (52.0%).

DID YOU KNOW???

That the WCC tournament will be in the Bay Area in 2003-04 and 2004-05? That there is a new format this season that protects the top seeds, with number one and number two not scheduled to play until the semifinals?

DONS HOST 2006 WEST REGIONAL

USF was named to host the 2006 West Regionals at the Oakland Coliseum (March 23-25th). It will be the first time for USF to host the event, although they have hosted many games at the Coliseum previously.

OR JUST SHOOT....The Dons lead the WCC (in league games) in both field goal percentage (50.0%) and three-point percentage (49.3%) and are second to LMU in free-throw percentage (72.4%).

DYNAMIC DUO: Darrell Tucker and John Cox are the highest scoring tandem (in term of team points) in the WCC. They account for 48.6% of USF's total offense this season. (33.4 ppg of 68.7 ppg.) In WCC play they average 43.9 points out of USF's 70.4 (62.3%).

DONS PLAYING BEST BALL OF SEASON: USF is playing their best ball of the season and has won four of five and is 10-6 since mid-December.

The addition of transfers James Bayless (10.6 ppg, 5.7 rpg, 56.1% FG) and Alvin Broussard (9.5 ppg, 4.7 rpg) on December 14th has been a big plus, but along with them, everyone else's game has stepped up. Since their first game at Pacific (a game in which USF played poorly in the first half), USF has been a solid team, winning 10 of 16 despite the loss of Tucker for six games. USF has made over 40% of its three's in nine of the last 11 games.

USF	FG%	OPPF%	3PT%	FT%	REB	OPPREB	PTS	OPPPTS	TO MGN.	RECORD
LST 16	49.0	44.7	44.3	71.6	30.8	30.2	71.9	66.8	-0.1	10-6
FST 7	40.3	46.8	30.8	69.5	32.3	37.3	61.1	70.4	-1.6	1-6

LEAGUE REGULAR SEASON MORE IMPORTANT THAN EVER: The WCC regular season is more important than anytime since the postseason tournament was adopted. Finishing in the top four keeps you out of the first round (5 v. 8, 6 v.7), and finishing first or second gets you out of the second round, and allows you to win the tournament with just two wins.

DONS STRONG AT HOME, BUT GETTING BETTER ON ROAD: The Dons have played well at home this year with a 8-4 mark, with three of the four losses coming in the final minute. Against Nevada, USF led late and had a near midcourt buzzer beater beat them. Against Fresno State, USF had chances to go ahead (missed three-pointer by Gaines) and tie (missed three by Cox) in the final minute. USF trailed St. Mary's by just two with 26 seconds, but could not get any closer. USF is averaging 74.7 points per game at home to 60.0 on the road and allowing 66.3 points at home to 69.8 on the road.

USF is 3-8 on the road this year (3-2 WCC), with four games (at Sacramento State, at Cal, at Michigan, at USD, at Gonzaga) within striking distance and the wins at Santa Clara, St. Mary's and Portland. The good news is that the last seven games on the road (at Cal, at Michigan, at Santa Clara, at USD, at SMC, at Portland, at Gonzaga), USF has played very well.

USF	FG%	OPPF%	3PT%	FT%	REB	OPPREB	PTS	OPPPTS	TO MGN	RECORD
HOME	49.9	44.4	44.3	69.9	32.2	30.3	74.7	66.3	+0.1	8-4
ROAD	40.9	47.0	31.9	73.3	30.2	35.9	60.0	69.8	-1.1	2-7
R-LST7	46.0	45.1	44.4	72.4	29.1	32.1	67.0	68.7	-0.1	3-4

DONS LIKE 80: The one sure thing this year is that when USF scores 80 points, they have a perfect 5-0 record.

40TH MINUTE NOT LUCKY: USF has not had good luck at the end of games this season. Nevada hit a near half-court buzzer beater to top the Dons. USF missed a three-pointer by John Cox to take a lead at Sac State in the final minute, and missed two shots vs. Fresno State in the final minute to lead and then tie the game. USF led at Cal by three points in the final minute twice, but a late three (3.7 sec.) sent the game into overtime. Against St. Mary's USF trailed by just two with :26 left but could not get any closer. Finally USF broke out at Santa Clara, concluding an 11-0 run in the final minute to win 55-52 but then lost a chance for a last minute tie or win when Stallworth's free-throw missed in the last minute at USD. Against St. Mary's last Saturday, it looked like a late three doomed them again to a tough loss, but Gaines' late basket gave USF the win.

NOT A LOT OF BAKING: USF up to this point has had trouble scoring for numerous reasons, but one of the main reason is that they are creating only 13.2 turnovers per game by their opponents. USF therefore is not getting many fastbreak opportunities, as they are also last in the WCC in steals. The Dons are not "baking" a lot of turnovers either, just 13.7 themselves. Both of those figures are among the lowest in the WCC.

TUCKER PASSES BILL RUSSELL'S SCORING TOTAL, CAN MOVE TO THIRD PLACE: Darrell Tucker (1,689) passed Bill Russell's career scoring total (1,636) as he had 25 points at St. Mary's. This week he has a chance to move into third place by passing Winford Boynes (1,702). Tucker is the highest scoring Don since basketball resumed in 1985. Darrell was named all-WCC for the second time in three seasons last year. He also led the league in rebounding for the second consecutive season. His 17 double doubles ranked in the top 20 in the nation last year. He has six double doubles this season, including a 23-point, 11 rebound performance vs. Fullerton and a 21 point, 11 rebound performance vs. Pepperdine. Tucker passed Paul Silas (1661 at Creighton – '62-'64) as McClymonds High School's all-time leading alumni scorer.

COX: NOT JUST KOBE'S COUSIN: Since Tucker's injury, John Cox has been the man. He has led USF in scoring nine straight games before Tucker became the leading scorer over the last three. He is averaging 18.8 points per game and had a career high 27 against LMU Jan. 31. His field goal percentage (49.7 floor, 47.5% 3pt, 76.3% ft) over those 11 games. He is currently third in the WCC in scoring during league play at 19.1 ppg., and averaged 20.6 points per contest during Tucker's absence. Ironically, before the loss of Tucker, Cox had lost his starting slot for the previous five games and was averaging 11.3 per game. Overall he is averaging 15.2 points per game. The cousin of NBA all-star Kobe Bryant, Cox is 39-92 (42.4%) from three-point range after shooting at 42% last year (third in the WCC). He started slowly from three point range this year (2-12 after three games), but has now nailed 37-80 (46.3%) since. John scored 21 points including a game-tying three and game winning two at Santa Clara, added 25 at San Diego.. He scored a then-career best 26 points vs. Portland, hitting 8-12 from the floor. John has had three chances to tie games in the final seconds this year, but has not gotten the shot to fall at Sacramento State, vs. Fresno State, or at San Diego.

STALLWORTH – A TALE OF TWO SEASONS: Shamell Stallworth, the senior guard from Fresno had been in a slump to open the year, after completing last season as USF's hottest player. In this year's first six games, he shot just 39% from the floor (3-15 from 3-pt) and averaging 7.2 points per game. Over the past 17 games, he is averaging 15.1 ppg., is shooting 49.1% from the floor and is 39-78 (50.0%) from three-point range. He is sixth in the WCC in three-point percentage in conference games, nailing 21-45 (46.7%) On the season he is averaging 13.0 points per game after averaging 12.2 last season. Stallworth is shooting 49.0% from the floor. He did have a season high 16 points in the two games at Pacific and vs. Sonoma before crushing BYU with a career high 37 points, the most ever by a current player on the USF squad and the most since Kenyon Jones scored 27 against Nevada on Nov, 21, 1999.. The last six contests of last year he averaged over 19 points per game. He leads the WCC in free-throw percentage, nailing 53-61 free-throws (86.9%) Stallworth has 1020 career points, which puts him 24th on the USF all-time scoring list.

BAYLESS GIVING DONS AN INSIDE PRESENSE: The addition of transfer James Bayless (Nevada) on December 14th has given USF an inside game they were lacking. He is averaging 10.5 points per game, pulling 5.5 rebounds and shooting 54.9% from the floor. He has scored in double figures 11 times, with a high of 19 vs. Portland, 18 at Pacific and also 17 at California, where he shot 7-11 from the floor.

BROUSSARD ADDS ATHLETICISM: Former New Mexico Lobo Alvin Broussard has given the Dons athleticism they have lacked. He is averaging 9.4 points and 4.8 rebounds. He had a breakout offensive game at San Diego, nailing 7-11 shots from the floor for 17 points. At Portland last Thursday he equaled that total of 17 points on 7-10 shooting. He scored 14 in the win over Pepperdine and added 13 rebounds vs. Brown and five steals vs. Michigan. He has also helped the Dons defensively, and has been very hot from the three-point line in recent contests. Overall, Broussard is shooting 52.7% from the floor and 47.4% from three-point.

JASON IS GAINING: Sophomore Jason Gaines (who leads the WCC in assist average during league play 6.33) has been very impressive lately, but never more than Dec. 30th at California. His line for the game was six points, 10 assists, 1 turnover, 5 rebounds and two steals. He leads the WCC in assists during conference play with 6.1 per contest. Last Thursday at Portland he recorded 12 assists, 5 rebounds and 2 steals. January 25th at San Diego, he recorded 11 assists and no turnovers. Over the past 11 games he has 77 assists (7.0 avg) and 27 turnovers. On the year he has 126 assists (already 10th best in USF history) and just 50 to's, with a 2.52 asst. to turnover ratio, by far the best in the WCC. He has established himself as the team's leader. Jason had a season high 10 assists at Cal on Dec. 30. He is 25-30 from the free-throw line this year. His biggest moment was hitting a last minute fall-away shot to give USF the win over St. Mary's on February 8th.

HEAD COACH DICK DAVEY, a 1964 graduate of Pacific is in his 11th season at SCU (185-140) and career

Santa Clara is USF's biggest local rival and the first game was indicative of the series. Santa Clara led by 10 points in the second half and by five with five minutes left, but two late baskets by John Cox put the Dons ahead in the final minute of a 55-52 win. Cox had 21 points in the win and Shamell Stallworth 17, while the Broncos were paced by Bakari Altheimer's 13.

Santa Clara broke a streak in which they had lost seven of eight games when they beat Pepperdine convincingly 73-61 Sunday afternoon. 6-8 junior center Jim Howell (9.4 ppg.) paced SCU with 19 points and 8 rebounds in the contest, while Altheimer (8.9 ppg.) added 12 points. The Broncos, who lost guard Kyle Bailey to injury, have won four of 10 road games this year.

Coach Dick Davey's squad enters the week as the league's top offensive rebounding team (12.2 per game) so, USF will make it a key goal to keep them off the glass. SCU outrebounded the Dons 24-22 in the first meeting.

Freshman Brandon Rohe leads the team in scoring with 11.4 points per game, Howell is the team's leading rebounder with 6.3 per contest.

HEAD COACH BRAD HOLLAND, a 1979 graduate of UCLA is in his 9th season at USD (139-109) and 162-140 career (11th season).

San Diego, who enters the week a game ahead of USF in the conference standings is doing it with a strong frontline paced by senior center Jason Keep and senior forward Jason Blair.

Blair had 18 points and Keep 16 as San Diego outlasted San Diego on January 15th at the Jenny Craig Pavilion. It was a game that USF appeared to have in control leading by four with 3:35 remaining. But the Toreros were able to hit two straight long treys and USF missed a late free throw to let the Toreros take a 64-69 win.

San Diego has won seven of its last nine games entering Friday's contest at St. Mary's behind the strong play of Keep (19.2, 10.1 rpg. ppg in WCC play) and Blair (17.2 ppg., 6.4 rpg). Also coming up strong for them is senior guard Roy Morris (11.9 ppg.), senior Matt Delzell (7.5 ppg., and freshman Nick Lewis (9.2 ppg.).

70 POINTS – WIN OR LOSE: During the eight years of the Philip Mathews era at USF, a key to a Dons' victory has been the opponents' score. When USF opponents score 70 or less in regulation, USF is 96-37, and when the opponents score more than 70, USF is 21-67. This year, USF is 6-6 when holding teams to 70 or less, 5-6 when allowing more than 70.

USF is 8-4 home (Streak W2), 3-8 road (streak L1), 0-0 neutral; 0-1 in overtime; 8-4 in white jerseys, 2-6 in green, 1-2 in black, 7-1 when leading at the half, 4-11 when trailing, 0-0 when tied, 8-0 when shooting 50% from the floor, 3-12 when shooting less than 50%; 10-4 when outshooting their opponent, 1-8 when outshot, 0-0 when equal; 10-8 when holding their opponents under 50% floor, 1-4 when opponent shoots 50%; 7-2 when USF shoots more FT's, 4-10 when USF shoots less FT's, 0-0 when free-throws are the same; 9-3 when USF leads with 5 minutes left, 10-2 when USF leads with 1 minute left, 1-0 when tied with 1 minute left; 7-3 when USF bench outscores opponent, 3-9 when opposing bench outscores USF, 1-0 when bench is equal, 7-1 when outrebounding opponent, 4-11 when outrebounded, 0-0 when rebounds are the same; 7-4 when more 3's, 3-3 when less 3's, 1-5 when 3's are equal; 6-12 when USF scores less than 80 pts., 5-0 when USF scores 80 points, 1-0 when USF scores 90 points, 0-0 when USF scores 100+ pts., 7-6 when holding opponents to 70 points or under, 4-6 when opponents scores 71-79, 0-0 when opponent scores 80 or more.

PREVIOUS GAME STORIES:

TUCKER AGAIN LEADS THE WAY, BUT GAINES' SHOT TRIPS GAELS: For St. Mary's it was way too much Darrell Tucker as the Dons top the Gaels 68-67 in Moraga on January 8th. Tucker poured in 25 points, went 9-13 from the floor and pulled a game-high eight rebounds off the bench as the Dons won 68-67. The Dons ran off a 12-0 spurt to erase a 56-49 St. Mary's lead with 6:11 left and give the Dons a 61-56 lead. But after SMC's Ross Benson hit two late three's to give St. Mary's a 67-66 lead with 5.9 seconds left, it was USF point guard Jason Gaines to the rescue. Gaines raced up the floor and hit a 10-foot fadeaway to give USF the win. Tucker became USF's sixth all-time career scorer late in the game, passing former USF (and McClymonds HS) great Bill Russell

DONS OUTSCORE LIONS: John Cox scored a career high 27 points, Darrell Tucker added 25 and Shamell Stallworth scored 21 as USF scored a season-high 91 points in topping LMU 91-73. USF led 45-38 at the half, built the lead to double digits for good at the 14:45 mark (61-50) and kept a double-digit lead for the remainder of the contest. Keith Kincade had 16 for the Lions.

TUCKER RETURNS TO LINEUP, DONS TOP WAVES: Darrell Tucker returned to the lineup and combined with John Cox to score 45 points as the Dons topped Pepperdine 87-77. The Dons led by 10 at the half (41-31) after hitting better than 61% of their field goal attempts. USF increased its lead to 17 with 5:21 left, but the Waves made a run to get to within two before USF went on its own run to put the game away. John Cox had 24 points and Tucker 21 points and 11 rebounds. Jimmy Miggins had 18 for Pepperdine.

DONS GET NOTHING "FREE" AT SAN DIEGO: The Dons had to survive a team on a roll, less than ideal housing arrangements and were still missing Tucker when they traveled to the Jenny Craig Pavilion on January 25th. USF, which stayed in Orange County due to the Super Bowl hotel situation, lost a heartbreaker to San Diego 74-69.

The Dons started slowly, losing 16-4 after five minutes, but rallied to trail just 43-41 at the half. The Dons trailed by as many as 7 in the second half, but rallied again to take 68-64 lead with 3:35 left. San Diego got two late threes from Brad Lechtenberg and Matt Delzell to take a two-point lead, but when Shamell Stallworth missed a free-throw with :20 left that would have allowed USF to tie the game, USF was forced to foul and lost by five. Ironically, it was the lack of USF free-throws during the game (USF shot just nine) that ruined an excellent shooting night (47.3% floor) 10-20 from three-point range for USF. John Cox scored 25 to lead USF in scoring.

DONS "COX OUT" FIRST ROAD WIN: USF is coming off a come-from-behind 55-52 victory at Santa Clara Wednesday night. It was an unusual game that was dominated by the defenses, with Santa Clara holding USF to 35% shooting in the first half and USF holding the Broncos to 35% shooting after the break. The Dons held SCU to just three field goals over the final 13 minutes (one with less than a second left) in the victory, scoring 11 straight points to turn a 49-44 deficit to a 55-49 lead, with Shamell Stallworth scoring six of the points and John Cox adding the other five (including the game tying three and the go ahead driving deuce).

USF CANNOT HOLD ONTO LEAD AGAINST GONZAGA: Gonzaga stayed perfect in WCC by rallying past USF 66-56 at Memorial Gym on January 19th. The Bulldogs came out with red-hot shooting and took a 27-14 lead with 11:14 remaining in the first half. But the Dons were able to whittle it to just a 37-32 deficit at the half, behind John Cox's 16 first half points. USF continued its momentum and pulled ahead 50-44 with 10:50 remaining in the game, before five straight USF turnovers swung the momentum back to Gonzaga, along with two long three-pointers by Kyle Bankhead (who made 7 of 11 on the afternoon and scored 23 points). The visitors won 66-56.

DONS TAKE OFF AGAINST THE PILOTS: As they did in their WCC opener against St. Mary's, USF played strong and had control of the game early against Portland. USF went up 20-8, led 36-29 at the half, withstood a Portland run that closed the score to 43-31 and won 73-59 Friday night. The Dons shot the ball well in both halves, 58.3% in the first half and 57.1% in the second, while holding Portland to 43.5% shooting. John Cox (26 pts) and James Bayless (19) each scored career highs for USF, each hitting 8-12 from the floor.

DONS FALL TO ST. MARY'S: USF seemed to be in control of its WCC opener against St. Mary's leading by nine 54-45 with 8:24 remaining. But USF was forced to play the game shorthanded in the frontline. The Dons started the game with Darrell Tucker (the team's high scorer and rebounder) in street clothes and then due to foul trouble lost starter Alvin Broussard and reserve Brandon Queen to fouls. USF was then hurt on the boards, being out rebounded 25-11 after intermission. The Gaels also had a huge 20-11 edge in points at the free-throw line. This negated the successful USF press that forced 22 St. Mary's turnovers. John Cox led USF with 20 points, with James Bayless adding 15 despite taking only nine shots.

DONS ROLL OVER BROWN: In USF's first game without Darrell Tucker in the lineup, USF got off to a slow start, trailing visiting Brown 31-30 at the half January 4th. But the Dons blitzed the Bears 51-21 after intermission and took a 81-52 victory. Shamell Stallworth and John Cox scored 18 each, with James Bayless adding 16.

USF CONTINUES STRONG PLAY AT MICHIGAN: USF lost its second straight game on the road against a tough opponent 74-64 at Michigan on January 2nd. The Dons played well and the lead continued to change hands until USF point guard Jason Gaines was forced to the bench with his second personal foul with 9:22 left in the first half. Michigan eventually took an 8 point halftime lead. With 17:30 left Darrell Tucker was fouled hard by Michigan freshman Graham Brown dislocating his thumb. Still the Dons got to within 6 at the 7:27 mark and to within 5 (65-60) at the 2:25 mark. But after a Michigan basket, USF made their only second half turnover and could not get any closer.

DONS LOSE OT HEARTBREAKER TO CALIFORNIA: USF lost its fourth heartbreaker of the year when they lost a 77-70 overtime decision at Cal on December 30th.

USF took control of the game early, rolling to a 20-8 lead, but the host Bears were able to nab a 32-31 halftime lead. Cal expanded on their cushion and led the game 51-42 with 12:15 left. But USF then went on a 15-2 run to take a 57-53 lead that they held until Cal's Amit Tamir hit a three with 3.7 seconds left to tie it. Alvin Broussard rushed the ball up the floor, but his shot was less than a second to late to give USF the win. The Dons missed free-throws spelled doom in OT as USF missed two front-ends and lost 77-70.

DONS TOP FULLERTON: USF won its third straight game in easy fashion dispatching with Cal State Fullerton 75-61 Saturday night. The Dons trailing 18-13 scored 13 straight points to lead 26-18 on the way to a 34-25 halftime margin. The Dons made 6-10 first half threes (2-3 each by Tucker and Stallworth) and shot 52% from the floor before intermission. Ten USF players scored paced by 23 by Darrell Tucker (10-18 floor) with James Bayless and Shamell Stallworth adding 10. Tucker and Bayless each had double-doubles. USF shot 48.3% for the game.

DONS HAVE BEST PERFORMANCE OF YEAR TO BEAT BYU: The Dons had easily their best performance of the year in their 84-72 win over BYU. USF shot the ball well (50.9% - 60.7% in first half) and held BYU to 36.5% shooting. In a game of runs, USF down 5-2 outscored BYU 19-1 to take a 21-6 lead. The Dons led 46-27 at the half (biggest ½ margin of the year) before BYU went on a 19-3 run to get back to within 49-47. The Dons then went on a 22-13 run to push the lead to 11 again. BYU never got any closer than four points as Shamell Stallworth scored 27 second half points (of USF's 38) making 9 of 11 field goal attempts after intermission.

DONS TAKE CARE OF SEAWOLVES: It took a while to finally take the lead for good, but USF got its second win of the season on December 18th vs, Sonoma State. USF was paced by senior forward Darrell Tucker (22 points, 10 rebounds) and guard Shamell Stallworth (16 points on 7-8 shooting from the floor. James Bayless was again impressive, narrowly missing a double-double with 11 points and nine rebounds. USF led the game at halftime (its first halftime lead of the season and their second best first half point total 32-28. The Dons lost their second half lead at the 9:43 mark when the visitors tied the score at 50, but the USF easily closed the game out by scoring the next 7 points in a 17-4 run and won 73-59.

DONS FALL AFTER COMEBACK VS. FRESNO: USF had another heartbreaking loss in the Mayor's Game 74-71 loss to Fresno State. Fresno State came out and shot the lights out in the first half, hitting 65% of its field goal attempts, including 7 of 11 three-point shots. The Dons trailed 42-27 at halftime and later by 21 points (56-35) with 15:30 remaining in the game. USF went on a 22-6 run to get back into the game and trailed just 62-57 with 7:56 to play.

The Dons continued to press and eventually had the ball trailing by just one (72-71). USF then worked the offense and got a wide-open look at a three with 11 seconds left, but Jason Gaines shot bounced out of the hoop. After a USF foul, John Cox also had a look at a three with :02 remaining, but that fell short.

OFFENSE FAILS TO GET IT DONE AT SAC: USF played good defense, allowing just 62 points, but managed to score just 57 in a 62-57 loss at Sacramento State. USF had a five point first half lead and a six point second half lead, but the was outscored 12-2 as the Hornets stayed perfect at home. USF had a chance to tie with :13 left and down two, but John Cox (who led all scorers with 17 points) missed an open baseline jumper. Darrell Tucker scored 16 points and pulled 15 rebounds but scored just four points after intermission. The Dons dominated the boards 38-27.

USF GETS FIRST WIN: (12/2) Senior Darrell Tucker scored 33 points, John Cox added 15 and Brandon Queen and Shamell Stallworth 11 each to lead USF to an 82-71 victory over Southern. Southern came out smoking in the first half hitting 63.3% of their shots and took a 49-40 lead at the break. But USF coach Phil Mathews challenged his team to hold Southern to 30% shooting in the second half, and the Dons responded, only allowing 9 Southern field goals in 31 attempts. Meanwhile, USF hit 16 of 23 attempts after intermission to outscore Southern 42-22 after intermission.

OFFENSIVE STRUGGLE DOOMS DONS AT UCSB: (11/30) The Dons scored a season low 47 points at UCSB, with only Darrell Tucker (14 pts.) scoring in double figures. Coach Mathews was disappointed in the fact that Tucker did not get enough touches or shots (11 FGA). USF missed their first seven shots of the game, but recovered to take a brief 12-11 lead. The Dons trailed 31-21 at the half, fell behind by 22 early in the second half, and crept to within 11 at 53-42 with 6:53 remaining. But after pulling within 11 at 58-47 with 4:25 remaining were outscored 12-0 to close out the game.

DÉJÀ VU: (11/26) The Dons lost a heartbreaker in their home opener to Nevada 64-61 on a 30-foot buzzer beater by the Wolf Pack's Kirk Snyder. In a game in which both teams shot well below 40% (31.7% for Nevada, 37.0% for USF), the Dons appeared to be in control after Mike Chambers hit a three-pointer with 1:66 remaining giving the Dons a 59-53 lead. But two turnovers and a dropped defensive rebound enabled Nevada to tie it and later go ahead with :23 ticks left. Darrell Tucker, who led all scorers and rebounders with 26 points and 12 rebounds tied the game with 3.9 seconds left on two free-throws setting up the final play. The Déjà vu was the similarity to a tough loss the Dons suffered at home last year to Pacific when the Dons also lost on a buzzer beater by Jono Metzger-Jones on December 15th from almost the identical spot.

A LATE WAKE UP CALL: (11/23) The Dons played a noon game at Continental Airlines Arena Saturday, and might have missed their wakeup call, starting the game slowly. In fact, USF made just one of its first ten shots and just 7 of 28 before halftime. Meanwhile, Seton Hall hit 17 of 33 first half shots, 5 of 9 three's. The Dons fell behind early 22-5 and chased the hosts the rest of the night before losing 77-51. USF was paced by 16 points by John Cox and 14 by Jovan Harris, while Darrell Tucker (who took just nine shots) scored nine points and pulled seven rebounds.

INGERSON TO USF: Guard Dommanic Ingerson, a former prep star who left California to attend the University of Michigan, has signed a basketball scholarship agreement and is transferring to the University of San Francisco, coach Philip Mathews announced Dec. 30th.

Ingerson was a nationally ranked recruit when he signed with Michigan, and was named Santa Barbara "Player of the Year." He previously attended McClymonds High School in Oakland.

He had a solid first season at Michigan, averaging 8.1 points and 1.7 rebounds per game, with a high of 23 vs. Fairfield and 21 vs. Ohio State. He played in all 29 games at Michigan, averaging 26 minutes per contest. He was Michigan's leading scorer last season in the game vs. USF in the Pete Newell Challenge in Oakland (16 points).

Ingerson saw limited action in Michigan's exhibition games this season and will be eligible to play for USF at the end of the 2003 fall semester finals.

"We are thrilled to have a talent like Dommanic come to USF," said Dons head coach Philip Mathews. "Along with the players we have already signed, we have had a great recruiting year."

DONS SIGN FOUR PLAYERS TO LETTERS OF INTENT

Julian Sensley	So.	6-9	230	F	Los Angeles CC, St. Thomas More Sch. (Kailua, HI)
Bret Rubin, Jr.	Fr.	6-1	165	G	Mission HS (San Francisco, CA)
Alan Wiggins, Jr.	Fr.	6-7	200	F	Horizon HS (San Diego, CA)
Kenneth Barnes	Jr.	6-7	210	F	Hartnell JC, Rich East HS (Chicago Heights, IL)

San Francisco, CA --(Nov. 19, 2002) University of San Francisco head basketball coach Philip Mathews today announced the signing of four players, Julian Sensley, a nationally ranked recruit, Alan Wiggins, son of former major league baseball player Alan Wiggins; San Francisco prep point guard Bret Rubin; and junior college star Kenneth Barnes to NCAA Letters of Intent.

Sensley, who was the 6th ranked player in the nation when he originally signed with Cal out of St. Thomas Moore School in Connecticut, gives the Dons an impressive forward to replace senior Darrell Tucker next season. Sensley is currently playing at Los Angeles City College. "Julian is an impressive talent," says Dons' head coach Phil Mathews. "He has the ability to play inside or outside and is a tremendously unselfish player. He has the size to score inside and the finesse to hit the outside shot."

Sensley led St. Thomas Moore to two Class A State Titles.

Wiggins, a 6-7 power forward averaged 19.7 points and 9.5 rebounds a game at Poway High School last season, but is currently attending Horizon High School. He was a "Top 25" selection at the Fullcourt Press All-West Camp in July and led Team San Diego to the championship game of the ARC tournament. He is the son of the late Alan Wiggins, Sr. who played for the San Diego Padres and Baltimore Orioles. "Wiggins is an athletic player with a lot of talent," says Mathews. "He will fit well into our program."

"Bret Rubin is a point guard who can lead an offense and score," says Mathews. The versatile 6-1 guard averaged 24 points and 8 assists at Mission High School in the City last season. "We are very happy to keep Bret at home, as the many other fine Bay Area players who have come to USF."

Kenneth Barnes is a power forward from Hartnell College who averaged 16.1 points, 8.5 rebounds and 3 blocks last season. "Kenneth is a strong inside player that will help us defend and can score in the frontline."

"I am very pleased with our recruiting class," concluded Mathews. "We got a national level recruit in Sensley, a point guard in Rubin, a power player in Barnes, and an athletic wing in Wiggins. This should give us one of the top recruiting classes on the West Coast."

USF TO HOST WEST REGIONALS IN 2006: The University of San Francisco has announced that they have been selected to host the 2006 NCAA men's basketball West Regional Finals at the Oakland Arena on March 23 & 25, 2006.

It is the first time that USF has hosted this prestigious event and will be the first time that Oakland has hosted the event since 1995. The building also hosted the 1990 NCAA West regionals.

"We are very proud that the NCAA selected us and Oakland to host one of the biggest events of the sports year," said USF Executive Director of Athletics Bill Hogan. "We will have four 'Sweet 16' teams playing, and one of the teams will advance to the Final Four. It will be a great weekend for Bay Area basketball fans."

USF will partner with SMG, a sports management group that operates the Coliseum, to host the event. SMG is also hosting this season's Final Four in New Orleans.

The other sites for the Regional Finals in 2006 will be the MCI Center (Washington, DC), Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA) and Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome (Twin Cities, MN).

The West region First and second rounds will be played at the Huntsman Center in Salt Lake City and Cox Arena in San Diego, with the winners advancing to Oakland. The Western Regional winner will advance to the 2006 NCAA Final Four in Indianapolis.
