

2011 South Carolina Football Parking

Gamecock Football Fans:

Thank you for your attendance at Williams-Brice Stadium during the 2010 Gamecock football season as the team defeated top-ranked Alabama and battled to win its first SEC East title. We look forward to kicking off another exciting season at home on September 17, 2011. Please be reminded the Farmers Market will undergo renovation following the 2011 football season. Parking for the 2012 football season will be assigned based on Gamecock Club priority points. It is also anticipated that Stadium parking will be relocated to other lots for the 2012 football season.

Do not complete this form if you are renewing the same parking space(s) you purchased during the 2010 season. Please refer to your ticket application or online account to renew the same space(s) and submit payment. If you did not purchase parking last season or if you would like to relocate the space(s) you had in 2010, please complete and return the form below. If you are requesting handicapped parking, please include a copy of your placard. As a reminder, all parking is assigned based on Gamecock Club priority points.

Parking applications are due by May 13, 2011 and should be returned to:
South Carolina Athletics Ticket Office, 801 Lincoln Street, Columbia, SC 29208

For questions related to parking, please call
