Head Coach

7th/15th Year at San Diego State; 20th Year Overall

Ohio Wesleyan '79, Ohio State '81

The winningest coach in SDSU women's basketball history, Beth Burns enters her 20th season as a collegiate head coach and her 15th overall at the helm of the Aztecs.

Since returning for her second stint on Montezuma Mesa in 2005, Burns has taken the program to new heights, including a trip to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen, back-to-back NCAA tournament appearances and both a conference regular-season and tournament title.

A year ago, the Aztecs had three players tabbed for all-league honors, including four-time pick Paris Johnson and Mountain West Newcomer of the Year Courtney Clements. SDSU recorded at least 12 victories for the fifth consecutive season and advanced to the title game of all three of its non-conference tournaments.

In 2009-10, Burns helped the Aztecs advance to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen for the first time since the field expanded to 64 teams. SDSU notched victories over a pair of top 25 foes in No. 10 West Virginia and defeated No. 17 Texas on the Longhorns' home floor. The 11th-seeded Aztecs were the lowest seed to advance to the Round of 16 in 2010 and lowest overall since 2007.

San Diego State earned an automatic bid to the 2010 NAAs after a dramatic overtime victory over Utah at the Mountain West Conference championships in Las Vegas, Nev. The Aztecs, playing in their third straight MWC title game, overcame an eight-point deficit by going on a 22-4 run in the final nine minutes, including overtime, to secure the championship.

As a team, SDSU ended the campaign with a 23-11 overall record and garnered a No. 20 national ranking in the final ESPN/USA Today coaches poll, a program first since the poll started in 1986.

Individually, senior guard Jené Morris was named an honorable mention All-American, MWC Defensive Player of the Year and first-team all-league selection for the second year in a row, before becoming the first-ever Aztec selected in the WNBA Draft. Morris was the 11th overall pick in the first round by the Indiana Fever and continues to play professionally overseas.

In addition, senior point guard Quenese Davis capped her career by being named the MWC tournament MVP and was also a third-team all-league pick, while then junior center Paris Johnson earned second-team all-MWC accolades.

Following the season, Burns was rewarded with a five-year contract extension running through 2014-15.

In 2008-09, San Diego State posted its first 20-win campaign in 12 years, finishing 24-8 overall and 13-3 in conference action. The Aztecs won a share of the Mountain West regular season title, advanced to the MWC tournament championship game for the second consecutive year and garnered SDSU's first NCAA bid since 1997.

The list of accomplishments for Burns' 2008-09 squad continued with a perfect regular season home record of 14-0, highlighted by the Aztecs' stunning victory over fourth-ranked and previously unbeaten Texas to claim the San Diego Surf 'N Slam title in late December. The win over the Longhorns was San Diego State's first against a ranked team since 1994.

Big wins over established programs followed during conference play, including a sweep of New Mexico, the Aztecs' first victory at BYU in 14 years and ending Utah's 25-game MWC win streak.

SDSU served as perfect hosts to the NCAA first and second rounds at Cox Arena, knocking off DePaul, 76-70, for its first postseason victory in 15 seasons, before falling to eventual Final Four participant Stanford.

Individually, Burns helped Morris, the MWC Defensive Player of the Year, become Aztec basketball's first honorable mention All-American since 1994. Morris, along with then sophomore Paris Johnson, also became the first SDSU players to be chosen first-team all-MWC in the league history. The duo and Davis accounted for three of the five spots on the conference's all-defensive squad.

For her efforts, Burns was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year, marking the fourth such honor of her career at San Diego State.

In 2007-08, Burns led the Aztecs to within an eyelash of the NCAA tournament. The sixth seed in the Mountain West Conference tournament, SDSU defeat-

San Diego State went 18-13 overall and 7-9 in MWC play to finish in a tie for fifth with Brigham Young. The Aztecs' seven league wins and fifth-place showing was their best-ever in the history of the MWC. Burns helped SDSU lead the league in assists per game (15.71), steals per game (12.61) and turnover margin (+5.81), and rank second with 4.35 blocks per game.

Burns coached three players to all-conference selections, the program's most in MWC history, as then sophomore Morris earned second-team accolades, while then freshmen Allison Duffy and Paris Johnson each received honorable mention honors. Morris and Duffy also became the first two Aztecs to ever be selected to the MWC all-tournament team.

Off the court, seven players were honored at the department's annual scholar-athlete awards banquet, which recognizes student-athletes with at least a 3.0 cumulative or 3.2 semester GPA.

The previous season, Burns led the Aztecs to their most wins since 2000-01, finishing as the 11th-most improved team in NCAA Division I and recording the biggest turnaround in back-to-back seasons in Mountain West Conference history. Burns helped point guard Davis lead the league and rank first nationally among freshmen in assists per game, while center Desiree Johnson was first in the MWC in blocked shots per game for the second year in a row.

Burns has also helped the program find success in both the classroom and on the recruiting trail. In the spring of 2007, 10 players were recognized at the department's annual scholar-athlete awards banquet. Among the 10 were Shanna Demus, who received the school's Academic Initiative Medal for her persistent commitment toward meeting her academic goals, and Kate Eveland, who became a member of the elite Phi Beta Kappa honor society and would later graduate magna cum laude.

On the recruiting trail, Burns and her staff signed two San Diego Union-Tribune section players of the year, including two-time winner, Paris Johnson.

In 2005-06, Burns' first year back was a tough one, as the Aztecs entered the campaign with just six of 15 players with previous Division I experience. Injuries, youth and a lack of depth were key issues, while SDSU played 15 of its 27 games against teams advancing to the postseason, including 12 in league play alone.

Senior Michelle Strawberry earned conference honorable mention honors and then junior Desiree Johnson led the league in blocked shots. Three Aztecs were named to the Mountain West Conference all-academic squad, with two also garnering MWC scholar-athlete accolades.

Since returning to SDSU, Burns has resumed an active role in the campus and local community. In the summer of 2008, she was honored with the YWCA's Tribute to Women and Industry (TWIN) award for her outstanding achievements, leadership and contributions to her profession. Burns also was tabbed a Girls Scout "Cool Person of the Year" and has previously served as SDSU's honorary Homecoming chair.

From 1989-97, Burns took the Aztecs full circle, going from 7-23 her first year to 23-7 in her final campaign. Along the way, she compiled a 151-83 record and a 64.5 winning percentage, the best in school history.

Burns' impact was almost instantaneous. The Aztecs doubled their win total from her first to her second season and ushered in the school's move to the Western Athletic Conference with a 14-14 record.

A year later in 1991-92, SDSU won five of its first six outings and went on to post an 18-11 overall record, tallying its first victory at a conference tournament in four seasons.

The team used that momentum heading into a 1992-93 campaign which ended in the Aztecs' first trip to the NCAA tournament in eight years.

SDSU advanced to the 1993 NCAAAs with the help of early season victories over the likes of UCLA, USC, St. John's, Oregon State, Georgia and Villanova. The Aztecs also tied for second in the final WAC regular-season standings, which at the time, was the program's best-ever conference finish.

Burns' teams would go on to dominate the Western Athletic Conference from 1994-97, capturing a pair of tournament championships and three regular-season titles. The 1993-94 team set a school record for victories with 26, while the 1994-95 squad was a perfect 14-0 in league play.

The Aztecs continued their success the following two years by going 20-8 in 1995-96, including a perfect 13-0 at home, and 23-7 in 1996-97, leading the nation in scoring defense (52.0 ppg.).

In all, Burns led SDSU to four, 20-plus win seasons and four NCAA tournament appearances (1993, 1994, 1995, 1997).

Burns coached 13 first team all-conference picks in her time at SDSU, including a pair of WAC players of the year in Kieishsha Garnes (1991) and Christina Murguia (1995). Guard Falisha Wright became just the second Aztec women's basketball player to be named an All-American, earning honorable mention accolades in 1993 and 1994. She finished her four-year career as the school's all-time assists leader and, along with Garnes, has been inducted into the Aztec Hall of Fame.

The postseason honors were not just limited to her players, as Burns was a three-time WAC coach of the year (1994, 1995, 1997) and was the district coach of the year in 1995. SDSU also had seven conference all-academic selections, headlined by three-time winner Olivia DiCamilli.

Burns departed San Diego State in 1997 to take the head women's basketball position at Ohio State, where she first started her collegiate coaching career.

In five seasons with the Buckeyes, Burns notched an 82-65 overall record, highlighted by a WNIT title in 2001 and a trip to the NCAA tournament in 1999.

Two OSU players earned first team all-Big Ten honors and LaToya Turner was named conference freshman of the year in 2000. The Buckeyes also excelled in the classroom as 14 players received Big Ten all-academic accolades.

demetic accolades.

Burns was an active part of the Columbus community, establishing the Beth Burns Bucks for Breast Cancer Research fund at the OSU/James Cancer Hospital, and putting together an annual fundraiser, OSU Bounce for Bucks, for cancer research.

Off the court, the Chatham, N.J., native joined some of the game's elite coaches, Ceal Barry (Colorado), the late Kay Yow (North Carolina State) and Pat Summitt (Tennessee), as a member of the USA Basketball Olympic team selection committee from 1997-2000.

Burns returned to San Diego from Ohio in 2001, as the owner and operator of her own fitness and basketball instruction business, BBHoops, before serving as the strength and conditioning coach for the women's basketball program at Stanford in 2004-05. The Cardinal finished the regular season ranked first in the nation, advanced to the Elite Eight and won the Pac-10 regular season and championship titles.

Burns' collegiate coaching career began at Ohio State as a graduate assistant from 1979-81, under current Stanford head coach Tara VanDerveer. She then spent two seasons as an assistant coach at East Carolina (1981-83), helping the Lady Pirates to a No. 17 national ranking, before moving to Colorado (1983-88), where the Buffaloes made their first-ever NCAA tournament appearance in 1987-88.

Prior to taking her first head coaching job, Burns was an assistant coach at North Carolina State when the Wolfpack advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1989.

Burns has a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Ohio Wesleyan University (1979), where she was the school's all-time leading rebounder and garnered the most outstanding female student-athlete award as a senior. In 1984, her first year of eligibility, she was inducted into the Battling Bishops' athletic hall of fame.

This past summer, Burns was appointed as the secretary of the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Board of Directors' Executive Committee. She previously served as a Division I at-large representative on the organization's 23-member board the last two years and was a committee member for the Jostens-Berenson Lifetime Achievement Award, which was given to the late Kay Yow in 2008-09. Burns has also been a part of the voting panel for the WBCA/USA Today Coaches Top 25 national weekly poll.

Burns has a master's degree in physical education from Ohio State (1981) and is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Jualeah Woods enters her seventh season at San Diego State and earlier this year, was promoted from assistant coach to associate head coach.

Woods is the Aztecs' recruiting coordinator, while her on-court duties include working with the forwards and centers, as well as concentrating on team defense. Overall, she has 13 years of experience coaching at the NCAA Division I level.

Since her arrival in May 2005, Woods immediately got to work on the recruiting trail, playing an instrumental part in laying a strong foundation for the future success of Aztec basketball.

During her time on The Mesa, SDSU has won a Mountain West Conference regular season and tournament title, and recorded back-to-back NCAA appearances, including a trip to the Sweet Sixteen in 2010.

On the court, she helped tutor four-time all-conference center Paris Johnson, who finished her career as the school's all-time leader in blocks and consecutive starts. Woods also mentored 2010 MWC Newcomer of the Year forward Jessika Bradley, who was tabbed a third-team all-league pick as a senior.

Before coming to San Diego State, Woods was an assistant coach at Oregon State for five years, serving as the program's recruiting coordinator for the last three seasons. The Beavers made four consecutive WNIT appearances from 2001-04, and advanced to the quarterfinals in 2004.

Woods was an assistant coach for two seasons at California and started her coaching career at Santa Monica High School as both an assistant and later as the head girls' basketball coach from 1994-97.

She was a four-year starter at small forward and two-time team captain at USC from 1990-94. The Berkeley, Calif., native helped lead the Women of Troy to four NCAA tournament appearances, including trips to the Elite Eight in 1993 and 1994 and the Sweet 16 in 1992.

Woods earned her bachelor's degree in public administration from USC in 1994.

Tammi Reiss, who played and coached in the WNBA and was an All-American at Virginia, was hired this past April and begins her first season as an assistant coach. She will be involved in every facet of the program, including working primarily with the team's guards.

Reiss was an assistant coach for the WNBA Utah Starzz from 2001-02, before joining the franchise in its move to San Antonio in 2003. She helped head coach Candi Harvey with game and practice preparation, working primarily with the team's guards. Her other responsibilities included opponent scouting, talent evaluation, game management, player development and community relations.

The Starzz made their first-ever playoff appearance in 2001 and a year later, compiled a franchise-best 20-13 record en route to the Western Conference finals, where they fell to the eventual WNBA Champion Los Angeles Sparks.

The Eldred, N.Y., native spent three seasons as an assistant coach at her alma mater, when Virginia advanced to the Elite Eight in 1995 and 1996, made it to the Sweet 16 in 1994 and claimed a pair of ACC regular-season titles in 1994 and 1995. Reiss assisted legendary head coach Debbie Ryan in all aspects of the program, including recruiting, game and practice preparation, player development, opponent scouting, film exchange and camp coordination.

One of the all-time greats in Virginia basketball history, she played for the Cavaliers from 1988-92, when the team made three consecutive Final Four appearances and earned two ACC regular-season and tournament titles. Reiss garnered both Kodak and USBWA All-America honors as a senior in 1992, was a four-time all-league honoree and twice was tabbed to the ACC championship all-tournament squad. The guard ended her career ranked first in school history in 3-pointers (139) and 3-point field-goal percentage (.416) and was second in points (1,842) and free throws (437).

Off the court, Reiss excelled in the classroom, where she was honored as an Academic All-American as a senior and was a three-time conference all-academic pick. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from UVA in sports management in 1992, and was selected to the Atlantic Coast Conference 50th anniversary women's basketball team in 2002.

Following her collegiate career, Reiss was chosen by the Utah Starzz in the first round (fifth pick overall) of the inaugural WNBA Draft in 1997. She averaged 7.2 points, 2.7 assists and 2.3 rebounds per outing in two seasons with the Starzz.

More recently, she was the personal training director at Gold's Gym and an operations manager for ProTech in the Salt Lake City, Utah, area. Reiss has also provided individual basketball instruction as owner and co-founder of Hoop Dream, Inc., as well as T & R Management.

Jorge Cerna

Assistant Coach
Fourth Year at San Diego/Fourth Year Overall
San Diego State '06, San Diego State '10

Jorge Cerna is in his second year as an assistant coach with the Aztecs, after spending two seasons as the team's director of player development.

In his current position, Cerna helps with all elements of the program, including recruiting, scouting of future opponents, coordinating of all electronic and hard mail correspondence and player development. On the court, he works directly with the SDSU forwards and centers.

Cerna has been a part of the Aztec basketball staff that has guided the program to two NCAA tournament bids, including a spot in the 2010 NCAA Sweet Sixteen. SDSU also logged back-to-back 20-win campaigns and has claimed both an MWC regular season and conference championship title during his stay.

In his former role as the team's director of player development, some of his job duties included coordinating film exchange, editing game and practice film, developing team highlight videos and supervising student managers.

Cerna graduated from Christian High School in 2001, where he played four years of varsity basketball. While a student at San Diego State, he coached at Marian Catholic High School from 2002-05, serving as the boys' freshman team coach as well as an assistant with the boys' and girls' varsity squads.

The San Diego native became a student manager for the Aztec men's basketball team in May 2005, and over the next three seasons helped with practice set-up, game statistics, summer camps and team travel. Cerna supervised other student managers and helped the squad's video coordinator with film exchange and game scout edits.

Cerna earned his bachelor's degree in social science in December 2006, and recently received his master's of arts degree in kinesiology from SDSU in 2010.

He and his wife, the former Sarah Schuetz, were married earlier this year.

Tammy Stephens

Director of Basketball Operations
Seventh Year at San Diego State/11th Overall
Cal State Fullerton '81, USD '91

With 10 years of experience as a director of basketball operations at the Division I level, Tammy Stephens enters her seventh season with the Aztecs.

At SDSU, Stephens plays a critical role in the Aztec basketball program. She handles all of the off-the-court responsibilities relative to the budget, facilities and travel. She also coordinates community service projects, the season ticket campaign, equipment, scheduling and fundraising.

Stephens works with the Aztec Club as the team's point person for the "Full Court Press" booster club and establishes on-going relationships with Aztec basketball alumnae.

In 2004-05, Stephens was a part of coach Tara VanDerveer's staff at Stanford, helping the Cardinal to a No. 1 national ranking, a 32-3 record and a trip to the NCAA Elite Eight. She coordinated the team's practice facilities and worked with the booster club in its fundraising efforts. She also was the primary contact for summer camps and was responsible for the Cardinal's game scheduling for the 2005-06 campaign.

Stephens was the director of basketball operations at Ohio State from 1997-2000. In that position, she managed the day-to-day operations of the Buckeye program, which included overseeing the budget, hiring and supervising the office staff and coordinating team travel. She also was in charge of summer camps and was the community relations liaison.

Before leaving for Ohio State, Stephens was an assistant women's tennis coach at the University of San Diego from 1993-97. She graduated in 1981 from Cal State Fullerton with a bachelor's degree in sociology and has a master's of education in counseling from USD.

Mike Bynum, a former student manager with the Aztec men's basketball squad and assistant varsity coach at Scripps Ranch High, is in his second year as the Aztecs' director of player development

Bynum's job duties include coordinating film exchange, editing game and practice film, developing team highlight videos and supervising student managers. He also assists director of basketball operations Tammy Stephens in the planning and setting up of all women's basketball events.

Before returning to SDSU, Bynum was as an assistant varsity coach with the boys' team at Scripps Ranch High School under head coach Brian Keiser. Bynum was in charge of the Falcons' video editing, helped scout future opponents and on the court, worked with the squad's defense who gave up the fewest points per game in San Diego. Scripps Ranch went 16-11 overall and won two tournaments during the 2009-10 campaign.

Bynum became a student manager for the Aztec men's basketball team in Sept. 2004, and over the next five seasons helped with practice set-up, game statistics, summer camps and team travel. Bynum supervised other student managers and assisted the squad's video coordinator with opponent scout edits. SDSU boasted a 103-61 record during his five-year stint, recording four-straight, 20-win seasons and claiming the 2005-06 Mountain West Conference regular season and tournament championships.

In the summer of 2009, Bynum was a counselor at both LeBron James King's Academy and the Steve Fisher Basketball Camp, where he supervised basketball players of various age groups, provided skill instruction and helped conduct drills.

Originally from Toronto, Bynum lived in San Francisco, Washington D.C. and Dallas before moving to San Diego where he attended Scripps Ranch High School, graduating in 2004. He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from San Diego State in May 2009 and was a member of the Lambda Pi Eta Honor Society. His father, Rod Bynum, is the head assistant men's basketball coach at McMaster University in Hamilton, Ontario.

Tara Morrison

Administrative Assistant
Fifth Year at San Diego State
Adams State '01

Tara Morrison enters her fifth year at San Diego State and her fourth as the team's administrative assistant. In her position, Morrison handles the daily operations and administrative duties of the women's basketball office. She helps the staff organize team travel, daily schedules and the budget. She also works closely with the members of the "Full Court Press Club" booster group by organizing and running the club's events.

In 2007-08, the Arvada, Colo., native served as the team's head manager after six years as a Division I assistant coach.

Morrison was an assistant women's basketball coach at Binghamton

University in Binghamton, N.Y. from 2005-07. Her responsibilities included coaching the Bearcats' forwards and post players, while also helping with the team's recruiting, academics, scouting and summer camps. Binghamton finished in the top four of the America East in each of her two seasons and twice made semifinal appearances at the league championships.

Before moving to New York, Morrison was an assistant from 2001-05 at the University of Maine under head coach Sharon Versyp. The Black Bears were 86-34 overall during her four-year stay, including a 58-10 mark in conference play. Maine claimed three straight America East regular seasons titles from 2003-05, and advanced to the postseason on three occasions, including a trip to the NCAA tournament in 2004.

Her duties with the Black Bears involved coaching the forward and post players, including two-time America East Conference Player of the Year Heather Ernest. Morrison also coordinated team travel and film exchange and helped with film editing, scouting, recruiting, summer camps and academics.

A 2001 graduate of Adams State College in Alamosa, Colo., she was a three-year basketball letterwinner at forward for the Grizzlies, after playing one season at the University of Colorado at Colorado Springs. Morrison, who has a bachelor's degree in exercise physiology with a minor in coaching, was the head coach of the Mile Hi Magic Girl's Basketball Club in Denver, Colo., during the summer from 1999-2001.

Morrison is a certified personal trainer and resides in San Diego.

Randy Shelton

Strength & Conditioning Coach
Second Year at San Diego State
San Diego State '00

Randy Shelton is in his first season as the women's basketball team's strength and conditioning coach.

Shelton, the owner and operator of High Voltage Fitness in nearby La Jolla, was the personal training coordinator at the Aztec Recreation Center (1998-2008), as well as the owner and operator of Rapid Speed for seven years prior to coming to Montezuma Mesa.

Shelton also works with the SDSU men's basketball team and has previously trained several former Aztec basketball and football players.

A 2000 graduate of San Diego State, Shelton is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association and is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS).

Shelton is married to the former Waleska Valle.
