Camp Description

The Siena College Baseball Summer High School Camp is designed for High School players going into their junior, and senior years, and will allow the players to gain some added experience at their position of interest. The players will have the opportunity to show their skills in front of the staff as well as other college coaches in attendance. Each player will be able to perform at their primary position of choice. The option to work out at a secondary position is also available for a slight extra cost. The camp will be broken up into two sessions. Defensive Positional and Hitting Discussions by the staff and Evaluations related to each players preferred positions. If time and enrollment allow, a simulated game will be played. For a free brochure and registration please contact Head Coach Tony Rossi by e-mail.
