1. A coach speaks with a prospect for 5 minutes after the prospect has been dismissed following a contest. This interaction would be considered an evaluation.

   True  False

2. A coach speaks to HS coach following HS game regarding a prospect’s athletics ability. There is no interaction with the prospect. The interaction between the coach and HS coach would be considered an evaluation.

   True  False

3. It is permissible to meet with a HS counselor at the HS during a Quiet Period.

   True  False

4. A prospect may receive complimentary tickets during a Dead Period.

   True  False

5. A booster can lose their status if they haven’t made a contribution to SJSU in the last ten years.

   True  False

6. A call via Skype must be counted as a telephone call.

   True  False

7. If a telephone call limitation has been reached, it is permissible to call the prospect to leave a voice message.

   True  False

8. A prospect may call a coach at any time.

   True  False

9. During half time of a SJSU competition, it is permissible for a coach to call a prospect.

   True  False

10. If a prospect’s registration for an institutional camp is incomplete, it is permissible to call the prospect regarding his/her camp registration at any time.

    True  False
11. If an evaluation and a contact occur on the same day it will be counted as a contact and an evaluation.

   True   False

12. If a coach contacts a prospect at school and then again at the prospect’s home two hours later, this will count as only one contact for the day.

   True   False

13. It is permissible to use a prospect’s parent to relay information to a prospect participating in competition.

   True   False

14. It is not permissible to deliver an NLI to a prospect off-campus.

   True   False

15. If a coach visits an educational institution, all prospects at the institution will be charged with an evaluation.

   True   False

16. If an institution is participating in an open event against prospects, the day must count as an evaluation.

   True   False

17. In sports other than volleyball, a coach who is involved with a local sports club must count all evaluations while acting in that capacity.

   True   False

18. It is permissible to send general correspondence to a prospect on or after November 1 of the prospect’s junior year.

   True   False

19. When sending general correspondence, a coach may write in red ink on a sheet of paper that is not the letterhead.

   True   False

20. Multiple sheets of letterhead may be sent in a single envelope to a prospect.

   True   False

21. It is permissible to provide a prospect on an unofficial visit with a game program during the visit.

   True   False
22. It is permissible to include a logo on the inside fold of an institutional note card sent to prospects.

   True   False

23. It is permissible to send a prospect a media guide on a flash drive or DVD.

   True   False

24. It is permissible to include a color attachment in an email.

   True   False

25. An entity outside of the institution may create a computer generated recruiting presentation.

   True   False