MEET YOUR NEW EQUIPMENT MANAGER.

With EZ Flex™ Seating, a Motion Activated Liftgate, and Nissan's class-exclusive Divide-N-Hide® Cargo System, the 2017 Nissan Rogue has room for just about everything, and everyone, you need. Including team spirit. Take on game day.
He stands 6-foot-3, and weighs over 300 pounds. He has as much responsibility, and knowledge to of the Spartans offense as the quarterback. He's not flashy, you may even miss him on Saturdays. His name is Keoni Taylor.

Keoni, who is a native of Honolulu, Hawai'i, was named to the 2017 Rimington Trophy Watch List, an award given to the best center in college football. In addition he is on the Polynesian College Player of the Year Watch List.

His father put him in football to control his weight, and health as a kid when they moved to Bakersfield, California.

“My dad has cared for us since we were eight. He always got dinner on the table, and made sure we got what we needed. I have one brother, Kapena, who is 17. My sister, Kahalo, is 21. Keno, Kahalo, Kapena – we are the ‘cool K-Mart kids.’ For five years, we lived next to K-Mart so that’s what we called ourselves.

“I have been playing football since I was 12, and it is my life. I’ve always been lineman because I was so big. There was a weight limit when I was in high school, and I had to cut weight so that I would be eligible to play. My freshman year at Garces High School, I was six feet tall and 320 pounds. I couldn’t even fit into the jersey for picture day. It was before school started, and before our conditioning. By the time the end of the season came around, I was down to 275 pounds.”

CHANGE OF SCENERY

Five years ago, Keoni changed his setting from Bakersfield to downtown San Jose. He became a part of a Spartan family, and formed new friendships.

“I came to San José State because it was the best place for me to get an education and still be close to Bakersfield. I like being around the other offensive linemen. The best part about playing football is having to depend on one another, and work together as a unit. The team is a family, but I am especially close to everyone on the offensive line. I spend four-to-five hours every day with my unit.

“I love playing on the offensive line, and being the center, because I get to make the blocking calls. I study a ton of film on our opponent, and when I the quarterback calls the play, my job is to tell people where to go. I put them in the best position possible to get the play accomplished. I know as much as the quarterback about what goes on at the line of scrimmage.”

FRIENDSHIPS AND FREEDOM

Keoni looks for opportunities to give back to the community, but makes sure his priorities are always in line with his future goals.

“I joined Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity a couple years ago for fun outside of football. I enjoy being in a fraternity because it gives me the opportunity to involve myself in the community. It was rewarding being a part of the Autism Speaks program, and Breast Cancer Awareness program. Along with my fraternity, I was also given the chance to give back to the community through opportunities on the football team.”

Keoni Taylor may not be flashy and he is okay with that. He has as much responsibility in the success of the offense as the quarterback, but he goes about his job in anonymity. Just look for him. He’ll be taking the wheel on the line of scrimmage.

—Brock Hart is in his second year as a student assistant in the SJSU Athletics Media Relations Department.

Head Coach Brent Brennan

Brent Brennan returned to San José State University on December 8, 2016, as the Spartans’ new head football coach.

The 44-year old Brennan was an assistant coach with the Spartans during the 2005 through 2010 seasons under head coaches Dick Tomey and Mike MacIntyre.

From 2011 through 2016, he coached receivers at Oregon State. The Beavers played Texas in the 2012 Alamo Bowl and won the 2013 Hawaii Bowl over Boise State. Oregon State had one of the best passing offenses in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) ranking in the top-20 in 2011 (19th), 2012 (20th) and 2013 (3rd).

At Oregon State, he coached All-American wide receivers Brandin Cooks and Markus Wheaton and former school career pass receiving leader James Rodgers. Cooks, the 2013 Biletnikoff Award winner signifying the nation’s top wide receivers, completed three prolific seasons with the New Orleans Saints and signed with the New England Patriots during player free agency.

Brennan first joined the Spartans in January 2005 after being named San Diego State’s quarterbacks coach. He had a variety of duties at San Jose State. Brennan coached wide receivers, tight ends and offensive tackles, was a special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

“Brent has high energy, cares about young men, is an excellent recruiter and has great football knowledge. San José State got the right coach.”

Former San José State and current University of Colorado head football coach Mike MacIntyre

Five wide receivers he recruited or coached are among the Spartans’ top-10 career pass receiving leaders with 146 or more receptions. Brennan coached San Jose State’s only two players with at least 200 career receptions and 3,000 career receiving yards, Noel Grigsby and Chandler Jones. He also coached Ryan Otten, the Spartans’ career leader for receptions, receiving yards and touchdown catches by a tight end.

As the special teams coordinator, the 2008 Spartans were 20th nationally in kickoff returns and the 2007 team was ninth in punt returns.

Coach Brennan, at the announcement of his hiring as SJSU head football coach, with former Spartan and NFL wide receiver James Jones.
A native of San Jose, Brennan began his coaching career at Woodside (Calif.) High School in 1996. He served as a graduate assistant at the University of Hawaii in 1998, at the University of Washington in 1999 and at the University of Arizona in 2000. From 2001 through 2004, he was the receivers coach and recruiting coordinator at Cal Poly.

“Brent is an excellent choice as head football coach for the Spartans. He prepared well for this opportunity and will bring rare energy and ability to connect to the job. His Spartan roots through his deceased dad, Steve, and mom, Beth, run deep and swell with pride at this moment!!“

Former San José State head football coach Dick Tomey

As a college player, Brennan was a wide receiver for the 1991 through 1995 UCLA teams and lettered on the Bruins’ 1993 Rose Bowl Squad. He majored in history and graduated from UCLA in 1996.

Brennan is a second-generation Spartan. His dad, the late Steve Brennan, was an end who lettered in the 1967 season. Brent and his wife, Courtney, have two daughters, Blake and Casey, and a son, Scott.

Hey Spartans
Are you ready for some Tacos?
San José State University, Silicon Valley’s metropolitan university, is preeminent in broadly educating leaders and professionals for an increasingly complex and global society.

Located in the heart of the Silicon Valley, the university has aided the development of the computer industry and the resulting technological advances in our nation by providing the largest source of engineering, science and business graduates to Silicon Valley companies.

Graduating about 7,000 students annually, San José State University also provides the professional infrastructure for the region – from teachers to social workers to artists to law enforcement officers to nurses.

The terms, “leaders and professionals,” describe not just the types of graduates who earn their degrees, but also the roles they assume in their communities and in their fields of endeavor.

The 2017-18 San José State women’s basketball team will have a new look this year. In a poll of the country’s Division I women’s basketball media relations directors, the Spartans are the second youngest team in the nation, based on percentage of freshman and sophomores on the roster.

Of the 15 Spartans, which make up the 2017-18 roster, 12 are underclassmen (80 percent). Only the University of North Carolina Greensboro has a higher percentage. They have 14 players on their roster, of which 12 are underclassmen (85.7 percent).

“We’ve had some really good practices leading up to last week’s scrimmage and we have less than a week before the games start to count,” said fifth-year head coach Jamie Craighead. “We are very young and very energetic. Keeping them focused and having consistent quality practices can be a bit of a challenge, but I feel really good about this group and the work we’ve put in so far.

“(Having such a young team) is kind of like having a blank slate. There aren’t a lot of returners who are set in their ways, so we can change some things. We’ve made some adjustments both offensively and defensively, which will suit our current personnel and our strengths. Our plan is to be even more up-tempo defensively, more than any of our teams have been in the past. We’ll be getting after teams full court and put more pressure on teams defensively just with the depth we have.”

The team’s youth is due to the graduation of four seniors, including Dezz Ramos, the fourth leading scorer in the nation last year, and Jasmine Smith, who nearly averaged a double double in 2016-17.

“It’s a situation every team faces and in our case I think (we replace those player’s production) by committee. There isn’t any one person who can do it all, but as a senior Myzhanique Ladd has to step up and assume a larger role.”

Ladd, the only starter returning from last year’s team, talked about her role on this year’s squad. “I’ve never really been very vocal, I’ve been a player who has let my action speak for me, but this year I need to be more vocal. I have to be a leader on and off the court and show the younger players how we do things. That’s a role I am excited to take on.”

Craighead also focused on two sophomores who are expected to take on a larger role as well, “Fieme’a Hafoka has to step up as well as Taylor Turney, who initially replaces Dezz at the point.

“To be honest, it’s going to take everyone working together to be successful. We will be more balanced than we’ve been in my previous four years, and to be honest I am okay with that. I think a more balanced attack makes it tougher for opponents to scout us.”

The 2017 Nissan Rogue helps cover you from every angle. Straight up the A-gap. Down the middle. Even sideline-to-sideline. Rogue’s Intelligent Safety Shield Technologies work together to help sense more around you and give you an extra hand when you need it. Now, you can worry more about the big game. And less about getting to it, safely.

Nissan. A proud partner of College Athletics.

Now Standard on every Nissan Rogue:
Automatic Emergency Braking | Blind Spot Warning | Rear Cross Traffic Alert

1. Automatic Emergency Braking: AEB cannot prevent accidents due to carelessness or dangerous driving techniques. It may not provide warning or braking in certain conditions. Speed limitations apply. 2. Blind Spot Warning: Blind Spot Warning is not a substitute for proper lane change procedures. The system will not prevent contact with other vehicles or accidents. It may not detect every vehicle or object around you. 3. Rear Cross Traffic: Not a substitute for proper backing procedures. May not detect all moving vehicles. Speed and other limitations apply. See owner’s manual for details.

“Fastest Response Time Anytime”

Go Spartans!
From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West (MW) has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level, while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 19th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement in the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics. The Mountain West has marked several achievements during its first 18 years, most notably becoming the first to establish a sports television network dedicated solely to an intercollegiate athletic conference (The Mtn.). The Mountain West also was the first to experiment with the coaches’ challenge in the college football instant replay system, and was the first non-automatic-qualifying BCS conference to participate in four BCS bowl games, winning three. In the inaugural year of the new College Football Playoff system, Boise State earned the automatic slot into a New Year’s Six bowl game as the highest-ranked champion from the Group of Five 5 conferences. The Mountain West was among the first conferences to implement a league-wide state-of-the-art basketball instant replay system.

Additionally, the Mountain West was the first conference to have a member institution with No. 1 overall picks in both the NFL and NBA drafts in the same year (Utah’s Alex Smith and Andrew Bogut, respectively in 2005). With UNLV’s Anthony Bennett claiming the No. 1 pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, the Mountain West is one of three conferences to have multiple No. 1 NBA draft selections since 2000. Also, with San Diego State’s Stephen Strasburg earning the No. 1 pick in the 2009 MLB Draft, the Mountain West is one of two conferences to have the No. 1 selection in each of the NFL, NBA and MLB drafts since the MW was founded in 1999.

The Mountain West is noted for its geographic diversity. Some of the most beautiful terrain and landscapes in the nation can be found within Mountain West boundaries, including the majestic Rocky Mountain range, which borders five MW institutions (Air Force, Boise State, Colorado State, New Mexico and Utah State). The high plains of Wyoming contrast with the desert cities of Las Vegas and Reno, respectively, while Fresno State, San Diego State and San José State add a West Coast influence with their locations. The inclusion of the Hawai’i football program extends the Mountain West footprint to the beautiful islands in the Pacific Ocean.

ACADEMICS

From the outset, Mountain West member institutions have been committed to creating strong academic relationships, as well as athletic competition. To that end, the chief academic officers of each institution have explored academic exchange programs, library crossovers and shared research. In addition, the faculty athletics representatives routinely provide academic assistance and test-taking services for student-athletes visiting from fellow member institutions for competition.

OPPORTUNITY

The Mountain West provides a first-class athletic and academic experience for more than 5,100 student-athletes each year. Over the past 18 years, 42 Mountain West student-athletes have earned NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships.
Since the league’s inception in 1999, an additional 32 student-athletes have been named MW Scholar-Athlete of the Year and awarded league-sponsored postgraduate scholarships. Four Mountain West student-athletes have earned distinction as Rhodes Scholars.

Conference student-athletes are also given a voice regarding pertinent issues within the MW and NCAA governance structure through representation on the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC). The Mountain West SAAC consists of 23 representatives: two from each full member institution and one faculty athletics representative. The committee reviews and reacts to legislation and to other topics referred by the Conference constituent group or committees related to the student-athlete experience.

ACHIEVEMENT

The MW has produced 1,059 All-America selections among its 18 sponsored sports (men’s swimming was discontinued as a Conference sport following the 2010-11 season) in the last 18 years, including a league-record 103 All-America honorees in 2016-17. A total of 190 MW student-athletes have also earned Academic All-America accolades in that span. The Mountain West has sent at least 25 teams to NCAA postseason event in each of the past 18 years, capturing four team national championships in women’s cross country and producing 43 individual national championships in the sports of men’s golf, men’s cross country, women’s diving and men’s and women’s indoor track & field and outdoor track & field.

Mountain West members have participated in 84 bowl games under the league umbrella, including four appearances in BCS games and one CFP game. The MW has earned 80 postseason bids in men’s basketball, with five Sweet 16 appearances among 44 NCAA Tournament appearances and three NIT Final Four berths. MW women’s basketball has tallied 75 postseason seasons, including 36 NCAA bids, five Sweet 16 appearances and one Elite Eight berth since 2000.

Wyoming won the MW’s first WNIT championship in 2007 with a win over Wisconsin. In women’s volleyball, the MW has had 42 NCAA bids with nine Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. Women’s soccer has earned 31 NCAA bids since 1999, with two Sweet 16 berths and one Elite Eight appearance. MW men’s golf has had at least three representatives in NCAA Men’s Golf Regionals in each of its 17 years, while women’s golf has had at least three teams participate in NCAA Regionals 15 of the last 18 years.

SPORTSMANSHIP

Named for Sports Ethics Fellow by the Institute for International Sport in 1998, Commissioner Craig Thompson has been a driving force for sportsmanship within intercollegiate athletics. As part of its continuing growth and development, the Mountain West implemented an extensive Sportsmanship Initiative, endorsed by both the MW Joint Council and MW Board of Directors. The program is made up of several elements, which are both practical and philosophical in nature. While the MW has significant penalties in place to deal with violations, the Sportsmanship Initiative is primarily promotional and educational in nature. The goal is to develop an environment that fosters appropriate behavior from all Conference constituencies.

Since San José State joined the Mountain West in the 2013-14 school year, Spartan student-athletes have earned...

454 Academic All-Mountain West honors (3.0 or higher Grade Point Average)
195 Mountain West Scholar-Athlete honors (3.5 or higher Grade Point Average)
Darcie Anderson, women’s swimming & diving 2013-14 Mountain West Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year Mountain West NCAA Woman of the Year nominee
Ta’Rea Cunnigan, women’s basketball 2014-15 Mountain West Female Scholar-Athlete of the Year Mountain West NCAA Woman of the Year nominee
When the Spartans open the 2017-18 regular season with home games against Antelope Valley (Nov. 10) and the University of San Diego (Nov. 12), the Jean Prioleau era of San José State men’s basketball will begin.

Hired in August, Prioleau comes to SJSU after seven seasons as an assistant and then associate head coach at the University of Colorado.

Overall, in 18 seasons as an assistant, coach Prioleau’s resume includes 11 NCAA Division I post-season appearances.

In his time at Colorado, the team won 149 games, had five 20-win campaigns and appeared in post-season play every year.

“I’m looking forward to building a program the University and community will be proud of and to ensuring that we prepare our young men to succeed in the classroom and on the court,” Prioleau said in his hiring announcement.

He starts the building process with a roster of seven returning letterwinners, including three starters.

Point guard Jalen James is the team’s lone senior and to help him lead the squad’s seven underclassmen, he’ll be leaning on juniors Ryan Welage and Jaycee Hillsman.

Joining James and Hillsman in the back-court is Isaiah Nichols, who appeared in all 30 games last season and made 11 starts. Last year, Hillsman helped the Spartans to consecutive road wins over Washington State and Idaho. The victory over the Cougars was SJSU’s first against a Pac-12 team since 2010. Point guard Nai Carlisle will see his first action in a Spartan uniform after redshirting last season, as will true freshmen guards Caleb Simmons, Ryan Parilla and Noah Baumann.

The 6-foot-9 Welage averaged 13.2 points per game while guiding the Spartans to big Mountain West wins over UNLV, New Mexico and San Diego State. Joining Welage in the front-court will be redshirt freshman Keith Fisher and junior transfer Oumar Barry. Fisher, a 6-foot-8 power forward, is ready to bring his energy to the court in 2017-18.

Barry is a true center, standing 6-foot-11, and brings in Division I playing experience after spending the 2015-16 season in the Big East at DePaul. He adds both height and depth in the post, which is something San José State hasn’t been familiar with in recent years. The Spartans have another tower down low in 6-foot-10 Ryan Singer is returning for his junior campaign.

This year’s team is aiming to make it three years in a row with an up-tick in wins. The program won just two games in 2014-15, then nine games in 2016-17, and last year reached 14 victories. Last year’s team won seven games during conference play marking the most since 1996.

Running parallel to the results on the court is the team’s academic success. Both Welage and Singer earned their second Academic All-Mountain West honors following the 2016-17 season. Welage, a kinesiology major, was also a San José State University Dean’s Scholar last year.

In the non-conference season the Spartans host preseason #22 Saint Mary’s on November 19 and Idaho State on November 22. They then head out on a 10-day, three-game road trip featuring a return game at Bowling Green and a Missouri Valley Challenge contest at Southern Illinois before playing at Denver on the way home.

This year four nationally televised men’s basketball games will originate from inside The Event Center. The game against UNLV (Jan. 3) and New Mexico (Feb. 3) will be carried on AT&T SportsNet, and CBS Sports Network will broadcast the game against Nevada (Jan. 17). Finally, ESPN3 will carry the February 24 match-up against San Diego State.

Every San José State game during conference play, that is not picked up by national TV, is broadcast live on the Mountain West Network. Links to those broadcasts can be found on the men’s basketball schedule page at www.sjsuspartans.com.

Simplex TrueAlert ES—a step forward in addressable fire alarm system technology—delivers a scalable, cost-effective notification solution that can make code compliance a snap. Constant electronic supervision of the notification system and revolutionary self-testing capability help ensure that appliances will work when needed and virtually eliminate tedious after hours manual testing on your campus. And it’s all backed by SimplexGrinnell and eServices, our suite of remote diagnostics and life-safety system management tools that’s helping us advance safety and security.

NCAA rules for Alumni, Fans & Friends of SJSU Athletics...Boosters!

ARE YOU A BOOSTER?
You are considered a representative of SJSU's athletics interests, more commonly known as a "booster", if you:

1. Have ever made any type of financial or in-kind contribution to the SJSU Athletics Department, to a specific sport program, or to an athletics booster organization, including purchasing season tickets to athletics events.
2. Are or have been a member of any organization or agency promoting SJSU athletics.
3. Have ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes.
4. Have ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families.
5. Have otherwise promoted the institution's athletics program.

ONCE YOU HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED AS A BOOSTER OF SJSU ATHLETICS, YOU WILL RETAIN THAT IDENTITY FOREVER

Student-Athlete – Is a student whose enrollment was solicited by a member of the athletics staff or other representative of athletics interests with a view toward the student's ultimate participation in intercollegiate athletics. Any other student becomes a student-athlete only when the student reports for an intercollegiate squad that is under the jurisdiction of the athletics department.

Prospective Student-Athlete ("prospect") – Is an individual who has started classes for the 9th grade. A student who has not started classes for the 9th grade becomes a prospect if SJSU provides the individual any benefits that SJSU does not provide to all prospective students in general. An individual remains a prospect until he/she:

- Officially registers, enrolls full-time, and attends classes during the regular academic year at SJSU;
- Participates in a regular squad practice or competition at SJSU that occurs before the beginning of any term; or
- Officially registers and enrolls and attends classes during SJSU's summer term prior to initial full-time enrollment.

HE BASIC RULE OF THUMB!
Always check with the Athletics Compliance Office before you make arrangements for any activity that involves a prospect or an enrolled student-athlete, their families or friends. PLEASE, ASK BEFORE YOU ACT!

Thank You!!!
Scott Pierson
SJSU Marching Band Director

Scott Pierson assumed the role of Director of the San José State Marching Band in 1983, after five years as its Assistant Director. For the past 34 years he has been entertaining SJSU football and basketball fans with iconic musical and visual moments before, during and after Spartan athletic contests.

Scott earned a music degree from San Jose State in 1972, and his teaching credential in 1973. In 2004, he received the SJSU School of Music & Dance “Distinguished Alumnus Award” for his work with the Spartan Marching Band.

Scott is retiring from San José State at the end of this year and Spartan Athletics want to thank him for making the gameday experience of hundreds of thousands of fans who have attended Spartans football and basketball games in the past five decades a one of a kind experience.

Teams won’t be able to concentrate on those two in crunch time. “You’ll have to stop everyone,” Craighead said, “because everyone has a green light. We’ll play to our player’s strengths depending on the situation in which we find ourselves.”

You are not among the youngest teams in the nation without a bevy of freshman and the Spartans have six. “All the freshmen bring a lot to our program,” Craighead said. “Mikaylah Wilson, a big physical player who will play much older than her years, is going to be a tremendous player for us over the next four years. She can play both inside and outside. Cydni Lewis and Chinwe Ezeonu are both quality post players, and they will be integral parts of this program’s future. I seen them as ‘double double’ kids who score 1,000 points and grab 1,000 rebounds in their careers.

“Danae Marquez and Megan Anderson came from Clovis West and won the high school national championship last year as well as the state championship, are both winners and very hard workers. They know how to play the game, have been coached really well, and will be big contributors this year.

“Helena Hill and Courtesy Clark are the types of players who do all the little things you need to be successful. They are great on-ball defenders and that is what they bring immediately and on the offensive end, both have a tremendous upside.”

In addition to Hafoka and Turney, sophomores Analys Benally and Alexis Harris are expected to take a much larger role this season. “Just because of the seniors we had last year,” Craighead said, “this group didn’t get as much floor time as I would have liked, but they know what we want and I know they will step up to the challenge. We call them the ‘Class of Champions’ because they will be the cornerstones of our first Mountain West Championship team. It’s year number two for them and now is their time to shine.”

Twenty-six of the team’s 29 regular season games will be streamed live. With the exception of the November 5 exhibition game against Stanislaus State, all home and Mountain West Conference games will be shown on the Mountain West Network. When the Spartans play at Pacific on November 24 and at cross-town rival Santa Clara, on November 28, the games will shown be on TheW.tv with a link to the broadcasts on the team’s schedule page.
