San Jose State University Football Game Notes

The Texas game was the first time San Jose State was shut out since losing 13-0 to Hawaii in the 2014 season.

In San Jose State's two losses this season, the Spartans were unable to come up with a fumble recovery or pass interception. In its one win, San Jose State had three takeaways, all on fumble recoveries against Cal Poly.

San Jose State's 52 offensive plays were a season-low.

The Spartans were unable to earn 10 first downs in a game for the first time since a 48-0 loss to Boise State on October 16, 2010. In that game, San Jose State had six first downs. The Spartans had eight against Texas.

Bailey Gaither's 39-yard kickoff return in the second quarter was the Spartans' longest kickoff return of the season.

The first opponent punt return of the season for positive yardage against San Jose State was a result of a fumbled punt by Texas' Armante Foreman that went forward two yards before Foreman recovered his own fumble. For the game, Foreman returned three Spartan punts for minus-1 yards.

Michael Carrizosa had a solid day punting. He punted eight times for a 45.0 average. For games played through September 9, his 24 punts are the most by a FBS punter.

Frank Ginda had his third consecutive game this season with at least 10 tackles. He was credited with a game-high 12 stops and now has 42 on the season.

Freshman Tyler Nevens saw his first action of the season at Texas. He gained 12 yards on six carries. DeJon Packer led San Jose State with 22 yards rushing. His 18-yard carry on San Jose State's last possession was the only Spartan run of at least 10 yards in the game.

Josh Oliver was the Spartans' top receiver with three catches for 21 yards. He leads the team for the season with 12 receptions.

After spending four years on the San Jose State basketball team, Brandon Mitchell now has college football marks with two fourth-quarter catches 11 yards. Freshman wide receiver Austin Liles joined Mitchell as a first-time pass receiver at the major college level with a 14-yard reception for the game's final first down.

San Jose State now is 3-8 against current Big 12 Conference members.
