San Jose State University Football Game Notes

Captains for the Colorado State game were Frank Ginda, Justin Holmes and Sailosi Latu.

San Jose State finished its road schedule winless in seven games.

Tre Hartley made it three weeks in a row with a play of 30 or more yards with his season long 49-yard reception on the Spartans’ first possession of the game. Hartley finished with five receptions for a game-high 109 receiving yards, his single-game career best. His previous best was his first 100-yard receiving game of his career – 104 yards and two TDs in the 2016 win over UNLV.

Ethan Aguayo returned to the lineup at a linebacker position. He was credited with six tackles and a fumble recovery.

Frank Ginda set a new Mountain West single-season record in the Colorado State game. Ginda was credited with 11 tackles, 1.0 tackles for loss and a forced fumble that was recovered by Ethan Aguayo. For the season, Ginda has 163 tackles, one more than the previous Mountain West record of 162 set by Carmen Messina of New Mexico in 2009.

Ginda’s season total of 163 puts him in a four-way tie for 21st place on the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) single-season list for tackles since keeping track of tackles as a statistic was standardized in 2000. He is tied with Levar Fisher of North Carolina State who had 163 in 2000, Mason Foster of Washington in 2010 and Scooby Wright, III, of Arizona in 2014.

Presently, Ginda is averaging 13.75 tackles per game. That average would be tied for 14th as a single-season average by a FBS player if Ginda’s season ended at Colorado State.

Bryce Crawford handled the punting for San Jose State for the second time this season. Crawford punted seven times and averaged 41.8 yards per punt. He also was the punter for the Spartans in the Hawaii game on October 14.

Dejon Packer’s 10 carries matched his season high. He had 10 carries for 60 yards in the September 2 win over Cal Poly.

Zamore Zigler’s 42-yard kickoff return was his longest of the season.

For the second time this season, Malik Roberson was the team’s leading rusher. Roberson gained 72 yards on 10 carries for the Spartans. He led the team in rushing in the season opener vs. USF when he gained 52 yards on 19 carries.
