Sophomore guard Neil Watson may be the key to every game. When Watson records at least four assists, the Golden Eagles are 20-4. However, when he records three or less, Southern Miss is just 5-4.

OPENING THE YEAR AT HOME

Southern Miss opened its season at home for the 38th time and the first time in four years. In those games, the Golden Eagles are 31-6, and have won the last 16. In season openers the Golden Eagles are 42-25 and have won 14 of the last 15, including the last seven. In home openers, the Black and Gold is 55-12 and have won 18 of 19, including the last six.

ROAD OPENERS

Southern Miss historically has not had much success in its road openers. In true road openers, the Golden Eagles are just 21-45 all-time. Their 59-52 loss at Denver snapped a two-game winning streak in road openers. USM has a slightly better record in opening away games, as it is 23-43.

FREQUENT FLYERS

Southern Miss spent plenty of time traveling on its five game, 11-day road trip. The Golden Eagles flew to Denver for its game against the Pioneers before busing to Fort Collins for its game against Colorado State.

Southern Miss then bused back to Denver to fly to Anchorage, Ak., for the 2011 Carrs/

EUSTACHY VERSUS HOME NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS

Since Southern Miss head coach Larry Eustachy took over in 2004, the Golden Eagles have taken care of their non-conference opponents at home. The Black and Gold is 51-6 against non-conference foes on its own floor under Eustachy, including having won its last 23, which is tied for the second longest non-conference home winning streak in school history. Southern Miss just concluded a perfect 7-0 non-conference record at home, the third straight year that the Golden Eagles have finished their non-conference slate undefeated. Below is a list of the longest non-conference home winning streaks in school history.

NON-CONFERENCE ROAD WINS

Through Larry Eustachy's first five years, his teams won just one true non-conference road game. However, with its victories this year at Colorado State, South Alabama, Arizona State and McNeese State Southern Miss has now won 10 of its last 15 since the beginning of 2009-10.

WINS VS. LOSSES

In its 25 victories, Southern Miss has dominated the stat sheet, especially in field goal percentage, three-point field goal percentage and rebounding. However, in its eight losses, the Golden Eagles have struggles in all three categories. Below is a breakdown of Southern Miss and its opponents' field goal percentage, three-point field goal percentage and rebounding in their wins and losses.

GOLDEN EAGLE WINNING STREAK

Earlier this year, Southern Miss joined a select group of teams by winning 11 straight games. The winning streak began Dec. 4 with a 74-66 win over New Mexico State and ended with a 60-58 loss on Jan. 11 at Memphis. It tied the third longest winning streak and was just the sixth winning streak of at least 10 games in school history. Below is a list of the longest USM winning streaks.

FREE THROW EFFICIENCY

Southern Miss is making the most of its opportunities this year from the free throw line.

Southern Miss is on pace to set a new school record for free throw percentage. The Black and Gold have connected on 561-of-762 free throws, a 73.6% clip, tops in Conference USA.

USM's record for free throw shooting is 73.1-percent in 2004-05.

Southern Miss has shot less than 70.0% just 12 times this year, and has connected on over 80.0% from the charity stripe nine times.

WATSON DOING IT FROM THE CHARITY STRIPE

Sophomore Neil Watson currently leads the team with 12.2 points per game. However, more than a third of his points have come from the free throw line.

In fact, Watson is third in Conference USA in free throw percentage, connecting on 84.0-percent from the charity stripe. The Kansas City, Kan., native has hit 152-of-181 free throws.

Watson connected on 28 straight free throws from Nov. 17 to Dec. 4, spanning six games. The streak began at Denver and ended at home against New Mexico State. It is tied for the second longest consecutive free throw streak in school history. He also had a streak

TURNING THE PAGE

Last year, Southern Miss junior guard LaShay Page averaged just 6.2 points. This year, however, Page is lighting up the basket. So far this year, the Dillon, S.C., native is tied for 18th in Conference USA with 11.5 points per game.

Page is also one of the biggest threats in the conference from three-point range. He has connected on 72 three-pointers, an average of 2.3 per game, which is third in the league. He is also eighth in three-point field goal percentage, connecting on 35.5-percent.

Page also leads the league in minutes played (36.7).

With two three-pointers at UTEP, Page became just the 10th player in Golden Eagle history with 100 career three-pointers.

PAGE'S CAREER DAY

LaShay Page waited until an ideal time to have the biggest game of his career. At Colorado State, Page scored a career-high 30 points on 11-of-15 shooting, including 8-of-11 from three-point range.

Page began the game hitting his first five shots, on his way to 19 first half points, which itself eclipsed his former career-high.

The eight three-pointers were also the third most ever by a Southern Miss individual in a game since Clement Carter hit nine three's against William Carey on Dec. 22, 2003.

IT'S RAINING THREE'S

In the first half at South Alabama, Southern Miss put on a three-point shooting display that has rarely been seen in school history. The Golden Eagles connected on 13 field goals, 11 of those were from behind the arc.

In the first half, Southern Miss was 11-of-15 from three-point range, a percentage of 73.7%.

It was the most three-pointers ever hit in the first half, and second most in any half.

GOLDEN EAGLES ON TELEVISION

Southern Miss will appear on television at least 15 times during the regular season, including five times on national television. It is the third year in a row that the Golden Eagles will be televised at least nine times during the season.

HOME COOKING

Over the last three years, Southern Miss has taken care of business on its home court. The Golden Eagles are 39-5 since 2009 in Reed Green Coliseum, a winning percentage of .886.

UNDER THE HILL

Southern Miss held Alcorn State to 49 points on December 29, the second straight game, and fourth time this year, that they have held an opponent to under 50 points. Last year, the Golden Eagles held their opponents to 50 points or less three times. Under head coach Larry Eustachy, the Black and Gold are 23-2 when holding the opposition to 50 points or less, including having won their last 22.

WINNING THE REBOUND BATTLE

Southern Miss historically has been tough on the boards. In fact, you have to go back to the 2001-02 season when the Eagles lost the rebounding battle. Over the past nine seasons, the Black and Gold have owned the boards, and in six of those years, they have averaged over 36 rebounds per game.

This year, the Golden Eagles are dominating their opponents on the boards. Southern Miss is pulling down 36.7 rebounds per game while holding the opposition to 32.1, a difference of 4.6 boards per game, which is third in the league.

USM has outrebounded its opponents in 19 of the 33 games this year.

CONSECUTIVE GAMES WITH A THREE

Southern Miss has connected on at least one three-pointer in the last 68 games. It is the fifth longest three-point streak in school history. The Golden Eagles last went without a trey on March 10, 2010 against Tulane. UNLV currently holds the nation's longest streak at 805 consecutive games. Southern Miss' longest streak with a three-pointer is 188 games, from March 15, 1990 until January 25, 1997. UNLV, Vanderbilt (796) and Princeton (674) are the only three schools to have made at least one three-pointer in every game since the NCAA adopted the three-point line prior to the 1986-87 season.

JOHNSON CLIMBS RECORDS LADDER

Entering the 2011-12 season, redshirt senior guard Angelo Johnson saw his name adorn the Southern Miss record books. The Minneapolis, Minn., native is currently tied for eighth all-time in free throw percentage, having connected on 76.2-percent (221-of-290) of his free throws.

Johnson is also proficient when it comes to passing the ball as his 320 career assists are 10th-place in school history.

The redshirt senior also sees his name in the three-point listings, as he has connected on 98 treys in this career, good for 11th-place.

FOUR-YEAR SUCCESS

Southern Miss head coach Larry Eustachy has led the Golden Eagles to one of its best four-year stretches in terms of victories in school history.

Over the past four seasons, the Golden Eagles have compiled a record of 82-48 (.631). The 81 wins are the most in a four-year stretch since Southern Miss became a Division I program prior to the 1972-73 season, and the most since it won 91 games from 1951-55.

The school record for wins in a four-year stretch is 100 from 1950-54.

DODSON REJOINS TEAM

Sophomore guard Darnell Dodson has been reinstated to the basketball team.

Dodson, who transferred in January of 2011 from Kentucky, was dismissed from the team the following March.

Dodson enrolled for his final semester at Southern Miss in January. He is expected to graduate in May.

Upcoming Milestones

- Angelo Johnson needs 2 three-pointers for 100 in his career.

CHIPOLA CONNECTION

Over the past three years, Southern Miss has had success recruiting players from junior college. That has not been more evident than with players out of Chipola (Fla.) College.

The Golden Eagles have signed four players from Chipola in the past three years. They signed Gary Flowers and Torye Pelham three years ago. LaShay Page inked two years ago and Keith DeWitt joined the fray this year.

SIX LETTERWINNERS RETURN FOR EAGLES

Despite returning six letterwinners, Southern Miss head coach Larry Eustachy will have a young squad this year. The Eagles return just one of their top five scorers from last year, and just two starters. In fact, USM returns just 30.7% of its scoring and 34.9% of its rebounding from last year.

EIGHT NEWCOMERS JOIN EAGLES

Eight newcomers will don the black and gold for the first time this year, as head coach Larry Eustachy restocked this year's team with new faces, including four junior college transfers, one transfer, one freshman and two walk-ons. Included are junior college transfers Neil Watson (Kansas City, Kan./Coffeyville CC), Rashard McGill (Havana, Fla./Tallahassee CC), Jonathan Mills (Chicago, Ill./College of Eastern Utah) and Keith DeWitt (High Point, N.C./Chipola JC). Transfer Darnell Dodson (Greenbelt, Md.) transfers in from Kentucky. They will be joined by freshman Christian Robbins (Foxworth, Miss.) and walk-ons Richard Carlisle (Meridian, Miss.) and Alahjah Franklin (Memphis, Tenn.).

Head Coach Larry Eustachy

Throughout the years, there have been several dates that have become important to the history of the men's basketball program at Southern Miss. While many of those dates may deal with milestone victories, national championships and other record-breaking moments, other dates in Southern Miss basketball history are just as important.

One of the most important dates was a recent one — March 25, 2004. For on that date, Southern Miss basketball turned the corner in its quest to become one of the top programs in Conference USA, if not one of the top programs in the nation.

It was on that date that one of the top coaches in the collegiate game began his relationship with the Golden Eagles. On that date, the Larry Eustachy era officially began.

In an introductory news conference that captured national attention, Southern Miss Director of Athletics Richard Giannini announced that Eustachy had become the school's 18th head men's basketball coach, and with that, the new era had begun.

Nationally renowned and recognized for his coaching success, Eustachy took the reins of a struggling basketball program at Southern Miss and gave hope to a contingency of Golden Eagle faithful of returning the team to the prominence it once had enjoyed.

For Eustachy, coaching at Southern Miss is an opportunity to give back to the sport he so loves. For Southern Miss, having a coach like Eustachy is just the step that the administration, fans and players know that it needs to be able to compete in the ever-competitive world of college basketball.

A veteran of the coaching profession for 28 years, Southern Miss is the fourth program that Eustachy has headed. After the success he produced at his three other head coaching stops — Idaho, Utah State and Iowa State — Eustachy now is beginning to generate those type of results that he established at his other stints.

The Eustachy Philosophy

Eustachy's philosophy is a unique mixture of several coaches who had great influence on him during his years as a player and as an assistant coach.

Eustachy's teams put a premium on defending and rebounding, combining that with peak physical conditioning and strength, all the while incorporating an offense that best utilizes the talents of the respective members of the team.

It's a philosophy that contains the contribution of a number of coaches, including his influential junior college coach Neil Edwards, former USC and Mississippi State Coach Bob Boyd — Eustachy's mentor — former NBA and current UTEP Head Coach Tim Floyd, whose own philosophy had bits of Don Haskins and his father, Lee Floyd, a former coach during the 1950s and 1960s at Southern Miss.

Eustachy not only instills physical toughness in his players, but he also strives to make his players value the mental part of the game, an aspect that is created through stressful practice. It's during those practices that Eustachy knows he and his staff need to be at their best, for that is where the battles on the court are often times won and lost.

Eustachy The Coach

A life in basketball always seemed to be in the stars for Eustachy, who had a standout prep career at Arcadia High School and played two seasons at Citrus (Calif.) College under Edwards.

Following graduation from Long Beach State in 1979, Eustachy began his coaching career at the ripe age of 21, serving as the assistant for Edwards at Citrus from 1979-81. Through Edwards' direction, Eustachy then landed his first NCAA coaching position on Boyd's Mississippi State squad, staying there from 1981-86. From there, Eustachy joined Tim Floyd's staff at Idaho from 1986-87, before moving on to assistant coaching stints at Utah (1987-89) and Ball State (1989-90). But it wasn't until he landed his first head coaching job at Idaho that Eustachy began making a name as one of the nation's brightest head coaches. While at Idaho, he led the Vandals to three-consecutive winning seasons, a 61-33 overall record and the 1993

Big Sky Conference regular-season championship.

Eustachy then took his success to Utah State, where he compiled a 98-53 overall record. While at Utah State, he led the Aggies to three Big West regular-season titles (1995, 1997, and 1998) and the 1998 conference tournament title. The Aggies advanced to the postseason twice, the 1998 NCAA Tournament and the 1995 NIT, and nearly made a third postseason appearance in 1996, when the Aggies narrowly lost a championship game that would have punched a ticket for the NCAA Tournament.

The successes at Idaho and Utah State laid the groundwork for his eventual run as the head coach at Iowa State. At Iowa State, Eustachy became more than a household name for his on-court accomplishments and received the nation's highest honor for a basketball coach when he was named the 2000 National Coach of the Year by both the Associated Press and the United States Basketball Writers Association. In his five-year career at Iowa State, the two-time Big 12 Coach of the Year led the Cyclones to a 101-59 record, back-to-back Big 12 Conference Championships (2000 and 2001) and an AP Top 10 ranking both years (No. 6 in 2000 and No. 10 in 2001). His squads made consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament in 2000 (32-5) and 2001 (25-6), advancing as far as the Elite 8 in 2000, and made a third trip to postseason, with a visit to the NIT Tournament in 2003. He also coached two All-Americans and Big 12 Conference Players of the Year (Marcus Fizer, 2000; Jamaal Tinsley, 2001).

At Southern Miss

After two seasons in what might not be considered a success in terms of wins and losses, the program turned the corner in year three by producing not only its first winning season since 2000-01, but also produced 20 wins as well. The year also garnered the league's Freshman and Newcomer of the Year in Jeremy Wise. Eustachy also won his 300th career game.

Last year, Eustachy led Southern Miss to a 20-14 record and its first postseason appearance since 2001. The 20 wins gave him his second 20 win season in four years.

In 2008-09, Eustachy led the Golden Eagles to a 19-14 record, winning seven of their final nine games. Southern Miss advanced to the third round of the Conference USA Tournament, its best showing since 2001. After finishing 11-17 during his first season that included a big victory over Southeastern Conference foe LSU, the Golden Eagles tallied a 10-21 record, including a 3-11 in C-USA play. Still, Southern Miss finished on a strong note as they won two of their final three contests including its first C-USA tournament victory in three seasons.

The Golden Eagles also won the longest game in their school history, a four-overtime December thriller, 83-78, over New Orleans that showed the squad's resolve and "never say quit" attitude. Off the court, interest in the basketball program seemed to resurrect with Eustachy at the helm.

Season ticket sales continue to increase during Eustachy's tenure. Premium floor-seating packages also were introduced and keep growing each year, giving fans another level of game-time experience. Media attention to the program also had increased, giving Southern Miss exposure it hadn't seen in quite a while.

Eustachy and the Golden Eagles continue to lay the ground work for future Southern Miss teams as they begin their ascent in the league.

A True Success

Eustachy has not only consistently coached strong basketball programs, but he also has been honored numerous times by his peers and various basketball organizations.

In addition to his national coaching awards in 2000, Eustachy has been named a conference coach of the year four times — twice each in the Big West and the Big 12, a district coach of the year twice and an AP National Coach of the Year runner-up. In his career, he finished with one 30-win season, five 20-win seasons and has averaged 20 wins per season during his career.

Throughout his career, Eustachy has coached three NCAA Tournament teams and two NIT squads. He also has led teams to six regular-season conference titles, two conference tournament titles, and consecutive home winning streaks that set records at both Utah State and Iowa State. He also has coached three conference players of the year, two first-team All-Americans and is one of only eight coaches in NCAA history to win at least three conference regular-season championships at three different schools.

Eustachy was born on Dec. 1, 1955, in Alameda, Calif., and is the father of two sons, Hayden and Evan.
