PERSONAL ...

Native of Leetown, Miss.

Graduate of Southern Miss, 1984
Masters, 1986

Building a successful program takes time and commitment and does not come without its ups and downs. When Joye Lee-McNelis took over the Southern Miss women's basketball program in 2004, she wanted to return the program to the winning tradition of old. Now in her seventh season, there is something to be said about the return of an athlete to his or her alma mater ... loyalty and passion. With her appointment, the Lady Eagles have made steady strides in that direction.

McNelis' presence has formed a complete, well-rounded women's basketball program that is putting Southern Miss back on the map.

Last season, McNelis placed two players on the Conference USA third team in Rachel Vigers and Tanesha Washington while freshman Jamierra Faulkner earned all-freshman honors.

Head Coach Joye Lee-McNelis

In 2010, Pauline Love earned her third-straight first team all-conference award.

In 2008-09 season, Southern Miss was one-win away of claiming at least a share of a regular season title and one win away from returning to postseason.

Her 2007-08 and 2008-09 teams posted back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since the 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons. She also had two players named to the C-USA All-Tournament team (Pauline Love and Andrea Barber), another first team all-conference selection (Love) and the C-USA Sixth Player of the Year honoree (Tanesha Washington). The Lady Eagles' Candace Rucker earned two Rookie of the Week honors as well.

In 2007-08, the program landed its initial, first-team all-conference selection (Love) since the inception of Conference USA, recorded the first 20-win season since 1995-96, and advanced to postseason play for the first time since 1999-2000. In addition, they had two players earned player of the week honors (Love and Stephanie Helgeson).

While the 2006-07 team proved to be the turning point, as a short-handed team recorded a 15 win season, landed three players on C-USA All-Conference teams (Amber Eugene, Kendra Reed and Lauren Pittman), and three others were named C-USA Players of the Week (Eugene, Reed and Emer Foley).

With a combined effort of McNelis's door-to-door, person-to-person approach to promoting and the team's successes, Lady Eagle basketball has seen an increase in attendance every year she has been here, including increased season ticket sales and memberships in the "The Wings Club."

McNelis also displays a passion for a more important aspect of succeeding in sport -- succeeding in the classroom. In 2008-09, Kendra Reed became the only three time C-USA All-Academic player. The year before, two Lady Eagle players were named to the C-USA All-Academic team (Reed and Liz Biland). In 2006-07, Southern Miss placed two players on the Academic All-District Team by ESPN The Magazine (Reed and Kristin Chaney), two were named to C-USA All-Academic teams (Reed and Chaney), five received C-USA Commissioner's List honors (Reed, Patterson, Chaney, Biland and Rachel Manuel), and one (Chaney) was named C-USA Women's Basketball Scholar Athlete of the Year.

Evidence of improvement was seen following the 2005-06 season, in which the squad posted a 14-15 record, a plus-five game turnaround. She accomplished that feat with only one junior college transfer, two sophomores and five freshmen. The Lady Eagles finished in a tie for third in the conference with a 10-6 record.

McNelis returned to her alma mater after 13 seasons as head coach at the University of Memphis, where she compiled a 229-156 record. She was only the second coach in Lady Tiger history and took over a program that had won just 21 games over a three-year span, including back-to-back 6-22 finishes.

In just three seasons, McNelis turned the Memphis program into a winner and over 12 years, she helped the Lady Tiger program gain national recognition when in 1999 Memphis entered the AP Top 25 for the first time in 14 years.

McNelis is credited with leading her Memphis teams to four-consecutive conference championships, five-consecutive 20-win seasons and eight postseason tournament appearances. She coached 14 all-conference players and has two former players currently playing in the WNBA. Over those 13 seasons, 32 players who have competed in the program have completed their degrees.

After her first five seasons at Memphis, McNelis was tabbed as one of the nation's "Coaches on the Rise" by Basketball Times. During McNelis' tenure, she coached three conference newcomers of the year and two conference players of the year. Among her top recruiting highlights is Tamika Whitmore, who finished her career at Memphis as the second all-time leading scorer in school history. As a senior, Whitmore was named to five different All-American teams.

Prior to her stint at Memphis, McNelis spent five seasons as an assistant coach at Southern Miss (1986-91). The 1987 and 1990 squads won the Metro Conference tournament championship. The 1986-87, 1988-89 and 1989-90 teams each participated in the NCAA Tournament, with the 1989-90 team advancing to the second round. During her tenure, those teams posted a record of 103-47 and her last two seasons those teams posted a 53-10 record, including the most wins in a season with 27 in 1989-90 and finished the season ranked in the Top 20.

"I believe that you can have an interest in a lot of things, but you have to have passion," McNelis said. "I'm very passionate about being the head coach here, and I'm passionate about the job. I think it's bigger than basketball.”

While at Southern Miss, McNelis was responsible for recruiting. Several of her classes were ranked in the Top 10 nationally. She also had a hand in recruiting Janice Felder, a 1994 Kodak All-American and the most decorated Lady Eagle in the program’s history.

Prior to accepting the Southern Miss position, McNelis spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Southwest Texas State University, where she served as recruiting coordinator and was co-director of the summer basketball camp.

McNelis’ accomplishments do not end with basketball. While at Memphis, she became one of Memphis’ most informative and motivational speakers. She served as chairman for the 1997 and 1998 March of Dimes Walk America, which reached an all-time high in charitable donations.

McNelis also helped raise money for LeBonheur Children’s Medical Center, as well as conducted clinics throughout the city of Memphis. She was honored by the Kiwanis Club with the George F. Hixon Fellowship Award.

Community involvement does not stop with McNelis, as she believes it is important for her players to be active in the community as well. During the 2005-06 season, McNelis and her Lady Eagles performed more community service than any of the other athletic teams, receiving the Southern Miss Athletic Department’s Community Service Award.

Following Hurricane Katrina, McNelis delivered supplies and goods to the people in her community of Leetown. Other community service projects include the Extraordinary Eagles, honoring elementary and middle school students at two of the Lady Eagles basketball games for academic achievement. The Lady Eagles and coaches worked as “celebrity waitresses” at Chesterfield’s Restaurant to raise money for breast cancer.

McNelis stepped out the box and went back to her roots of being a cowgirl, as she rode a mechanical bull that raised in excess of $7,000 for the Hattiesburg’s Salvation Army Boys and Girls Club. Her team had numerous speaking engagements at the local elementary and middle schools about the benefits of staying in school. McNelis, her staff and players also held several free clinics for faculty and staff children as well as Upward Basketball.

She was a four-year starter for the Lady Eagles from 1980-84, helping the program post a 73-28 record. She helped Southern Miss advance to postseason play for the first time in 1981, when the Lady Eagles advanced to the second round of the AIAW Region Tournament. McNelis ranks among the top 10 leaders in seven statistical categories, including eighth in all-time scoring with 1,512 points, eighth in scoring average (14.0 ppg), field goals made and attempted, free throws made and attempted and free throw percentage. She had an outstanding career, represented by her induction into the Southern Miss Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.

She was a four-year letterwinner in basketball at Hancock North Central High School. Her teams went to the state tournament four-straight years and twice won state titles. She still reigns as the school’s all-time leading scorer.

On April 19, 1993, McNelis’ high school jersey No. 14 was retired, along with Minnesota Viking quarterback Brett Favre. That day was declared Joye Lee-McNelis-Brett Favre Day by Hancock County.

McNelis is married to Dennis McNelis, and the couple has two children, Whitney (21) a senior in the school of nursing and Connor (17).

NEWS & NOTES

THE LAST COURT APPEARANCE

GREENVILLE, N. C. – Jamierra Faulkner and Tanecka Carey combined for 38 points but it wasn't enough as Southern Miss fell to East Carolina in the final regular season game, 70-57, snapping a three game winning streak.

Faulkner led all scorers with a game-high 22 points for the Lady Eagles while Carey added 16 and Sedreka Plummer chipped in 10 points off the bench. Faulkner also led the team with nine rebounds, six assists and six steals.

Britny Edwards led the ECU with 17 points followed by Chareya Smith 15 and Kristine Mial added 11. Celeste Stewart was the top rebounder with nine rebounds.

East Carolina put the first points on the board before Southern Miss used an 8-0 run for the 8-2 lead as Faulkner scored six of the eight points. Celeste Stewart connected on a short jumper to make it 8-4. Both teams hit a cold spell for a short three minute span before Faulkner and Chareya Smith traded baskets for each team before the Pirates used a 14-2 run in taking a 22-14 lead at the 9:00 mark in the half and never looking back.

USM was able to get the Pirates lead down to five, 24-19, before the home team scored nine unanswered points for a double digit lead. Mial started the run with a three-pointer followed by Edwards three-point play. Mial then capped off the run with another three-ball. Faulkner then hit a basket and converted one-of-two from the line to get within 36-24 before ECU scored the final seven points to enjoy a 43-24 half time lead.

Southern Miss scored the first five points to start the second half, but just as quick East Carolina countered with five straight points from Janesha Ebron. East Caroline maintained a sizable margin in the second half as the Pirates built a 20-point by the first media timeout. Plummer scored two quick baskets from Faulkner for the 52-35 score.

The teams traded baskets before Faulkner hit a free and Carey followed with a three-pointer to get the lead down to 15 points (56-41). ECU eventually pushed its lead to 22 points (70-48) with 3:12 remaining before Southern Miss closed out the game with a 9-0 run.

ECU held the rebounding edge, 47-42 and outscored the Lady Eagles, 15-8 in second chance points. The Pirates got a big boost from the bench as ECU scored 32 points from four players.

SOUTHERN MISS SET FOR ITS 16TH C-USA TOURNAMENT

Since the inception of the Conference USA tournament in 1996, this will be the 16th time the Lady Eagles have participated in the event (they did not qualify in 2004). Southern Miss has posted a 9-15 record. The program enjoyed its most success in this event in 2009, reaching the championship game before falling to UCF 65-54 in overtime. Lady Eagles Eagles reached the semifinals in 2008. Here is a list of the all-time results:

NOT MUCH EXPERIENCE

Southern Miss players don't have a lot of experience when it comes to playing in the C-USA Tournament. Only three players on the roster have played in a game. Jamierra Faulkner and Niesha Pierce combined for 61 minutes last year. Danielle Johnson, who is out for the season with stress fractures, has played 55 minutes in two games and will not be available. The Lady Eagles might have the least experience of any team in the tournament.

CLOSE WINS IN THE EVENT

Of the nine Southern Miss victories in the C-USA Tournament, five have been won by four or fewer points. The Lady Eagles have won four of their nine games in the last four seasons.

MORE C-USA TOURNEY NOTES

- The Lady Eagles have played two overtime contests in the event and lost both including the 2009 championship game.
- Southern Miss has posted a 2-1 record against schools who have hosted the event. Memphis will be on the other side of the bracket and would not meet until the championship game.
- This will be the second time in the event that the Lady Eagles will be the ninth seed in the tournament. Southern Miss was No. 9 in 2001.
- Southern Miss has yet to be a No. 1 seed in the C-USA Tournament. They Lady Eagles have been seeded anywhere from No. 2 through No. 12.

CAREY NAMED C-USA NEWCOMER OF THE YEAR

Junior Tanecka Carey was named the Conference USA Newcomer of the Year. Carey arrived on campus from Jones County Junior College and made an instant impact. The 5-9 guard from Jackson, Miss., ranked fifth in the league with a 15.2 point per game average and seventh in 3-point shooting, hitting .323.

TRIO OF LADY EAGLES HONORED

Three Lady Eagles earned All-Conference honors, sophomore Jamierra Faulkner, junior Tanecka Carey and Nitesha Pierce. Faulkner and Carey were named to the All-Conference first and second team, respectively, while Pierce earned All-Frehman honors.

TWO LADY EAGLES HONORED BY MADNESS

College Sports Madness announced its C-USA Women's Basketball All-Conference Teams and two Lady Eagles received the honor. Jamierra Faulkner earned first team honors while Tanecka Carey was named to the fourth team.

FAULKNER JUST MISSES

Jamierra Faulkner just missed a double-double (points-rebounds) when she scored 22 points and grabbed nine rebounds against East Carolina (3/3). The nine rebounds tied a career-high.

URBANOWSKA TO THE RESCUE

It was fitting on Senior Day that the lone senior scored the game winning basket in the 55-53 win over UAB. Ewa Urbanowska entered the game to shoot free throws for an injured Nitesha Pierce. However, she missed the free throws but Niesha Pierce rebounded the second miss, took a shot that came up short and Urbanowska grabbed the miss and scored the basket with 1.4 seconds remaining for the win.

FANTASTIC FEBRUARY

Southern Miss boasted a 6-1 record in the month of February after a treacherous January (0-8).

PLUMMER HITS CAREER HIGH

Junior Sedreka Plummer scored a career-high 20 points against Marshall (2/23). This is the first 20-point production for Plummer. She was one rebound shy of a double-double.

COMBACK KIDS

Southern Miss came back from a 16-point deficit in the second half against Tulane to record a win. That is the largest deficit this season prior to the Tulane game was an 11-point deficit against Memphis (2/2). Against UAB, the Lady Eagles trailed by 14 in the first half before making a run late in the second half to record the 55-53 win. Last season, the Lady Eagles had to overcome a 17-point first half deficit for a win. Over the past five seasons, the largest deficit USM has had to overcome was 19 points against Houston in the semi-finals of the C-USA Tournament in 2008. However, it was not the largest deficit a USM team had to overcome. The Lady Eagles battled back from a 20-point deficit to win against South Alabama on Feb. 13, 1984.

A SEASON LOW

Southern Miss finished the game with only 11 turnovers against UCF, it's lowest season total this year. It's only the seventh time that USM has had less than 20 turnovers in a game.

PUTTING UP SOME SHOTS

The Lady Eagles shot a season-high tying 74 field goal attempts against UCF. The last time USM attempted that many shots was against Florida A&M (11/29). It marked the fourth time this season that the Lady Eagles attempted 70 or more field goals.

FAULKNER EARNS NETSCOUTS BASKETBALL MID-MAJOR HONOREE

Sophomore guard Jamierra Faulkner earned NetScouts Basketball Conference Player of the Week for her performance following the SMU game.

JAMIERRA FAULKNER GARNERS PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS

Sophomore point guard Jamierra Faulkner was named Conference USA Player of the Week following her performance at SMU. Faulkner scored a career-high 28 points as she shot an incredible 83.3 percent (10-of-12) from the field, including 2-of-3 from behind the arc. The nation's second-best distributor of the ball also dished out six assists and came up with six steals in the Lady Eagles' 74-67 road win. She also connected on 6-of-8 from the free throw line. This is her first career Player of the Week honor after being named C-USA Freshman of the week three times last season.

A SEASON HIGH

Southern Miss connected on a season-high 20 free throws against SMU while also attempting a season-high 28. The Lady Eagles have attempted more free throws than their opponents in only eight games. USM also came up with a season-high 17 steals. Six of the eight players recorded at least one steal.

WONDER TWIN POWER

Nitesha and Niesha Pierce certainly had the wonder twin power working against SMU. Nitesha played all 20 minutes of the second half, scoring eight points to go with four rebounds. In 19 minutes of play, Niesha scored 13 points had three rebounds, two steals and two outstanding defensive plays in helping the Lady Eagles come away with a win.

NITESHA PIERCE HONORED

Redshirt freshman Nitesha Pierce garnered her first career honor when she was named Freshman of the Week following her performances against Memphis and East Carolina. Pierce finished the week averaging 12.0 points and 7.0 rebounds while shooting 71.4 percent (10-of-14) from the field and 66.7 percent from the line. Pierce just missed a double-double with 13 points and nine rebounds against Memphis. She followed that performance with 11 points and five rebounds and converted 5-of-8 shots against East Carolina. She also had three steals, two assists and drew a combined six charges between the two games.

that jumps out is the field goal percentage. Southern Miss connected on 41.7 percent of its shots while the opponents have hit just 34.3 percent from the field. Despite giving up 110 offensive rebounds and averaging 21.1 turnovers, the Lady Eagles have managed to find a way to win.

NEWS & NOTES

SHE CERTAINLY CAN DISH IT OUT

Sophomore Jamierra Faulkner is the only player in the league with more than two games with double figure assists. She has five games with 10 or more and 19 games with seven or more assists. She currently ranks fourth in the nation at 7.3 assists per game. In C-USA games, Faulkner also is dishing out 7.3 assists per outing.

CAREY MORE THAN A SHOOTER

Junior guard Tanecka Carey came into her first year at Southern Miss with a reputation as an exceptional shooter. She has not disappointed in that department as she leads the team with 64 made 3-point field goals. However, she also leads the team in rebounding at 5.9 boards per game and has dished out 61 assists and has 42 steals. Carey has been named Conference USA Player of the Week on one occasion this season.

QUITE THE TURNING POINT

Southern Miss trailed Memphis two points at the 12:29 mark in the second half when Tanecka Carey drained three-straight threes in a span of 1:19 to put the Lady Eagles up by seven and for good.

GLAD TO SEE JANUARY COME TO AN END

Southern Miss definitely was happy to have the month of January come to an end. The Lady Eagles failed to win a single game during the month for the first time in the history of the program after posting an 0-8 record.

40 BOARDS

After playing eight straight contests (1/5-1/29) in which the Lady Eagles were out-rebounded, Southern Miss won the battle 45-43 over Memphis. USM has gathered 40 rebounds in 12 games this season including a 55-rebound game to open the season. In the last six games, the Lady Eagles have managed to out rebound their opponents in three games, including a 49-36 battle over Marshall followed by 41-24 bout against UAB. USM has collected 40 or more rebounds in four of its last five games.

LOST LEAD

Southern Miss lost a 19-point lead to UAB on Jan. 29, its biggest blown lead in a game (it lost) since last season against Tulsa. The Lady Eagles could not sustain a 16-point lead - falling 74-71 on Jan. 16, 2011.

PAINT IS GOLD

Southern Miss is averaging 30.0 points in the paint in 29 games - but was averaging 32.8 in the first 13 contest of the year. Since starting conference play, production has gone down slightly as the Lady Eagles are averaging 27.7 points in league games. USM has matched or outscored its opponents in the paint 19 times including a 52 point out burst against Jacksonville State (11/25).

OFF TO THE RACES AND FINISHING STRONG

Southern Miss started the game against UAB (1/29) hitting its first 11 field goals. At one point in the half had connected on 12-of-13 shots. In the second half against Memphis (2/2), USM hit nine of its first 13 shots including three straight three-pointers and finished the game hitting its final six field goals. The Lady Eagles only missed six total shots in the second half.

SO CLOSE

Jamierra Faulkner came close to adding a triple double to her resume with 20 points, 11 assists and eight steals against UTEP (1/26). Only three players in Southern Miss' history have recorded a triple double.

REGULAR PICK POCKET

Jamierra Faulkner has turned into a regular pick-pocket. She has come up with at least three steals in 12 games this season including a career-high eight against UTEP (1/26). She had a seven-steal game against Houston (1/8) and six against SMU (2/12) and East Carolina (3/1).

SPUTTERING OFFENSE

While the Lady Eagles defense has held their opponents under 60 points 10 times this season, the Southern Miss offense has struggled as well. The Lady Eagles were held to 60 points or fewer 12 times this season including a stretch of six-straight games. USM recorded only two wins out of the 12 games. In six games this season, Southern Miss was held under 50 points.

NO SOPHOMORE JINX

Jamierra Faulkner has not suffered the effects of the dreaded 'sophomore jinx'. Faulkner has upped her game and numbers this season in every statistical category where it counts. Her point production is up as well as field goal percentage, three-point field goal percentage, free throw percentage, assists and steals. The biggest factor, the turnovers are down.

WEATHERING THE STORM

Since arriving at Southern Miss in 2004-05, Coach Joye Lee-McNelis has had to weather several seasons with injuries, suspensions and illness that have depleted her roster to small numbers. This season is no exception, as the Lady Eagles have only nine players available for games.

TURNOVERS HINDER LADY EAGLES

Turnovers have been a problem for Southern Miss on several occasions this season. The Lady Eagles are averaging 21.1 turnovers per game and have committed 20 or more turnovers 17 times in 26 games including a season-high 32 against Memphis (2/2).

FROM DOWNTOWN

Southern Miss saw its 3-point streak end at 28 games after going 0-of-6 at Rice (1/22). Last season, USM was 0-of-7 from behind the arc against SMU on Jan. 27, 2011.

A SEASON LOW IN A HALF

Southern Miss scored its lowest point total in a half this season with the 16 points scored against Memphis (1/19) and UAB (2/26). The previous low was 19 against UALR (12/3).

NOT GETTING TO THE LINE

Southern Miss has failed to get the line as often as its opponents. USM has made 468 trips to the free throw line and connected on only 294 attempts. USM's opponents have taken 575 attempts and converted 391, just 77 less than the Eagles' total attempts.

WHO GETS THE STARTING NOD

Coach Joye Lee-McNelis has used nine different lineups this season. Of the nine available players, all have started at least one game.

NIESHA PIERCE POSTS SEASON HIGH

Sophomore guard Niesha Pierce scored a season-high 16 points in the loss against UCF. She connected on 4-of-8 from behind the arc.

CAREY ADDS DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Junior guard Tanecka Carey added another double-double to run her total to three on the year with 11 points and 11 rebounds against Marshall (1/11). The 11 rebounds tie a season-high.

FAULKNER GETS ANOTHER DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Sophomore point guard Jamierra Faulkner added yet another double-double to her list. Faulkner tallied 13 points and handed out 10 assists. She is the only player in Conference USA with a game with 10 or more assists.

IT'S BEEN THAT LONG

Junior guard Tanecka Carey failed to score any points for the first time in her collegiate career and that includes the two seasons she played at Jones County Junior College.

NOT WHAT YOU WANT

Southern Miss recorded its lowest shooting percentage with the 28.6 percent against Houston (1/8). It marked the first time this season that the Lady Eagles did not shoot over 30 percent from the field.

MAKING A MOVE IN CAREER STATS

Jamierra Faulkner has inched her way into the top 10 in career assists with 376, passing Kristin Chaney and tying Andrea Barber. She also is in the top 20 in steals with 156. Faulkner has found her way in several other career categories, scoring average (14.4), free throws made and attempted. Tanecka Carey ranks in the top 15 in three-pointers made, attempted and 3-pt. field goal percentage in only 29 games played in her career.

LOGGING IN THE MINUTES

Guards Jamierra Faulkner and Tanecka Carey certainly have logged in the minutes. The duo has combined for 2,073 minutes. Carey has played 35 or more minutes in 27 games including eight 40-minute games while Faulkner has played at least 22 games with 34 or more minutes and nine 40-minute games.

THIS AND THAT

Southern Miss has several individuals ranked among the nation's leaders in the current NCAA national statistical categories. Tanecka Carey ranks 134th in scoring, 70th in 3-point field goal percentage and 97th in three-point field goals made while Jamierra Faulkner ranks fourth the nation in assists, is 18th in steals and 73rd in scoring. Faulkner is the one of two players in the league with double-figure assist games. Faulkner leads with five. Carey and Faulkner are two of five players with seven or more 20-point games in the league. Faulkner missed her first game of her Southern Miss career with an ankle injury while Danielle Johnson will miss the remainder of the season because of stress fractures in her ankle. Faulkner did not make the trip to UCF (1/15) due to personal reasons.

NITESHA PIERCE HAS CAREER

Redshirt freshman Nitesha Pierce turned in a career night as she scored a career-high 22 points on 10-of-15 shooting from the field. She also recorded her second double-double with a team-high 10 rebounds.

CONFERENCE OPENERS

Over the past 17 seasons, Southern Miss has opened Conference USA play at home nine times and on the road eight times. The Lady Eagles own an overall record of 7-10 in C-USA openers including a 4-5 record at home and 3-5 on the road. USM has opened play against Tulane eight times, UCF four times, UAB, East Carolina, Tulsa and former members Charlotte and TCU once.

FAULKNER EARNS ALL-TOURNAMENT HONORS

Sophomore point guard Jamierra Faulkner was named to the Lady Griz Holiday Classic all-tournament team following her two-game performance. Faulkner finished the tournament averaging 18.0 points, 8.5 assists and 3.5 steals per game. She recorded her second double-double of the season with 13 points and 10 assists against Montana and followed with a team-high 23 points and seven assists against Idaho. Faulkner scored the final four points for USM to help seal a one-point victory.

CAREY HAS CAREER NIGHT

Junior guard Tanecka Carey pulled down a career-high 11 rebounds to go with 19 points against Montana in recording her second double-double of the season.

MILLER TURNS IN CAREER NIGHT

Freshman Wendy Miller turned in a career night, scoring eight points on 4-of-4 shooting. She also pulled down a career-high seven rebounds. Miller has started three games this season including the last two.

MORE CAREY RECOGNITION

College Sports Madness has named Southern Miss guard Tanecka Carey C-USA Women's Basketball Player of the Week for her exceptional performance during the past week (12/20-25). The Madness identifies the highest impact players nationally and one from each conference in our weekly feature.

CAREY HONORED

Junior Tanecka Carey earned her first Conference USA Player of the Week honor following her two-game performances. Carey averaged 23.5 points and 8.0 rebounds per game. She also posted back-to-back 20-point performances with a 21-point outing against Mississippi State and a career-high 26 points against South Alabama. She led the team with nine rebounds against State and was a perfect 9-for-9 from the free throw line. She shot 81.3 percent (13-16) from the line and 44.1 percent (15-34) from the field for the week. She hit all four attempted foul shots in the final 31 seconds to seal the win against South Alabama.

SEASON HIGHS FOR SOME

Ance Celmina and Niesha Pierce posted season-high totals in points against Mississippi State (12/16). Celmina tallied 11 points while Niesha Pierce scored 13 points.

IT WAS A BLOCK PARTY

Ance Celmina and Sedreka Plummer combined for nine blocks against ULM (12/10). The last time a Southern Miss team recorded seven or more blocks was Feb. 28, 2009 against Memphis when USM posted seven blocks. Five different players recorded a block against Memphis (2/2) as the team finished with eight blocks.

FLETCHER HAS CAREER DAY

Freshman Hannah Fletcher turned in a career day against ULM (12/10) scoring 10 points on 4-of-5 shooting from the field including 2-of-3 from behind the arc. She also collected five rebounds.

FAULKNER REGISTERS FIRST DOUBLE-DOUBLE

Guard Jamierra Faulkner collected her first double-double of the season when she scored 15 points and handed out 10 assists against FAMU (11/29). That double-double runs her career total to five and her double-digit assists games to seven.

SISTER ACT

The William Carey game was the first time sisters Nitesha and Niesha Pierce played together on the court since signing with the Lady Eagles in the fall of 2009.

Nitesha started at forward while Niesha started at guard. It also marks the first time sisters started in the same lineup since Rose and Wilhelmina Smith did so on Jan. 8, 1982 against Memphis. So far this season the twins have played in all eight games and have started seven contests apiece. Last season was the first time the two did not play together since starting their careers as Nitesha sat out recovering from a torn ACL she suffered in an all-star game in the spring of 2010. Niesha played in 28 games and started 17 contests last year.

MCNELIS REACHES MILESTONE; EARNS 100TH WIN AT SOUTHERN MISS

Coach Joye Lee-McNelis entered the season needing only two victories to reach the 100-win plateau at Southern Miss. With the 72-58 win over Jacksonville State, McNelis is now 104-129 at her Alma mater.

ALL-TOURNAMENT HONORS

Tanecka Carey and Jamierra Faulkner earned all-tournament accolades following their respective performances. Carey finished the tournament averaging 21.5 points and 7.0 rebounds. She recorded a double-double against SFA. Faulkner averaged 15.5 points, 2.5 rebounds, 8.50 assists and 5.0 steals.

DOUBLE-DOWN

Nitesha Pierce and Tanecka Carey registered double-doubles in the Lady Eagle Classic. Pierce scored 16 points and pulled down 11 rebounds against Jacksonville State while Carey pumped in 21 points and grabbed 10 rebounds against SFA.

THE CLASSIC HISTORY

Southern Miss played its 23rd Lady Eagle Classic. Southern Miss now owns a 37-9 overall record in the Classic after losing in the championship game to Stephen F. Austin, 66-65. Last season, the Lady Eagles lost to No. 9 Kentucky in the championship game. The team defeated Louisiana-Lafayette in overtime in the opening game. In 2009, the Lady Eagles lost to No. 14/19 Georgia in the championship game. The Lady Eagles defeated Jackson State, 89-62, in their opening game. Southern Miss lost in the finals against Michigan (61-51) in 2008. The Lady Eagles won their 15th Classic in 2007, defeating Austin Peay, 76-65. The Eagles defeated North Florida, 80-44, to advance to the championship game. In 2006, the Lady Eagles defeated Eastern Kentucky, 81-76. In 2005, Southern Miss lost in the championship game to Northwestern State, 85-75. In 2004, Southern Miss failed to win a game in the Classic, going 0-2 with losses to Columbia (48-41), and then lost to American (66-56) in the consolation game. The Lady Eagles won their 13th Classic title with a 64-58 win over Texas A&M-Corpus Christi 2003. The first Classic was played Dec. 10-11, 1982. The Lady Eagles defeated Mercer University, 101-90, in the first Classic final. The Classic was not played again until 1988, when Southern Miss defeated Alabama, 84-79, in overtime. In 1989, USM went 2-0 with wins against UCF and Chattanooga. The Classic resumed in 1992 after a two-year absence. The Golden Eagles faced Chattanooga in the finals, winning 75-70. Southern Miss has lost four championship games. In 1995, nationally-ranked Ole Miss defeated the Eagles in overtime; in 1998, the Eagles lost to Florida International, and in 2005 lost to Northwestern State. In 1999, Southern Miss defeated UT-Martin, 81-65, in the championship game, followed by a 61-48 win over Appalachian State in 2001. In 2002, the Lady Eagles defeated Birmingham Southern 76-42.

CAREY RECEIVES RECOGNITION

College Sports Madness has named Southern Mississippi's Tanecka Carey C-USA Women's Basketball Player of the Week for her exceptional performance in the past weeks games. The Madness identifies the highest impact players nationally and one from each conference in our weekly feature.

FAULKNER SHINES IN FIRST GAME BACK

Sophomore point guard Jamierra Faulkner turned in an outstanding performance in her first game, scoring a team-high 21 points to go with five assists. Faulkner, who missed the season-opener with an ankle injury, played 35 minutes. That was the first missed game of her career.

GETTING THE RUST OFF

Redshirt freshman Nitesha Pierce appeared to have gotten some of the rust off her game as she scored 11 points off the bench and grabbed eight rebounds. Pierce missed all of last season recovering from an ACL tear she suffered in the Mississippi/Alabama All-Star game in 2010.

NEWS & NOTES

LADY EAGLES AGAINST RANKED TEAMS

Southern Miss is 16-35 all-time against ranked teams dating back to the 1988-89 season. The last time a Southern Miss team defeated a ranked team was Feb. 27, 2000 against then No. 18/20 Tulane. The highest ranked team Southern Miss had defeated was No. 10/10 Texas Tech in 1995-96. Last season, the Lady Eagles faced three ranked teams (No. 9/9 Kentucky; No. 17/18 Georgia, No. 18/18 St. John's) and lost all three games.

LADY EAGLE DEBUTS

Six Lady Eagles donned the Black and Gold for the first time. Tanecka Carey made her official Southern Miss debut quite memorable as she scored a game-high 25 points while dishing out seven assists. Ance Celmina scored only six points but pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds. Also making an official debut was redshirt freshman Nitesha Pierce. Pierce hauled in seven rebounds to go with as assist and a steal. Sedreka Plummer, Hannah Fletcher and Wendy Miller all played double-digit minutes in the season opener. Plummer came off the bench to score six points and grab eight rebounds while Fletcher scored two points and had two rebounds. Miller did not score but collected four rebounds, had two assists, two blocks and three steals in 18 minutes of play.

SEASON OPENERS

Southern Miss tipped off its 37th year of women's basketball. The Lady Eagles have opened the season at home 20 times in the last 37 years and 17 times on the road that includes seven games at neutral sites. The Lady Eagles are 14-6 in home openers and 10-7 in games played on the road or at neutral sites. Southern Miss owns a 24-13 record in opening games. The Lady Eagles have opened regular play against William Carey once prior to this season, in 1988, with a win.

BEST SOUTHERN MISS DEBUTS

Looking back over the past 37 years of Lady Eagle Basketball it appears that Tanecka Carey turned in the top scoring performance in a Southern Miss debut when she poured in 25 points. Here is a look at the top scoring performance for a first-time Lady Eagles:

2011-12 Tanecka Carey	25 points
2007-08 Pauline Love	24 points
1977-78 Nancy Faulk	23 points
1981-82 Portland McCaskill	23 points
1994-95 Brandy Reed	22 points
1977-78 Shirley Jones	21 points
1986-87 Renee Magee	21 points
2010-11 Jamierra Faulkner	20 points

EXHIBITION HIGHLIGHTS

Ten of the 11 players were available for action in the exhibition game against West Alabama. All but three put points on the board and eight played 12 or more minutes. Newcomer Tanecka Carey led the way with a team-high 18 points in leading four players in double figures for the Lady Eagles. Jamierra Faulkner scored 14 points and handed out six assists while Rachel Vigers recorded a double-double with 12 points and 13 rebounds. Niesha Pierce came off the bench and chipped in 10 points.

The Golden Eagles hauled in 50 rebounds in the contest as all but one player grabbed at least one rebound.

SOUTHERN MISS PICKED NINTH

Southern Miss was voted to finish ninth in the Women's Basketball Coaches' Preseason Poll released Oct. 6.

Memphis was chosen as the preseason favorite to win the 2011-12 women's basketball regular season title. The Lady Tigers received seven first-place votes (coaches cannot vote for their own team).

UCF (1), winner of the 2011 Buick Conference USA Women's Basketball Championship, was picked third behind Rice who received three first-place votes.

Rounding out the top four was Tulane (1).

VIGERS PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE USA

Southern Miss' Rachel Vigers was named to the Preseason All-Conference USA Women's Basketball Team, announced Oct. 6.

It was Vigers first time on the preseason team voted by the league's coaches. Coaches are not allowed to vote for their own players.

Memphis' Brittany Carter and Jasmine Lee, Houston's Porsche Landry, Rice's Jessica Kuster, SMU's Christine Elliott, UCF's Aisha Patrick and UTEP's Gloria Brown joined Vigers on the Preseason All-Conference USA Team.

Memphis' Carter was tabbed the Preseason Player of the Year.

WHERE ARE THEY FROM

The 2011-12 roster features players from four different states and two foreign countries. Three players are from the state of Mississippi and Louisiana, two from Florida and one from Alabama. The Lady Eagles have two foreign players on the roster for the second straight year, hailing from Latvia and Poland.

LADY EAGLES INKS FOUR DURING EARLY SIGNING

Southern Miss women's coach Joye Lee-McNelis announce the signing of Samirah Ali of Hazel Crest, Ill., Ateira Berry of Hattiesburg, Miss., Jerontay Clemons of Coldwater, Miss., and Tiarra Pollnitz of Birmingham, Ala., to national letters of intent and grant-in-aid scholarships for the 2012-13 academic year.

Ali, a 5-foot-2, guard, averaged 9.3 points, 3.8 rebounds, 4.3 assists and 3.8 steals as a junior and helped Hillcrest High School to second in Illinois Class 3A for the second straight season. She was named all-tournament at Music City Madness, where she played last summer with the Illinois Lady Lightning.

Berry, a 6-foot-3 center, is currently averaging a double-double with 17.0 points, 10.0 rebounds and 9.0 blocks per game while shooting 67-percent from the field at Oak Grove High School for coach Mark Swindle. As a junior, she averaged 12.0 points, 11.0 rebounds and 6.0 blocks per game. She shot 56-percent from the field. She earned all-district and all-area honors. Berry has been tabbed as one of Mississippi's Top 40 Seniors to Watch by the Clarion Ledger. She played two seasons at North Forrest High School where she averaged 6.6 points a sophomore.

Clemons, a 5-foot-8, guard, averaged 25.7 points, 10.0 rebounds, 5.0 assists and 4.0 steals per game for Coach Wert Spiva at Coldwater High School. She earned all-state accolades from 2009 to 2011 while earning all-division and region honors from 2008 to 2011. She earned division MVP the past two seasons.

Pollnitz, a 5-foot-9 guard, averaged 15.0 points, 7.4 assists, 4.4 rebounds and 3.4 steals per game for Coach Tonya Hunter at Shades Valley High School. She has earned numerous all-tournament teams honors over the past three seasons. She was selected for the Alabama High School Athletic Association North vs. South Game. She also earned first team all-metro accolades.
