• A herd of Mustangs appear on pre-season Award Watch Lists. Kyle Padron was named to the Davey O'Brien and Manning Award Watch Lists. Kelvin Beachum, Ja'Gared Davis, Taylor Reed and Taylor Thompson were named to the Watch List for the Lombardi Award. Beachum was been named to the Outland List, Thompson made the Nagurski Award List, Cole Beasley and Darius Johnson were named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List, Zach Line was named to the Watch List for the Maxwell and Doak Walker Awards, Thompson And Margus Hunt were selected to the Pony Express Award Watch List and Blake McJunkin was named to the Rimington Trophy Watch List.

• Mustangs Kelvin Beachum, Ja'Gared Davis, Zach Line and Taylor Thompson have been named preseason All-Conference USA by the league's coaches.

• For the first time in school history, every SMU game will be televised in 2011. Eight games will air on Fox Sports, two on CBS Sports and two on Time Warner's Texas Channel.

• Located in the nation's fifth-largest media market, SMU boasts an impressive resume with 138 Conference Championships, 147 NCAA Top-10 Finishes, eight NCAA Team Championships (three in football), hundreds of All-Americans and one Heisman Trophy Winner and has won its conference's Director's Cup in 11 out of past 14 years.

• SMU is one of just two schools with former National Coaches of the Year at the helm of its football and basketball programs (June Jones & Matt Doherty).

• Since 2006, attendance at SMU home football games has increased 52 percent.

ABOUT THE AGGIES

• The Aggies enter the season ranked in the top 10 for the first time since 1999, led by a high-powered offense. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill has just six career starts under his belt, but has won five of them. Tannehill can hand off to backs Cyrus Gray or Christine Michael or throw to a talented receiving corps that includes Jeff Fuller, Ryan Swope and Uzoma Nwachukwu.

THE SERIES

• SMU and A&M, former Southwest Conference foes, have met 77 times, with the Aggies holding a 41-29-7 series edge. The two teams have met just once since the SWC closed up shop in 1995, and SMU has not defeated A&M since 1984 (SMU 28, A&M 20). SMU did manage a 21-21 tie against then-No. 7 A&M in 1994 in the Alamodome in San Antonio. The two teams are scheduled to meet again in Dallas in 2012.

THE COACHES

• June Jones is in his fourth season at the SMU helm. His SMU record is 16-23 and his career mark is now 92-64. Jones has led SMU to back-to-back Conference USA Western Division Championships and bowl berths. Jones went 76-41 in nine seasons at Hawaii, leading the Warriors to the All-State Sugar Bowl following the 2007 season. Prior to heading to Hawaii, Jones had a 12-year coaching career in the NFL, including head coaching stops at Atlanta and San Diego.

• Mike Sherman enters his fourth season as Aggie head coach and is 19-19 in his tenure. He previously served as head coach of the Green Bay Packers for six seasons (2000-05).

LAST TIME VS. THE AGGIES

Reggie McNeal set a school record with 449 total yards, throwing for 349 yards and running for 100 to lead Texas A&M to a 66-8 win over SMU on Sept. 17, 2005, in College Station.

The Aggies led 24-8 at halftime and scored on six consecutive possessions in the second half to stretch the lead.

Texas A&M took advantage of four SMU turnovers, a struggling running game and consistently poor tackling, which turned several short passes into big gains.

SMU's only touchdown came at the end of the first quarter when Jerad Romo found Bobby Chase down the sideline for a 67-yard score on third-and-19. The extra point failed, and the Aggies maintained their lead.

LINE-BACKER?

Junior running back Zach Line was recruited to SMU as a linebacker, but the Michigan native found his role in the team's backfield.

The preseason Maxwell and Doak Walker Award Watch List member was named first-team All-Conference USA in 2010 after rushing for 1,494 yards, the second-largest single-season total in school history, (Eric Dickerson 1,617 yards in 1982) and the 11th-best total in the country. On the year, Line averaged 6.1 yards per carry and scored 10 touchdowns.

As a high school senior, Line held no FBS offers. That's when Bill Keenist, the Detroit Lions' senior VP of communications, decided to help. Keenist's son had played with Line at Oxford High School, and Keenist sent a DVD of Line's exploits to June Jones, a former coach for the Lions.

Jones saw what he thought was a capable linebacker and recruited Line to SMU. But once Jones and the staff started slotting guys into positions, they moved Line to running back and it's safe to say he's there to stay.

A BIG SHOT OF PADRON

Entering the season with a little over 1 1/2 seasons under center, quarterback Kyle Padron has taken the reigns of SMU's Run & Shoot and etched his name in the school record books. Entering 2011, Padron is on the Watch Lists for both the Davey O'Brien and Manning Award.

In 2010, Padron notched SMU records in passing yards (3,828), total yards (4,072), touchdowns (31), completions (302) and attempts (508) and holds the current mark for career completion percentage.

The junior signal caller arrived at SMU with limited game experience, having started just five games in high school due to a broken hand, but has quickly made his case to be considered among the best in college football.

THE GOON SQUAD

In the spring of 2010, a couple of SMU's offensive linemen decided that they needed to brand themselves. They came up with "The Goon Squad."

According to the dictionary, goon is defined as a "hired hoodlum or thug" or an awkward person, but what the linemen were going for had more to do with playing with intensity, or the "seven seconds of violence" preached by Adrian Klemm, SMU's line coach who won three Super Bowls with the New England Patriots.

The Goons have specific goon-names. Left tackle Kelvin Beachum is the "Goonologist," because he's considered more analytical. Right tackle J.T. Brooks is "Goonzilla" because he's the biggest. The interior linemen are known as "The Belly of the Beast."

The Goons have grown up together, with most starting since 2009. All told, SMU's line has 158 starts between them - most in the nation for an O-Line.

THE RED CARPET

With the arrival of June Jones, SMU may need to install a red carpet in the Mustang locker room as SMU has become "the place to be" in Dallas. Among the celebrities, Mustang legends, pros and former pros that have attended practice or stopped by the stadium are: Roger Staubach, Troy Aikman, Daryl "Moose" Johnston, Terrell Owens, Jeff George, Reggie Dupard, Eric Dickerson, Craig James, Jerry Ball, Devin Hester and Deion Sanders.

Former President George W. Bush has even visited SMU football practice. Bush was joined by SMU President R. Gerald Turner and the former President addressed the players after the practice session.

Coach June Jones had given the 43rd President a practice schedule and asked him to stop by when he could. Mr. Bush watched about an hour of drills and even put on a red SMU hat for part of his stay.

Jones later Tweeted, "(The President) talked to the guys and told them he will be supporting SMU and Dallas for the years to come."

COLE'S LAW

Senior wide receiver Cole Beasley has "laid down the law" of sorts and has made himself one of SMU's top offensive threats.

In 2010, the Biletnikoff Award Watch List member became just the fifth player in school history to notch a 1,000-yard season (1,060 - fourth all-time at SMU). He earned second-team All-C-USA honors, catching 87 passes - the second-best single-season effort at SMU - and his 6.2 grabs-per-game average rated 23rd nationally.

He has 169 career catches and 1,919 career receiving yards, both of which rank in the top 10 on SMU's career lists.

TAYLORMADE CLUBS

SMU defenders Taylor Reed and Taylor Thompson have "clubbed" their fair share of opponents over the past two seasons.

Reed started all 14 games and was named All-Conference USA honorable mention in 2011. He posted 145 tackles (seventh highest total in the NCAA), averaging 10.4 tackles per game. The Beaumont, Texas, native posted double-digit tackle totals in seven games and enters 2011 on the Lombardi Award Watch List.

Thompson, a native of Prosper, Texas, started in all 14 games last season and was named All-Conference USA First Team. An anchor in SMU's 3-4 defense, he posted 32 tackles, 5.5 tackles-for-loss, 4.5 sacks and three QB hurries on the season. He has been tabbed pre-season All-C-USA and is on the Hendricks, Nagurski and Lombardi Award Watch Lists.

TRIBUTE 23

Prior to the 2009 season, head coach June Jones announced that a deserving student-athlete on the SMU football team would be chosen to wear the number "23" on his jersey throughout the season to honor Jerry LeVias for his contributions to America, the sport of football and SMU.

LeVias was the first African-American to receive an athletic scholarship in the Southwest Conference. At SMU, LeVias made athletic and academic All-America teams and, in 1966, contributed to the Mustangs' first SWC title in 18 years. He still holds an SMU record as a receiver with 213 yards in one game (N.C. State, 1968). He was a consensus All-American in 1968 and was chosen All-SWC in 1966, 1967 and 1968.

Safety Chris Banjo was awarded the number "23" for the 2009 season and has retained the honor ever since.

Banjo entered the 2010 season with a heavy heart, though, as his mother, Yinka, died of sickle cell anemia on June 5 at the age 45.

"She's not suffering anymore, she's not in pain," he says. "That's how I keep going. Now I know that she's finally going to get to see me play."

Banjo, a native of Sugar Land, Texas, responded in 2010, starring in the SMU secondary and earning second-team All-C-USA accolades.

THE EASTERN BLOCK

For SMU sophomore defensive end Margus Hunt, 2009 was his first year of playing football. His only previous football experience consisted of playing Madden NFL video games.

Hunt set a SMU single-season record and tied for second in NCAA history with seven blocked kicks (4 FG, 3 PAT) as a freshman.

Hunt made the first big play of his football career at TCU, blocking a Frog extra point try, and then tied an NCAA record by blocking two FG attempts in the ECU win. One of Hunt's blocks against the Pirates led to a 65-yard TD return. For his efforts, Hunt was awarded an ESPN Helmet Sticker and was named the C-USA Special Teams Player of the Week. He gained confidence and made an impact on defense at Houston, notching 1.5 sacks, and then blocked another PAT at Tulsa. He earned his second ESPN Helmet Sticker of the season following the Rice win, when he blocked another FG and PAT. His final block of the year came at the end of the first half of the UTEP win, blocking a Miner field goal try.

The honorable mention All-C-USA end started 2010 by blocking a field goal attempt at Texas Tech, blocked another in the Tulsa win and then blocked a PAT in the Armed Forces Bowl. He now has six career FG blocks, a mark which ranks third in NCAA history (record is eight), and 10 blocked kicks, which is a school record and rates sixth in NCAA history.

Hunt won gold medals in both the shot put and the discus at the 2006 World Junior Championships in Beijing, becoming the first athlete ever to win a shot/discus gold medal double. He still trains with Dave Wollman, SMU's world-renowned throwing coach, and hopes to represent Estonia in the Olympics in the future.

DJ HERO

No, not the video game... It's SMU's junior standout wide receiver Darius Johnson. Johnson was the hero of the Armed Forces Bowl, earning Team MVP honors after recording a season-high 152 receiving yards and a TD in 2010 season finale.

In all, the Biletnikoff Award Watch List member saw playing time in 13 games in 2010, notching 78 receptions for 845 yards and six touchdowns. He teamed with Cole Beasley to accumulate 165 receptions, setting a single-season tandem record.

SAC-MAN FEVER

Lombardi Award Watch List member and preseason All-Conference performer Ja'Gared Davis has been gobbling up opposing quarterbacks since his arrival on the Hilltop. Davis started 13 games in 2010 and saw action in all 14, notching nine sacks - the sixth-best season in SMU history. The Crockett, Texas, native was named first-team Conference USA and was tabbed a CollegeFootballNews.com honorable mention All-American. The junior linebacker totaled 90 tackles, including 62 solos, and 16 TFLs in 2010.

He also scored two TDs in 2011, returning a blocked field goal try 77 yards for a touchdown at Rice, and adding another TD on a 33-yard fumble return at ECU.

"SPECIAL" TEAMS

Special Teams have been a focus for SMU since the arrival of June Jones. Jones' first staff included coaching legend Frank Gansz, who was considered perhaps the top special teams coach in the history of the NFL. Gansz was starting his second season as special teams coach on the Hilltop when he passed away on April 27, 2009.

Following his passing, Dennis McKnight took over special teams prior to the 2009 campaign, switching from offensive line duties. McKnight played under Gansz near the end of his pro career and learned from Gansz's spring visits to Hawaii, where McKnight also coached special teams under Jones before coming to SMU. The special teams units responded, and in SMU's 8-5 breakout season, many of the school-record nine blocked kicks translated into game-winning or momentum-swinging plays.

Frank Gansz, Jr., was hired as SMU's new special teams coach in April. Gansz, Jr., is the son of Frank Gansz, Sr.

Gansz, Jr., was set to begin his fourth season in charge of special teams at UCLA before he got the call to come to the Hilltop. Gansz has an extensive background at the professional and collegiate levels. He was special teams coordinator for the Baltimore Ravens in 2006-07, and had the same role with the Kansas City Chiefs the previous five years. He also worked in the NFL with the Oakland Raiders and in college at Houston, Army, Pittsburgh and Kansas.

THE MUSTANG LEGEND

Legend has it that when Ford Motor Company was preparing to introduce the sports car that would gain fame as the Mustang, it was considering other names such as Cougar, Bronco, Cheetah and Colt.

But during the 1963 football season, SMU took an undersized but quick team to Ann Arbor to play a massive Michigan Wolverine squad. Michigan gained the early advantage, but had to fight off the feisty Ponies for a 27-16 win.

After the game, Ford's Lee Iacocca entered the SMU locker room and addressed the disappointed Mustangs.

"Today," Iacocca said, "After watching the SMU Mustangs play with such flair, we reached a decision. We will call our new car the Mustang. Because it will be light, like your team. It will be quick, like your team. And it will be sporty, like your team."

Ford's new car got its name, and the rest, as they say, is history.

NO DAY AT THE BEACH

Facing SMU senior tackle Kelvin Beachum is no day at the beach for opposing lineman. Beachum has started every game for the Mustangs since his arrival on the Hilltop in 2008 and is a two-time All-C-USA selection.

In 2011, Beachum blocked for an offense that totaled a school-record 3,861 passing yards and added 1,943 yards on the ground. The senior enters 2011 on the Watch Lists for the Outland and Lombardi Awards.

Off the field, he has served SMU's SAAC President, was one of 12 student-athletes to receive the fall C-USA Spirit of Service Award and is a nominee for the 2011 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team.

THE NFL CONNECTION

Five of SMU's 10 football coaches have either played or coached in the NFL - Head Coach June Jones and assistant coaches Frank Gansz, Jr., Joe Haering, Bert Hill and Adrian Klemm. It's an impressive roster, and, with 49 combined seasons of playing and coaching experience, one that ranks third among all FBS coaching staffs.

Total NFL Experience As a College Staff

1. Colorado ..... 63
2. Florida ..... 52
3. SMU ..... 49
4. USC ..... 48
5. New Mexico State ..... 42

In addition, two more assistants - Tom Mason and Jeff Reinebold - coached in NFL Europe and the Canadian Football League and offensive graduate assistant Carlos Barocio-Leon was a head coach in the European Leagues, winning two Eurobowl Titles (XIV & XV).

WWWE WWERE FIRST

SMU offers live video streaming of its home football games. While we're not the first school to do so, SMU has always been on the cutting edge of the world wide web. SMU partnered with Broadcast.com to broadcast the first college football game over the Internet on Sept. 2, 1995 (SMU 17, Arkansas 14).

PONY UPGRADE!

SMU made nearly $3 million in Ford Stadium improvements over the summer, including upgrades to the football locker room and team meeting rooms as well as a new playing surface.

The renovations include a new team meeting room with stadium-style seating as well as renovated positional meeting rooms. Changes to the locker room included the creation of a new team lounge, as well as new lockers, updated graphic and audio/visual equipment.

SMU also installed a state-of-the-art Mondoturf 3NX Thermo-bonded Fine Tuned Ecofill artificial turf system. The Mondoturf field is manufactured by Mondo, the global leader in the sports flooring market.

B-AQ, B-AQ, B-AQ, B-AQ, B-AQ

It's not a duck or Chris Berman's home run call, but rather SMU's goal - get Back to AQ status. SMU's future lies in a BCS-AQ conference. For all but 15 years of its' 100-year existence, SMU has competed in an AQ-like conference, and it is time to return to that level.

"We are pushing for it," SMU President R. Gerald Turner said. "We want the city to know we're pushing for it. We need as much help as possible, even from non-SMU alums... It's good for Dallas."

Dallas deserves a school in an automatic qualifying conference and a BCS team would be an economic engine.

"We're ready," said Orsini. "The college landscape is shifting. We're already a top academic institution and with the re-commitment of the university already in place, we can be a top athletics program nationally."
